An Act to repeal certain Duties on French Goods imported into Great Britain, and on Foreign Hides exported to France, and to grant other Duties on French Goods for imported. [27th May 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting certain additional Duties of Customs imported into and exported from Great Britain, new and additional Duties of Customs are payable on the Importation into Great Britain of Goods, Wares and Merchandise, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture of France, or of any Country, Place or Territory annexed to France, or under the Dominion of the Person or Persons exercising the Powers of Sovereignty in France, and also upon the Exportation from Great Britain to France, or to any such Country, Place or Territory, of Foreign Hides in the Hair, not tanned, tanned or in any way dressed; And Whereas it is expedient that the said new and additional Duties should be repealed, and other Duties granted in lieu of the first mentioned Duties; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the new and additional Temporary or War Duties payable by the said Act on the Importation into Great Britain of Goods, Wares and Merchandise, the Growth, Production or Manufacture of France, or of any Country, Place or Territory annexed to France, and upon the Exportation from Great Britain to France, or to any such Country, Place or Territory, of Foreign Hides in the Hair, not tanned, tanned or in any way dressed, do cease and determine, save and except in all cases relating to the removing and paying any Arrears thereof, which may remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture relating thereto, which shall have been incurred at any time before the said Tenth Day of May; and that from and after the said Day, in lieu and instead of the first mentioned Duties hereby repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Importation into Great Britain of Goods, Wares and Merchandise, the Growth, Production or Manufacture of France, or of any Country, Place or Territory annexed to or under the Dominion of France, the additional Duties of Customs, as the same are defined and set forth in the Table hereunto annexed, marked A.

II. And be it further enacted, That the new and additional Duties granted by this Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered and applied in the same manner, and under such Powers and Authorities, as are provided for the raising, levying, collecting, paying, recovering and applying the Duties granted by the said repealed Act on Goods, Wares and Merchandise enumerated or defined in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A. as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers and Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

An Act to allow Five Pice Verdicts to be returned to the High Court and Circuit Courts of Judicature in Scotland, in certain Cases; and for allowing Appeals to the Circuit Courts of Judicature, in Civil Cases, to a certain Amount.

[17th May 1814.]

WHEREAS by the Form of Proceeding in Trials for Crimes before the High Court and Circuit Courts of Judicature in Scotland, Verdicts of Juries must be prepared in Writing, and regularly entered in Presence of the Jurymen, by their Chancellor and Clerk, after the Jury are indicted, when Accused to the Court for Advice or Direction, or otherwise, is incompetent; And Whereas the Necessity of always delivering such Form is in many cases attended with an unnecessary Consumption of Time and Delay of Public Business; and by means of Mistakes in written Verdicts, guilty Persons sometimes escape Punishment, and the Ends of Justice are thereby defeated; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That notwithstanding any Law or Practice to the contrary, it shall hereafter be lawful for the said High Court of Judicature and Circuit Courts, and at the Discretion thereof respectively, to receive Verdicts from Juries by the Mouth of their Chancellors, when upon a Consultation in the Jury Box, the whole Jurymen are agreed thereon, although the said Verdicts be not contained in Writing nor prepared after the Jury shall have been indicted, and to cause the same to be taken down and recorded; and that in cases where Juries retire from the Presence of the Court, and are secluded in order to consider of and prepare their Verdicts, it shall also be lawful for the said High Court of Judicature and Circuit Courts, at the Discretion of the said Courts respectively, to receive such Verdicts by the Mouth of the Chancellors of the said Juries, in Presence of the Panel, although the Verdicts have not been made out in Writing; provided the whole Jurymen are agreed thereon, and provided the Judges are then sitting in Court, so that the Jury may immediately repair to the Presence of the Court, attended by an Officer or Officers thereof.

C. A. F. LXVIII.

An Act for the better Regulation of Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, and for the more easy Recovery of Church Rates and Tithes.

[17th June 1814.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that Ecclesiasticism, together with all Proceedings following thereupon, should in certain cases be discontinued, and that other Proceedings should be facilitated to law itself; and that certain other Regulations should be made in the Proceedings of the Ecclesiastical Courts; and that more convenient Modes of recovering Tithes and Church Rates, in certain cases, should be provided: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, Ecclesiasticism, together with all Proceedings following thereupon, shall in all cases, save those hereafter to be specified, be discontinued throughout that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland; and that in all Cases, which according to the Laws of the Realm are cognizable in the Ecclesiastical Courts, when any Person or Persons having been duly cited to appear in any Ecclesiastical Court, or required to comply with the lawful Orders or Decrees, as well final as interlocutory, of any such Court, shall neglect or refuse to appear, or neglect or refuse to pay Obedience to such lawful Orders or Decrees; or when any Person or Persons shall commit a Contempt in the Face of such Court, no Sentence of Ecclesiasticism shall be given or pronounced, saving in the particular cases hereafter to be specified; but without thereof it shall be lawful for the Judges or Judge who stand out the Cause, or whole lawful Orders or Decrees have not been obeyed, or before whom such Contempt in the Face of the Court shall have been committed, to pronounce such Person or Persons Contumacious and in Contempt, and within Ten Days to signify the same, in the Form in this Act accorded, to His Majesty in Chancery, as hath heretofore been done in signifying Ecclesiasticism; and thereupon a Writ de Contumacia Capitulis, in the Form in this Act accorded, shall issue from the Court of Chancery, directed to the same Persons to whom the Writ de Ecclesiasticism Capitulis have heretofore been directed; and the same shall be returnable in like manner as the Writ de Ecclesiasticism Capitulis hath been by Law returnable heretofore, and shall have the same Force and Effect as the said Writ; and all Rules and Regulations not hereby altered, now by Law applying to the said Writ, and the Proceedings following thereupon, shall extend and be applied to the said Writ de Contumacia Capitulis and the Proceedings following thereupon, as if the same were herein particularly repeated and enacted; and the proper Officers of the said Court of Chancery are hereby authorized and required to issue such Writ de Contumacia Capitulis accordingly; and all Sheriffs, Gaolers and other Officers, are hereby authorized and required to execute the same, by taking and detaining the Body of the Person against whom the said Writ shall be directed to be executed; and upon the due Appearance of the Party to cited and not having appeared as aforesaid, or the Obeyance of the Party to cited and not having obeyed as aforesaid, or the due Satisfaction of the Party to having committed a Contempt in the Face of the Court, the Judges or Judge of such Ecclesiastical Court shall pronounce such Party absolved from the Contumacy and Contempt aforesaid, and shall forthwith make an Order upon the Sheriff, Gaoler or other Officer in whose Custody he shall be, in the Form in this Act accorded, amount, for discharging such Party out of Custody; and such Sheriff, Caster or other Officer shall, as the said Order bring shewn to him, so soon as such Party shall have discharged the Costs lawfully incurred by reason of such Custody and Contempt, forthwith discharge him.

Ecclesiasticism, not in certain cases, discontinued.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Ecclesiastical Court from pronouncing or declaring Persons to be Excommunicate in definitive Sentences, or in interlocutory Decrees having the force and effect of definitive Sentences, such Sentences or Decrees being pronounced as Spiritual Censures for Offences of Ecclesiastical Cognizance, in the same manner as such Court might lawfully have pronounced or declared the same, had this Act not been passed.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be so pronounced or declared Excommunicate, shall incur any Civil Penalty or Incapacity whatever, in consequence of such Excommunication, save such Incapacity not exceeding Six Months as the Court pronouncing or declaring such Person Excommunicate, shall direct; and so such case the said Excommunication and the Term of such Incapacity shall be applied to His Majesty in Chancery, in the same manner as Excommunications have been heretofore applied; and thereupon the Writ de Excommunicato Capiendo shall issue, and the usual Proceeding shall be had, and the Party being taken into Custody shall remain therein for the Term so directed, or until he shall be satisfied by such Ecclesiastical Court.

IV. And Whereas in the Fifth Year of King George the Second, an Act was made and passed in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, intituled An Act for the more easy Recovery of Tithes, and after Ecclesiastical Dues of Small Value: which Act was at first temporary, but was by several subsequent Acts of Parliament in Ireland from time to time continued, and was at length made perpetual by an Act of Parliament made and passed in Ireland, in the Thirtieth and Thirtieth Years of the Rights of His present Majesty, whereby, amongst other things therein enacted, Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace are authorized and required to hear and determine Complaints concerning Tithes, Offerings, Ecclesiastical Dues or Compensations, subaltern or withdrawn, not exceeding Forty Shillings: And Whereas it has become expedient to enlarge such Amendment, and also to extend the said Act to all Tithes whatsoever, of a certain limited Amount: Be it enacted, That such Justices of the Peace shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be authorized and required to hear and determine all Complaints concerning Tithes, Offerings, Ecclesiastical Dues or Compensations, subaltern or withdrawn, where the same shall not exceed Ten Pounds in Amount from any One Person, in all such cases, and by all such means, and subject to all such Provisions and Remedies, by Appeal or otherwise, as contained in the said Act of King George the Second, concerning Tithes, Offerings, Ecclesiastical Dues or Compensations, not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always notwithstanding, that, from and after the passing of this Act, One Justice of the Peace shall be competent to receive the original Complaint, and to summon the Parties to appear before Two or more Justices of the Peace, as in the said Act is first made.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Action shall be brought for the Recovery of any Penalty for the not setting out of Tithes, nor any Suit instituted in any Court of Equity, or in any Ecclesiastical Court, to recover the Value of any Tithes, unless such Action shall be brought, or such Suit commenced within Six Years from the time when such Tithes became due.

VI. And Whereas in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, an Act was made and passed, in Ireland, intituled An Act to continue and amend an Act, passed in the Third Year of His Majesty's Rights, intitled An Act to amend and explain an Act, made in the Thirtieth third Year of the Reign of Henry the Eighth, intitled An Act for Tithes and for other Purposes therein mentioned; which Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty was at first temporary, but was afterwards from time to time continued by subsequent Acts of Parliament, and at length made perpetual by an Act passed in Ireland, in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for reviving and continuing several temporary Statutes that have lately expired, and for enacting others that are now expiring; by which said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, That where any Quaker shall refuse to pay, compound for or set out his Great or Small Tithes, or pay any Customary or other Rights or Dues belonging to any Church or Chapel, which by Law or Custom ought to be paid, Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace are authorized to hear and determine the same, not exceeding the Value of Ten Pounds: And Whereas it is become expedient to enlarge the said Sum: Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, touching Quakers, shall be deemed and taken to extend to any Value not exceeding Fifty Pounds: Provided always notwithstanding, that, from and after the passing of this Act, One Justice of the Peace shall be competent to receive the original Complaint, and to summon the Parties to appear before Two or more Justices of the Peace, as in the said Act is first made.

VII. And Whereas it is expedient that Church Rates or Parish Cesses of limited Amount should be refused or withheld, should in certain cases be more easily and speedily recovered: Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any one duly taxed to a Church Rate or Parish Cess, the Validity whereof has not been questioned in any Ecclesiastical Court, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same Sum at which he is bound, it shall and may be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace of the same County, County of a City or Town Corporate, where the Church is situated, in respect whereof such Rate or Parish Cess shall have been made, upon the Complaint of any Churchwarden or Churchwardens who ought to receive and collect the same, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, to compare before any Two or more of such Justice of the Peace, any Person in refusing or neglecting to pay such Rate or Parish Cess, and to examine on Oath (which Oath the said Justice are hereby empowered to administer) into the Merits of the said

Complaints,

Complain, and by Order under their Hands and Seals to deposit the Payment of what is due and payable in respect of such Rate or Cess, in as the Sum ordered and directed to be paid as aforesaid do not extend Ten Pounds over and above the reasonable Costs and Charges to be ascertained by such Justices; and upon Refusal or Neglect of such Party to pay according to such Order, it shall and may be lawful for any One of such Justices, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to levy the Money thereby ordered to be paid, together with the Amount of such Costs and Charges, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Offender, his Executors or Administrators, reserving only the Overplus to him or her, the necessary Charges of distressing being thereunto first debited and allowed by the said Justices; and any Person having him or herself aggrieved by any Judgment given by Two or more such Justices, may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions to be held for the County, County of a City or Town Corporate, wherein the Church is situated, in respect whereof such Rate or Cess shall have been made; and the Justices of the Peace then present, or the major Part of them, shall proceed finally to hear and determine the Matter, and to reverse the said Judgment if they shall for Cause; and if the Justices then present, or the major Part of them, shall find Cause to affirm the Judgment given by the first Two or more Justices, the same shall be executed by Order of Sessions, with Costs against the Appellant, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Party Appellant. Provided always, that in case any such Appeal be made as aforesaid, no Warrant of Distress shall be granted until after such Appeal be determined: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter or interfere with the Jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts to hear and determine Causes touching the Validity of any Church Rate or Cess, or from Proceeding to enforce the Payment of any such Rate or Cess, if the same shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds from the Party proceeded against: Provided likewise, that if the Validity of such Rate or Cess, or the Liability of the Person from whom it is demanded to pay the same be disputed, and the Party disputing the same give Notice thereof to the Justices, the Justices shall forbear giving Judgment thereupon; and the Person or Persons demanding the same may then proceed to the Recovery of their Demand, according to the Course of Law as heretofore used and accustomed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter, change or make void any Cause, Matter or Thing respecting the rebuilding and repairing of Churches contained in a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in Ireland, in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intitled An Act for the more efficient teaching and better regulating of Free Schools, and for rebuilding and repairing of Churches.

* VIII. And Whereas by the aforesaid in part recited Act, passed in Ireland in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, That where any Person or Persons are condemned to any Sum or Sums of Money for Predial Tithes or Cotts of Rent, in any such Cause (as in the Act mentioned); and the Party is condemned shall refuse or neglect, after Service of a Monition for that Purpose from the Court where such Sentence is or shall be given, and Proof made upon Oath of the due Service thereof, by the Space of Fifteen Days after such Service, to satisfy and pay to the Party obtaining such Sentence, his Name or Names as shall be so decreed, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons so obtaining such Sentence or Sentences, their Executors or Administrators, to sue for the Money so decreed, by Civil Bills, before the next giving Judges of Assize for the County where the Parties against whom such Sentence was pronounced shall reside, or in any other Court where Civil Bills are or shall be allowed to be brought, in such manner as Suits by Civil Bills are now allowed to be brought, so as the same do not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds: And Whereas an Act was made and passed in Ireland, in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; by virtue of which Act, a Barriator at Law, of Six Years standing at least, was appointed as well as a non Assiast to the Justices at every Session of the Peace in each County in Ireland: And Whereas an Act was made and passed in Ireland, in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary way, at the Sessions of the Peace of the several Counties at large within this Kingdom (except the County of Dublin), and for continuing and amending an Act intitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within the Counties at large; and it is by said Act enacted, That the aforesaid Assiast Barriators be authorized and empowered, at the General Sessions or Quarter Sessions of the Peace in their respective Counties, to hear and determine in a summary way, by English Bill or Paper Petition (usually called a Civil Bill, among other Actions therein included, all Actions or Movables (issuing from Ecclesiastical Courts, for Nonpayment of Sums in which the Parties shall have been condemned in such Ecclesiastical Courts for Predial Tithes or Cotts of Rent, according to the Provisions of the Intercourse in part recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and that the said Assiast Barriators shall respectively be the sole and exclusive Judges in such Courts of General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for hearing and determining in a summary way by English Bill or Paper Petition (usually called a Civil Bill, such Causes as they are empowered as aforesaid to hear and determine, in the manner of the Chairmen of the County of Dublin now in: And Whereas an Act was made and passed, in Ireland, in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the further amendment of an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary way, at the Sessions of the Peace within this Kingdom (except the County of Dublin), and for continuing and amending an Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; by which Act it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the aforesaid Assiast Barriators, at all times hereafter, to make Decrees on all Monitions issuing out of Ecclesiastical Courts, without any Limitation or exception of the Item therein contained: And Whereas the Clerk of the County of Dublin is always one of His Majesty's Judges or Counsel learned in the Law, who with the Justices of the Peace for the County of Dublin, holds the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County; and the said Chairman of the County of Dublin is, by an Act of Parliament made and passed in Ireland in the Second Year of the Rege of King George the Third, intitled An Act for removing and amending an Act, intitled An Act for governing of Small Debts in a summary way, before the Judges of Assize, authorized and empowered to exercise a full Civil Bill Jurisdiction, at the General Quarter Sessions for the said County, but he cannot make a Decree for any greater Sum on a Motion issuing out of an Ecclesiastical Court than the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and it is expedient that he should have the same Power and Authority to make Decrees on Motions issuing out of the Metropolitane and Consistorial Court of the Diocese of Dublin, within the County of Dublin, as the aforesaid Assistant Barons are intitled with, in the manner before mentioned, in their respective Counties. Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, to hear and determine in a summary way, by English Bill or Paper Petition already called a Civil Bill, all Actions on Mortgages arising from the Metropolitane and Consistorial Court of the Diocese of Dublin, for Redemption of Sums in which the Parties shall have been condemned in the said Ecclesiastical Court, for Predial Tithes arising, growing and increasing within the said County of Dublin, and Costs of Suit, according to the Provisions of the Statute in that behalf made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, without any Limitation respecting the Amount of the Sum therein contained.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Proctor of His Majesty's Court of Prerogative in Ireland, or of the Consistorial and Metropolitane Courts of Armagh and Dublin, or of any other Ecclesiastical Court or Courts in Ireland, in which he shall be entitled to act as Proctor, shall act as such, or permit or suffer his Name to be in any manner cited in any Suit, the Prosecution or Defence whereof shall appertain to the Office of a Proctor, or in obtaining Probates of Wills, Letters of Administration or Marriage Licences, to or for or on account or for the Profit and Benefit of any Person or Persons not entitled to act as a Proctor, or shall permit or suffer any such Person or Persons to demand or participate in such Profit and Benefit, and Complaint thereof shall be made in the Court or Courts wherein such Proctor hath been admitted and enrolled, and Proof given to the Satisfaction of the said Court or Courts that such Proctor hath offended therein as aforesaid; then and in such case every such Proctor so offending, shall be struck off the Roll of Proctors, and be forever after disabled from practicing as a Proctor, or be sequestrated from the Office, Functions and Practice of a Proctor, in all and every the said Court or Courts, for so long a Period as the Judge or Judges of the said Court or Courts may deem fit; save and except in to any Allowance or Allowances, Sum or Sums of Money that are or shall be agreed to be made to the Widows or Children of any deceased Proctor or Proctors, by any surviving Partner or Partners of such deceased Proctor or Proctors; and also save and except in to any Agreement made or understood to have been made between Proctors and deceased Clergy, where a Sum has been secured prior to the passing of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Person or Persons shall, in his or in their own Name, or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, make, do, sell, exercise or perform any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever, in any way appearing or belonging to the Office, Function or Practice of a Proctor, for or in Controversy of any Gain, Fee or Reward, or with a View to participate in the Benefit to be derived from the Office, Functions or Practice of a Proctor, without being admitted and enrolled, every such Person for every such Offence shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be paid for and recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Salary which shall be agreed to be paid by a Proctor, his Partner or Associates, to a Clerk really and bona fide serving in his Office, at the time of the passing of this Act, and who shall have been bona fide serving in the Office of any Proctor or Proctors, for Seven Years next before the passing of the same.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, all pecuniary Forfeitures and Penalties, imposed on any Person or Persons, for Offences committed against this Act, shall and may be paid for and recovered in any of His Majesty's Four Courts in the City of Dublin, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information; wherein no Effray, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law or more than One Imparison shall be allowed; and whereas the Plaintiff if he or she shall recover any Penalty or Penalties, shall recover the same for his or her own Use, with full Costs of Suit.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and shall be laid and tried in the City or County wherein the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence as any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance or by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to have been so done, or if any Action or Suit shall be brought after the time limited for bringing the same, or shall be laid in any other City, County or Place than as aforesaid, then the Judge shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be satisfied, or suffer a Discontinuance of their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared; or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and shall have full Recovery for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in any other case by Law.

XIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Part of the United Kingdom except Ireland.

CAP. LXX.

An Act for the further Improvement of the Land Revenue of The Crown. [17th June 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of The Crown of Great Britain, it was enacted, that the Revenue arising to His Majesty by Rents of Lands, or for Pines or Leases of the same, or any of them (except the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall), should, during His present Majesty's Life, be carried to and made Part of the General or Aggregate Fund established by the Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, and be, during the said Term, stand and applied in manner themselves mentioned, to the Use to which the said Fund was or should be made applicable: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for repealing the several Statutes of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises, the Produce or Manufactures of the European Dominions of the French King into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities in Loan, to the Reduction of the National Debt, it was enacted, that the Revenue arising to His Majesty by Rents of Lands, or for Pines or Leases of the same or any of them, should, during the Life of His present Majesty, be carried to and made Part of a Fund to be called The Consolidated Fund: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the State and Condition of the Woods, Forests and Land Revenue belonging to The Crown; and to sell or alienate Fire Farm and other unimprovable Rents, the Commissioners thereby appointed was empowered to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or any Bodies Public or Corporate, for the Sale of any Fire Farm Rents, Rents Services, Rents Sock, Quat Rents, Chantry Rents, Cattle Rents, Cattle Guard Rents, Vicarage Rents, and other dry, fixed and unimprovable Rents, due and payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, within the Survey and Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, at or for the best Prices or Considerations, in Money, which the said Commissioners should be able to procure for the same, not being less, for any Rent amounting to or exceeding One Shilling per Acre, than after the several Rates of Purchase therein specified; and the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England were thereby required to open an Account in their Books with the said Commissioners thereby appointed, under the Title of "Commissioners for the Land Revenue," and carry to the Credit of such Account the several Moneys by the said Act directed to be paid to the Cashiers of the Bank; and it was by the said Act enacted, that all Sums of Money which should be paid into the Bank of England by virtue of the said Act, should from time to time be laid out, by Order of the said Commissioners thereby appointed, in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Names of the said Commissioners; in which Names the Governor and Company of the Bank of England were thereby authorized and required to permit Transfers to be made of the Annuities, Bonds or Stocks, to be purchased, and such Transfers to be accepted by the Commissioners appointed by the said Act, for and in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England; and the said Commissioners were thereby required to accept the same accordingly; and that all the Annuities so to be purchased and accepted, should remain vested in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, and should not be transferred or transferrable without the Authority of Parliament; but that all the Interest of the said Annuities or Yearly Dividends should from time to time be paid by the said Governor and Company into the Hands of such Person or Persons as should be appointed to receive the same, by Warrant or Power of Attorney under the Hand and Seal of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, and should by force and virtue of the said Act be deemed and taken in Law to be Part of the said Land Revenue of The Crown, and should be from time to time advanced, accounted for, applied and appropriated to such and the same Uses and Purposes as the Land Revenue of The Crown then were or would thereafter have been liable to have been applied and appropriated in case the said Act had not been made; and the Powers of the said Act were to continue in force from the passing thereof, for the Term of Three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act to continue and amend an Act, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the State and Condition of the Woods, Forests and Land Revenue belonging to The Crown, and to sell or alienate Fire Farm and other unimprovable Rents, the Powers of the said last recited Act (except where the same were altered by the said Act now in force) were extended, from the End of the then Session of Parliament, for the further Term of Twelve Calendar Months, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of The Crown; and for the Sale of Fire Farm and other unimprovable Rents, the Surveyor General of the Land Revenue of The Crown for the time being was empowered to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or any Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, for the Sale of any Fire Farm Rents, Rents Services, Rents Sock, Chantry Rents, Cattle Guard Rents, Vicarage Rents, and other dry, fixed and unimprovable Rents (except Quat Rents and Copyhold Rents) standing in Charge as Parcel of or belonging to any Manor or improved Manor, due and payable to His Majesty,

His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in England or in Wales, within the Survey and Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer) as or for the best Prices or Considerations, in Money, which the said Surveyor General should be able to procure for the same, and which should be approved of by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, not being less than the several Rates of Purchase granted and provided by the said recited Act of the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England were thereby required to open an Account in their Books, under the Title of "An Account of the Sale of Free Farm Rents," and carry to the Credit of such Account the several Moneys by the said Act directed to be paid to the Cashiers of the Bank, for or on account of the Purchase of any such Rents as aforesaid: And it was by the said Act enacted, that all Sums of Money which should be paid into the Bank of England by virtue of the said Act, on account of the Sale of Free Farm Rents, should from time to time be laid out, by the Order of the Surveyor General, in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England, in which Name the Governor and Company of the Bank of England were thereby authorized and required to permit Transfers to be made of the Annuities, Funds or Stocks so to be purchased, and such Transfers to be accepted by the said Surveyor General for and in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England; and the said Surveyor General was thereby required to accept the same accordingly; and that all the Annuities so to be purchased and accepted should remain invested in the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, and should not be transferred or transferable without the Authority of Parliament; but that all the Interest of the said Annuities or Yearly Dividends should be from time to time paid by the said Governor and Company into the Hands of such Person or Persons as should be appointed to receive the same, by Warrant or Power of Attorney under the Hand and Seal of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, and should by force and virtue of the said Act be deemed and taken in Law to be Part of the said Land Revenues of The Crown, and should be from time to time ascertained, accounted for, applied and appropriated to such and the same Use and Purpose, as the Land Revenues of The Crown then were or would thereafter have been liable to have been applied and appropriated, in case the said Act had not been made: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to improve the Land Revenue of The Crown in England, and also of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, the Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of The Crown for the time being was empowered to contract or agree with any Person or Persons, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale from time to time (beyond what was necessary to raise a Fund for Redemption of the Land Tax charged on the Estates of The Crown), of such Manors or Lordships belonging to The Crown as consisted of Manorial Rights and Quit Rents, without any Lands or with very small Quantities of Land, and where the greater Part of the Lands over which the Manorial Rights extended, was the Property of Individuals; and of Manors or Lords of which His Majesty was not the sole Proprietor, but was entitled to an undivided Share jointly with Individuals; and of Lands dispersed in small Possessions, and intermixed with the Property of Individuals, and lying separate from other Property belonging to The Crown; and of Grounds or Buildings appertaining to or amicably held with any Castle or Strong Building then or lately used for a Common Goal; or with any Building used for holding the Assizes or Sessions in any County or District; or for a Court House or Gaoler's House; or in which the Magistrates of any County or District might claim to have Rights, from Length of Use or Enjoyment, for the public Purposes of such County or District; and of Tenures belonging to The Crown arising out of Lands which were the Property of Individuals; and of Mills, Fisheries and Ferries, and Mooring Chaises, and Watens belonging to The Crown, the Possession of which had been usurped or encroached upon, for the best Prices or Considerations, in Money, which the said Surveyor General should be able to procure for the same; and the Purchase Money to be paid for the same should from time to time be paid into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in like manner as the Moneys arising from Sales of Land Revenue authorized by an Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making perpetual, saleable, in Redemption and Purchase in the manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax, for One Year, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and seventy eight; and by another Act passed in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for consolidating the Provision of the several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax into One Act, and for making further Provision for the Redemption and Sale thereof; and for removing Doubts respecting the Right of Persons claiming to vote at Elections for Knights of the Shire, and other Members to sit in Parliament, in respect of Messuages, Lands or Tenements, the Land Tax upon which shall have been released or purchased, were directed to be paid; and such Purchase Money was directed to be laid out in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated or of Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, in the Name of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; and the said Surveyor General was, by the said Act now in force, empowered to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, being Tenant or Tenants of any Copyhold or Customary Tenements, Parcel of or holden of any Manor belonging to The Crown, within the Survey or Receipt of the Exchequer in England, for the Redemption of any such Copyhold Tenements, or with any Person or Persons (though not such Tenants of any such Copyhold Tenements) for the Sale of the Manorial Rights belonging to The Crown therein, as or for the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Surveyor General should be able to procure for the same, and which should be approved of by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being: And it was further enacted, that the Purchase Money or Consideration to be paid for every such Redemption or Purchase of Manorial Rights, should from time to time be paid into the Bank of England.

Revenue, were empowered to contract and agree with the Company of Proprietors thereby incorporated, for the Sale of a certain Quantity of Land, for the Purposes of the said Act; and the Purchase Money arising from such Sale was directed to be paid into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Commis- sioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in like manner as the Monies arising from the Sale of certain Parts of the Property of The Crown, authorized by the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to improve the Land Revenue of The Crown of Great Britain, and of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, are directed to be paid: And Whereas there are now standing, amongst other Sums, in the Names of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, several Sums, making together the Sum of Thirty six thousand three hundred and sixty Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Five pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, which have arisen from Monies received and raised under the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Forty eighth and Fifty second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty; and there is also now standing, in the Names of such Commissioners, in the Books of the Governor and Company aforesaid, the Sum of Fifty five thousand three hundred and forty seven Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Four pence Three Pence per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, which have arisen partly from Monies received and raised under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and partly from Monies received by the Sale of the Materials of certain old Buildings in the Castle Garden at Newcastle upon Tyne: And Whereas the Sum of Five thousand and eighty five Pounds Eleven Shillings and Eleven pence Reduced Bank Annuities, which had been purchased with Monies received and raised under the Provisions of the said last mentioned Act, hath been transferred to the Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt, in Part of the Consideration for the Redemption of the Land Tax which was charged upon certain Estates belonging to The Crown: And Whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged as Great Britain a Land Tax, for One Year, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, and of the said recited Act of the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for consolidating the Provisions of the several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax into One Act, and for making further Provision for the Redemption and Sale thereof; and for removing Doubts respecting the Right of Persons claiming to vote as Electors for Knights of the Shire, and other Members to serve in Parliament, in respect of Mortgage, Leases or Tenements, the Land Tax upon which such have been redeemed or purchased, certain Lands have been sold in order to raise Money for the Redemption of the Land Tax on The Crown Estates; and a considerable Sum of Money arising therefrom, Part of which was remain unappropriated, has been invested in Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, which are now standing in the Names of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in the Books of the Governor and Company aforesaid, and a competent Part of such Bank Annuities ought to be applied in replacing or satisfying the said Five thousand and eighty five Pounds Eleven Shillings and Eleven pence Reduced Bank Annuities, so as aforesaid transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary le Bone Park and the Northern Parts of the Metropolis, in the Parish of Saint Mary le bone to Chancery Creek, within the Liberty of Westminster; and for making a more convenient Passage for the same, the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue, were appointed Commissioners for carrying the Purposes of the said Act into Execution: And Whereas, in order to carry into effect the several Purposes of the said last recited Act, as aforesaid, and with as little Inconvenience to the Public as possible, and to create a Fund for the Purposes thereof, in aid of the Monies thereby directed to be raised, it is expedient that all Balances of Rents of Lands, which shall be found due to His Majesty on the periodical making up of the Accounts of the Receivers of His Majesty's Land Revenue, by the Auditors of those Accounts, and all Monies from time to time to be paid on account thereof, prior to such Balances being ascertained (except as hereinafter mentioned); and also all Fines of Lands belonging to His Majesty, and all Sums of Money arising from the Sale of Fox Farm Rents, or from the Sale of Enfranchisement or Equality of Exchange of any Lands or Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, under or by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Thirty fourth and Forty eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and also the said several Bank Annuities now standing in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England, and amounting together to the Sum of One hundred and fifty one thousand six hundred and seventy two Pounds Five Shillings and Four pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, as aforesaid; and the said Sum of Thirty six thousand three hundred and sixty Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Five pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, Part of the like Bank Annuities now standing in the Names of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as aforesaid; and the said Fifty five thousand and forty seven Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Four pence Three Pence per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities as aforesaid; and also the Purchase Monies to arise from the Sale of the Estates to His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany, as aforesaid; and also the Dividends and Annual Payments to accrue from time to time (except as hereinafter mentioned), on the Bank Annuities which have arisen from the Sale of Lands and Hereditaments for the Redemption of the Land Tax on The Crown Estates, and now standing in the Names of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as aforesaid; and also all Monies that may hereafter arise from the Sale of any Waste Lands in Wales, under the Provisions of the said Act, should be respectively transferred, paid and made over, unto the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in manner hereinafter mentioned; of the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, now standing in the Names of the Comptroller of His Majesty's Treasury, and which have been purchased with Moneys arising from the Sale made of Land under the Provisions of the said Act of the Thirty eighth and Forty second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Sum of Five thousand and eighty five Pounds Eleven Shillings and Eleven pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, should be transferred to the Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in and in stead of the like Sum of Reduced Bank Annuities to transfer to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt as aforesaid; and that the said Commissioners, for executing the said recited Act, should be empowered to raise Monies by Loan upon the Credit of the Land Revenue of The Crown, in manner hereinafter mentioned: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Balances of Receipts of Lands, or to accrue and become due to His Majesty, on the periodical making up of the Accounts of the Receivers of His Majesty's Land Revenue, by the Auditors of these Accounts, and all Sums and Sums of Money which shall from time to time be required to be paid on account thereof prior to the ascertaining of such Balances (except such Sums as shall be required to be paid in pursuance of any Warrant from the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the same being), shall from time to time be paid and made over, by the several and respective Receivers thereof, unto the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to be applied by them for and towards the carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution, until the Sums thereby authorized to be raised shall have been raised and thereupon fully paid and satisfied; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or in this Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Receiver and Receivers of His Majesty's Land Revenue, on Payment of all such Balances and Sums of Money to the said Commissioners as aforesaid, shall have and receive such and the same Salaries or Allowances, as such Receiver or Receivers would have had or been entitled to have had and received, on Payment thereof into the Fund called "The Consolidated Fund."

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall on any title, for or in respect of any Fine or Fines for the Renewal or Grant of any Lease or Leases of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of belonging to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and also all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may arise or be produced from the Sale of any Free Farm Rents, or from the Sale, Leasing, or Surrender, or Exchange of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents or Hereditaments, or of belonging to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under or by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of The Crown; and for the Sale of Free Farm and other unimproved Rents, and of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to improve the Land Revenue of The Crown in England, and of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, shall from time to time be paid and made over by the several Lessors and other Parties or Parties liable to pay or authorized to receive the same, unto the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to be applied by them for and towards the carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution, until the said Sums thereby authorized to be raised shall have been raised and thereupon fully paid and satisfied; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Receipts of the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall from time to time be good and sufficient Receipts and Discharges to the several Receivers, Lessors, Purchasers, and other the Parties or Parties paying such Balances, Fines, and Sums and Sums of Money as aforesaid, for so much Monies as shall from time to time be expended in such Receipts.

V. And be it further enacted, That where any thing is required, directed or permitted to be done under this Act, by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the same may be done by any Two of such Commissioners for the time being.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer of England, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and he or they as and are hereby authorized to transfer the said Sum of One hundred and fifty one thousand five hundred and seventy two Pounds Five Shillings and Four pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, now standing in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England as hereinafter mentioned; and also the said Sum of Thirty six thousand three hundred and eighty Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Five pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, Part of the like Bank Annuities standing in the Names of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and also the said Sum of Five thousand and eighty five Pounds Eleven Shillings and Eleven pence Three Pence per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, further Part of the like Annuities, standing in their Names as hereinafter mentioned; and also the said Sum of Fifty five thousand three hundred and forty seven Pence Nineteen Shillings and Four pence Three Pence per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities now also standing in the Names of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as hereinafter mentioned, or any Part or Parts of the said respective Sums, into the Names of the

And Commissioners for the executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, unto which Names the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are jointly authorized and required to permit such Transfers to be made of the said Annuities respectively; and the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act are hereby required to accept such Transfers accordingly; and all and singular the said Annuities to be transferred and accepted, and the Proceeds thereof, shall from time to time be applied by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for and towards carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or in this Act, contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England, as the Purchase Money for the Grant of the said Estates to His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany, under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act, passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to enable His Majesty to grant the Lieutenancy in Five single of certain Manors, Messuages, Lands and Hereditaments, in the Parishes of Byboret, Weybridge, Walton, Walton Leigh and Chertsey, in the County of Surrey, to His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and Albany, for a considerable Conveyance; shall be paid over by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England unto the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and that all and singular the Dividends and Annual Proceeds from time to time arising out of and from all and singular the said Annuities now standing in the Names of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as heretofore mentioned, or which shall hereafter stand in the Names of such Commissioners, and which have arisen or which shall hereafter arise under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase, in the Manors thereof stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Loan Tax, for One Year, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; and of the said recited Act of the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for Confining the Provisions of the several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax into One Act, and for making further Provisions for the Redemption and Sale thereof; and for removing Doubts respecting the Right of Persons claiming in right of Estates for Knights of the Shire, and other Members in Service in Parliament, in respect of Messuages, Lands or Tenements, the Land Tax upon which shall have been released or purchased, (except such Sums as shall be paid thereout in performance of any Warrant from the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being) shall be paid and made over by the Person or Persons receiving the same, unto the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to be applied by them for and towards carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution, until the said Sums thereby authorized to be raised shall have been raised, and thereafter fully paid and satisfied; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or in this Act, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Chases, for the time being, with the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, to consent and agree for the Sale of, and absolutely to make sale and dispose, from time to time, of any Plot or Plots, Parcel or Parcels of Waste Lands, Stream, lying and being in any Place or Places within the Principality of Wales, and which shall have been allotted, or may hereafter be allotted to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament for inclosing Lands passed subsequently to the passing of the said recited Act of the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of The Crown; and for the Sale of His Farm and other unimprovable Rents; and which Act or Acts of Inclosure does or do not contain any special Authority or Provision for the Sale of such Plot or Plots, Parcel or Parcels of Waste Lands, for the best Price or Consideration in Money which the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Surveyor General, shall be able to procure for the same.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may arise or be produced from the Sale or Sales of such Waste Lands as aforesaid, shall from time to time be carried over to the Account of the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, "The New Secret Account," and shall be by them applied for and towards carrying the several Purposes of the said last mentioned Act into Execution, until the Sums thereby authorized to be raised shall have been raised, and thereafter fully paid and satisfied; and from and immediately after the same shall have been so raised, paid and satisfied, all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may thereafter arise or be produced from the Sale or Sales of such Waste Lands, shall be paid into the Bank, and placed to the Account hereinafter directed to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Names of the said Commissioners, to be intitled "The Navy Timber Navy Pay," and shall be applied in such and the like manner, and for such and the like Purposes as the other Monies hereinafter directed to be paid into the same Account are heretofore directed to be applied.

X. And Whereas His Majesty is Right of His Crown is Owner of the Soil of the several Towns, Villages or Parcels of Waste Land, situate and described in the Schedule (D.) to this Act, being Part of His

XIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the said Commissioners, or the said Surveyor General, shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any of the said Waste Lands in Wales, or in the said Forest of Dean, hereby authorized to be sold, or for any such Manors, Lordships, Manorial Rights, Quit Rents or other Hereditaments as aforesaid, the said Commissioners, or the said Surveyor General, shall grant to the Purchaser or respective Purchasers thereof a Certificate under their Hands or his Hand, describing the Premises to be sold, and the Amount of the Purchase Money to be paid for the same, and which shall accordingly be paid into the Bank of England, within Thirty or Forty Days after the Date of such Certificate, and the Cashiers of the Bank, or one of them, shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, accept and receive the Purchase Monies therein mentioned, and carry the same to the Account therein specified, and at the Foot or on the Back of such Certificate acknowledge the Receipt of the same, without Fee or Reward; and every such Certificate and Receipt shall be according to the Form contained in Schedule (B.) to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the sale will admit, and shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatever; and every such Certificate and Receipt shall, within One Calendar Month after the Date of such Certificate, be taken to the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue for the District within which the said Lands or Hereditaments therein are situate, and be there forthwith certified in the proper Books for that Purpose; and such Auditor having enrolled the said Certificate and Receipt, shall stick the same under his Hand, and shall, upon returning the said Fees for such Enrolment, return the said Certificate and Receipt to the Purchaser or Purchasers; and from and after such Enrolment, and thenceforth for ever, the respective Purchaser, their Heirs or Successors, shall by force and virtue of this Act be and shall be adjudged, deemed and taken to be in the actual Seisin and Possession of the Waste Lands, Manors, Lordships, Manorial Rights, Quare Rents, Lands or other Hereditaments so by them respectively purchased, and shall hold and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, freed and discharged from all Claims and Demands of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or of any Person or Persons claiming under him or them, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purposes, as His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, might or could have held or enjoyed the same, if such Sale had not taken place; and every such Certificate shall be respectively witnessed and attested as to the signing thereof by the said Commissioners, or the said Surveyor General, by one of the Principal Clerks, or other Officers, in their or his Office; and every such Certificate and Receipt, being enrolled as aforesaid, shall effectually discharge the respective Purchaser to whom the same shall be given or granted, of and from the Purchase or Concession Money therein expressed; and such Purchaser shall never afterwards be liable to be called upon, fined, troubled, molested or questioned, for or in respect thereof, or of any Part thereof.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons to whom any such Certificate as aforesaid shall be granted, shall neglect to pay into the Bank the Consideration Money therein to be specified, for the Space of Thirty one Days after the Date of such Certificate, or shall neglect to send such Certificate, and the said Auditor's Receipt for the said Money, for the like Space of time, then every such Certificate shall be null and void, and the Consideration Money, if paid into the Bank, shall be forfeited, unless the said Commissioners or the said Surveyor General shall, for any reasonable Cause to him or them shown for the Quelling of such Intendment, order the said Certificate and Receipt to be invalid non pro tunc, and which, upon such Cause being shown, the said Commissioners or the said Surveyor General are and are hereby authorized to order accordingly.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and they are hereby fully authorized and empowered, from time to time to make sale and dispose of and transfer all and singular the said Bank Annuities, to be directed to be respectively transferred into their Names as aforesaid, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, and to apply the Monies thereof arising (after first paying the same into the Bank of England, as next hereinafter mentioned) for and towards carrying the several Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign into Execution, until the said Sum so thereby authorized to be raised shall have been raised, and thenceforth fully paid and satisfied; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby authorized and required to permit the said Commissioners to make such Sales and Transfers of the said Bank Annuities from time to time accordingly.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money, Bills and Drafts which shall be received by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall from time to time, within Two Days after the Date shall have been received, or within Two Days after any Bill shall have been accepted, completed and perfected, if the same shall not be accepted, completed and perfected at the time it shall be received by the said Commissioners, be paid by them into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for which the Receipt or Acknowledgment in Writing of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company shall be a full and Discharge; and all such Monies, Bills and Drafts, so to be paid to the said Governor and Company, shall from time to time be placed to the Account raised or to be raised pursuant to the said last mentioned Act, in the Books of the said Governor and Company, intitled "The Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue," being "The New Street Account," and shall be applied and disposed of by them the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for and towards carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution.

XVII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to refuse out of the Monies to be received by them by virtue of this Act, for casual and ordinary Payments, for the Purposes of the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in the Hands of any private Banker, to be nominated by any Writing under the Hand of the said Lord High Treasurer, or under the Hands of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, a Sum not exceeding Three thousand Pounds, to be drawn by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and if at any time the Sum so reserved shall be reduced below Three thousand Pounds, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, from time to time to make up the same to the Sum of Three thousand Pounds by Draft under their Hands upon the Funds to be deposited in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as aforesaid.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall make all Payments required to be made out of the Monies to be deposited in the Bank of England, by Drafts under their Hands on the said Bank; and shall XXII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That notwithstanding any thing hereinbefore or in the said recited Act of the Fifth third Year of His Majesty's Statute, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, shall down it expedient that any Part or Parts of the Monies to arise from the Sale of the Bank Annuities hereinbefore directed to be transferred or made over to the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifth third Year aforesaid, for the Purposes of the same Act, or any Part of the Rents, Balances, Fines, Dividends and Land Revenues of The Crown, thereby directed to be paid and made over to the said last mentioned Commissioners from time to time, shall, instead of being applied to the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifth third Year as aforesaid, be laid out in the Purchase of Lands or Hereditaments, to be sold or employed for the public Purpose hereinafter mentioned; then it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, from time to time to direct that such Part or Parts of the said Monies as it shall be thought expedient to so lay out in the Purchase of such Lands or Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall be carried over or transferred from the Account directed by the said last mentioned Act to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in an Account to be raised immediately after the passing of this Act, in the Books of the said Governor and Company, to be entitled "The Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues," being "The Navy Timber Nursery Fund;" and the same shall be thereupon forthwith carried over to such Account accordingly; and the same, when so carried over, and all and every other the Sums and Sums hereby directed or authorized to be paid in or placed, or which shall hereafter by any Act or Acts of Parliament or otherwise be directed or authorized to be paid in or placed to the said last mentioned Account, shall be by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, for the time being, applied, with the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, the Property of Individuals, or in the Purchase of any Rights of Individuals, whose the Reversion of such Rights shall be vested in His Majesty, or in or over any Lands which shall, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or of the said Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces for the time being, be fit and proper for the Growth and Cultivation of Wood and Timber for the Service of His Majesty's Navy; and all such Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Rights shall, when so purchased, be sold by and become the Property of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and all such Lands shall be sold and employed for the Growth and Cultivation of Timber for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

XXIII. And

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That when and as far as the Account is hereby directed to be ruled in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank as aforesaid, shall be ruled, all such Sums of Money as shall then remain upon or to the Credit of the Account hereinafter mentioned, being "The Woods and Forest Fund," applicable to the Purchase of Lands to be sold for the Growth and Cultivation of Timber for the Service of His Majesty's Navy, shall be transferred or carried over to the said Account to hereby directed to be ruled as aforesaid, and to be intitled "The Navy Timber Nursery Fund" as aforesaid.

Account to be transferred.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Indemnities, Privileges, Clauses, Rules, Regulations and Directions, Privies and Prerogatives, contained in and imposed by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled As to amending the Office of Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of The Crown, and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases, touching the Account thereby directed to be ruled in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, intituled "The Account of the Public Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues," being "The Woods and Forest Fund," shall be in full Force and Effect with respect to the Account directed by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty, to be ruled in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be intituled "The Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues," being "The New Forest Account," as also to the Account so hereby directed to be ruled, to be intituled "The Account of the Public Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues," being "The Navy Timber Nursery Fund" as aforesaid, in so far as the same shall or may be applicable thereto respectively; and shall be effect upon, observed, applied and put in Execution, with regard to all Movers, Bills and Drafts, to be paid in to such last mentioned Accounts respectively, and to the making all Payments to be made thereout, and the Drafts to be drawn for such Payments, the Forms to be observed in regard thereto, and the Particulars to be specified therein, and the transferring, carrying over and writing of the said Items, Bills and Drafts, in case of the Death, Resignation or Removal of any One or more of the said respective Commissioners, into or to any new Commissioner or Commissioners, and any leaving or remaining Commissioner or Commissioners, or any new Commissioner or Commissioners only; and touching the forging or counterfeiting the Name or Hand-writing of any or either of the said Commissioners, for the use being, to any Draft, Instrument or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the obtaining any of the Monies, Bills or Drafts, to be paid into either of the said Accounts, or the issuing or publishing any such Drafts, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been here repeated and specially enacted with reference to each of such Accounts, and the Monies, Bills and Drafts, to be paid into or drawn out of the same Accounts respectively.

XXV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or in any wise be construed so as to extend to defeat, alter or prejudice all or any of the Powers given by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for raising the said Two Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds by Mortgage, so that no more shall be raised in the whole under the Provisions of this Act, or by Mortgage under the Provisions of the said recited Act, than the Two several Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, for and towards carrying the several Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty into Execution.

Act not to prejudice Power of raising Money by Mortgage.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Warrant or Authority of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, under his or their Hand or Hands, or under the Hands of any Three of them, for the raising any Sum or Sums of Money, by Mortgage, Loan, Assignment of Rents, Sale, or otherwise, in Part of the said respective Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, shall be a sufficient Warrant or Authority to the Person or Persons advancing the same; that the Sum or Sums to be expended in or authorized by such Warrant or Warrants to be raised, do or doth still remain to be raised under or by virtue of the Powers of the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of this Act; and that the Person or Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, or Companies advancing the same, shall not be bound to enquire what Sum or Sums of Money have or hath been previously raised, or do or doth remain to be raised, under the Powers or Provisions of the said last mentioned Act of or this Act; but that the Sum or Sums of Money so or by every such Warrant expended or authorized to be raised, shall be deemed and taken, in so far as respects the Person or Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, or Companies advancing or paying the same, to be a Sum or Sums yet remaining to be raised under the Powers and Provisions of the said last mentioned Act and this Act, over and above all other Monies which shall have been previously raised by virtue of the said last mentioned Act of or this Act, or of the Powers or Authorities therein or therein contained; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof to any wise notwithstanding.

Sum raised by Warrant of Treasury.

XXVIII. And Whereas it would tend to facilitate the raising the said Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, authorised to be raised by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, if the Commissioners for executing the said Act were enabled to make the same, or any Part thereof, by Loan or Loans upon the Credit of the whole Land Revenues of The Crown: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, by and with the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and notwithstanding any Provision, Restriction or Clause contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Land Revenues, to borrow and take up at Interest such Sum or Sums of Money as they the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, with such Approbation as aforesaid, shall judge necessary for the Purposes of the said Act, not exceeding what shall then remain to be raised of the said Two Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, by any Loan or Loans upon the Credit of the Land Revenues of The Crown.

XXIX. And be it further declared and enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Persons or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies (other than and except the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, The Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the said East India and other Parts of America, and The United Company of Merchants of England trading to the said Indies), to advance or lend any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part or Parts of the Capital or other Monies or Funds of or belonging to such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, not exceeding what shall then remain to be raised of the said Two Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds as aforesaid, to the said Commissioners for executing the said last mentioned Act, upon the Credit of the said Land Revenues of The Crown; in so that all such Loans be made by and with the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, who is or are hereby authorised to affix his or their Warrant or Warrants for that Purpose; and every such Loan so to be made shall be deemed to be, and the same is hereby declared to be a Loan upon a Parliamentary Security; and the said Land Revenues of The Crown shall be deemed and taken to be, and are hereby declared to be a Part or Parts, Branch or Branches of the Revenues of His Majesty, upon which a Credit of Loans to the Extent of the respective Sums authorised by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid to be raised, is granted by Parliament, and upon which any Part or Parts of the Capital or other Monies or Funds of any such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, may be advanced within the true Intent and Meaning of any Charter, Bye-Law, Statute or Ordinance, whereby any Monies are authorised or permitted to be advanced upon Parliamentary Security, or any Part or Parts, Branch or Branches of the Revenues of His Majesty, upon which a Credit of Loans is granted by Parliament; and every such Loan shall be good, valid and effectual; any Provision contained in the Statutes of Mortmain, or in any other Statute, Charter, Bye-Law or Ordinance to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, who shall agree to lend any Money upon the Credit of the said Revenues, shall receive a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty, in the Form or to the Effect following; that is to say,

IN pursuance of a Warrant from the Right Honourable the Lord High Treasurer [or, from the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, as the case shall be] bearing Date the Day of
We, A. and B. Two of the Commissioners for executing an Act, passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act (insert the Title of the recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid) in execution of the Powers vested in us by the said Act, and by another Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intitled [insert the Title of the Act] do hereby certify, that C. D. (insert the Name, Title or Description of the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Company, by whom or as whose Behalf the Loan is to be advanced) hath [or, have] consented and agreed to advance and lend to the said Commissioners for executing the said Act, upon the Credit of the said Land Revenues of The Crown the Sum of to be applied by them for and towards the carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution; which Sum is to be paid by the said C. D. to one of the Cashiers of the Bank of England, and carried to the Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being "The New Street Account;" And from and immediately after the Payment of the same in manner aforesaid, the said Sum of shall by virtue of the said Act become and be a Loan charged upon the whole of the said Land Revenues of The Crown; and such Revenues shall then and thereafter be subject and liable to the Repayment of the said Capital Sum so to be advanced, and so the Payment of Interest for the same, or for so much of the said Principal Sum as shall from time to time remain unpaid, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per annum (or lesser Rate, as the case may be), to be computed from the time the same shall be so advanced, and to be paid without any Deductions (save the Property Tax for the time being) by Half-yearly Payments, until the whole of the said Principal Sum, and Interest thereon, shall be fully paid and discharged. Given under our Hands and Seals, this

"WE, _____ Three of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, do hereby give you Notice, that We are desirous of redeeming or discharging the Sum of _____ being One Part (or, the Whole, as the case may be) of the Loan or Capital Sum due to you on the Credit of the Land Revenues of The Crown, by virtue of a Certificate, bearing Date the _____ Day of _____ and that We intend to make such Payment of the said Sum of _____ to you on the _____ Day of _____ next ensuing the Date hereof. Given under our Hands, this _____ Day of _____ And _____

And in case any such Notice or Notice shall be so given, the said last mentioned Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, at the time to be appointed in every such Notice, to make Payment accordingly of the Sum so to be supplied in every such Notice; and the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Corporations, to whom any such Money shall be due or belong, shall accordingly receive the same at the time or times to be appointed for the Payment thereof, in Discharge of every such Loan or Loans, or in Discharge of so much thereof as shall be so proposed to be paid off or discharged; and upon Payment or Tender of the Sum or Sums so specified in every such Notice, and of the Interest thereof, at the Day or Time to be appointed in and by every such Notice for the Payment thereof, the Interest in respect of every such Sum or Sums which shall be so paid or tendered, shall from thenceforth cease and be no longer paid or payable: And in case any such Notice shall be so given as aforesaid, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, if they shall think it expedient so to do, to sell and dispose of all the Bank Accounts which shall then have arised or accumulated, or have produced by or from the Appropriations which shall have been made in respect of any such Loan or Loans in pursuance of the Directions herein contained, or of so much thereof as shall be requisite or necessary to make any such Payment or Payments, and to apply the Moneys so arised by any such Sale or Sales in the making of such Payment accordingly; and every such Payment so to be made as aforesaid, shall be acknowledged by the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, receiving the same, by Indorsement upon every such Certificate, which Indorsement may be in the Form heretofore directed, and a like Entry shall be made thereof in the several Office books or books mentioned, as is and are heretofore provided and directed in the case of any Payments to be made in pursuance of any Notice or Notices to be given by the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Corporations, to whom any Money shall be due upon any such Loan or Loans as aforesaid.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Bank Annuities or Funds by this Act directed to be sold, assigned, transferred or disposed of by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, shall and may be so sold, assigned, transferred or disposed of, by any Three or more of them, or by any Person or Persons to be appointed by them or any Three or more of them, by Letter of Attorney under their Hands and Seals, attested in like manner; and that all Dividends directed by this Act, or the said recited Act of the said Fifty third Year, to be paid to or received by them, shall and may be paid to or received by any Three or more of them, or any Person or Persons appointed by them or any Three or more of them, by Letter of Attorney under their Hands and Seals, attested in like manner; and that all Bank Annuities or Funds by this Act directed or authorized to be sold, assigned, transferred or disposed of, by the said Commissioners, for executing the said last mentioned Act, or by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, shall and may be sold, assigned, transferred or disposed of, by the said last mentioned Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, or by any Person or Persons to be appointed by them, or any Two or more of them, by Letter of Attorney under their Hands and Seals, attested in like manner; and that all Dividends directed by this Act, or the said recited Act of the said Fifty third Year, to be paid to or received by the said last mentioned Commissioners, shall and may be paid to or received by any Two or more of them, or any Person or Persons appointed by them, or any Two or more of them, by Letter of Attorney under their Hands and Seals, attested in like manner; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required to permit all such Sales, Assignments, Transfers and Dispositions to be so made, and all such Disbursements to be so paid or received as aforesaid.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit or alter, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited or altered, or knowingly and wilfully sell or utter in forging, counterfeiting or altering the Name or Names of any Person or Persons in or to any Transfer of any Bank Annuity or Funds by this Act authorized or directed to be sold, assigned, transferred or disposed of, or to any Receipt or Discharge for any Dividends or Payments due or to become due thereon, or to any Letter of Attorney, Warrant or other Instrument, to sell, assign, transfer or dispose of any such Bank Annuity or Funds or to receive any Dividends or Payments due or to become due thereon, or to any Letter of Attorney, Draft, Warrant, Indorsement or Writing whatsoever, farther in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money which is or shall be in the Hands or Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of any other Person or Persons, and in any of the Provisions of this Act, or shall produce, utter or publish any such Letter of Attorney, Draft, Warrant, Indorsement or Writing, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with an Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the said Governor and Company, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, every Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

XXXIX. And Whereas by several Acts of Parliament which have been passed for the disafforesting certain Forests belonging to His Majesty, and for the inclosing divers Commons, Open and Waste Lands, over which His Majesty had Feudal, Manorial or other Rights, or in which He was otherwise interested, Powers have been given to the Lord High Treasurer, or to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or to the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chancery, or to the Surveyor General of the Land Revenue of the Crown, for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Lords Commissioners, for the time being, of His Majesty's Treasury, to contract and purchase, for and on behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors from any Person or Persons, or any other Person who should be entitled to any Allotments of Land under such Acts, or from any other Owners or Proprietors of Lands, all or any Part of their respective Lands, or of the Allotments to be made to them in respect thereof, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to the extent that such Lands, when so purchased, should be appropriated to the Growth and Preservation of Timber; and also to purchase all or any of the Timber, Underwood, Bashes or Thorns, which were or should be standing or growing upon the same Lands: And Whereas the said Provisions have been and may be in a great Measure frustrated, by reason that such Acts do not extend to enable any Body or Bodies Public or Corporate or any Person or Persons having only a partial or qualified Interest in any of the Lands or allotments to be purchased, or any Commuters, Grantees or Trustees, or others, acting for Persons who are or may be under Disabilities or incapable of acting for themselves, to contract for the Sale of, or to sell or convey the same Allotments or Lands: And Whereas, from the great and increasing Difficulty of procuring a sufficient Supply of Timber for the Use of His Majesty's Navy, it would be of great public Utility if such Bodies or Bodies Public or Corporate, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, were enabled to sell (if they or the Persons acting on their behalf, as hereinafter mentioned, shall think fit so to do), all or any of their Allotments under such Acts, or any other of their Lands or Hereditaments for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in order to be set apart for the Growth and Cultivation of such Timber as aforesaid: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Body Public, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporation Aggregate or Sole, Tenants for Life or in Tail, or others, having a partial or qualified Interest or Estate in any Lands or other Hereditaments which have been or shall be set out or allotted (under or by virtue of the Powers and Provisions contained in any Act or Acts already passed or hereafter to be passed for disencumbering any Feudal belonging to His Majesty, or for uniting any Lands wherein His Majesty had or has any such Feudal, Marital or other Rights as hereinafter mentioned) to or for any such Body Public or Corporate, or Person or Persons, or which shall have devolved or shall devolve upon or by or become vested in any such Body Public or Corporate, or Person or Persons, after the same shall have been so allotted or set out, or in any other Lands or Hereditaments; and also for all Justices, Justices of Peace, Committees of Landowners or Estates, Guardians of Infants or Minors, Trustees and Executors in Trust for Charities or other Purposes, Executors and Administrators and all other Persons whatsoever, not only on behalf of themselves and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Successors, but also on behalf of their respective Wives and Cypselia Trusts, whether Legacies, Idents, Hisse unborn, Femes Covert or other Persons incapable to act for themselves, forced or entitled in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or by way of Executory Devise, of or unto or otherwise lawfully in any Lands or Hereditaments already allotted or hereafter to be allotted under the Authority of any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, or of, unto or in any other Lands or Hereditaments whatsoever; to contract and agree (if they shall think fit so to do) with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Chases, for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, for and on behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the absolute Sale of, and under the Regulations and Restrictions hereinafter mentioned, to sell and convey to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all or any of the said Lands or Hereditaments which have been or shall hereafter be allotted to any such Body Public or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, under or by virtue of any such Act or Acts of Parliament as aforesaid, or which shall have devolved upon or have become vested in any such Body Public or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, after the time set or shall be so allotted, and all or any other the Lands or Hereditaments which such Body Public or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, are or is, or shall be seized of, entitled to or succeeded to as aforesaid, which shall in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Chases, for the time being, be fit and proper for the Growth and Cultivation of Wood and Timber, together with the Timber, Underwood, Bashes and Thorns, standing and growing thereon.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when any such Lands or Hereditaments as aforesaid shall be contracted for or agreed to be sold to or for the Use of His Majesty as aforesaid, the Value thereof, and of all the Timber, Underwood, Bashes and Thorns, growing or being thereon, shall be ascertained by Two able practical Surveyors of Land one of whom shall be appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and the other by the Body Public or Corporate or Person or Persons contracting or agreeing to sell the same; and if such Two Surveyors shall not agree in the Valuation thereof, then by such Third Surveyor of Land as the Two so appointed shall for that Purpose nominate; and each of the said Two Surveyors (if they shall agree in and make their Valuation, or if not then the Surveyor so to be nominated by them as aforesaid) shall annex to their or his Survey, Estimate or Valuation, when completed, an Oath (or being of the People called Quakers, an Affirmation) to be subscribed by him, and taken before and certified by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of the United Kingdom who is respectively lawfully authorized to administer an Oath or Affirmation in that behalf; the Form whereof shall be as follows:

Oath.

I A.B. do swear [or, being a Quaker, do solemnly affirm], That the Survey, Estimate or Valuation, herein annexed, was lawfully & impartially made by me, and that the Value of the Property therein described, is justly estimated thereon, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment; and that all the Particulars stated therein are true, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief.

Filed.

Which Oath or Affirmation, when so sold, valued, taken and certified shall be filed with the said Survey, Estimate or Valuation, in the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or in the Office of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases, for the time being: And the Price or Consideration to be paid or given for the Purchase of such Lands or Hereditaments shall in no case be less than the Sum at which the same shall be assessed and valued in such Survey, Estimate or Valuation as aforesaid.

Price not to be less than Estimate or Survey.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That every Conveyance of any Lands and Hereditaments to be sold and conveyed to His Majesty in pursuance of this Act, shall be made in the Form or to the Effect contained in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act, or as near and similar thereto as circumstances will permit; and every such Conveyance shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatsoever; and shall be issued in the Office of the Auditor of His Majesty's Land Revenues, who shall receive and he paid the usual Fees for issuing the same, and a Minute or Docket thereof shall also be entered and preserved in the Office of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or in the Office of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases for the time being; and all such Sales and Conveyances which shall be made as aforesaid, shall be good, valid and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Act or Acts of Parliament, Privilege, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and all such Lands or Hereditaments so to be purchased on behalf of, and conveyed to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors as aforesaid, shall be appropriated for the Growth and Cultivation of Wood and Timber.

XLIII. And Whereas it is just and reasonable that if any Archbishop, Bishop, Master and Fellows of any College, Dean and Chapter of any Cathedral, or Collegiate Church, Master or Guardians of any Hospital, Prebendary, or any other Person or Persons having any spiritual or Ecclesiastical Promotion, shall, by virtue of this Act or otherwise, agree for the Sale of, and sell to or for the Use of The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, any of the Lands or Hereditaments to already allotted or to be allotted to, or which shall have devolved or shall devolve to any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate as aforesaid, such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, should be considered as having had the free Right of leasing for Three Lives or Twenty one Years, such Lands so allotted or to be allotted, or which have devolved or shall devolve to him or them as aforesaid, as he or they had or have of leasing or leasing the Lands or Hereditaments in respect whereof such Allowance or Allotments shall have been made or claimed, at or under a Yearly Rent, to be appraised after the same Rate per Acre as the Rent referred to in any habiting Lease or Leases of such other Lands and Hereditaments as the accustomed Yearly Rent thereof; and that such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, should be compensated for the Loss he or they may sustain, by reason of such Sale or Sales, of any Year he or they might otherwise have had or taken for the Great or Renewal of any Lease or Leases for the Term of Three Lives or Twenty one Years, at and under such Rent of the Lands to be sold as aforesaid; Be it therefore declared and enacted, That if any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, shall by means of any such Sale or Sales lose or be deprived of any Benefit which such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, would or might otherwise have received or taken by way of Fine for the Great or Renewal of any Lease or Leases of any of such Lands or Hereditaments as shall be to be sold as aforesaid, there and in such sale, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Land Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, and he and they it and are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid to such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, for his and their particular Use, such Share or Proportion of the Sum or Sums of Money payable as the Consideration for such Sale or Sales, as Two indifferent Persons, one of them to be appointed by the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, and the other by the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, in consulting; and in case the Two Persons so chosen shall not agree, then as such Third Person, whom the Two so chosen shall for that Purpose nominate, shall advise and determine to be a just and reasonable Compensation to the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, seeking the same, for any such Benefit which he or they shall have been or may be deprived of by means of any such Sale or Sales, or shall lose or forgo on account thereof; in estimating which Compensation, in every case in which no specific Rent shall be directed by the Act or Acts of Parliament under which such Allowance or Allotments shall have been or shall be let out or made to be referred to the granting any Lease or Leases thereof, the same Accrued Rent per Acre shall be referred in any habiting Lease or Leases granted by such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, of the Lands or Hereditaments in respect of which such Allowance or Allotments shall be or shall have been made, shall be deemed and taken to have been the accustomed Yearly Rent which would and ought to have been referred in any Lease or Lease which would or might have been granted or renewed of any such Lands or Hereditaments to be sold as aforesaid if no such Sale or Sales had been made, or if any Lease or Leases had been made or granted the rent of premises to any such Sale or Sales; and the Receipt or Receipts of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, entitled to such Compensation, or of his or their Executors or Administrators, shall be a sufficient Discharge or sufficient Discharges to the said Lord High Treasurer, or to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Money so paid, or for so much thereof as shall be therein expressed to have been received.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Money to arise by the Sale or Sales of any Lands or Hereditaments as is to be sold by any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, under the Authority of this Act, as shall not be paid and applied by way of such Compensation as aforesaid, or which shall be payable as the Value of any Timber, Underwood, Bashes and Thorns growing thereon, shall be applied and disposed of in such or the like manner, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, mentioned in such Monies respectively, as by an Act passed in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for consolidating in One Act certain Provisions relating to the Sale of Inclosures, and for facilitating the Sale of proving the several Fees usually required on the making of such Acts, is directed in respect of any Money to be paid for the Purchase or Exchange of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Timber or Wood growing thereon, and which Money ought to be laid out in the Purchase of other Lands or Hereditaments, to be settled to the same Uses as the Lands or Hereditaments is sold or exchanged, or as which such Timber grew, were lawfully felled or severed.

XLIV. And Whereas various Persons have or claim to be entitled to Common of Estovers for Fuelwood, to be had or taken in and from the Woods of certain of His Majesty's Forests or late Forests, to be used or consumed in the Dwelling Houses, Cottages or Ancient Tenements, to which such Fuel Rights do appertain; and under Pretence of the Exercise of such Rights, great Depredations have been and do continue to be committed in His Majesty's Woods to the Timber and Trees growing thereon; and it would tend greatly to the Preservation of such Timber and Trees, if such Fuel Rights could be effectually extinguished: And Whereas many of the Owners or Proprietors of such Rights are willing and desirous to fall or commute the same for an adequate Price in Consideration; and although it would be desirable to purchase the same for and on behalf of His Majesty, yet by reason that such Fuel Rights are in general of small Value, and held by many different Proprietors, and that the Tenements, to which such Rights are appurtenant, are in some cases in Settlement, and in others are held by Persons who are under Disabilities, or incapable of making any valid Surrender or Enfranchisement of such Rights, and the same cannot be surrendered to His Majesty, or extinguished, by any of the ordinary Modes of Conveyance, without great Expence; whereby the Purchase of such Rights is very much obstructed and impeded, and such Disabilities cannot be removed without the Aid of Parliament: Be it therefore further enacted, That whosoever the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Chases, for the time being, shall, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, contract and agree with any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, for the Purchase or Enfranchisement of any such Common of Estovers or Fuel Rights as aforesaid, whether the Person so contracting with the said Commissioners by the said Surveyor General shall be entitled thereto absolutely or for any qualified or partial Estate, or as the Husband, Commoor or Trustee of any Person or Persons under any of the Incapacities or Disabilities heretofore mentioned, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Surveyor General for the time being, to pay the Price or Consideration for the Purchase of such Rights to the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, so contracting for the Sale thereof, or to apply and dispose thereof in manner hereinafter mentioned; and such Person or Persons so contracting shall thereupon give a Certificate of such Contract, and of the Payment of the Consideration Money for the Purchase of such Rights, which shall be made according to the Form contained in the Schedule (C.) to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances will permit; and upon Payment of such Sum of Money, and the issuing such Certificate, all such Fuel Rights and Rights of Common of Estovers for Fuelwood, as shall be in or by every such Certificate, or any Schedule therein, expressed to be sold, released or extinguished, shall from thenceforth and immediately thereupon become and be merged and extinguished in the Freehold and Inheritance of the said Woods, and be for ever thenceforth veiled in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Right of His Crown, without any Bargain and Sale, Fine, Recovery, Docket or other Conveyance thereof whatsoever; any Statute, Custom, Law, Practice or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Tenant for Life.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if the Person or Persons making such Sale or Sales shall be only Tenant for Life or on Tail, or entitled only to some qualified or partial Interest therein, then the Money to be paid upon such Sale or Sales shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like manner as is directed by the said heretofore mentioned Act of the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, with respect to any Monies which ought to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands as heretofore mentioned, or shall be paid to some Trustee or Trustees lawfully authorized or empowered to receive the same, by any Settlement, Will or Deed relating thereto; and all such Certificates as aforesaid shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatsoever.

Stamp Duty.

XLVI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or in any wise be construed to repeal, restrain, abridge, alter, prejudice or affect any Power or Powers given by any or either of the said recited Acts of Parliament, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now subsisting for the Sale or Exchange of any Manors, Lordships, Bunkings, Lands, Manors or other Rights, Rents, Tithes or Hereditaments belonging to His Majesty, or for leasing the same; but all such Powers shall be and remain in full Force and Virtue; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLVII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign for making His Majesty to grant Leases under certain circumstances, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods and Forests for the time being, under the Authority of the Lord High Treasurer or the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, are empowered to grant Leases, and of certain the Regulations and Regulations then a mentioned, of certain Parts of the Royal Forests, and of certain Parklands and Enclosures within such Forests: And Whereas no Provision is contained in the said last mentioned Act, for vesting such Leases from Stamp Duty: And Whereas, in order to encourage Persons to accept and take such Leases, it is expedient that they should be rendered as little expensive to the Parties taking the same as possible: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Lease or Leases which shall be made, granted or conveyed, under any of the Powers or Authorities of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year aforesaid, of any Corporation or Corporations or of any such Lease or Leases, shall be subject or liable to any Stamp Duty whatsoever imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, nor to any Stamp Duty to be imposed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament, unless the same be specially subjected and specially charged to and by such future Act or Acts of Parliament.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty, for repealing the Duties payable on the Importation of Wine the Produce of the Cape of Good Hope, and its Dependencies, and charging other Duties in lieu thereof. [28th June 1814.]

§ 3 C. 3. c. 14.
Title A.

WHEREAS the Duties imposed by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for repealing the Duties payable on the Importation of Wine, the Produce of the Cape of Good Hope and its Dependencies, and charging other Duties in lieu thereof, on Wine the Produce of His Majesty's Settlements of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the Territories or Dependencies thereof, imported into this Kingdom, are much lower than the Duties by Law imposed on Wine, other than French Wine, and the Difference of the said Duties may afford a Temptation to ill-disposed Persons to import other Wine under Pretence that the same is Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, or of the Territories or Dependencies thereof: For the Prevention whereof it is expedient to make such Provision as is hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, any Person or Persons loading on board any Ship or Vessel in His Majesty's Settlements of the Cape of Good Hope, or in the Territories or Dependencies thereof, any Wine as of the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependencies, shall before the clearing out of such Ship or Vessel, procure and deliver to the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs at the landing Port an Affidavit, signed and sworn to before some Justice of the Peace in the said Settlement, Territories or Dependencies, either by the Grower, Maker or Shipper of such Wine, or his or their known Agent or Factor, expressing, in Words at Length and not in Figures, whether the same is Red Wine or White Wine, and the particular Name by which such Wine is there commonly called or known, with the Number and Denomination of the Packages, specifying such Wine to be of the Produce of His Majesty's Settlements of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the Territories or Dependencies thereof, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and in which Affidavit the Person who brought or procured such Wine from such Grower or Maker shall join: which Affidavit shall be attested under the Hand of the said Justice of the Peace to have been sworn to in his Presence, and such Justice is hereby required so to attest the same without Fee or Reward; and the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs to whom such Affidavit shall be delivered, shall thereupon, without Fee or Reward, grant to the Maker or other Person having the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel a Certificate under his Hand and Seal of Office of his having received such Affidavit, pursuant to the Direction of this Act, which Certificate shall express whether the said Wine shipped on board such Ship or Vessel is Red Wine or White Wine, and the Name by which the same is there commonly called or known, with the Number and Denomination of the Packages in which the same shall be shipped and contained; and such Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs shall also (without Fee or Reward), within Two Days after the sailing of the Ship or Vessel, transmit an exact Copy of the said Affidavit to the Secretary of State for the said Settlements, on Performance of Twenty Pounds: Provided always assembleth, that if at any time there shall not be any Justice of the Peace in the said Settlement, or at any of the Territories or Dependencies thereof, where any Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependencies shall be landed, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Grower, Maker or Shipper of such Wine, or his or their known Agent or Factor, to make such Affidavit before the Collector and Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs, or any Two of them, at the Port or Place from whence such Wine shall be landed on board the said Ship or Vessel (which Affidavit such Collector and Comptroller, or other Chief Officer, or any Two of them, are hereby authorized and required to take; and in the Certificate which the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs shall grant to such Master or other Person, such Collector or other Principal Officer shall also certify that there is not any Jelfier of the Peace resident at the said Settlement, or the Territory or Dependancy thereof, where such Wine shall have been loaded; and upon the Importation of such Wine, the same shall be admitted to Entry at the Low Duty to which such Wine would have been liable if this Act had not been made; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any writ notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel into the Port of her Discharge, either in Great Britain or any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions where such Goods may be lawfully received, the Master or other Person taking the Charge or Command of the said Ship or Vessel, shall, at the time of making his Report of his Cargo, deliver the said Certificate to the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Customs, and make Oath before him that the Goods so reported are the same that are mentioned in the said Certificate, an Forfeiture of One hundred Pounds; and if any such Wine shall be imported or landed on board any Ship or Vessel for which no such Certificate shall be produced, or which shall not agree therewith, or which shall not be imported directly from the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, the same shall be deemed and taken to be Foreign Wine, not of the Produce of His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the Territories or Dependancies thereof, and shall be liable to the same Duties, Restrictions, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures in all respects, as Wine, other than French Wine imported, would respectively be liable to by Law; Provided always, that if any Wine shall be imported into Great Britain directly from the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependancies thereof, without being included in such Certificate as heretofore directed, and it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in England and Scotland respectively, or any Three or more of them respectively, that the Wine is really and truly the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, and that no Fraud was intended, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said respective Commissioners, or any Three or more of them respectively, to permit the said Wine to be entered, upon Payment of the Low Duty of Customs or Excise (as the case may require) to which such Wine would have been liable if this Act had not been made; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any writ notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That if the Importer, Proprietor or Consignor, Importers, Proprietors or Consignees of any Foreign Wines other than Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, shall enter or land the same, or cause, procure, permit or suffer the same to be entered or landed as or for Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, the same shall be forfeited, and the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignor or Consignees, knowingly entering or landing, or knowingly causing, procuring, permitting or suffering to be entered or landed, any Foreign Wine, other than Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, as or for Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of Three hundred Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Dealer or Dealers in or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine shall keep all Red Wine in his, her or their Custody or Possession, the Produce of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or other Settlement, Territories or Dependancies thereof, separate and apart, and in separate Bars, Cases, Bottles, Jars, Vessels, Utensils, Piles, Parcels and Drums, from all other Wine, and shall also in like manner keep all White Wine in his, her or their Custody or Possession, the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, separate and apart, and in separate Bars, Cases, Bottles, Jars, Vessels, Utensils, Piles, Parcels and Drums, from all other Wine, upon Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and every Dealer or Dealers in or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wines, shall specify and distinguish all Wine in his, her or their Custody or Possession, the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, from all other Wine, in such and the like manner as he, she or they is or are by an Act made in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Kings, entitled An Act for repealing certain Duties now payable on Wines imported, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof, is included under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, directed or required to specify or distinguish Foreign Wines, other than French Wine, from French Wine, and shall in like manner specify and distinguish all Red Wine in his, her or their Custody or Possession, the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, from all White Wine in his, her or their Custody or Possession, the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, in such and the like manner as he, she or they is or are by the said last mentioned Act directed or required to specify or distinguish French White Wine from French Red Wine, under, subject and according to the several Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, in or by the said Act contained, provided, settled or established for the specifying or distinguishing Foreign Wine, other than French Wine, from French Wine, or French Red Wine from French White Wine, as the case may require; and the said several Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures respectively, shall be also applied, produced and put in Execution with respect to all Wine in the Custody or Possession of such Dealer or Dealers, or Seller or Sellers, the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person to be granted or given for the Removal of any Wine the Produce of the said Settlement, Territories or Dependancies, shall distinguish such Wine from all other Wine according to the Demonstration thereof specified in the Request Note, according to the Directions of the said Act made in the Twenty sixth Year aforesaid, and this Act.

4. An Act made in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign: And Whereas an Act was made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled *An Act to continue until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and for amending certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland; and to grant, until the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, certain new and additional Duties on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise into and from Ireland; and it is expedient, that all the said recited Acts, and also the several Rates and Duties granted and the Drawbacks and Bounties allowed by them, or any of them, should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Rates and Duties granted and the Drawbacks and Bounties allowed by the said recited Acts, or any of them, until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall respectively continue and be in force throughout Ireland, upon and from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, except the Rates, Duties and Drawbacks upon the several Articles upon which new and other Rates, Duties and Drawbacks are by any of the said Acts, or by this Act, imposed, granted or allowed, and except such Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar of the British Plantations, and on Refined Sugar, under the said recited Acts, or any of them, as are provided for by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act to provide more effectually for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland; and for allowing British Plantations Sugar to be Warehoused in Ireland, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight; which said last recited Act, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, is continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that the said recited Acts (except as aforesaid, and except also as they are altered or repealed by each other, or by this Act, or by any other Act), and all the Powers and Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Acts, or any of them, shall be observed and complied with during the Term hereby granted, as fully and effectually as if the said Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties, and the said Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Matters and Things had been by the said recited Acts, or any of them, extended to the Term hereby granted, and as if the Term hereby granted had made part of the said recited Acts, or any of them; and that the several Articles in respect whereof any Rate or Duty is granted or imposed or continued, or any Drawback or Bounty is allowed by the said recited Acts, or any of them, until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall respectively be and remain liable to the Rates and Duties, and shall be entitled to the Drawbacks and Bounties (except as aforesaid) allowed in respect thereof, under the Regulations and Provisions of the said recited Acts, upon, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Moneys to arise from the Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence imposed by the said last recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, upon every Entry Inwards and Outwards in the Port of Dublin (except as in the said Act is excepted) shall be received by the Collector of the said Port, who is hereby authorized to demand and receive the same, and shall be by him paid at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland; and the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, for the time being, shall cause so much of the said Duty as shall remain due from Six pence, Part of the said Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence, to be paid to the Treasurer of the Royal Exchange in the City of Dublin, so be by them applied towards keeping the same in Repair, and towards the Discharge of the Wages of Servants employed therein, and shall cause so much of the said Duty as shall remain from the remaining Two Shillings of the said Duty, to be paid to or for the Use of the Corporation for erecting Buildings for Commercial Purposes in Dublin, to be by them applied in manner required by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, until any Corporation shall be established for the Purpose of erecting a Free Exchange in the City of Dublin; and whenever any such intended Corporation shall obtain a Charter of Incorporation from His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, then the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland shall cause so much of the said Duty as shall remain from Two Shillings thereof, to be paid to or for the Use of such last mentioned Corporation, to be applied by such Corporation, in the first Place, to discharge any Debt due from the said Corporation for erecting Buildings for Commercial Purposes in Dublin, and the Remainder of such Sum shall be applied towards discharging the Interest of such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Fifteen thousand Pounds in the whole, as may have been or shall be borrowed for erecting and finishing such Free Exchange, and towards the Discharge of the Principal Sum so borrowed, and for no other Purpose, and to be duly accounted for before the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in Ireland.

III. And Whereas the Commission of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies granted to Your Majesty, and for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, have refused to grant to Your Majesty the several new Duties hereinafter mentioned, upon certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Ireland; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in ready Money (except as hereinafter is provided), without any Discount whatever upon the Importation of the several Goods, Wares and daily paid and discharged at any time before the said Fifth Day of July, the several and respective Duties hereinafter; that is to say,

Duties. For and upon each and every Tun containing Two hundred and fifty two Gallons of French Wine, imported in Shipping of the United Kingdom, the Sum of One hundred and thirty five Pounds and Twelve Shillings British Currency :

For and upon each and every Tish Tun of French Wine, imported in Foreign Shipping, the Sum of One hundred and thirty one Pounds Thirteen Shillings British Currency : [See c. 129. § 8. and Sch. A. pag. 8.]

Exportation. And that upon the Exportation of any French Wine which shall have paid the said Duties imposed by this Act, or in respect of which any Repayment or Allowance shall have been made under this Act in manner hereinafter mentioned, there shall be paid in lieu of all Drawbacks on Wine of the like Sorts the several and respective Drawbacks following; that is to say,

Drawbacks. For and upon every Tish Tun of French Wine exported to any British Colony or Plantation in America, to any British Settlement in the East Indies, to China, to Brazil, or to any other of the Territories or Possessions of the Crown of Portugal in South America, or to any of the Territories of the United States of America, the Sum of One hundred and twenty six Pounds Three Shillings British Currency :

For and upon every Tish Tun of French Wine, exported to any other Country or Place, the Sum of One hundred and twenty one Pounds Four Shillings British Currency. [See c. 129. § 8. and Sch. A. pag. 8.]

For and upon the Exportation of French Wine. XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the former Drawbacks, payable by Law on the Exportation of any such French Wine from Ireland in respect of any former Duties thereon, shall remain and continue payable on the Exportation of such Wines only wherein the whole of such former Duty shall have been fully paid and satisfied, and in respect of which no Repayment or Allowance shall have been made under this Act in manner hereinafter mentioned; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any wife notwithstanding.

Allowance on French Wines. XIII. And be it further enacted, That upon French Wines which on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be in the Stores or Warehouses, or in the Custody, Power or Possession of any Merchant or Importer or Dealer in, or Factor, Seller or Retailer of such Wine, and which shall have been charged with and shall have paid all Duties payable on the Importation thereof, and all Duties imposed on the same, in the Stores, Warehouses, Custody, Power or Possession of such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retailer, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, immediately before the passing of this Act, there shall be received and allowed the Repayment or Allowance following, in respect of the Duties in heretofore paid thereon; that is to say,

For and upon every Tun, containing Two hundred and fifty two Gallons of such French Wine, the Sum of Three Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency, which Repayment or Allowance shall be paid and allowed in manner directed by this Act.

Stock of French Wines. XIV. And, for shortening the Stock of French Wines belonging to all Merchants, Importers of, Factors and Dealers in, or Sellers or Retailers of such Wines, on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in order to the making such Repayment or Allowance thereon to such Merchants, Importers, Factors, Dealers, Sellers and Retailers respectively, be it further enacted, That every such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer, who shall respectively have any such French Wines in his, her or their Possession, in any Warehouse, Store Room, Shop, Cellar, Vault or other Place, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person, for his or her Use (other than and except such Wines as may be in any of His Majesty's Warehouses for Security of the Duties thereon), and who shall claim any Repayment or Allowance under this Act, in respect of the Duties heretofore paid on any such French Wine, shall within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, deliver at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which such Wine shall have been on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, a full true and particular Account in Writing of the Quantity of such French or other Wine, which on the said Fifth Day of July shall have been in the Custody or Possession of such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer in every such Warehouse or other Place, or in the Custody or Possession of any Person for his or her Use (except as aforesaid), describing the Places in which the same shall be and the Situation thereof, and distinguishing whether such Wines are Red or White; and all Wines in Bottles shall be accounted for, according to the Number of Bottles, without excepting the Number of Gallons of Wine contained in such Bottles, but estimating the Number of such Gallons in the whole by a fair Calculation made on the actual Contents of any given Number of such Bottles indifferently chosen; and every such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer, shall make Oath, or if a Quaker, a solemn Affirmation, before the Collector of Excise of the District, that such Account is a just and true and perfect Account of all such Wines as aforesaid, which Oath or Affirmation such Collector is hereby authorized to administer; and every such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer, or other Person, who shall deliver, or make to be delivered, any false or untrue Account, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds British Currency.

Yds. XV. And be it further enacted, That, for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at any time within Two Calendar Months next after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, to enter into all or any of the Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, and any other Place, of any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller of such Wine, whether by Wholesale or Retail, who shall have delivered in any such Account as aforesaid, for the Purpose of charging any such Repayment or Allowance of the Duty on any such French Wine as aforesaid, and into any Place where any such French Wine belonging to any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller shall in such Account be declared to be, and by taking, gaging or otherwise to take an Account of the Quantity and Quality of all such French Wine on which such Repayment or Allowance shall be so claimed, and

Officers of Excise may enter Possession of Dealers in Wine. XVI. And be it further enacted, That, for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at any time within Two Calendar Months next after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, to enter into all or any of the Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, and any other Place, of any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller of such Wine, whether by Wholesale or Retail, who shall have delivered in any such Account as aforesaid, for the Purpose of charging any such Repayment or Allowance of the Duty on any such French Wine as aforesaid, and into any Place where any such French Wine belonging to any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller shall in such Account be declared to be, and by taking, gaging or otherwise to take an Account of the Quantity and Quality of all such French Wine on which such Repayment or Allowance shall be so claimed, and then and those found in the Cellar of or belonging to any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller in any Cask or in any Vessel except Bottles; and also to take an Account of all such French Wines on which such Repayment or Allowance shall be claimed, as shall then and there be found in Bottles, in any other manner than by tasting the same, or by ascertaining and opening the Bottles containing such Wine (except with the Consent of the Proprietor) for the Purpose of ascertaining the Number of Gallons therein, in measure allowed; and in case of Refusal of such Consent, the Quantity contained in such Bottles shall not be included in the Account taken by such Officer, nor in the Quantity for which any such Repayment or Allowance shall be granted or allowed; and if any Officer or Officers of Excise, on Demand made by him or them at any such Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, Shop, Cellar, Vault or other Place, shall not be admitted therein, or shall not be suffered to take an Account of all such Wines, in manner aforesaid, or if such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retailer, or Person having the Custody or Possession of such Wines, shall neglect or refuse to show, or cause to be shown to such Officer all such Wines in respect of which such Repayment or Allowance shall be claimed as aforesaid in every such Warehouse or other Place respectively, every such Person respectively being or in whose Warehouse or other Place such Officer shall not be admitted or shall not be suffered to take such Account, and every such Person who shall neglect or refuse to show or cause to be shown to such Officer all such Wines as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence or Default, respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Great Currency.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Dispute between any Officer of Excise and any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retailer of such French or other Wine, as which such Negation or Allowance shall be claimed as aforesaid, as to the Nature or Species of any particular Wine, and the Country of which it is the Growth or Produce, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer of Excise, and every such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered, to take at any time or times a Sample or Samples not exceeding One Quart of any such Wine, whether in Bottles or in Casks, or in any other Vessel or Vessels, paying for such Wine the usual Price thereof; and if such Officer or Officers shall not be permitted to take such Sample or Samples as aforesaid, upon his offering to pay, for the same after the Rate aforesaid, or shall in any way be obstructed or hindered by any Person or Persons whatsoever in taking such Sample or Samples, the Merchant or Importer or of Seller or Dealer in such Wine, or other Person in whose Cellars such Wine shall be, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the sum of Twenty Pounds; and no such Merchant, Importer, Seller or Dealer, or other Person shall be entitled to any Reimbursement or Allowance under this Act, in respect of any Wines of which such Sample shall be refused as aforesaid; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every such Officer and Officers of Excise who shall take Account of such Wines, shall make a Return or Report of the same to the Collector of Excise of the District, and shall insert in such Return or Report the Amount of the Repayment or Allowance which shall be payable under this Act to any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retainer respectively, in respect of the Duties heretofore paid to such Wine by such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retainer respectively, and such Return or Report shall ascertain the Amount of such Repayment or Allowance, in case such Return or Report shall contain a Quantity equal to or less than the Quantity contained in the respective Accounts heretofore delivered to be returned by the Parties respectively to whom such Wines shall belong, and who shall claim any such Drawback or Allowance; but in case the Quantity contained in any such Account of any such Parties shall be less than the Quantity contained in the Account of any Officer to be taken as aforesaid, or if no such Account shall be taken by such Officer, then such Repayment or Allowance shall be calculated by the Collector, to whom any Account shall be delivered by the Parties as aforesaid according as the Quantity contained in such Account of such Parties and verified upon Oath or Affirmation of such Parties, in manner heretofore mentioned.

XVIII. And be it further resolved, That all Field Accounts, Returns and Reports to be made under this Act either by the Officers of Excise or by the Parties claiming such Drawback or Allowances, shall be transmitted by the Collectors of Excise who shall receive the same to the Commissioners of Excise and Inland Duties in Dublin; and the said Commissioners shall thereupon provide for the said Repayment or Allowance as aforesaid, to the Parties claiming and entitled to the same, in such manner and at such times as the said Commissioners, by any Order to be made by them, or any Three of them, shall direct and appoint.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandises, of the Produce of Countries within the Largest State, imported into Ireland under the Authority of an Act made in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty's Regency, entitled An Act to permit, during the Continuance of Hostilities, and until the Month after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation into Great Britain and Ireland, of Neutral Goods from States in Amity with His Majesty of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises; and to improve His Majesty, by Order in Council, to prohibit the Exportation of Copper; and to permit the Importation of Neutral Goods from States in Amity with His Majesty of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises, shall be subject and liable to the Duties payable by Lace in Ireland to the Largest Company in like manner as if such Goods, Wares and Merchandises had been imported into Ireland directly from Tarapur.

* X.X. And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether Foreign Liquors and Tobacco Derived, Jetters, Flashes, Liquors or Wines, brought in coming into Ireland, are by the Laws now in force in Ireland fully-let and liable to the Payment of Duties; and such Foreign Liquors and Tobacco have by reason of such Doubts been sometimes sold and carried into Conspicuous without any Duties having been paid for or in respect thereof, to the great Loss of His Majesty's Revenue and Injury of Persons dealing in such Liquors and Tobacco, for or in respect whereof the Duties have been paid on Importation; Be it therefore enacted, That all such Customs or Excise, in the same State and Condition as the same was or were in at the time of such bringing, finding or delivering thereof; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any Wife notwithstanding.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the several said respective Duties by this Act granted on the Importation into Ireland of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned in this Act, and the Schedule thereto annexed, shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise as shall not have been surveyed or on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or on which the Duties due and payable on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares and Merchandise may have been exported into Ireland before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or before the passing of this Act.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Duties granted, mentioned and set forth in this Act and the said Schedule (a) shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise therein mentioned, as, having been imported into Ireland, shall have been or shall be warehoused, or shall be or shall have been secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof having been first paid, and shall remain so warehoused or secured as or after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in pursuance or by Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland for that Purpose, although such Goods, Wares or Merchandise may have been exported before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: Provided always, that such Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, until the Duties which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall have been subject to before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be payable by Law.

(a) [Repealed, c. 129, § 8, post.]

XXV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all cases where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on the Importation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise into Ireland, are permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland at the time of such importation, the Duties by this Act and the Schedule (b) therein enacted, granted or imposed, may in like manner and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, be permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise. (b) [Repealed, c. 129, § 8, post.]

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, where any Goods, Wares and Merchandise whatever, intended to be exported from Ireland, shall be entered for Exportation, if any Package, Case or Vessel, in which any such Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned in such Entry shall be contained, shall not be duly defined in manner directed by Law, or if the Goods contained in such particular Package, Case or Vessel, shall not agree with the Account of the Contents of such Package, Case or Vessel, such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, together with the Package, Case or Vessel, in which the same shall be contained, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise at any time after such Entry made, and at any time either before or after the same shall be actually shipped off or shipped on board any Ship or Vessel for Exportation.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Duties of Customs imposed by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise from Ireland are charged, not according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Exportation, without any Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, except of so much as the Duties of Customs or Excise paid thereon or payable at the time of the Entry of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall amount unto, and that such Value shall be ascertained (except as in this Act is provided) by the Oath of the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, or of his known Agent or Factor; and in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall not be valued according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officers or Officers of the Customs to cause the same to be detained, and the said Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every respect, except as hereinafter is provided, in the manner prescribed to and by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Royal Majesty, entitled An Act more effectually to regulate the Collection of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported or exported into or from Ireland; and the Paymaster of Excise, Almoner and Drogheda stores, with respect to Goods imported subject to Duty at customs.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, subject to Duty on Exportation, according to the Value thereof, shall on Examination by the proper Officers of the Customs be found to be undervalued, and shall on that account be detained, the Exporter or Proprietor shall in such case be paid the Value of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, according to the Oath made on the Entry thereof for Exportation, together with the Amount of the Customs paid thereon at the time of the Entry thereof, without any further Allowance whatsoever; any thing in the said recited Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if at the time of making the Entry for the Exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland on which any Duties of Customs are charged or are payable according to the Value thereof, the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise is examined for Exportation, or his known Agent or Factor, shall not be able to ascertain the true and real Value thereof, it shall be lawful for the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, to permit such Exporter or Proprietor, Agent or Factor, to ship or export such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, upon making Oath that such real Value cannot be ascertained, and upon Bond being given either by the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or by the known Agent or Factor of such Exporter or Proprietor, to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with Duties payable on Goods not surveyed, although imported before July 1, 1814.

And also Goods warehoused before this Day.

Proviso.

Duties secured by Bond.

Packages of Goods entered for Exportation defined according to L. W. and entries in same with Accounts.

True Value of Goods taken in ascertaining Duties payable on Exports etc.

Oath.

§ 6 c. 129. § 8.

In case where Goods undervalued, Exporter paid Value according to Oath on Entry.

When and how Customs are ascertained. Collection in person of Goods on various Conditions.

with One sufficient Receipt to the Amount of the supposed or estimated Duty on the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise conditioned for the Payment of the said Duties, within Three Months, and according to the true and real Value thereof, and for producing the Invoice and Bills of Parcels, or such other Documents as shall be required by the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, in case the Production thereof shall be thought necessary by such Officers of the Customs, for the Purpose of ascertaining the true and real Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, to be exported as aforesaid.

owner and
Agent specified in Entry, &c.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation of all Goods, Wares and Merchandise, of which the real Value cannot be ascertained, and in cases where the Duties are allowed to be secured by Bond as aforesaid, the Name of the said real Exporter, whether such Exporter shall be the Proprietor, or the Agent or Factor of the Proprietor, shall be specified in the Entry, together with the Name of the Agent or Factor making the Entry and giving such Bond, and an Oath of the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise according to which the Duties shall be ascertained and paid and the Bond cancelled, shall in all such cases be made and signed by such actual and real Exporter, and not by any Clerk, Agent or Broker of such Exporter.

Value.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Exporter of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise entered for Exportation shall knowingly and fraudulently make any false Oath of the Value of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, after the same shall have been allowed to be shipped for Exportation, every such Exporter shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum equal to the true and real Value of all such Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

Duties, &c. how levied.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties and Drawbacks and Bounties by this Act continued or granted or allowed and made payable, and all and every Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and applied in the same manner and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such ways and methods, and under such Rules and Directions, as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying and paying, and managing of Duties and Drawbacks payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, or for the levying and applying any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, as and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland, in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for settling the Excise or new Imposed upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted, as in and by an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of this present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Customs and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, as in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers and Authorities, Rules and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures were herein expressed and enacted, with the like remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved, as in and by the said Act, passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or in and by any other Act or Acts as aforesaid is provided. [See c. 129. § 8. 34. pp6.]

Appeal.

Continuation of Act.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and Ninety, and no longer.

Act altered, &c.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or the Acts hereby continued, or any of them, may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall exercise the Trade or Business of an Auctioneer within the District of the Excise Office of Dublin shall, before the Commencement of any Sale by way of Auction, deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of the Examiner of Auctions Dues in Dublin, and also at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the said District, a written or printed Catalogue, signed by such Auctioneer, or by his known Clerk on his behalf, in which Catalogue shall be particularly expressed and set forth the particular Place where and the Day and Hour when such Auction is to begin, and every Article, Lot, Parcel and Thing intended to be sold at such Auction; and every Person who shall exercise the Trade or Business of an Auctioneer in any other Part of Ireland than the District of the Exchequer Office of Dublin, shall before the Commencement of any Sale by way of Auction, deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which such Sale is intended to be held, a written or printed Catalogue signed by such Auctioneer, or by his known Clerk on his behalf, in which Catalogue shall be particularly expressed and set forth the particular Place where and the Day and Hour when such Auction is to begin, and every Article, Lot, Parcel and Thing intended to be sold at such Auction; and if any Auctioneer shall sell or put up to sale any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects, by way of Auction, without delivering or causing to be delivered any of the Catalogues herebefore required to be delivered, or shall at any such Sale sell or put up to sale any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects not particularly expressed or set forth in such Catalogue, every such Auctioneer shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in every case where a Sale shall not take place or be opened or begun as the Day specified in any Catalogue delivered by any Auctioneer in pursuance of the Act, every Auctioneer who shall have delivered or caused to be delivered any such Catalogue for a Sale by Auction within the District of the Exchequer Office of Dublin, shall within Twenty eight Days after the Day specified in such Catalogue as the particular Day, when such Sale by Auction was to begin, deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of the Examiner of Auctions Dues in Dublin, and also at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the said District, a Declaration in Writing or in Print, signed by such Auctioneer, or by his known Clerk on his behalf, setting forth, that no Sale whatever by way of Auction took place, or was any way opened or begun under such Catalogue, and such Auctioneer or his known Clerk shall make Oath to the Truth of such Declaration before the said Examiner of Auctions Dues or Collector, which Oath such Officers are hereby respectively authorized, empowered and required to administer without Fee or Reward; and that every Auctioneer who shall have delivered or caused to have been delivered any Catalogue in any other Part of Ireland, shall within Twenty eight Days after the Day specified in such Catalogue as the particular Day when such Sale by Auction was to begin, deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of Excise of the District in which such Sale had been or was intended to be held, a like Declaration in Writing or in Print, signed as aforesaid, that no Sale whatever by way of Auction took place, or was any way opened or begun under such Catalogue in like manner as is heretofore required with respect to Persons selling by Auction within the District of the Exchequer Office of Dublin, to be verified on Oath by the said Auctioneer, or his known Clerk, before the Collector of Excise, or before any Sub-Commissioner of Ireland Excise and Taxes for the District in which such Sale had been or was intended to be held; which Oath such Collector or Sub-Commissioner respectively are hereby authorized to administer; and every Auctioneer who shall neglect to make and deliver or cause to be made and delivered such Declaration verified by Affidavit as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Auctioneer selling by Auction within the District of the Exchequer Office of Dublin, shall and he is hereby required, within Twenty eight Days after the Commencement of any Sale by way of Auction, to deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of the Examiner of Auctions Dues in Dublin, and also at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the said District, as much, true and particular Account in Writing of the several Articles, Lots or Parcels contained in the Catalogue as is aforesaid delivered, specifying in the said Account which of the said Articles, Lots or Parcels shall have been then sold, and the Price of every such Article, Lot or Parcel, and the total Amount of the Purchase Money of each Sale, and also specifying which of the said Articles, Lots or Parcels shall not have been then sold; and every such Auctioneer or his known Clerk, shall at the same time make Oath to the Truth of such Account before the Examiner of Auctions Dues in Dublin, which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized, empowered and required to administer, without Fee or Reward; and if any Article, Lot or Parcel returned in such Account as not having been sold, shall really have been sold in the time of such Account being delivered, every such Auctioneer shall for every such Article, Lot or Parcel, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and every Auctioneer selling by Auction in any other Part of Ireland, shall and he is hereby required in like manner, within Twenty eight Days after the Commencement of any Sale by way of Auction by him held, to deliver to the Collector of Excise of the District in which such Sale shall be held, as much, true and particular Account in Writing of the several Articles, Lots or Parcels contained in the Catalogue as is aforesaid delivered, specifying in the said Account which of the said Articles, Lots or Parcels shall have been then sold, and the Price of every such Article, Lot or Parcel, and the total Amount of the Purchase Money of each Sale, and also specifying which of the said Articles, Lots or Parcels shall not have been then sold; and every such Auctioneer, or his known Clerk, shall make Oath to the Truth of every such last mentioned Account before the said Collector of Excise, or before any Sub-Commissioner of Ireland Excise and Taxes for such District, which Oath such Collector or Sub-Commissioner are hereby respectively authorized, empowered and required to administer without Fee or Reward; and if any Article, Lot or Parcel returned in such Account as not having been sold shall really have been sold at the time of such Account being delivered, every Auctioneer shall for every such Article, Lot or Parcel, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and any Auctioneer who shall neglect or omit to deliver such respective Accounts at the respective Times and Places, and to the Persons, and verified as aforesaid heretofore prescribed, shall, for every such Neglect or Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Auctioneer shall be charged and chargeable with, and shall pay the Auction Duty payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on every Sale, at the time when every such Account of such Sale, and the Money produced thereby, shall have been or ought to have been delivered, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Twenty Pounds for Default of Payment at the time aforesaid, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty chargeable on such Sale.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if upon the Trial of any Information against any Auctioneer for any Offence against this Act, any Question shall arise, whether any Sale by Auction, or whether any Article, Lot or Parcel sold at any Sale, and for and in respect of which such Information shall be filed, was exempt from the Auction Duty, the Proof that such Sale, or that such Article, Lot or Parcel (as the case may be), was exempt from the Auction Duty, and of the circumstances of such Exemption, shall be on every such Auctioneer, and not on the Officer prosecuting such Information.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Goods, Chancels or Effects, sold by Auction, shall have been sold by Sample or otherwise, so that the Auctioneer cannot ascertain the Quantity actually sold, and where such Sale shall have taken place within the District of the Exchequer Office of London, the Proprietor of such Goods, or some Agent or Person authorized on his behalf, shall, within Twenty one Days after the Commencement of such Sale, deliver to the Examiner of the Auction Duty in London, and also to the Collector of Excise for the said District, upon Oath of such Proprietor or Agent, which Oath may be administered by such Officers respectively, an exact Account of the Quantity of such Goods, and the Sum of Money produced by the Sale thereof; and where such Sale shall have taken place in any other Part of England, such Proprietor or his Agent shall, within the said Space of Twenty one Days, deliver a like Account to the Collector of the District in which such Sale shall have taken place, upon Oath of such Proprietor or Agent, which Oath may be administered by such Collector; and such Proprietor or his Agent shall also in all cases, within the said Space of Twenty one Days after the Commencement of such Sale, furnish the Auctioneer with a true Copy of such Account; and if such Proprietor or his Agent shall neglect to deliver such Account, or Copies thereof, to the Officers heretofore mentioned, and to the Auctioneer, in manner aforesaid, within the said Space of Twenty one Days, every such Proprietor or his Agent neglecting shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Error shall be discovered in any Charge of Duty against any Auctioneer, by charging such Auctioneer with a greater Amount of Duty than ought to have been charged against such Auctioneer, it shall and may be lawful for him to make his Complaint within Six Calendar Months next after the Error shall have been discovered, before the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, who are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such Complaint, and upon Proof thereof to relieve the Party so complaining of so much of the Duty as shall appear to have been overcharged; and if such Duty shall have been paid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to repay the same; and in case it shall be discovered that any Error has been committed by charging any Auctioneer with a less Amount of Duty than ought to have been charged, it shall and may be lawful for the Examiner of the Auction Duty, and he is hereby required to rectify the same as speedily as may be convenient, and to report the same to the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, who are hereby required to give Notice to such Auctioneer of the Amount of the Deficiency of the Duty in consequence of such Error, and if such Auctioneer shall not, within One Month after such Notice, show sufficient cause to such Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes why he should not be charged with and pay such Deficiency, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to order a Return to be made by the said Examiner of the Auction Duty to the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which the erroneous Charge was returned, and the Duty specified in the Return of such Examiner shall be a Surcharge on such Auctioneer; and if such Auctioneer shall not on Demand, or within Ten Days next after, pay the said Amount of such Duties so surcharged, such Auctioneer shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Amount of the Duty which shall be so surcharged; Provided, that no such Return shall be a Surcharge on any Auctioneer unless it shall have been made, and the Amount demanded, within Six Months after the Discovery of the Error.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Sale by Auction of any Estate, Goods, Chancels or Effects shall be rendered void by reason that the Person for whose Benefit the same was sold had no Title to the same, or no Right to dispose thereof, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the Auctioneer chargeable with, or who shall have paid the Duty on the Things so sold, or for the Person for whose Benefit the same was sold, in case such Sale was held in the District of the Exchequer Office of London, or lay a Complaint before the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in England; and the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, upon such Complaint to them made by or on behalf of such Auctioneer, or by or on behalf of the Person for whose Benefit the same was sold, shall and they are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine upon Oath all such Complaints, and examine the Witnesses produced before them by the Parties, and thereupon or upon other due Proof to relieve the Party so complaining, and thereupon to repay the Duty in case the same shall have been paid in respect of the Estate, Goods, Chancels or Effects, the Sale of which shall be rendered void; and in case such Sale was held in any other Part of England, then such Complaint shall and may be laid before the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes so and for the District in which such Sale was held, who shall and may, and they are hereby authorized to hear and determine the same upon Oath, and to examine Witnesses, and thereupon and upon other due Proof to report to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes whether such said Commissioners are of Opinion that the Party complaining ought to be relieved or not; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make such Order for relieving such Party and enjoying the Duty as to them shall from fit, and such Duty shall be repaid upon the Order of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them accordingly.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Complaint shall be made within Twelve Calendar Months after such Sale, if the Sale shall be rendered void as aforesaid within that time; or if the Sale shall not be rendered void as aforesaid within that time, then such Complaint shall be made within Three Months after the Discovery of the Person for whose Benefit any such Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects was or were sold, having no Title to the same, or no Right to dispose thereof; and no such Complaint shall be made, or any Relief given thereupon, unless such Complaint shall have been made within the time herebefore in that behalf prescribed, nor in any case after the Expiration of Three Years.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the real Owner of any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects put up to sale by way of Auction in Ireland shall become the Purchaser by means of his own Bidding, or the Bidding of any Person on his behalf or for his Use, at such Sale without Fraud or Collusion, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioner of Auction Duty in Dublin, or the Collector of Excise in the District in which such Sale shall be held, and they are respectively authorized and empowered to make an Allowance to the Owner of such Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects, of the Duties arising under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, upon such Bidding or Sale; provided that Notice in Writing, signed by the Owner and the Person intended to be the Bidder, that such Bidder is appointed by or on behalf of such Owner to bid at the Sale for the Use and Benefit of such Owner, shall have been given to the Auctioneer before such Bidding, and that the Delivery of such Notice shall be verified by the Oath of such Auctioneer, as also the Fairness and Rectitude of the Transaction to the best of his Knowledge and Belief.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Auctioneer who shall sell by Auction any Goods delivered for Nonpayment of Rent, shall, Two Days previous to the Sale of such Goods, in case such Goods shall have been distrained within the District of the Excise Office of Dublin, deliver to the Examining Officer of Auction Duty in Dublin, and also to the Collector of Excise of the said District, a Notice in Writing, specifying the particular Day when and Place where such Goods are intended to be sold; and shall also, within Twenty eight Days after the Day specified for such Sale to commence, deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of the said Examining Officer, and also at the Office of the said Collector of Excise, an exact and true Account of every Article or Thing sold at such Sale, with the Amount of the whole Sum for which such Article sold; and in case such Goods shall have been distrained in any other Part of Ireland, then such Auctioneer shall deliver a like Notice and Account respectively, within the respective times aforesaid, to the Collector of Excise of the District within which such Goods shall have been distrained, and the Landlord or other Person on whose Account the Distress shall be made shall, at the Foot of every such Account, certify the exact Sum due for the Rent in respect of which such Goods shall have been distrained, and that such Goods were really and lawfully distrained for such Rent; and if any such Auctioneer shall neglect to deliver any such Notice or Account in manner and to the respective Officers herein directed, such Auctioneer shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if any Landlord or other Person shall give any false Certificate of any of the Particulars aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then and in every such case every such Landlord or Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Auctioneer who shall sell by Auction any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects seized for the Benefit of any Creditor by or under the Authority of any Sheriff in Execution of any Judgment, shall specify in the Accounts to be by him delivered under the Direction of the said Act, the particular Estate, Goods, Chattels and Effects sold, and also the exact Sum levied under such Execution; and the Sheriff or Under Sheriff shall and is hereby required to certify at the Foot of such Account, that all the Estate, Goods, Chattels and Effects in such Account specified, were really the Property of the Person against whom such Judgment was had and obtained, and that the same and every Part thereof were actually seized in Execution of the same Judgment; and every Auctioneer who shall be employed by the Assignees under any Commission of Bankruptcy, shall likewise specify in the Account to be by him delivered as aforesaid, the particular Estate, Goods, Chattels and Effects sold; and the Assignees or Assignees under such Commission shall certify at the Foot of such Account, that all the Estate, Goods, Chattels and Effects specified were really the Property of the Bankrupt at the time of taking forth the said Commission; and every such Certificate respectively shall be produced by every such Auctioneer to the Person to whom such Auctioneer is by this Act directed to deliver his Accounts; and such Certificate shall be sufficient Authority to such Officer to discharge the said Auctioneer from all Duty on the Sale of such Goods by Auction; and if any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Assignee or Assignees shall neglect, or suffer or permit to be inserted in such Account to be certified, any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects whatsoever, other than such as really were the Property of the Debtor or Debtors, Bankrupt or Bankrupts as aforesaid respectively; or if any Sheriff or Under Sheriff, Assignee or Assignees shall respectively omit or neglect to certify on such Account within the time prescribed by this Act for the Auctioneer to deliver in his Account, the true Sum levied, or shall certify thereon any false Sum levied, then and in every such case the Party offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every Auctioneer who shall be employed to sell any Goods damaged by Fire, sold by order or for the Benefit of the Insurer or Insurers of such Goods, or any Agent or Agents of such Insurers, shall specify in the Account to be by him or them delivered, the particular Goods which were sold; and the Insurer or Insurers, or the Agent or Agents of such Insurer or Insurers ordering such Sale shall, and he and they is and are hereby required to certify at the Foot thereof that all the Goods in such Account specified

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Monies whatever, issuing from any Duties, Aids, Revenues or Taxes, or which may or ought to be placed to the Credit of the Public Revenue of Ireland, in the Account of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, and which may at any time become payable into the Exchequer of Ireland, by any Receiver General or any Public Accountant, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, for or on account of any Aids, Revenues, Taxes, Fines or Rents, or for or upon any other Account whatever, shall by every such Receiver General or other Public Accountant, or Person required by Law to pay the same, be paid into the Bank of Ireland, in the Credit and Account of the Teller of His Majesty's Exchequer of Ireland; of all which Payments, Certificates or Accountable Receipts shall be granted to the Parties making such Payments, by the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank of Ireland, in such Form as the Governor of the said Bank shall think fit, or as may from time to time be directed by the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of them for the time being; and upon the Production of any such Certificate or Accountable Receipt to the Teller of the said Exchequer, or at the Counter thereof, the said Teller of the Exchequer shall forthwith give and deliver to the Party producing any such Certificate or Accountable Receipt, an Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance for the Monies received in such Certificate or Accountable Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank; which said Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance shall be given in such Form, and shall specify all such Particulars, and shall be recorded and countersigned in the Office of the Auditor General and Clerk of the Pells of the said Exchequer, in such manner as is required by the said second Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, with respect to Receipts by the said Act required to be given by the said Teller of the Exchequer, for Monies received by him according to the Direction of the said second Act.

20 G. 3. (1)
c. 18.

Exchequer Receipt on Acquittance, which Money actually paid into Bank.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance whatever shall be deemed, taken or considered as a sufficient Discharge or Quittance to any Receiver General or other Public Accountant whatever for any Monies chargeable to the Account of such Receiver General or other Public Accountant, unless Payment of the full Amount of all Monies mentioned in such Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance shall have been actually made into the Bank of Ireland, in pursuance of the Direction of this Act; any thing in the said second Act of the Thirty-fifth Year, or any other Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage or Custom whatever, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

No Money paid by Teller, whenever then by Draft on Bank, except signed by Cash of Pells.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Payment shall be made by the Teller of the Exchequer in Money in the Count of the said Exchequer, but that all Payments and Issues of any Public Monies out of the said Exchequer, for any Service whatsoever, shall be made by Drafts drawn on the Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland, by the Teller of the said Exchequer; and in each and every such Draft, the particular Head of Service for which the same is drawn shall be specified, and each and every such Draft shall be recorded in the Office of the Clerk of the Pells of the said Exchequer, who shall also countersign the same; and no Draft of the Teller of the said Exchequer, or his Deputy, shall be deemed a sufficient Voucher, Authority or Discharge to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, unless the same shall be drawn and recorded and countersigned in the manner aforesaid, and shall be actually paid by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

Monies issued from Treasury to, or otherwise received by Public Accountants,
paid on a Bank,
and drawn out thereby by Drafts, being drawn in Geo-vern they are to be applied to.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all BANK ACCOUNTS, or Payments whatsoever, to be made out of the Exchequer of Ireland to all Public Accountants whatever, the principal part of which Disbursement or Issues may be either the City or County of Dublin, shall be issued and made to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, by Drafts from the Teller of the said Exchequer, countersigned by the Clerk of the Pells as aforesaid, in Favour and on Account of such Public Accountants, and that by virtue of such Drafts, the Money mentioned therein shall be placed to the Account of such Public Accountants respectively, in the Books of the Bank of Ireland; and that all such Money so placed to the Account of such Public Accountants respectively in the Books of the said Bank of Ireland, shall remain in the said Bank of Ireland; until drawn out in manner hereinafter mentioned; and that all other Monies whatever which shall come to the Hands of all or any Public Accountants, shall be paid immediately on Receipt thereof, by such Public Accountants, into the said Bank of Ireland, and be placed in the Books of the said Bank in the Account of such Public Accountants respectively, and shall not at any time remain in the Hands of such Public Accountants; and that no Money shall at any time be drawn out of the Money so placed to the Account of any such Public Accountant in the Books of the Bank of Ireland, nor shall any Money be paid or applied by any such Accountant, in any manner whatever, except by Drafts drawn by such Public Accountants respectively upon the said Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland, for the several Services required, according to the Office and Duty of such Public Accountants respectively; and signed by such Public Accountants respectively; and in every such Draft by any such Public Accountant, the Nature of the Service and the particular Head thereof to which the Sum therein mentioned is to be applied, or for which it is ordered or intended, shall be specified and set forth; and no Draft of any such Public Accountant shall be deemed a sufficient Voucher, Authority or Discharge to the said Governor and Company, unless the same shall be signed by the Service for which it is drawn, and shall be actually paid by the said Governor and Company; and the Monies to be issued from the said Exchequer to the said Governor and Company, as Accountant of the said Public Accountants respectively, or any of them, shall not be paid out of the said Bank unless in pursuance of such Drafts as aforesaid, so specifying the Service to which the same therein mentioned are to be applied; and which Drafts so drawn, and some other, shall be sufficient Authority to the Governor and Company of the said Bank to pay such Money to the Person mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Heirs of such Drafts respectively.

Drafts of Public Accountants not sufficient discharge unless signed by Service for which drawn, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after the Commencement of this Act, any Teller of the Exchequer of Ireland, or any Public Accountant, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, on whose Account any Money shall be paid or placed in the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid, shall make or Draw any Draft or Drafts for the Payment or Application of any Part of the Money is placed to the Account of such Teller, Public Accountant, or other Person or Persons, to or for any other Purposes than the same ought by Law to be paid and applied, or without specifying in the said Draft the particular Head of Service to which the Money mentioned therein is to be applied, in manner aforesaid, or in any manner contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; or if any such Teller or Public Accountant shall in any manner pay or apply any Public Money in his Hands, or for which he is accountable, to any Purposes other than such as the same ought by Law to be paid and applied to; then and in every such case, every such Teller, Public Accountant, or other Person so offending, and being duly convicted thereof by Verdict, or Informations or other Proceedings for the same, by or to the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, in the Court of Exchequer in Dublin, shall forfeit and pay to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Fine or Sum equal to Twice the Amount of the Sum specified in any such Draft or Drafts, or so paid or applied as aforesaid contrary to the Direction of this Act, with full Costs of Suit, together with a further Sum by way of Interest thereof, while the Rate of Twelve Pence for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, from the time of the Judgment given or entered on any such Verdict, until the same shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland; and the Court by or before whom such Verdict or Judgment shall be given, shall and is hereby authorized and required to commit such Offender to any of His Majesty's Gaols, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such Fine and Interest thereof as aforesaid shall be fully paid, satisfied and discharged.

Drawing Drafts, or applying Public Money contrary to Act.

Penalty.

Sequestration.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Teller of the Exchequer of Ireland, and all Public Accountants and other Persons as aforesaid, observing the Rules and Regulations by this Act prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money which any such Teller, Public Accountant, or other Person as aforesaid shall not actually receive, or which shall not actually be drawn for by him as aforesaid; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be answerable for all the Monies which shall be actually received by them for the several Purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

Teller and Public Accountants not answerable for Money, but Draft only.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation or Removal of any Teller, or of any Person or Persons being such Public Accountant or Accountants as aforesaid, the Balance of Cash for which any such Teller or Public Accountant as aforesaid shall have Charge in his Account, as such Teller or Accountant as aforesaid, with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the Office or Place held by such Teller or other Public Accountant as aforesaid, actually yet in such Succession, in Trust, for the like Service and Purposes as the same were applicable to before any such Death, Resignation or Removal; and such Balance of Cash shall be forthwith carried over and placed to the Account of every such Successor respectively, to be applied to the said Services respectively, in pursuance of the Drafts of such Successors, as hereinafter directed and specified; and every such succeeding Teller or other Public Accountant as aforesaid, is hereby authorized, directed and required to issue his Draft as aforesaid, for all satisfied Charges and Demands on account of any such Services as aforesaid, which shall have accrued in the time of any such Teller or other Public Accountant as aforesaid, before such Death, Resignation or Removal.

On Death or Removal of any Teller or Public Accountant, Balance in Bank is to be Succession. Balance of Cash how disposed of.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Fees of Polls and Poundage chargeable on certain Issues from the Exchequer of Ireland, shall not at any time be drawn out of the Bank of Ireland, by or on behalf of the Teller of the said Exchequer, but shall be carried to the Credit of the Public, in the Account of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; by the Auditor General and Clerk of the Polls on the Saturday in every Week, and on each other Days and Times as the Account of the Teller shall be made up from time to time; and that the Fees called Treasury Fees shall no longer be carried to the Account of the Exchequer, but shall in like manner be carried to the Credit of the Public, by the Auditor General and Clerk of the Polls.

Fees and Poundage with Treasury Fees carried to Public Account.

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Fees called Hospital Fees shall be carried to the Credit of the Public in the Account of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; by the Auditor General and Clerk of the Polls, on the Saturday in every Week, and on each other Days and Times as the Account of the Teller shall be made up from time to time; and that it shall be lawful for the Hospital Fees carried to Consolidated Fund, and applied to Hospitals.

Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by his or their Warrants, to direct the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners for executing the said Office, or any Three of them, at the End of every Quarter of a Year ending on the Tenth Day of October, Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April and Fifth Day of July, in every Year, to affix out of the said Consolidated Fund the full Amount of such Half-yearly Fees as may have to be brought to the Credit of the Public, in the Quarter of the Year preceding such Days respectively, to be applied to the use of the said Half-yearly at Kinsale, in such manner as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall by such Warrant order and direct.

XI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or for the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of them, and be they and so lawfully fully authorized and empowered to make, frame, issue, and give all such Rules, Orders, Regulations and Directions, as to such Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office, or any Three of them, shall seem fitting, expedient and necessary, in all and every Officers, Accountants, and other Persons and Persons acting in the Receipt and Issue of any Public Monies in Ireland for the peace and legal Conduct and Management of such Receipt and Issue, and for the Conduct of the several Officers, Accountants and Persons concerned in the same; and that any Officer, Accountant or other Person or Persons who shall refuse or neglect to obey, or shall infringe or violate, or in any way act contrary to or against any Rule, Order, Regulation or Direction, which at any time before the Commencement of this Act shall have been, or which at any time after the Commencement of this Act shall be made, framed, issued or given, by the said Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or by the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, for the Purposes aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Information or other Proceeding, in the Court of Exchequer at Dublin, by or on the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General of Ireland; and every such Person, being convicted in such Information, shall for ever thereafter be and become incapable of holding any Office, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by or under any Authority derived from His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or for the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of them, from time to time to issue their Warrant or Warrants for charging upon the said Consolidated Fund of Ireland, and for issuing thereout, all Salaries and Allowances whatsoever, of the nature of the Salaries and Allowances now charged or chargeable upon the For Fund and Incidents of the Treasury of Ireland; and the same shall be charged and issued accordingly, without any further or other Warrant or Authority to be had in that behalf.

* XIII. And Whereas it is expedient that in the several Offices for the Control, Examination and Cheque of the Teller of the Exchequer, all Persons concerned in such Control, Examination and Cheque, should be respectively confined to the Duty of one Office or Place only; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Officer or Person belonging to or employed in any of the several Offices of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or of the Auditor General, or of the Clerk of the Pells, or of the Teller of the Exchequer, to hold any Office or Place in or to be employed in more than One of the said Offices at one and the same time; and that no Officer or Person holding any Place or Employment in any One of the said Offices shall be capable of holding or taking any Office, Place or Employment, in any other of the said Offices, until he shall have resigned the Office or Place or Employment first held by him; and that if any such Officer or other Person shall take or hold any Office, Place or Employment contrary to the Provisions of this Act, such Officer or other Person shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by or on the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland in the Court of Exchequer at Dublin; and every Person who shall be convicted in such Penalty shall, from and after such Verdict and Judgment thereon, be rendered incapable of holding any Office, Place or Employment, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or under any Authority derived from His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That an Account of the Establishment of the Treasury and Exchequer of Ireland, and the Officers and Clerks of the same, with the Amount of all Salaries and Allowances payable to them, or any of them, and of all Charges and Expenses incident to the said Treasury and Exchequer, and of the Increase or Diminution of the Amount of such Salaries, Allowances and Expenses, and the Causes and Reasons of such Increase or Diminution, shall be yearly laid before Parliament, by the Secretary of the said Treasury, within Six Weeks after the First Meeting of Parliament in each and every Year.

* XV. And Whereas there appears now standing in the Account of the Teller of the said Exchequer of Ireland, the Sum of Nine thousand and seventy one Pounds Ten Shillings and Ten Pence Irish Currency, being Charges continued from the Account of a former Teller or former Tellers of the Exchequer, but which is not recoverable or applicable to the Use of the Public; and it is expedient that the said Account or the said Teller should be discharged and recovered from the said Sum; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office, or any Three of them, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, to direct the Auditor General and Clerk of the Pells of the said Exchequer to discharge and recover the Account of the Teller of the Exchequer from the said Sum of Nine thousand and seventy one Pounds Ten Shillings and Ten Pence; and the same shall be thereupon fully acquitted, exonerated and discharged from the same, by the said Auditor General and Clerk of the Pells accordingly.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing thereof.

C A P. LXXXIV.

An Act for regulating the Time of holding the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions in England.

[18 July 1814.]

WHEREAS the time now appointed for holding the Quarter Sessions for the Michaelmas Quarter would be altered, so as to render the Attendance at the same more generally convenient than it is at present: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Quarter Sessions for the Michaelmas Quarter shall in every Year be holden, for every County, Riding, Division, City, Borough and Place, within England and Wales, and for Scirewic upon Tuesday, in the first Week after the Eleventh Day of October, instead of at the time now appointed for holding the same; and that all Acts, Matters and Things, done, performed and transacted, at the time appointed by this Act for holding the said Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, shall be as valid and binding as all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been done, performed and transacted, at the time heretofore appointed for the holding of such Sessions; any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where Michaelmas Quarter Sessions shall be held, in Counties in England.

It. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend, so as to alter or vary the time at which the Sessions for London or Middlesex are now holden.

Proviso for London and Middlesex.

[By s. 3. Stat. 1. c. 7. the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions were appointed to be held at the Feast of St. Michael;—by 36 E. 3. c. 12. within Eight Days of Saint Michael;—by 2 H. 5. Stat. 1. c. 4. s. 1. in the first Week after the Feast of St. Michael.]

C A P. LXXXVI.

An Act for regulating the Payment of Army Prize Money, and to provide for the Payment of unclaimed and forfeited Shares to Chelsea Hospital.

[14th July 1814.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and for the better and more effectually Manning His Majesty's Navy during the present War; And Whereas another Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement of Seamen, and for the better and more effectually Manning His Majesty's Navy during the present War; and for the further Encouragement of Seamen; and for the better and more effectually providing for the Interest of the Royal Hospital for Seamen, at Greenwich, and the Royal Hospital for Soldiers at Chelsea; and to extend the Provisions of the said Act to Cases arising in consequence of Hostilities commenced since the passing of the said Act: And Whereas another Act passed in the Fifty first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for extending and amending the Regulations now in force relative to the Payment of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea, of the forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Army Prize Money: And Whereas another Act passed in the Fifty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for explaining, amending and extending the several Laws relative to the Payment of forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Army Prize Money to the Royal Hospital at Chelsea; and for settling the Mode of Making up the Accounts of Profits paid to the Widows of Officers of the Army: And Whereas another Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to extend Two Acts of the Forty fifth and Forty sixth Years of His present Majesty, to American Prizes: And Whereas His Majesty hath of His Royal Munificence been graciously pleased by several Proclamations, to declare His Will and Pleasure to give the Benefit of all Prizes taken during the Hostilities in which His Majesty is engaged to the Captains thereof, being in His Majesty's Service, or duly Commissioned, save as therein excepted: And Whereas it is expedient to make further Regulations for the Payment of Prize and other Monies to the Land Forces, and for the Interest of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea; and it will greatly tend to the better Execution of such Provisions of the said Acts as relate to Prize and other Monies due and Payable to the Land Forces, and to the Rights and Interests of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea, and of such other Provisions as may be necessary in that behalf, that the whole thereof should be consolidated into One Act; and for that Purpose that the Provisions of the said recited Acts in that behalf made should be repealed: Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Provisions and Regulations, Clauses, Matters and Things in the said recited Acts or either of them contained, relative to Prize and other Monies, due and payable to the Land Forces, and to the Rights and Interests of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea, or in any way affecting or applicable to the said Royal Hospital, or the Governors, Directors, or other Officers thereof, shall be and be the same as hereby repealed, save and except as to so much of the said Act of the Fifty second of His present Majesty as relates to the Payment of Widows' Pensions and to Letters and Packets sent from the Office of the Paymaster General, being free of Postage; and save and except as to all Acts, Enactments, Matters

52 G. 3. c. 123. except s. 12. in part.

53 G. 3. c. 42. in part.

repealed.

Matters

Matters and Things done or required to be done under the said Acts or in pursuance of any of the Clauses or Provisions thereof, which shall be and are hereby declared to be as good, valid and efficient, and shall remain in all full force to all Purposes as if the same had been done under and in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained repealing other Acts shall be held to revive any former Act or Acts, or Clauses thereof, by those other Acts repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Captures which shall be made by His Majesty's Army, Royal Artillery, Provincial, Black, and all other Troops in the Pay of His Majesty, or belonging to His Majesty, but in the Pay of the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, whether in Conquest Expeditions with His Majesty's Navy, or otherwise, of any Forts or Possession of His Majesty's Enemies upon the Land, or of any ship or Vessel in any Road, Haven, River or Creek belonging to such Forts or Possessions, the Commanders and other Officers and Soldiers acting on such Expeditions shall have such Right and Interest as His Majesty shall think fit to order and direct, in all the Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandise and Treasure belonging to the State, or to any Public Trading Company of such Enemies, which shall be found in such Forts or Possession; and also in all and every Ship or Vessel, with their Arms, Ammunition, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, and all the Goods, Merchandise and other Effects on board the same, which shall be captured in any Road, Haven, River or Creek, belonging to such Forts or Possession, after final Adjudication thereof, as lawful Prize to His Majesty, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, which shall be duly authorized to take Cognizance of the same (which Courts are hereby required to proceed therein to lawful Adjudication), to be divided in such Proportions, and according to such general Rule of Distribution for the Army as shall be established by His Majesty, or in Default thereof in such manner as His Majesty shall, under his Great Seal be pleased to direct.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Officer, Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, belonging to any Regiment, Troop or Company in His Majesty's Army, who shall be entitled to any Share or Shares in any Prize or Capture taken from any of His Majesty's Enemies, and who shall desert or withdraw himself or themselves from His Majesty's Service before such Share or Shares shall be paid to him or them respectively, shall have or be entitled to have or claim any Interest in or Benefit from the said Share or Shares, or any Part thereof, which at the time of such Desertion shall remain unpaid; but the Share or Shares of every such Officer, Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier so deserting, in or to any such Prize or Capture, or such Part of any such Share or Shares, as at the time of his or their Desertion shall remain unpaid; and also the Shares of all Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Soldiers, which shall not be legally devolved within Six Years after the time shall have been paid to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Hospital, by virtue of any Law then in force; shall be forfeited to the Use of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea, which such Officers, Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers as shall have deserted, shall be relieved by His Majesty's Proclamations, or otherwise pardoned; and unless with respect to such Shares of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Soldiers as shall not be claimed within the time above limited in that behalf, reasonable Cause shall be shown to and allowed by the Directors of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea for the time being, or any Five or more of them, why such last mentioned Shares were not claimed in due time.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all such Captures as aforesaid, all Appraisements and Sales of any Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandise and Treasure which shall be found in any such Forts or Possession as aforesaid, and to which the Commanders and other Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled, shall be made by Agents appointed by the Commanders and other Officers entitled thereto; that in or to, the Commanders in Chief and Field Officers acting on the Expeditions in which such Forts or Possession was captured, shall appoint one Agent and the other Commissioned Officers entitled thereto, or the Majority of them, if more than one, may appoint another Agent in or for them, such Appointment being made by Letter of Attorney or Letters of Attorney for that Purpose, Copies of which shall be transmitted as hereinafter mentioned; and no Person or Persons except the Person or Persons to be so nominated and appointed Agent or Agents, or who shall have given Security as required by this Act, and who shall actually discharge the Duties of Agent, shall under any Colour or Pretence receive any Part, Share or Proportion of any Commission in respect of such Agency business, or any Emolument, Advantage or Benefit out of any such Commission; and all and every Person or Persons so nominated and appointed Agent or Agents, who shall give in or allow to be taken by any other Person or Persons, and every Person who shall take, accept or receive, either himself or by any other Person on his behalf, or for his Use, Benefit or Advantage or the Use, Benefit or Advantage of any Part of his Family, any Part, Share or Proportion of any such Commission, or any Emolument, Advantage or Benefit thereout, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and also Double the Amount or Value of what shall have been so given or allowed to be taken, or shall have been so taken and received as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That before any Person so appointed shall act as Agent for Army Prize or Capture, the Person so appointed shall give Security with One solvent Surety, by a joint and several Bond in the Sum of Two thousand Pounds to His Majesty his Heirs and Successors, and to the Commander in Chief for the time being of His Majesty's Land Forces, for duly and faithfully executing his said Trust, and accounting for and paying over all Sums of Money which shall come to his Hands by means of his said Agency; which said Bond, together with Three attested Copies thereof, and also Three Copies of the Letter or Letters of Attorney appointing such Person Agent, shall be delivered by such Agent to the Commander in Chief acting as Chief Expedition, and shall be in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Commander in Chief to whom such Bond and attested Copies shall be so delivered, shall by the first Convenience transmit the said Bond and one attested Copy of the said Letter of Attorney to the Transfers of Chloffe Hospital, and one of the Copies of the said Bond to the War Office, and by the said Comptroller shall transmit one other such Copy of the Bond and Letter of Attorney to the said Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital and War Office respectively.

Attorney

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Bond shall become absolute by Nonperformance of any Condition thereof, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General at the request of the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, and he is hereby required to initiate such Suit or Suits as may be expedient for the Recovery of the Penalty thereof; and the same when recovered shall be paid to the said Transferee to and for the Use of the said Royal Hospital.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That forthwith after the Appointment of such Agent or Agents the Commanding Officer of every Regiment or Corps, entitled to share in the Proceeds of the said Captures shall transmit to the Agent or Agents, as appoised, a List of the Persons in the Regiment or Corps under his Command entitled to share therein, which List shall be signed by the said Commanding Officer, the Names being arranged in the same Order in which they stand in the Muster Rolls of such Regiment or Corps; and the same List shall be examined with and corrected by the Muster Rolls, and in case no such Prior List be already made, shall be first to such Agent or Agents, or they shall apply to the Comptroller General of Mustres for Lists of the Persons entitled to share in such Captures, and such Lists shall thereupon be made out from the Returns in the Office of the said Comptroller General of Mustres, who shall cause the same to be made out, and certify the Truth thereof under his Hand; and any Person or Persons who shall alter the Name or Rating of any Person or Persons in any List which shall have been so certified as aforesaid, or erase or take away any Name therefrom or add any Name thereto after the same shall have been so certified as aforesaid, with Intent to defraud any Person or Persons or Corporation whatsoever, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That within One Month after the Sale or Sales of any such Captures or Captures as aforesaid shall be completed, public Notification shall be given by the Agent or Agents appointed to sell the same for the Payment of the several Shares to the Persons respectively entitled thereto, which Notification shall be inserted in some Gazette or Newspaper of Public Authority, or in One of the most Public Newspapers of the Island or Place where such Sale or Sales shall have been made, and if no Newspapers are there published then the said Notification shall be affixed to the Church or some other public and conspicuous Place; and the Agent giving such Notification shall, by the first Conveyance after the same shall be given, transmit Two Copies of such Notification and of the Gazette or Paper containing the same to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, and the other Copy to the War Office; and every Agent who shall neglect to give such Notification or transmit such Papers as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Registers of the High Court of Appeals and High Court of Admiralty respectively shall, on the Twenty fifth Day of March, the Twenty fifth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September and the Twenty fifth Day of December in every Year, transmit to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital or his Deputy, a List of all the Prizes taken in any Conjoint Expedition with the Navy and Army, which shall have been adjudged in their Courts respectively in the Three Months preceding, together with the Names of the Capturing Ships and their Commanders, and of the Agents for the Captures, and the Dates of the Captures and Sentences respectively.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Registers of every Vice Admiralty Court, shall, on the Twenty fifth Day of March and the Twenty fifth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September and the Twenty fifth Day of December in every Year, or so soon after each of such Quarter Days respectively as any Ship shall sail for England, transmit to the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Chloffe a List of all the Prizes taken in any War or Conjoint Expedition as aforesaid, which have been adjudged in their Courts respectively during the preceding Quarter of a Year, together with the Dates of the several Captures, and for is the same any appear, the Names of the Capturing Ships and their Commanders, the Agents at the Captures, a Copy of the Decree of the Court of the Sentence upon the same, and at the first time deliver or send to be delivered a Discharge of the same to the Deputy of the said Treasurer resident at the Place where such Courts of Vice Admiralty are or shall be held, and to which Jurisdiction shall extend, and in case any such Register of any Vice Admiralty Court shall neglect or refuse to transmit such Lists, or to deliver Discharges thereof at the times and in the manner aforesaid, every Person is offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Agent or Agents appointed by the Captures of any Prize or Prizes for the Sale and Distribution thereof shall, after the Proceeds of such Prize or Prizes or any Part thereof, or any such Bounty Money is ascertained, shall have been received, applied or distributed by any other Agent or Agents, or Person or Persons, as aforesaid, and pay over to any of the Captures their Shares for or on Account of such Prize or Prizes, and shall remit to such distributed Agent or Agents, or Person or Persons, any Sum or sums of Money for Distribution as aforesaid, such distributed Agent or Agents, Person or Persons, shall from the time of such Sum or Sums of Money being received by them respectively, be and they are hereby bound to be responsible and answerable to the said Royal Hospital for all and every Part and Parts, shares and Shares, of such Sum and Sums of Money so shall be included or satisfied by any of the Captures entitled to the same; and such distributed Agent or Agents, Person or Persons, shall on any or refuse the inclusion or forfeiture Shares of such Prize or Bounty Money, or any Part thereof to the original Agent or Agents who shall have remitted such Money for Distribution as aforesaid, but shall after the time for Distribution of such Prize Money shall have ended, and (within the time in which Prize Agents are directed by this Act to pay over Shares or Balances remaining in their Hands) pay or make to be paid all unsatisfied and divided Shares of such Prize or Bounty Money into the Treasury of written Notifications respectively, and shall forthwith deliver One of the said Gazette, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distribution, together with One of the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, to the Deputy to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, resident at the Place where each Court of Vice Admiralty is or shall be established, or to which its Jurisdiction shall extend, and by the First Ship which shall sail (after his or their Receipt of such Gazette, Newspapers or written Notifications respectively) from such Port or Place to any Port in Great Britain, shall transmit or send to the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Chloffe, or the Deputy of such Treasurer for the same being, One of the said Gazette, Newspapers or written Notifications, together with One of the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, with his or their Name or Names in subscribed to and upon the same respectively, to be there registered; and shall by the Second Ship or Vessel which shall sail from the said Port or Place to any Port or Place in Great Britain, transmit in like manner to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, One other of the said Gazette, Newspapers or other Notifications, together with One other Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share, marked by him a Duplicate of the former; and shall faithfully preserve and keep the other of the said Four Gazette, Newspaper or written Notifications, and the other Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, with his or their Name or Names therein subscribed as aforesaid, in his or their Custody; and at all Ports and Places where Vice Admiralty Courts with Jurisdiction in Prize Causes are or shall be constituted, at which there shall be no Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, or other Officer of the Customs, the said Gazette, Newspapers or other Notifications of Distribution, together with the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, shall be delivered to and transmitted and kept respectively, in like manner, by the Registrar or Deputy in charge of such Vice Admiralty Court; and at all other Places where Prize or Bounty Money shall be distributed or payable, where there shall be no Court of Vice Admiralty, the said Gazette, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distribution, together with the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, shall be delivered to the principal Civil Officer of the said Place, or his Deputy, for the Purpose of being transmitted and kept as aforesaid; and that in every such printed or written Notification as aforesaid, the said Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, shall insert or specify the Name or Names of the Prize or Prizes about to be distributed, and of the Ship or Ships by which the same shall have been captured, and also the precise Day of the Month and Year on which such Capture or Captures shall have been made, and also his or their Place or Places of Abode, Christian and Surname, or Christian and Surnames, at full Length, and the precise Day of the Month and Year appointed for the Payment of the Second and respective Shares of the Prize or Prizes to the Captors; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in Great Britain, or of which, being condemned abroad, the Distribution shall be made in Great Britain, shall be published in the London Gazette Three Days at least before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes shall be paid to any such Person or Persons entitled thereto; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, where the Distribution shall also be made in such other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall be delivered to the said Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or principal Civil Officer or Officers as aforesaid respectively, or such respective Deputy or Deputies, One Day at least before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes shall be paid to any Person or Persons entitled thereto; after which several and respective Notifications if any Man's Share shall remain in the Hands of the Person or Persons appointed as aforesaid, either belonging to such Man as shall have derived from His Majesty's Land Service, or which shall not be legally demanded and paid within Three Months next after such Distribution, then such Share or Shares in remaining in such Person or Agents Hands, or belonging to such Man as shall derive from His Majesty's Land Service, shall go and be paid to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital.

XVII. And he is further enacted, That if any Person or Agent appointed or to be appointed for Appointment or Sale of any Prize or Prizes, taken or to be taken from the Enemy, by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War or hired armed Vessels in any Conquest Expedition with the Army, or for the Distribution of any Bounty Money, in which the Army shall be entitled to share, shall neglect or refuse to publish, give or deliver any Notification herein directed or required to be published, given or delivered, or shall not give, publish or deliver any such Notification before the Payment of any Part of such Prize or Bounty Money or other Money in the Nature of Bounty Money, and within the times herein limited, or in the manner herein appointed, or shall not specify or set forth in such Notification the Matters and Things herein directed to be specified and set forth, every such Person or Agent shall, for such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, at the Discretion of the Court to which the same shall be sent for; and if any Collector, Comptroller or Searcher of His Majesty's Customs, Registrar of any Vice Admiralty Court, or principal Civil Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to receive or to send, or shall not transmit or send any such Gazette, Newspaper or written Notification or Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share as aforesaid, in such manner as is by this Act directed, every such Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Registrar of any Court of Vice Admiralty, principal Civil Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies be offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XVIII. And he is further enacted, That the Notifications in all such Gazette, Newspapers and in Writing respectively as aforesaid, which shall be so transmitted and attested by such Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Registrar of any Court of Vice Admiralty, or principal Civil Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, and registered at the said Royal Hospital, or Proof of the Hand-writing of such Collector, Comptroller, Searcher, Registrar, principal Civil Officer or Officers, or Deputy or Deputies, from time to time and at all times, shall be good and sufficient Evidence in all His Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity, and Admiralty, that the Person or Persons whose Name or Names in or are therein set forth and specified as the Agent or Agents of the Prize or Prizes therein respectively mentioned is or are such Agent or Agents.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That at the End of Four Months after the Date of the Notification of Deliberation by this Act directed to be given, every Prize Agent and Person authorized to receive any Bounty Money or other Monies to which His Majesty's Army are or shall be entitled, whether such Monies shall have arisen from Captures made by the Army alone, or in conjunction with the Navy, shall pay over all Shares and Balances then remaining unpaid to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, or such Person or Persons as he shall appoint and depute to receive the same, or duly remit the same for Payment in England; and shall likewise make out and transmit to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, a true Statement and Account in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, of the Produce of all such Prize or Prizes, Bounty or other Monies as aforesaid, together with an Account of the Payments of the several Shares to the Parties entitled thereto, which shall have then been really and truly by him paid, and shall verify such Statement and Account on Oath [which Oath the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, is and are hereby authorized and required to administer]; and each Agent or other Person authorized as aforesaid shall at the same time deliver to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, a Copy (upon Oath) of the Deliberation List on which the Payments have been made, and of the Prize List delivered by the Commander or Commanders of Regiments, or of the Captaining Ship, or the Commissioners of the Navy, or Comptroller General of the Customs, as the case may have been, to the Prize Agent, or such other Person or Persons as aforesaid; and every Prize Agent, and Person authorized to receive Bounty and other Monies as aforesaid, who shall have neglected or refused to transmit and verify within such Four Months as Account, as above directed, of the Proceeds of such Prize, Bounty or other Monies as aforesaid, and of the Deliberation thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Sum of Five Pounds per Centum shall be allowed to Army Prize Agents upon all Prize or Bounty Money, or Money in the nature of Prize Money, which shall be delivered by them to the Captains entitled thereto, or be paid over to Chloffe Hospital in pursuance of this Act.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That after the Balances shall have been paid over to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, or his Deputy, the said Treasurer, or his Deputy, shall keep an Office upon every Ten of the Clock in the Morning to Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, on every Day in the Week (Sundays excepted) for the Purpose of receiving Claims for Shares, to be referred according to the Provisions of this Act, and shall pay and refund such Shares when demanded, according to the Regulations in this Act contained.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Commissioned Officer of the Army shall direct by any Order in Writing that his Deliberation Share or Balance shall not be paid over to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, the same shall for the Space of Three Years remain in the Hands of the Agent, subject to all such further Order as such Officer may give respecting the same: Provided nevertheless, that if at the End of Three Years such Share or Balance shall not have been paid over to the Officer entitled to the same, the Agent shall pay the Share or Balance remaining in his Hands to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Deduction shall be allowed on any Account as the Payments of undivided or forfeited Shares and Balances paid over to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, for any Sum not appearing upon the Deliberation List to have been thereon paid, unless satisfactory Vouchers from the Parties entitled thereto, or their lawful Attorneys, are produced for the same.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Agent acting as such in any of His Majesty's Settlements, Colonies or Plantations Abroad, or in any Place out of the United Kingdom, for any Prize taken in any compass Expedition with the Army, shall make up his Accounts, and deliver up and verify the same in the Vice Admiralty Court in which such Prize shall have been condemned, in such manner as the said Court shall require, within Six Months after the Commencement of the Deliberation of the Proceeds of such Prize, and if it under the Direction of the Court, on the Application of the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, or of his Deputy then residing, and in such manner as shall be specified in any Order made for that Purpose, make all reclaimed Balances and Shares payable to the Army, and all Shares of Defendants from the Army, to the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital in England, in as the same, as to every Place except the East Indies, may be paid to the said Treasurer within Six Months, and as to any Place in the East Indies, within Twelve Months next after establishing his Accounts in such Court, in such manner as the said Court shall require as aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting the Sum specified in his Bond for the due Performance of his Duty as a Prize Agent.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Powers and Remedies given by this Act to, or that may by Law be used or enforced, in Actions that may be brought by any Captain or Captains, to compel Agents to exhibit their Accounts and verify the same, and bring in Proceeds, and enforce Deliberation or the Performance of any other Duty in the said Character as Agent, or for the Recovery of any Penalty or Penalties, may and shall be used, enforced, and put in Execution as behalf of the Army generally, or on behalf of any individual belonging to the Army and entitled to Share in any Prize or Bounty Money, by the Treasurer of Chloffe Hospital, in as full and simple a manner as by the Captains themselves, themselves, or any individual Captain himself; and that all the said Powers and Remedies which may be used and enforced, or Actions which may be brought against an Agent, shall and may in case of the Death of such Agent be used and enforced or brought by the Treasurer of Christ's Hospital, against his Legal Personal Representatives, if such Personal Representatives shall have received Assets of his Testator; and the Estate and Effects of such Agent shall, as far as the same will extend, be answerable and accountable for the Prize Money by assessment for, and the Penalties imposed by this Act for not duly accounting for the same.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Shares of Prize Money due and to become due to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Army, in case of such Compost Expeditions as aforesaid, shall be paid by the Agent or by the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of Christ's Hospital, or his Chief Clerk, as the case may require, to the Persons entitled thereto, or Persons authorized by an Order in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (C.) to receive the same; which Order shall specify the Place, Fortress or Ships out of which the Prize Money shall have arisen, together with the Name of the Regiment or Corps to which such Non-Commissioned Officer shall have belonged at the time of the Capture; and the Person making such Order shall also procure and produce a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule marked (D.) which Certificate shall be signed by the Commanding Officer, Adjutant and Paymaster of the Regiment in which such Person shall be serving, provided the Signatures of such Officers can be obtained; and in case the Signatures of all or any of such respective Officers cannot be obtained by reason of the Regiment, or Part of the Regiment, being on Detachment or other unaccountable Cause, then and in such case such Certificate shall be signed by each of the said Officers as may be present where the Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier is then serving, and any other Commissioned Officer of the Regiment or Corps then present, so that there shall not be less than the Signatures of Three Commissioned Officers to such Certificate; or in case such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall be detached from his Regiment, or be in any Hospital or Sick Quarters, so that he cannot procure such Certificate of his Officers as above mentioned, the same shall be fixed particularly on the Order, and the Certificate shall be signed by the Three Senior Officers belonging to such Detachment, or by the Surgeon or principal Medical Officer belonging to such Hospital or Sick Quarters (as the case may require), and by Two other principal Military or Civil Officers belonging to such Hospital, or residing at such Quarters; or in case such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall have been discharged from the Service, then he shall procure and produce a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed marked (E.), which shall be signed by the Minister and One of the Churchwardens, or (if in Scotland), by the Minister and One of the Elders, in the Parish or Place in which such discharged Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier may then reside; or if such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall be dead, then the Person entitled to receive his Share of such Prize or Bounty Money shall procure and produce a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed marked (F.), which Certificate shall be signed by the Minister and One of the Churchwardens, or (if in Scotland) by the Minister and One of the Elders, of the Parish or Place in which such Person shall then reside: Provided always, that every such Order as above described shall be revocable by the Person making the same: Provided also, that no such Order shall be void to authorize the Receipt of any Prize Money or Bounty Money which shall be in course of Payment or Distribution to any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier as aforesaid, if the Party making such Order shall be then residing or dwelling within the Distance of five Miles from the Place where such Prize Money or Bounty Money shall be payable; and if any Agent or Agents for Prizes shall pay or cause to be paid any Share of Prize Money or Bounty Money to any Person or Persons upon any Order made, within the Distance aforesaid from the Place where such Prize Money or Bounty Money shall be payable, such Prize Money or Bounty Money being in a Course of Distribution at the time of making such Order, such Payment shall be void to all Intents and Purposes.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That upon every Order made under the Authority of this Act directing the Payment of Prize or Bounty Money, a Stamp Duty of One Shilling and no more shall be payable to His Majesty, and that no Order purporting to authorize the Receipt of Shares due to more than one Person shall be deemed valid, but that the same shall be void and of no Effect.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall intent, or cause to be intended in any Order or Authority for receiving Prize or Bounty Money after Attestation thereof as aforesaid, or any other Matter than what shall have been originally expressed in the said Order or Authority, when the same shall have been attested, the said Person shall, for every such Offence, be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and be punished accordingly.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Treasury of the said Royal Hospital for the time being to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as he may think fit to be his Deputy or Deputies for receiving Applications and Claims for Prize and Bounty Money to which the Army shall be entitled, and for other the Purposes of this Act, at such Port or Place as he shall from time to time think necessary.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Person paying any Share or Balance of Prize Money refunded by Christ's Hospital, shall receive any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward from or on account of any Payment thereof, or of any Act, Matter or Thing done relating to the procuring or paying the same to any Claimant, or any Person on his behalf, under any Pretence whatsoever, on Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence One hundred Pounds.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Claim of Prize or Bounty Money shall be made upon any Prize Agent or Prize Agents, accompanied with a Request in Writing from the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (G.), requiring that Each Chain may be either forfeited or a reason assigned for its Disallowance, each Prize Agent or Prize Agents shall either Pay the same or state in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands the reason of his or their refusing to do so, and deliver the same to the Party claiming the same and producing such Register.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That all Letters or Packets addressed to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, upon any Business or Affairs relative to Prison Money, or upon any other Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be sent from the Duty of Postage; and also that all Letters or Packets sent by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being or his Deputy, upon such Business or Affairs as aforesaid, shall be sent free from the said Duty of Postage; and all Letters and Packets relating to the Matters aforesaid shall be forwarded by the said Treasurer as aforesaid shall be under Cover, with the Words "Perfume to Act of Prison Act, Fifty" fourth George the Third," printed upon the face; and the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, shall write his Name under the face; and they and each of them are and is hereby strictly prohibited from including or sending under such Covers any Writing, Paper or Parcel whatsoever, excepting such as relate to the Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Treasurer or his Deputy shall send or convey, or let any of the Clerks aforesaid, any Writing, Paper or Parcel, other than those relating to the Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, the Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Person employed by the said Royal Hospital in executing the Regulations of this Act shall act as an Agent for Prison, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the Business thereof, under the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Oath to any of the Matters hereinbefore required to be verified on Oath, or suborn any other Person so to do, such Person or Persons shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons hereby directed to transmit or deliver all or any of the Accounts before mentioned, who shall refuse or neglect to transmit or deliver all or any such Account or Accounts to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, or his said Deputy, within the time before limited and appointed, in Manner and Form hereinbefore mentioned, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall pay the Expence of any Application to any Court to compel the Production and Delivery of the same.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Fraud, Collusion or Deceit, shall be wittingly or willingly made, used, committed, permitted or done or suffered in making, stating or balancing such Accounts, then every Person or Persons who shall be thereof duly convicted, and his and their Aid and Abettors, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Proceeds of all Captives made prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ten, in and on any former War, in which the Army shall be entitled to share, and which shall not have been already advertised for Distribution, shall be distributed under the Regulations of this Act, and the forfeited and undivided Shares payable to the Army, be accounted for and paid to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, within the term Period and in like manner as by this Act is directed; and that the Agents for all Captives made previous to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ten, in and on any former War in which the Army shall be entitled to share, and which have already been advertised for Distribution, shall render Accounts, and pay the forfeited and undivided Shares payable to the Army to the said Treasurer of the said Hospital, within Three Months after the passing of this Act; any thing in any former Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And Whereas divers Sums of Money are now remaining in the Hands of the Registers of the High Court of Appeals, High Court of Admiralty, and of the several Courts of Vice Admiralty respectively, arising from Prizes taken in such Conjoint Expeditions as aforesaid, and in which the Army are entitled to share, which have been finally adjudged to the Captors, and which have not been claimed by the Persons respectively entitled thereto, or any Person or Persons on their behalf? Be it therefore enacted, That the Registers of the said High Court of Appeals, of the High Court of Admiralty, and of every Court of Vice Admiralty in His Majesty's Dominions shall within Three Months, so far as relates to the High Court of Appeals and the High Court of Admiralty, and with respect to Courts of Vice Admiralty in the said Islands within Two Years, and with respect to such Courts in any other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions, within One Year next after the passing of this Act, render or transmit to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea, or his Deputy, an Account of all Sums of Money in which the Army shall be entitled to share, which have been paid into the Courts as aforesaid respectively, up to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and which at the time of rendering such Account shall remain in the Hands respectively and at the same time pay over or remit to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, such Part of the said last mentioned Sums of Money as the Army shall be entitled to; and that the Receipts of the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, or the Register paying such Money, shall be a good and lawful Discharge to such Register as all Issues and Persons whatsoever; and with respect to all Monies in which the Army shall be entitled to share as aforesaid, which have been paid to the said Registers respectively since the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, or which shall hereafter be paid, and which shall have remained in their Hands respectively for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after the Prize or Prizes from which such Monies shall have proceeded shall have been finally adjudged to the Captains, uninclosed by the said Captains, or the Persons respectively entitled thereto, or by any Person or Persons on their behalf, it shall be lawful for the Judge or Judges of the said Courts rely thereto, upon Application by the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, to order Payment thereof to the said Treasurer, or his Deputy; which several Sums, when so paid to the said Treasurer or his Deputy as aforesaid, shall be distributed among the Parties respectively entitled thereto, or their legal Representatives, by the Treasurer of the said Hospital, in like manner, and subject to the same Regulations, so far as the same can be made applicable, as in cases of Distributions by the Agents of the Captains.

XL. And be it further enacted, That where the Offence of taking a false Oath, or suborning any Person to do, or any of the Offences by this Act made punishable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, shall be committed, out of this Realm, the same may be alleged to be committed and may be lawfully proved, tried and determined, in any County in England, in the same manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been actually done or committed within the Body of such County.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, wherefore the same shall arise or become forfeited, may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, solely in cases where any other Mode is by this Act particularly directed; and all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, which shall arise or become forfeited in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions abroad, may be recovered in any Court of Record of His Majesty in the Colony, Territory, or Place where the same shall arise or have become forfeited, or in any of His Majesty's Vice Admiralty Courts having Jurisdiction there.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, other than as aforesaid, and other than such as are by this Act directed to be otherwise applied and disposed of, shall go and be applied to the Use of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea, and shall be paid for in the Name of the Commissioners thereof.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, whosoever willingly and knowingly shall perjure or falsely affirm the Name or Character of, or procure any other to perjure or falsely affirm the Name or Character of any Officer, Soldier or other Person entitled or supposed to be entitled to any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money or Prize Money, for Service done in His Majesty's Army, or the Executive or Administrative, War, Relation or Condition of any such Officer, Soldier or other Person, in order to receive any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money or Prize Money, due or supposed to be due or payable for or on Account of the Services of any such Officer or Soldier, or other Person, as aforesaid; or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or aid or assist in forging or counterfeiting any Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Order, Certificate, Assignment, last Will, or any other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive any such Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money or Prize Money, which shall be due or be supposed to be due to any such Officer or Soldier, or other Person, as aforesaid; or shall wilfully and knowingly take a false Oath, or procure any other Person to take a false Oath to obtain the Produce of any Will or Wills, or to obtain Letters of Administration in order to receive the Payment of any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money or Prize Money which shall be due, or be supposed to be due to any such Officer, Soldier or other Person as aforesaid, who shall have really served, or shall be supposed to have served in His Majesty's Army; or if any Person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, utter or publish as true, or shall aid or assist in uttering or publishing as true, or shall cause or procure to be uttered or published as true any false, forged or counterfeited Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Order, Certificate or Assignment, last Will, or any other Power or Authority, whatsoever, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money or Prize Money, due or supposed to be due to any Officer or Soldier, or other Person who shall have really served, or shall be supposed to have served in His Majesty's Army, with Intent to defraud any Person or Corporation whatsoever, knowing the same to be false, forged or counterfeited, every such Person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Person without Benefit of Clergy.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea, from time to time to issue Precepts under their Hands, or under the Hands of any Three or more of them, directed to such Persons as they may have reason to believe have received Money Payable to such Officers, Soldiers and Troops as aforesaid, any such Powers of Attorney or Power of Attorney, Order or Order hereafter or herebefore to be executed, requiring them within Two Calendar Months next after the time at which such Precept shall have been served, to call the Person or Persons to whom it shall be directed shall reside within the United Kingdom, but if he or they shall reside in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions abroad, then by the Post Ship which shall sail from the Port or Place nearest to that at which such Person or Persons shall reside, next after the Expiration of Two Calendar Months from the time at which such Precept shall have been served as aforesaid, to deliver or transmit upon Oath (which Oath any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea, for the time being, is fully authorized to administer), an Account of all Moneys which may have been received by such Person or Persons, under such Powers or Orders, Power or Order, as aforesaid; and in case the same or any Part thereof shall have been so paid over, then to whom the same or any Part thereof has been so paid over as aforesaid; and shall at the same time pay or remit to the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, such Part of the said Moneys as shall remain in his or their Hands unpaid, to the Parties heretofore entitled to, or to their Heirs; and in case such Moneys shall not be paid over or remitted to the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer within the time limited by this Act, the same shall be recoverable from the Person detaining the same by Action.

AN ACT to grant Duties of Excise on certain Sorts of Glass made in Ireland, and to grant and allow certain Countervailing Duties and Drawbacks in respect thereof. [14th July 1814.]

• Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses in Ireland, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon and in respect of the several Sorts of Glass made in Ireland, mentioned, set forth and expressed in the Schedule marked A. hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties of Island Excise as they are respectively described and set forth in the said Schedule; and the said Schedule shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes.

II. And Whereas it is expedient, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that in respect of the Duties imposed by this Act on certain Sorts of Glass made in Ireland, Duties should be charged on the like Sorts of Glass being the Manufacture of Great Britain, and imported from thence into Ireland, sufficient to countervail the said Duties in Ireland: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be charged on the Importation into Ireland of the several Sorts of Glass, being the Manufacture of Great Britain, mentioned, set forth and described in the Schedule marked B. to this Act annexed, the several Countervailing Duties in the said Schedule as Figures respectively inserted, defined and set forth; and that upon the Exportation from Ireland of any Glass of like Description being the Manufacture of Ireland, to Great Britain, there shall be allowed and given a Drawback equal in Amount to the Countervailing Duty on British Glass of the like Description.

[See c. 129. § 10. p. 6.]

III. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation from Ireland (except to Great Britain) of any Plate Glass or Window Glass made in Ireland or made in Great Britain, and imported from thence into Ireland, there shall be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked C. upon Proof being duly made that such Glass respectively shall have paid the several Duties imposed thereby by this Act, in respect of which such Drawback shall be claimed, and such Drawback shall be paid and allowed in such manner and under such Rules and Regulations as are in force in Ireland, with respect to Drawbacks payable on any Articles exported from Ireland, so far as the same can be applied.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Drawbacks in this Act and the several Schedules hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable, according to the Amount thereof in British Currency; and that all and every the Duties granted by this Act, the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same being deducted, shall be carried to and be made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

V. And be it further enacted, That in every Entry towards to be made on the Importation into Ireland of any Plate Glass or Window Glass of any Sort, of the Manufacture of Great Britain, together with the Value of all such Glass, there shall also be inserted the Number of Square Feet of all such Plate Glass, and the Weight of all such Window Glass, according to the Schedules thereof respectively, as certified on the Exportation of such Glass from Great Britain, and in case it shall be found that the Number of Square Feet of any such Plate Glass, or the Weight of any such Window Glass stated in any such Entry, shall not correspond with the Number of Square Feet or with the Weight specified in such Schedules respectively, all such Glass shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise.

VI. And, for securing the Payment of the Duties by this Act granted, be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Person in Ireland, shall make or manufacture any Sort of Plate Glass, or any Window Glass which by this Act or the Schedule thereto annexed are made liable to a Duty of Excise, without having a License for that Purpose in force, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Island Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or for any One of them, or for any Person or Persons to be for that Purpose appointed by the said Commissioners, or by any Three of them, to grant any such License or Licenses to any Person or Persons in Ireland for the manufacturing of such Sorts of Glass or any of them, in which License shall be set forth the true Name and Place of Abode of the Person or Persons taking out the same, and the Place in which every Glass House, Workhouse, Work Shop and Workade of such Person or Persons shall be situated; and every such License shall continue in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the granting of the same; and if any Person shall make any such Glass without having taken out such License, such Person shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds British Currency.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person in Ireland who at any time after the Commencement of this Act, shall make or manufacture any Plate Glass or Window Glass on which any Duties of Excise are by this Act imposed, shall within Seven Days next after the End of every Calendar Month in the Year, make a true Entry in Writing at the Excise Office for the District in which the Glass House, Workhouse, or Work Shop of such Person shall be situate, of the Quantity and Weight of all Plate Glass or Window Glass respectively made at every such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop within such Calendar Month, and shall verify such Entry upon Oath, or if a Quaker, upon solemn Affirmation, of the Person or Persons or One of them who shall keep such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop, or of his, her or their Chief Workman or Clerk employed in the conducting the making of such Glass, or in the keeping an Account of the Glass made therein, according to the best of his, her or their Knowledge or Belief; which Oath or Affirmation shall and may be administered by the Collector or Surveyor of Excise of the District within which such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop shall be, without any Fee or Charge for the same; and every Maker of such Glass shall be bound to make such Entry, verified as aforesaid, shall, for every Neglect or Default, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds British Currency.

Account

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty by this Act and the Schedule therein annexed imposed on the Materials or Metal, or other Preparations made use of in the making of Plate Glass, shall be calculated and paid after the Rate of Six Shillings and Six pence Halfpenny British Currency of every Square Foot Superficial Measure of such Plate Glass when manufactured, and of which such Entry shall be made as aforesaid; and such Sum of Six Shillings and Six pence Halfpenny for every Square Foot Superficial Measure of such Plate Glass shall be received by the Collector of Excise of the District, as and in full Satisfaction for the Duty imposed on such Materials or Metal or other Preparations as aforesaid; and that every Person who shall make or manufacture any such Plate Glass or Window Glass as aforesaid, shall from time to time within Fourteen Days after he, she or they shall have made or ought to have made such Entry as aforesaid, pay to the Collector of Excise of the District all Duties for or in respect of all such Plate Glass or Window Glass as shall have been made within such Calendar Month, upon Pain of forfeiting for every Default therein the Sum of One Hundred Pounds British Currency, and Double the Amount of the Duty wherein the Payment shall not be so made; and that no such Person shall sell, deliver or carry out any such Plate Glass or Window Glass until he or she hath paid and cleared off all Duty due thereon as aforesaid, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds British Currency, and Double the Value of the Glass so sold, delivered or carried out.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise in Ireland, once in every Month, upon producing a written Order for that Purpose, signed by the Collector of the District in which any such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop shall be situated, to require any Maker or Manufacturer of Plate Glass or Window Glass, or his Clerk or Manager, who shall keep any Account or Quantity of Glass made in such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop, to shew and produce to such Officer all such Books of Account as shall contain any Entry of the Quantity or Weight of any such Glass as shall be made in such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop, or of any Transfusions from which the Quantity or Weight of any Glass made in such Glass House, Workhouse or Work Shop shall appear, and such Maker or Manufacturer of such Glass, or his Clerk or Manager, shall suffer such Officer to inspect all such Books of Account and compare them with the Entry made by such Maker or Manufacturer of Glass at the Excise Office of the District in manner required by this Act; and if any such Maker of such Glass, or his Clerk, Manager or Servant shall not upon such Demand shew and produce to such Officer all such Books as aforesaid, and suffer such Officer to inspect and examine the same, every such Maker of such Glass shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds British Currency.

X. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties and Drawbacks by this Act and the Schedule herewith annexed, granted and allowed, and all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid or allowed, and such for, recovered and applied, in the same manner and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such Ways and Methods, and according to such Rules and Directions, as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying, paying, managing and allowing of any Duties or Drawbacks, or the raising for, recovering or applying any Penalties as and by an Act made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for settling of the Excise or new Imposts upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted; or in add by an Act, made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Tolls in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts which may be in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Excise and Customs, or either of them, as fully and effectually as if the Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved as in and by the said Acts or any of them, is or shall be provided.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing thereof.

C A P. LXXXVIII.

An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland. [14th July 1814.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Regulations for the securing of the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland as the three of this Act, as so much or defines the Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines for the Quantity of Spirits producible whatsoever any Distiller is chargeable with Duty in respect of any Still or Stills used by such Distiller, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and that, from and after the Commencement of this Act, every Distiller in Ireland shall, for every Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days during which any Still or Stills in the Distillery of such Distiller shall continue or shall be preferred to continue working, or shall be chargeable as working under the Regulations or Provision of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland for the regulating or securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, be charged with and shall pay Duty for such respective Quantities of Spirits as might be produced according to the Rates specified in the said Acts as amended by this Act, from the several Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines severally set forth in the Table to this Act annexed, for and in respect of such and every such Still being of the several Contents in the said Table specified and contained, in lieu of the former Charges in respect of such Stills; and that every such Distiller shall, over and above such several Quantities respectively, be charged with and shall pay Duty in respect of each and every such Still or Stills for as much more Spirits as might be produced according to the Rates in the said Acts as amended by this Act, specified from all Pot Ale, Wash, Low Wines or Singlings, which such Distiller shall actually distil within every such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, over and above such several Quantities respectively; and the Officer or Officers in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, shall make a Return of the Quantities of such Spirits, and of the Duties thereon accordingly, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty so charged and assessed, under such Rules, Regulations and Directions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures as are contained in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland for the regulating or securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever any Distiller intended to keep a Still or Stills under One thousand Gallons Content, and exceeding One hundred Gallons Content, shall inform in the Notice which he is bound by Law to give to the Collection, Surveyor and Gauger, before he commences or recommences to work a Still, or shall give Notice in like manner, Six Days before the Expiration of any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, that he proposes to work any Still or Stills in his Possession during the next succeeding Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, with Turf only not charged, and not with Coal or other Fuel than Turf not charged, such Distiller shall for every complete Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, during which any such Still or Stills shall be worked with no other Fuel than Turf not charged, be charged with and pay Duty for such Quantity of Spirits as might be produced (according to the Rates aforesaid), from Three Fourths of the Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines to which such Still would otherwise be liable, and also with Duty for as much more Spirits as might be produced according to the said Rates, from all Pot Ale, Wash, Singlings or Low Wines which such Distiller shall actually distil within each Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days over and above the Quantity producible from each one of Number of Charges of Singhams or Low Wines as aforesaid.

So much of any Act as regulates the Number of Charges of Low Wines repeated, and distinct from several Distillers of Charges for each in Table annexed, &c.

Males of charging when Stills are given at working shall with Turf only charged.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any such Still in the Possession of any Distiller shall, at any time during any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, in which the Distiller shall have given Notice of working any such Still or Stills with Turf only, be worked with any Coal, Coke, Charred Turf, or other Fuel than Turf not charred, all and every Still and Stills in the Possession of such Distiller, not dragged down, unless drawn or displaced in manner directed and appointed in and by an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Regency, intituled An Act to grant to His Majesty's Duties upon Spirits made or distilled in Ireland from Corn; in which certain Drawdowns as the Expression thereof; in which further Regulations for the Encouragement of Licensed Distillers; and for amending the Laws relating to the Distillery in Ireland; shall be subject and liable to the full Number of Charges of Singhams or Low Wines, for the whole of the said Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller shall have given such Notice that he proposes to work any such Still or Stills in his Possession during any Period with Turf only not charred, and not with Coal or other Fuel than Turf not charred, it shall not be lawful for such Distiller having given such Notice to have or keep within his Distillery or any Premises connected therewith, at any time during such Period, any Coal or other Fuel than Turf not charred; and if during any such Period any Coal or any other Fuel than Turf not charred shall be found within the Distillery of such Distiller, or within any Premises connected therewith, all such Coal or other Fuel shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and the Distiller within whose Distillery or other Premises, such Coal or other Fuel shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and such Distiller shall also be subject and liable to the full Number of Charges of Singhams or Low Wines for the said Period, for and in respect of every Still in his Distillery which shall by Law be considered as working without any Allowance whatever, for or in respect of the Use of Turf therein, and as if every such Still had been worked with Coal during such Period.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating the Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, as relates to or requires any Distiller to produce and deliver an Account of the Quantity of Malt mashed or brewed by such Distiller, or as requires any Distiller to use a Quantity of Malt in Proportion to the Quantity of Spirits with which he shall be chargeable in any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, or imposes any Penalty against such Distiller for any Deficiency of such Quantity of Malt, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, save and except so far as may concern the procuring, using for, recovering, or keeping any Fine or Penalty which shall have been or may be incurred under the said Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid.

VI. And, instead of the aforesaid Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid hereby repealed, and for the better securing the Use of Malt in the making of Spirits, and the Payment of the Duty on all Malt as aforesaid, be it enacted, That, from and after the Twenty sixth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, every Distiller of Spirits from Corn or Grain, mashed or unmashed, shall, within Seven Days next after the Wednesday in the Fourth Week of any Period of Four Weeks, during which any Still or Stills of such Distiller shall be chargeable as working immediately succeeding any Day on which such Distiller shall have given Notice of his Intention to commence brewing or mashing of Corn, mashed or unmashed in his Distillery, and in like manner within Seven Days next after the Wednesday in every Fourth Week, of every Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, while any Still or Stills of such Distiller shall be chargeable as working, produce and deliver or cause to be produced and delivered to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller an Account of the Quantity of Malt actually permitted to be the Malt Kieve of such Distiller within the Four Weeks ending on and including such Wednesday; and if, upon such Account and the Permit which shall have been granted for the permitting of such Quantity of Malt into the Malt Kieve of such Distiller, it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt so permitted shall be less than after the Rate of One Barrel of Malt for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits which such Distiller shall distil, or shall be charged or chargeable with from all Wash brewed or made by him within such last mentioned Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, ending on such Sunday, then in such case every such Distiller shall, for every Barrel of such Deficiency of Quantity of Malt, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency; and if any such Distiller shall refuse or neglect to produce and deliver, or cause to be produced, and delivered any such Account to such Officer within the time aforesaid, every such Distiller shall, for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits distilled by, or with which such Distiller shall have been charged or chargeable from all Wash brewed or made within such Period, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency, One Third Part of which said several Forfeitures shall be paid and distributed to the Officers or Officers who shall prosecute for the same, and the other Two third Parts thereof shall be placed to the Account of the Duties on Malt payable in Ireland.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in any case where the Commissioners of Excise may consider that the Officers ought not to receive the said One Third of the said Penalty of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, either to omit such One Third Part of the said Penalty, or to direct that the whole of the said Penalty of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence shall be placed to the full Account of the Duties on Malt payable in Ireland.

VIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case where the Quantity of Malt actually mashed or brewed, and permitted to any Distiller in any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, shall be less than after the Rate or Proportion by this Act directed and prescribed, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller to pay or cause to be paid to the Collector of Excise of the District in which the Distillery

37 G. 3 c. 145
§ 1.

In part repealed.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, in each of the said second Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, as empowers the Commissioners of inland Excise and Taxes to make any Allowance to any Distiller, or to abate the Quantity of Spirits whereof whereon any Distiller may be chargeable by Law in any Period of Four Weeks, in satisfaction of any Loss by any Fatality or Accident, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall be made appear by any Distiller, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Island Excise and Taxes, that upon the whole of any Period of Twelve Weeks such Distiller shall have actually distilled and been charged with, and shall have paid Duty for the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller shall be liable to be charged according to Law, within the whole of the said Period of Twelve Weeks, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to abate any Surcharge of Duty which may have been made on such Distiller in respect of any Delinquency in the Quantity of Spirits distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller at the End of any Period of Four Weeks during the said whole Period of Twelve Weeks, and to make a proportionate Allowance to such Distiller in respect of such Surcharge so abated; and in like manner if it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that upon the whole of any Period ending with the time when such Distiller shall discontinue working, such Distiller shall have actually distilled, and have been charged with and shall have paid Duty for the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller shall be liable to be charged according to Law within the whole of any such Period, it shall in such case also be lawful for the said Commissioners to abate any Surcharge of Duty which may have been made on any such Distiller in respect of any Delinquency in the Quantity of Spirits distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller at the End of any Period of Four Weeks during the whole of any such Period, ending with the time when any such Distiller shall discontinue working as aforesaid, and to make a proportionate Allowance to such Distiller in respect of such Surcharge so abated: Provided always, that as such Abatement or Allowance shall in any case be made by such Commissioners under the full Quantity of Spirits with which the Distiller applying for such Abatement or Allowance shall be by Law chargeable, shall have been actually made and distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller within the whole of the several Periods as aforesaid, any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after any Officers or Officers of Excise shall have taken an Account and ascertained by the Saccharometer the Gravity of any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, in any Back, Vat or other Vessel in the Distillery of any Distiller, and before the Expiration of the time within which such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale is or shall be by Law required to be distilled, there shall be found any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale of any greater Gravity (as ascertained as aforesaid) than the Gravity of the Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, of which an Account had been previously taken in the same Back, Vat or other Vessel as aforesaid, all such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale of such greater Gravity contained in such Back, Vat or other Vessel, shall be considered as Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, not included in any former Charge against the Distiller, and such Distiller shall be charged with Duty in respect of such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, in the same manner as any Distiller is or shall be by Law chargeable in respect of any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Distiller or Person created as a Distiller under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, to have, keep or use in the Distillery of any such Distiller, any Pot Ale Changer, or any Vessel, Utensil or Apparatus for charging any Still with Pot Ale or Low Wines, or by means of which any Still shall or may be charged with Pot Ale or Low Wines which shall be flame-tight, or which shall be covered so as the Officer in charge of the Distillery cannot uncover the same without any Delay, whenever he shall so do, and if any such Pot Ale Changer, or other Vessel, Utensil or Apparatus for being flame-tight, or covered as aforesaid, shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and the Distiller in whose Distillery the same shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and it shall and may be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Distillery to uncover any such Pot Ale Changer or other Vessel, Utensil or Apparatus, or to remove the Cover of the same, when and as often as he shall think fit.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, if any Distiller or Person created as a Distiller under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, shall, in the distilling of any Worts, Pot Ale, Low Wines, Suglings or Spirits, or for or as any Person appearing or relating thereto respectively, have or keep or make use of any Changer, Vat, Back or other Vessel, Utensil, or any Apparatus or Apparatus whatsoever, being covered or flame-tight, and communicating or connected directly or indirectly with any Still, Still Head, Worn or Copper, or any Part thereof respectively, whereby or by means whereof the Content or Capacity of such Still, Still Head, or any Part thereof shall be directly or indirectly enlarged beyond the licensed Content of the same, or whereby or by means whereof the Quantity of Worts, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Spirits capable of being distilled in such Still shall or may be directly or indirectly increased, or whereby or by means whereof any such Changer, Vat, Back or other Vessel, or Utensil, Apparatus or Apparatus, shall or may be used or applied or applicable to any such Still, or in like manner as such Still or any Part thereof can be used or applied to or for the Purpose of distilling, or in or for any other Purpose, or to any other Use than such Changer, Vat, Back or other Vessel, Apparatus or Apparatus may and ought by Law to be used or applied; all and every such Changer, Vat, Back or other Vessel, or Utensil, Apparatus or Apparatus, and all and every such Still, Still Head, Worn or Copper, or any Part thereof with which the same shall be connected, shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and the Distiller in whose Distillery the same shall be found shall forfeit any Licence or Licences before that time granted to him and his heirs, and shall in all respects become and be considered as an unlicensed Distiller, and shall be subject and liable to all such Penalties and Forfeitures as unlicensed Distillers are liable to by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act, and it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of Island Excise and Taxes to grant any Licence for distilling to the Distiller in whose Distillery such Apparatus shall be found, or in any such Distillery, for the Space of Three Years.

XVIII. And

C A P. LXXXIX.

An Act for the Charge of the further Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [14th July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt; and for making further Provisions in respect thereof; it was enacted and declared, that, for the Purpose of the said Act, an Amount of Public Debt, equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt is perpetual redeemable Annuities, maturing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be deemed to be issued and discharged; and so much of the Capital Stock is purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the said Session should or might direct, should be cancelled in like manner as if the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of Land Tax, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts thereto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan or in any other manner, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen; and that when and so soon as such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the Redemption of Land Tax, or the Purchase of Life Annuities, as together with the Amount so already purchased or transferred as aforesaid should have produced an Interest or Yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge in perpetual redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Great Britain, ending on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should thereupon certify and declare the sum to the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should cause the said Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament (if Parliament should be then sitting); but if Parliament should not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament; and so from time to time whenever such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased or transferred as aforesaid, as should be equal to the whole Capital, and should have produced an Interest or Yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge in perpetual redeemable Annuities, of each Loan contracted since the said Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should from time to time thereupon in like manner certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should in like manner cause every such Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament; and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration should have been made, published and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount of Public Debt to which such Certificate and Declaration should relate, should from time to time be deemed and taken to be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or of the South Sea Company should be considered to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to time be cancelled as above mentioned, at such Times and in such Proportions as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan, or in any other manner; and it was thereby further enacted, that whenever the Amount of the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner which might create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain to that or any future Year should exceed the Sum which on the First Day of February should have been or should be estimated to be applicable in the same Year to the Reduction of the National Debt, then and in every such case an annual Sum, amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid in the Year, as should be equal to the Sum so estimated to be applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, should be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, so the Account of the said Commissioners, in the manner directed by the said Statute recited Act of the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty and with respect to the Excess of the Monies which might be so raised in any Year by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, above the estimated Sum applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, such an annual Sum as should be equal to One Half of the Interest of such Excess, should be set apart out of the Monies composing the Consolidated Fund, and should in like manner be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners: And Whereas the Sum which on the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, was estimated to be applicable to the present Year to the Reduction of the National Debt, amounted to Eleven millions three hundred and thirty thousand four hundred and fifty two Pounds: And Whereas by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for raising the Sum of Twenty five Millions by way of Annuities, the Sum of Eighteen millions five hundred thousand Pounds was raised for the Service of Great Britain: And Whereas the Charge of the said Sum of Eighteen millions five hundred thousand Pounds will amount to the Sum of One million one hundred and seventy five thousand six hundred and seventy four Pounds: And Whereas it is expedient to make Provisions for such Charge in the manner directed

Bridings, &c. by
Act 2. in Part
third of Last.

Extended to Bridings, &c. by
Act 2. in Part
third of Last.

WHEREAS Doubts have been entertained whether the Power contained in an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for considering certain Deficits in the Loans relative to the building and repairing of County Bridges, and other Works maintained at the Expence of the Inhabitants of Counties in England, for the purchasing of any Land or Ground, do extend to the Purchase of any Building or Buildings, or other Enclosures; For Remedy whereof, May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Powers and Authorities in the said Act mentioned and contained for the Purchase of any Land or Ground for the Purpose of the said Act, shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend to all such Building or Buildings, or other Enclosures, as may be necessary to be purchased for the Purpose of the said Act.

II. And Whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act, except as after mentioned, should be extended to Bridges repaired by the Inhabitants of Hundreds and other General Divisions of Counties; Be it further enacted, That the said Act and all the Powers and Provisions thereof (except such Provisions therein as relate to Bridges hereafter to be erected and built) shall extend as well to Bridges and the Roads at the Ends thereof repaired by the Inhabitants of Hundreds, and other General Divisions in the nature of Hundreds, as to Bridges and the Roads at the Ends thereof repaired by the Inhabitants of Counties.

An Act to amend so much of an Act, passed in the Forty third Year of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, as concerns the time of appointing Overseers of the Poor.

[14th July 1814.]

45 Eliz. c. 2.
§ 1.

As amended by the Act of the Poor.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty third Year of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intitled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, it is enacted, That the Churchwardens of every Parish, and Poor, or Three or Two Inhabitant Householders there, as shall be thought fit, in having respect to the Greatness of the Parish, to be nominated yearly in Easter Week, or within One Month after Easter, under the Hand and Seal of Two or more Justices of the Peace in the same County, whereof One to be of the Quorum dwelling in or near the same Parish or Division where the same Parish doth lie, shall be called Overseers of the Poor of the same Parish: And Whereas great Inconvenience is often found to arise from the time for appointing such Overseers being regulated by a Movable Feast; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Appointment of Overseers of the Poor, be directed by said Act of Queen Elizabeth, shall, in every Year, be made on the Twenty fifth Day of March, or within Fourteen Days next after the said Twelfth Day of March, in all and every the same manner as directed by the said Act to be made in Easter Week; any thing in the said Act or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XCII.

As Act to enforce the Payment of Stamp Duties on Probates and Letters of Administration, and on Receipts for Property obtained by Legacy, or Intestacy, in Ireland. [14th July 1814.]

WHEREAS the Provisions made to regulate and secure the Payment of Stamp Duties on Probates and Letters of Administration, and on Legacies, and on Property obtained by Intestacy in Ireland, contained in an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to repeal the several Acts for the Collection and Management of the Stamp Duties in Ireland; and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties, have been found insufficient, and it is necessary further to provide for the said Purposes: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as purports to relate only to the Regulation or Payment of the said Duties on Probates or Letters of Administration, or on Legacies, or on Property obtained or claimed by, or under, or by reason of the total or partial Intestacy of any Person, shall stand and be repealed; save so far as the said Act directs that the said Duties shall be deemed and taken to be chargeable and payable only in respect of the Amount or Value of such Estate and Effects as shall be situated in Ireland, and of such Legacies as shall be payable out of Estates and Effects in Ireland, and save also so far as the said Act relates to Trust Property becoming vested in Executors or Administrators; and save also so far as the said Act relates to the rating, levying, collecting or recovering any Part, Payment, Penalty or Forfeiture for or by reason of any Matter or Thing which shall have been done, committed or suffered, as or before the said Day, and save as to the Receipt, Collection or Application of any Duty or Sum which shall or may be payable on or before that Day.

II. And, for the better securing the Payment of the Stamp Duties on Probates, Administrations and Legacies in Ireland, be it enacted, That every Person who shall after the Commencement of this Act administer in Ireland the Personal Estate or any Part of the Personal Estate of any deceased Person, without having proved the Will of the deceased, or taken out Letters of Administration of such Personal Estate in Ireland within Twelve Calendar Months after the Death of such deceased Person, if he or she shall die after the Commencement of this Act (or with respect to Persons who shall have died before the Commencement of this Act, within Six Calendar Months after the Commencement of this Act), shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Pounds British Currency.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Probate which shall be taken out by any Executor after the Will therein mentioned hath or shall have been proved, and Probate thereof hath been or shall have been duly obtained by another Executor named therein, shall and may be good, valid and effectual without any Stamp, to all Intents and Purposes, as if stamped; and that all Persons concerned in the writing or taking out the same shall be and they are respectively hereby freed and discharged from and against all Fines and Penalties for or in respect thereof, in any manner whatsoever.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Executor and Administrator of any deceased Person in Ireland, who shall have left a Personal Property of the Value of Two hundred Pounds or upwards, and all and every Person who shall administer or enter upon the Possession or Management of all or any Part of the Personal Estate of any such deceased Person, or who hath heretofore entered upon the Possession or Management of any personal or moveable Estate or Effects of such deceased Person, and hath not fully administered the same, whether such Person be acting shall have been sent of Kin or Creditor, or other, and whether as Principal or as Agent for any Person or Persons, who or any of whom may be out of Ireland, shall, before disposing of or distributing any Part or summing Part of such Estate or Effects, or at all Events within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or after taking Probate or Administration, or entering on the Possession or Management of any such Personal Estate, or of any Part thereof, exhibit upon Oath to the proper Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland, a full and complete Inventory or Statement of such Estate and Effects, so far as they shall have been recovered at the time of exhibiting such Inventory, or shall be known to be existing, distinguishing whether Estate in Ireland or elsewhere; and also of all Debts due by the deceased at the time of his or her Death, and payable out of his or her Personal Estate; and the nature and kind thereof; and in case at any time or times thereafter, a Discovery shall be made of other Effects belonging to the deceased which on account of their not being known at the time were omitted in the said original Inventory, an additional Inventory or Inventory of the same shall in like manner be exhibited on Oath from time to time by any Person or Persons administering or assisting the Management or Disposal thereof, together with all such Debts due by such deceased Person as aforesaid or may not have been entered in such former Inventory, any such Oath as aforesaid to be administered by the same Person or Persons, and in the same manner as is used on proving a Will; and in case any such Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to exhibit any such Original or Additional Inventory, or shall knowingly omit to include any Part of such Estate and Effects therein, every Person so neglecting, refusing or omitting, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Pounds for each such Neglect, Refusal or Omission.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person, whether Executor, Administrator or otherwise, who shall administer the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, and shall retain, whether for his or her own Use or otherwise, any Legacy, or any Part of the Residue of such Personal Estate, shall be and he or she shall be accountable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for any Duty which shall be then by Law payable on any Receipt or Discharge for any such Legacy, Residue or Part

Part of Residue; and that if any Person, whether Executor, Administrator or otherwise, who shall administer the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, shall pay any Legacy, Residue, or any Part of Residue, without obtaining a Receipt duly stamped for the same, then such Person so administering shall be entitled to deduct thereout the Amount of the Stamp Duty, which shall be then payable on such Receipt; and in case he shall so deduct the same, the Amount of such Stamp Duty shall then immediately be a Debt from such Person so administering to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and if any such Person so administering shall pay any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, without obtaining for the same a Receipt duly stamped, or without deducting the Amount of such Stamp Duty thereon, then and in every such case the Amount of such Stamp Duty thereon shall be a Debt to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as well from the Person or Persons so administering as from the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies, to whom the same shall have been so paid respectively.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Gift by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person, which by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument shall have Effect, or be settled out of the Personal Estate of such Person deceased, or out of any Personal Estate which such Person shall have Power to dispose of, as he or she shall think fit, or which shall be charged upon or given out of any Real or Personal Estate, or Manors arising from the Sale of any Real Estate directed to be sold by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, shall be deemed and taken to be a Legacy within the Intend and Meaning of this Act, and of all Acts whereby any Stamp Duty is or shall be imposed, or in any wise relating to the Management or Collection of any Stamp Duty, whether the same shall be given by way of Annuity, or in any other Form, and whether the same shall be charged only on such Personal Estate, or charged also on the Real Estate of the Testator or Testatrix who shall give the same, except in far as the same shall be paid or satisfied out of such Real Estate, in due Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which the same shall be given, and every Gift which shall have Effect as a Devote Maritima Gift, shall also be deemed a Legacy within the Intend and Meaning of this Act, and of all other such Acts as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every case in which any Executor or Administrator, or other Person or Persons taking the Burden of the Execution of the Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, or any Trustee, or any other Person to whom any Real Estate shall be devised to be sold, or who shall be entitled to any Real Estate subject to any Legacy, shall not have paid any Stamp Duties which shall from time to time be payable by Law on any Receipts or Discharges for any Legacy, or for any Residue, or Part of any Residue, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, within a proper and reasonable time, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, upon Application to be made for that Purpose on behalf of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, upon such Affidavit or Affidavits as to the said Court may appear to be sufficient, to grant a Rule, requiring such Executor, Administrator, Trustee, or other Person or Persons, to show cause why he, she, or they should not deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, an Account upon Oath of all the Legacies and of all the Property respectively paid or to be paid or administered by such Executor or Administrator, or other Person or Persons, or given or bequeathed to such Trustee or other Person entitled to any Real Estate, subject to any such Legacy as the case may be, and why the Duties on any such Legacies, or any Shares or Residue of any such Estate Real or Personal have not been paid, or should not be forthwith paid according to Law, and to make any such Rule of Court absolute in every case in which the same may appear to the said Court to be proper and necessary for enforcing the Payment of any of the said Duties, together with the Costs of so recovering the same.

VIII. And, in order that all Persons may be enabled to take Receipts and Discharges on the Payment or Satisfaction of any Legacy or Residue of any Personal Estate or any Part thereof, according to the Directions prescribed by this Act, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, from time to time to provide sufficient Quantities of Paper adapted for such Receipts or Discharges as aforesaid, and to cause to be printed thereon the Form of Words in the Schedule herunto annexed marked A.; and it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects requiring such Receipts or Discharges to cause the same to be duly filled up with Sums, Names and Dates, according to the Provisions before mentioned, and also upon any Vellum or Parchment, or upon any other Paper not provided by the said Commissioners, to use the like Form whenever there shall be Occasion.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Value of any Legacy given by way of Annuity, whether payable annually or otherwise, for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, or for Years or other Period of time, shall be calculated, and the Duty chargeable thereon, shall be charged according to the Tables marked L. II. and III. to this Act annexed; and the Duty chargeable as such Annuity shall be paid by Four equal Payments, the First of which Payments of Duty shall be made before or on completing the Payment of the First Year's Annuity, and the Three others of such Payments of Duty shall be made in like manner successively, before or on completing the respective Payments of the Three succeeding Years Annuity respectively; and the Value of any such Annuity, if determinable upon any Contingency besides the Death of any Person or Persons, shall be calculated without regard to such Contingency: Provided always, that if any such Annuity shall decrease by the Death of any Person before Four Years Payment of such Annuity shall become due and payable, then and in such case the Duty shall be payable in proportion only to so many of the Payments of the said Annuity as actually accrued and became due and payable; and in case any such Annuity shall at any time determine upon any other Contingency than the Death of any Person or Persons, then and in such case not only all Payments of Duty which would otherwise become due after the happening of such Contingency, if any such would become due, shall cease, but it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have paid any Duties which shall have previously become due, to apply for and obtain a Return of so much much of the Duty to paid, as will reduce the sum to the like Duty as would have been payable by such Person or Persons for such Annuity, calculated according to the Terms for which the same shall have endured; which Abatement the said Commissioners for the Management of the Stamp Duties shall make and determine, according to the Tables in the Schedule hereto annexed, and shall credit the Amount of such Abatement to be paid to the Person or Persons entitled to the same, out of any Monies in their Hands, arising from the Duties imposed by this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Value of any Legacy given by way of Annuity for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, or for Years or other Period of time, and charged on and made payable out of any other Legacy or Legacies, shall be calculated, and the Duty shall be charged thereon so the same manner as heretofore directed with respect to other Annuities; and the Duty on the Legacy charged with such Annuity, if any Duty shall be payable for such Legacy, shall be calculated on the Value of such Legacy, after deducting the Value of such Annuity; and the Duty for such Annuity shall be paid by the Person or Persons entitled to the Legacy or Legacies charged with such Annuity, by Four equal Payments, in the same manner as the same would be payable according to the Provisions heretofore contained, if such Annuity had been a direct Gift to the Annuitant, and subject to the like Proviso in case such Annuity shall determine before four Years Payment shall become due; and the Payment which shall be made for such Duty shall be retained by the Person or Persons paying the same, out of the first Four Years Payments of such Annuity, if so many shall become due, or out of so many of such Payments as shall become due, by equal Portions.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Duty payable upon any Legacy given by way of Direction to purchase with any Personal Estate of the Testator or Testatrix, or any Part thereof, an Annuity of a certain Amount for the Life or Lives of any Person or Persons, or any other Term, shall be calculated upon the Sum necessary to purchase such Annuity, according to the Tables before mentioned, and shall be deducted from such Sum, and paid as in the case of other pecuniary Legacies; and the Person or Persons paying or satisfying such Legacy, and the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be paid or satisfied, shall be discharged, by Payment of such Duty so calculated as aforesaid, from all other Demands in respect of the Duty payable on such Legacy; and the Annuity to be purchased for the Benefit of the Person or Persons to be entitled to the Benefit of such Legacy shall be reduced in proportion to the Amount of the Duty payable thereon as aforesaid, such Reduction so be calculated in the same manner as the Duty to be payable is heretofore directed to be calculated; and the Purchaser of such reduced Annuity, together with the Payment of such Duty, shall satisfy and discharge such Legacy as fully as if an Annuity had been purchased equal in Amount to the Annuity so directed to be purchased.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Benefit shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, in such Terms that the Amount or Value of such Benefit can only be ascertained from time to time by the actual Application for that Purpose of the Fund allotted for such Purpose, or made chargeable therewith; or if the Amount or Value of any Benefit given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument cannot, by reason of the form or manner of the Gift, be so ascertained that the Duty to which the same shall be then subject can be charged thereon under any other of the Directions herein contained, then and in every such case, such Duty shall be charged upon the several Sums of Money or Effects which shall be applied from time to time for the Purposes directed by such Will or Testamentary Instrument, as separate and distinct Legacies or Bequests, and shall be paid out of any Fund which may be applicable for such Purpose, or charged with answering the same.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty which shall from time to time be payable on a Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate given to or for the Benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, who shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate with the Stamp Duties which shall then be payable, shall be charged upon and paid out of the Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue so given, as in the case of a Legacy to one Person; and where any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, shall be given to or for the Benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, some or One of whom shall be then chargeable with one Duty, or some Two or more of whom shall be chargeable with different Rates of Duty, so that One Rate of Duty cannot be immediately charged thereon, all Persons who under or in consequence of any such Bequest shall be entitled for Life only, or for any other temporary Interest, shall be chargeable with the Duty in respect of such Bequest in the same manner as if the Annual Produce thereof had been given by way of Annuity; and such Persons respectively shall be so chargeable with such Duty, and the same shall be payable when they shall respectively become entitled to and begin to receive such Produce; and where any other partial Interest shall be given or shall arise out of such Property to be enjoyed in Succession, the Duty on such partial Interest shall be charged and paid in the same manner as the Duty is heretofore directed to be charged and paid in like cases of partial Interests charged on any Property given otherwise than to different Persons in Succession; and all and every Person or Persons who shall become absolutely entitled to any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue to be enjoyed in Succession, shall, when and as such Person or Persons respectively shall receive the same, or begin to enjoy the Benefit thereof, be chargeable with and pay the Duty for the same, or such Part thereof as shall be so received, or of which the Benefit shall be so enjoyed, in the same manner as if the same had come to such Person or Persons immediately on the Death of the Person by whom such Property shall have been given to be enjoyed, or in such manner that the same shall be enjoyed in Succession.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Duty which shall from time to time be payable on any Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, so given to or so to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, upon whom the Duty shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate, shall be deducted and paid by the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument under which the Title therein shall arise upon Payment or other Satisfaction or Discharge of every or any Part of such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, to any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons to whom the same shall be payable or paid, as Trustee or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto in Succession; and if the same shall not be so paid or forwarded to any such Trustee or Trustees, then such Duty shall be deducted and paid out of the Capital of the Property so given, upon Receipt, by any of the Person or Persons entitled in Succession of any Proceeds of such Capital or any Part thereof, according to the Amount of the Capital of which such Proceeds shall be so received; and where the Duty chargeable upon any such Bequest for the Benefit of or to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, shall be chargeable at different Rates, so that the same cannot be paid at one and the same time, but shall be paid in Succession as aforesaid, then and in such case all and every the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument, in which such Bequest shall be contained, shall be chargeable with such Duties in Succession, in the same manner as such Persons would be chargeable with the like Duties in case of immediate Bequests, unless the Property bequeathed shall have been paid, or otherwise satisfied to or vested in any Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, in which case such Trustee or Trustees, or he, her or their Representatives, shall be chargeable with the Duties then payable for or in respect of such Property so vested in him, her or them, respectively, in such and the same manner as if he, she or they had taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such Bequest shall have been made; and in like manner, where any partial Interest shall be given, or shall arise out of any such Property so to be enjoyed in Succession, and such partial Interest shall be foreclosed or paid by the Person or Persons so enjoying such Property, such Person or Persons shall be chargeable with the Duties then payable for and in respect of such partial Interest, and shall retain and pay the same accordingly, in such and the same manner as if he, she or they had taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such partial Interest shall have been created; and in all such cases the Person or Persons so chargeable with Duty, shall be Debtors to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in like manner, and shall be subject to the like Process, as the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of such Will or Testamentary Instrument shall from time to time be chargeable and subject to.

Debts to the King

Plats, for while enjoyed in Kind, not liable to Duty till in Possession of Person having Power to dispose thereof.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Duty shall at any time be paid on any Articles of Plats, Furniture or other Things not yielding any Income, and given to and for the Benefit of, or to or for the use of the same be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, whilst the same shall be so enjoyed in Kind only, by any Person or Persons not having any Power of selling or disposing thereof, so as to convert the same into Money or other Property yielding an Income; but if the same shall be actually sold or disposed of, or shall come to any Person or Persons having Power to sell or dispose thereof, or having an absolute Interest therein, then and in such and every such case the same Duty shall be chargeable and paid thereon as if the same had been originally given absolutely and with full Power to sell and dispose thereof, and shall be chargeable upon and paid by the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be sold, or who shall have Power to sell or dispose thereof, or any absolute Interest therein, and shall become the Debt of such Person or Persons, but shall not be a Charge on any Person or Persons by reason of his, her or their having assented to such Bequest as the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such Bequest shall have been made.

Heirs or Legacies enjoyed in Succession, and if in such case, the same shall be chargeable as if the same had been originally given absolutely and with full Power to sell and dispose thereof.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or any Residue or Part of Residue, shall be so given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, that different Persons shall become entitled thereto in Succession, the Duty shall be charged thereon, as given to be enjoyed in Succession, whether the Person or Persons entitled thereto shall take the same under or by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument, and the Dispositions therein contained, or in Default of such Dispositions, and as entitled by Intestacy.

Duty on Legacies in Joint Tenancy paid in Proportion to Interest of Parties.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That where at any time any Legacy, or any Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be given to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons in Joint Tenancy, some or One of whom shall be then chargeable with any Stamp Duty, and some or One of whom shall not be so chargeable, or where Two or more of such Joint Tenants shall be chargeable according to different Rates of Duty, then and in every of such cases all and every the Person or Persons chargeable with Duty, shall pay such Duty in proportion to the Interest of such Person or Persons respectively, and to the Rates at which they shall be so chargeable respectively in such Bequest; and if any Person or Persons so chargeable with such Duty, and entitled in Joint Tenancy as aforesaid, shall become entitled by Survivorship, or by Succession of the Joint Tenancy, to any larger Interest in the Property bequeathed than that in respect of which such Duty shall have been paid, then and in such case all and every such Person or Persons so becoming entitled by Survivorship, or by Succession, shall be charged with the same Duty as if the Property which such Joint Tenant or Joint Tenants shall be become entitled to had been then originally given to or for the Use of of such Person or Persons only: Provided always, that if any Duty shall have been previously paid in respect of any Property to which any such Joint Tenant shall be become entitled, such Duty so previously paid shall be deducted and allowed out of the Duty to which such Joint Tenant would then become liable in respect to such Property; and if such Duty shall exceed that to which such Joint Tenant would be liable in respect to such Property, then such Joint Tenant shall not be liable to any Duty in respect thereof.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Legacy, or any Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be given, subject to any Contingency which may defeat such Gift, and whereupon the same may go to some other Person or Persons, such Bequest (unless chargeable as an Annuity under the Provision herein contained), shall be charged with Duty as an absolute Bequest to the Person or Persons who shall take the same, subject to such Contingency, and such Duty shall be paid out of the Capital of such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, notwithstanding the same may be upon such Contingency to go to some Person not chargeable with the same Duty, or with any Duty; and if such Contingency shall afterwards happen, and the Property be bequeathed full thereupon go in such manner that the same if taken immediately after the Death of the Testator or Testatrix under the same Title would have been chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than the Duty so paid, the Person or Persons becoming entitled thereto shall be charged with and shall pay the Difference between the Duty so paid, and such higher Rate of Duty.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or the Residue, or any Part of the Residue of any Personal Estate, shall be subject to any Power of Appointment, to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons specially named or described as Objects of such Power, such Property shall be chargeable with Duty as Property given to different Persons in Succession, and in so charging such Duty, not only the Person and Persons who shall take previous or subject to such Power of Appointment, but also any Person and Persons who shall take under or in Default of any such Appointment, when and as they shall so take respectively, shall in respect of these several Interests, whether previous or subject to or under, or in Default of such Appointment, be charged with the same Duty and in the same manner as if the same Interests had been given to him, her or them respectively, in and by the Will or Testamentary Disposition constituting such Power, in the same Order and Course of Succession as shall take place under and by virtue of such Power of Appointment, or in Default of Exercise thereof, as the case may happen to be; and where any Property shall be given for any limited Interest, and a general and absolute Power of Appointment shall also be given to any Person or Persons to whom the Property would not belong in Default of such Appointment, such Property, upon the Execution of such Power, shall be charged with the same Duty and in the same manner as if the same Property had been immediately given to the Person or Persons having and exercising such Power, after allowing any Duty before paid in respect thereof; and where any Property shall be given with any such general Power of Appointment, which Property in Default will belong to the Person or Persons to whom such Power shall also be given, such Property shall be charged with and shall pay the Duty in the same manner as if such Property had been given to such Person or Persons absolutely in the first Instance without such Power of Appointment.

XX. And be it further enacted, That any Sum of Money or Personal Estate directed to be applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, shall be charged with and pay Duty as Personal Estate, unless the same shall be given so as to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, and then such Person entitled thereto in Succession shall pay Duty for the same in the same manner as if the same had not been directed to be applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, unless the same shall have been actually applied in the Purchase of Real Estate before such Duty accrued; but no Duty shall accrue in respect thereof, after the same shall have been actually applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, for so much thereof as shall have been so applied: Provided nevertheless, that in case before the same or some Part thereof shall be actually so applied, any Person or Persons shall become entitled to an Estate of Inheritance in Possession in the Real Estate to be purchased therein, or with so much thereof as shall not have been applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, the same Duty which ought to be paid by such Person or Persons if absolutely entitled thereto as Personal Estate, by virtue of any Bequest thereof, as such, shall be charged on such Person or Persons so entitled, and raised and paid out of the Fund remaining to be applied in such Purchase.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That where any Real Estate shall by any Will be directed to be sold charged with any Legacy or Legacies, the Person or Persons entitled to sell the same, or bound to pay such Legacy or Legacies, and also the Person beneficially entitled to such Legacies, or to the Residue or any Parts of the Residue of the Purchase Money thereof, shall respectively be liable to pay the Stamp Duties which shall then be by Law payable thereon respectively, in the same manner in all respects mutatis mutandis as concerning the Administration of Personal Estate, as heretofore provided.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That Estates Per autre vie applicable by Law in the same manner as Personal Estate, shall be charged with all Stamp Duties imposed or to be imposed as Personal Estate.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Direction shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument for Payment of the Duty chargeable upon any Legacy or Bequest out of some other Fund, so that such Legacy or Bequest may pass to the Person or Persons to whom or for whose Benefit the same shall be given free of Duty, no Duty shall be chargeable upon the Money to be applied for the Payment of such Duty, notwithstanding the same may be directed a Legacy to or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons who would otherwise pay such Duty.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in cases of specific Legacies, and where the Residue of any Personal Estate shall consist of Property which shall not be reduced into Money, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons having or taking the Benefit of the Administration of such Estates, or the Person or Persons by whom the Duty thereon ought to be paid, to set a Value thereon, and to offer so to pay the Duty according to such Value, or to request the Commissioners for Management of Stamp Duties in support a Person to set and appraise such Value at the Expense of the Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to accept the Duty offered to be paid upon the Value set by the Person or Persons having or taking the Administration of such Estates, or by whom the Duty for the same shall be payable, without such Appointment, if the said Commissioners shall think fit so to do: but if the said Commissioners shall not be satisfied with the Value so set, so which the Duty shall be so offered, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners

Commissioners, notwithstanding such Offer, to appoint a Person to appraise such Effects and to set the Value thereon, so which Value he set the said Commissioners shall settle the Duty payable in respect thereof, and require the same to be paid; but if the Person or Persons by whom such Duty shall be payable shall not be satisfied with the Valuation made under the Authority of the said Commissioners, and pay the Duty accordingly, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, at any time within Three Calendar Months after he, she or they shall have Notice of such Valuation, to appeal therefrom, and to cause the Valuation so made under the Authority of the said Commissioners to be reviewed by the Commissioners of Appeals as Revenue Causes in Ireland; and if the Valuation made under the Authority of the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties shall not be duly appealed from within the Period aforesaid, or shall be affirmed upon Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Valuation; and if any Variance shall be made on such Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Variance; and if the Duty settled in manner aforesaid shall exceed the Duty offered to, and refused by the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, the Expense of such Appraisement and other Proceedings in settling such Duty, shall be borne by the Person or Persons by whom such Duty shall be payable; and if any Dispute shall arise between any Person or Persons entitled to any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, and any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Administration of such Effects with respect to the Value thereof, or with respect to the Duty to be paid thereon, the Duty shall be settled by the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, on Reference to them by either Party for that Purpose; and if the Value of any Property on which such Duty ought to be paid shall be in Dispute, the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties shall cause an Appraisement to be made thereof at the Expense of the Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid, in the manner heretofore directed in other cases, and settle the Duty thereon accordingly; and if such Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid shall be dissatisfied with such Valuation, or with the Assessment of Duty made upon such Valuation by the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties, the same shall be reviewed and finally determined by the said Commissioners of Appeals as Revenue Causes, upon Appeal to them within the time and in the manner heretofore directed in other cases; but if such Valuation or Assessment shall not be duly appealed from within the time limited for that Purpose, or shall be affirmed upon Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according thereto; and if any Variance shall be made thereon on such Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Variance.

Duty on Legacies not included in Money, &c. paid according to Value of British Coin.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy or Part of any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, whereon any Duty shall be chargeable by this Act, shall be satisfied otherwise than by Payment of Money, or Application of specific Effects for that Purpose, or shall be released for Consideration, or compounded for less than the Amount or Value thereof, then and in such case the Duty shall be charged and paid in respect of such Legacy or Part of Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, according to the Amount or Value of the Property taken in Satisfaction thereof, or as the Consideration for Release thereof or Compromise for the same: Provided always, that if any Legacy or Residue shall be made in Satisfaction of any other Legacy or Residue, or Title to any Residue or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate remaining unpaid, the Duty shall not be paid on both Subjects, although both may be chargeable with Duty, but shall be paid on the Subject yielding the largest Duty.

If Legacies or Residues in money, Legacies, Duty deferred, Court, in case of Suit may order them to pay Costs;

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, or any Person or Persons hereby made chargeable with Duty, shall declare himself, herself or themselves ready and willing, and shall accordingly offer to pay any pecuniary Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, discharging the Duty payable thereon, or shall in like manner offer to deliver or otherwise dispose of any specific Legacy, or any specific Property, Part of any Residue of any Personal Estate, or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or to any Trustee or Trustees for such Person or Persons, upon Payment of the Duty payable in respect thereof, and the Person or Persons entitled to such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, or the Trustee or Trustees for such Person or Persons, shall refuse to accept such Offer, and to give a proper Release and Discharge for such Legacy or Residue, or in such case as shall be offered to be paid, delivered, or otherwise disposed of as aforesaid, then and in such case, although no actual Tender shall be made, if any Suit shall be afterwards instituted for such Legacy or Effects, respecting which such Offer shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted, to order all Costs, Charges and Expenses attending the same to be paid by the Person or Persons who shall have refused to accept such Offer, and to give or pay in such Release or Discharge, or to order such Costs, Charges and Expenses to be deducted and retained out of such Legacy or Effects, together with the Duty payable thereon, as the said Court shall see fit; and in case any Suit shall be instituted for Payment of any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate, and the Person or Persons sued for the same shall be defensible of saying Proceedings in such Suit on Payment of the Money due, or delivering or otherwise disposing of the specific Effects demanded, after deducting or retaining the Duty payable thereon, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted, if it shall see fit, on Application in a summary way to make such Order for Payment of such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, or for delivering or otherwise disposing of such Effects, and for Payment of the Duty payable thereon, and all such Costs, Charges and Expenses attending such Suit, as shall be just.

Suits where Party sued wishes in any Proceedings on Payment of Requested Duty, Court may make Order.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit shall be instituted concerning the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person dying testate or intestate, or any Part of such Estate, in which any Direction shall be given touching the Payment of any Legacies or Legacy of such Person, or the Residue of his or her Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, the Court wherein such Suit shall be instituted shall, in giving Directions concerning the same, provide for the due Payment of the Duties which shall be payable thereon in taking any Account of any Personal Estate, or otherwise acting concerning the same, such Court shall take care that no Suit instituted concerning Administration Court to provide for Payment of Duty.

Allowance shall be made in respect of any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or of any Residue, or Part of Residue, in any manner whatsoever, without the Proof of the Payment of the Duties to which the same shall from time to time be liable.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons having or taking the Benefice of the Execution of any Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, may from time to time pay, deliver or otherwise dispose of any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or make Distribution of any Part of the Residue of any Personal Estate, on Payment from time to time of such Proportions of the Duty by Law payable thereon, as shall accrue in respect of such Part of such Personal Estate as shall be so administered.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, nor any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons hereby directed and required to account for any Duty, shall from and after the Commencement of this Act, pay, deliver or otherwise dispose of, or in any manner finally discharge or compound for any Legacy whatsoever, or any Part thereof, or the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, in respect whereof any Duty is payable by Law, without taking a Receipt or Discharge in Writing for the same, expressing the Date of such Receipt or Discharge, and the Names of the Testator, Testatrix or Intestate, under whose Will or Testamentary Disposition, or upon whose Intestacy the Title to such Legacy or Part of Legacy, or to such Residue or Part of Residue shall accrue, and of the Person or Persons to whom such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and of the Person or Persons to whom such Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue shall have been given or shall have belonged in consequence of Intestacy, and the Amount or Value of the Legacy or Part of Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, for which such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and also the Amount and Rate of the Duty payable and allowed thereon; and that no written Receipt or Discharge for any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or for the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, in respect whereof any Duty is payable by Law, shall be received in Evidence or be available in any manner whatever, unless the same shall be duly stamped according to Law; and no Evidence whatsoever shall be given of any Payment, Satisfaction or Discharge whatsoever, or of any Release or Composition of such Legacy or any Part thereof, or of such Residue or any Part thereof, without producing such Receipt or Discharge, duly stamped as aforesaid, unless the actual Payment of the Duty hereby imposed shall first be given in Evidence; Provided always, that a Copy of the Entry in the Books of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties of the Payment of such Duty, shall be admitted as Evidence thereof: Provided also, that Payment of any Annuity shall not be deemed a Payment for which such stamped Receipt shall be required under the Direction of this Act, except the several Payments which shall complete the Payments for each of the first Four Years during which such Annuity shall be payable; and in like manner any Payment in respect of any Legacy or Bequest hereby directed to be charged with the Duty, in the same manner as Annuities are hereby made chargeable with Duty, shall not be deemed a Payment for which such stamped Receipt shall be required, except the several Payments which shall complete the Payments for each of the first Four Years in respect of which such Legacy or Bequest shall be chargeable with Duty as an Annuity.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That any Person having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, and any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons hereby directed and required to account for any Duty, who shall pay, deliver or otherwise dispose of, or in any manner finally discharge or compound for any Legacy given by such Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Residue or any Part of the Residue of such Personal Estate, or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons entitled to such Legacy or any Part thereof, or to such Residue or any Part thereof, without taking such Receipt or Discharge in Writing as aforesaid, and causing the same to be stamped within the time allowed by Law for stamping the same, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on the Sum of Money, or the Value of the Property, if not Money, for which such Receipt or Discharge ought to have been given; and all and every Person and Persons receiving or taking the Benefit of any such Money or other Property without giving a written Receipt or Discharge for the same, in which the Duty payable in respect thereof shall be expressed to have been allowed or paid to the Person or Persons to whom such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and which shall bear Date on the Day of signing the same, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on the Sum of Money, or on the Value of the Property so received or taken.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That every such Receipt or Discharge shall be brought, within the Space of Three Calendar Months after the Date thereof, to the Head Office of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties in Ireland, or to some other Office to be appointed by the said Commissioners for such Purpose, to be stamped, paying the Duty for the same; and upon such Payment, either at the said Head Office, or at any other Office to be appointed as aforesaid, the Receiver General, or other proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, as the case may be, shall write upon such Receipt or Discharge an Acknowledgment of the Payment of the Duty so paid in Words as he shall, and bearing Date the Day on which such Payment shall be made, and shall subscribe his Name thereto, and enter an Account thereof in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, to the Intent that he may be thereby charged with the Sum so paid; and in case the Duty shall be so paid at the Head Office, then the Receipt or Discharge so brought to be stamped shall be forthwith duly stamped, as the case shall require; and in case the Duty shall be so paid in any other Office to be appointed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, the Receipt or Discharge whereas such Acknowledgment of the Payment of the Duty shall be so written and subscribed, shall be manifested within the Space of Twenty one Days from the Day of Payment of such Duty to the said Head Office, and the same shall be duly stamped accordingly, as the said Act requires; and in case the Person or Persons paying such Duty at any such Office be appointed as aforesaid, shall be defrauded that the same shall be transmitted in the said Head Office by the Officer to whom such Duty shall be paid, and shall leave the same with such Officer for such Purpose, such Officer shall thereupon sign and deliver an Acknowledgment that such Receipt or Discharge has been left with him for such Purpose, and shall transmit such Receipt or Discharge to such Head Office to be stamped as aforesaid, and the same shall be sent again to such Officer as soon as conveniently may be, after the stamping thereof, and such Officer shall deliver back the same to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, upon Receipt by him of the Acknowledgment which he shall have given for the same: Provided always, that if any such Receipt or Discharge shall not be brought to any such Office as aforesaid within such Space of Three Calendar Months as aforesaid, it shall nevertheless be lawful to every such Receipt or Discharge to the said Head Office to be stamped as before said, after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months from the Date thereof, paying the Duty for the same, and also the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on such Duty, by way of Penalty for not having before paid such Duty; on Payment of which Duty and Penalty the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to stamp such Receipt or Discharge in the same manner as if the same had been brought to the said Office within the Space of Three Calendar Months from the Date thereof; and where any such Receipt or Discharge shall have been signed out of Ireland, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, within Two Years from the Date thereof, to exact any Penalty that may have been incurred thereon, and to exact the same to be duly stamped, on Payment of the Duty payable in respect thereof; any thing contained in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Party or Parties paying or satisfying any Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, or receiving the same contrary to the Provisions of this Act, who shall, within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after the Offence committed, discover the other Party or Parties offending therein, so that such Party or Parties be discovered by them, so convicted, such Person so discovering shall be indemnified and discharged from all Penalties incurred for any Offence against this Act.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, where by reason of the Infancy or Absence beyond the Seas of any Person entitled to any Legacy, or to the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, chargeable with Duty by virtue of this Act, or by reason of any Doubt as to the Construction of any Will, the Person or Persons having or taking the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of such Personal Estate, cannot pay such Legacy, or some Part thereof, although he, she or they may have Effects for that Purpose, or cannot pay such Residue, or some Part thereof, although he, she or they may have the same, or some Part thereof, in his or their Hands, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to pay such Legacy or Residue, or any Part thereof respectively, or any Sum or Sums of Money as so much thereof, after deducting the Duty chargeable thereon, into the Bank of Ireland, with the Deputy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, to be placed to the Account of the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be so paid, or of the Person who may be entitled thereto; for Payment of which Money, the said Accountant General shall give his Certificate as usual in such cases, on Production of the Certificate of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, that the Duty thereon has been duly paid; and such Payment into the Bank shall be sufficient Discharge for the Money so paid in, provided the Duty be also paid thereon as aforesaid, as if such Money, when paid in, shall be laid out by the said Accountant General, without any formal Receipt for that Purpose, in the Purchase of Three and six Half Pence per Centum Consolidated Government Stock in the Bank of Ireland; and the Dividends thereon shall be received from time to time by the Accountant General, and laid out in like manner; and the whole of such Stock, with the Dividends thereon, shall be collected and paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or otherwise applied for his or their Benefit, as Application to the Court of Chancery by Petition or Motion in a summary way; Provided always, that if no such application appear, that such Money, or any Part thereof, shall have separately paid into the Bank as aforesaid, it shall also be lawful for the said Court of Chancery, upon Petition in a summary way, to a further effect, and of the Stock purchased therewith, and the Dividends received thereon, in such manner as Justice shall require: Provided also, that if it shall appear that the Duty paid in respect of any Sum of Money was more than ought to have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have paid the Duty, to apply to the said Commissioners for Management of the Stamp Duties to repay such Excess of Duty; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized, upon such Application, to repay such Excess of Duty to such Person or Persons as shall appear to them entitled to receive the same, or to pay such Excess of Duty into the Bank, with the Proxy of the said Accountant General, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, to be placed to the true Account, and so be applied in the same manner as the same would have been applicable if paid in order with the Remittance of the Legacy or Sum of Money in respect of which the same shall have been paid; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make such Payments respectively out of the Money in their Hands, arising from Duties under their Management; and if the Duty paid to the said Commissioners shall appear to be less than the Duty which ought to have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who paid such Money into the Bank as aforesaid, upon Payment of the full Duty to the said Court of Chancery in such manner as the same ought to be paid, with such Penalties or any, as ought to be paid in respect thereof, to apply to the Court of Chancery in a summary way for the Repayment of the further Sum paid to the said Commissioners for such Duty, out of the Money in the Bank so paid in by such Person or Person, or the Persons thereof; which Payment the said Court is hereby authorized to order.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Sum of Money be so paid into the Bank of Ireland, with the Proxy of the said Accountant General, the Accountant General's Certificate of such Payment shall be filed with the proper Officer of the said Court of Chancery, in the proper Office, in the same manner as Certificates

Series of Payment of Money paid into the Bank of Ireland, with the Privy of the said Accountant General, in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are usually filed; and when the said Accountant General shall have drawn any Draft on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for Payment of such Money, in the usual Form, for the Purpose of applying the same to the Purchase of Three and six Half Per Cent. ex Gratia Government Stock as aforesaid, such Draft shall be carried to the said Office, and entered and signed by the proper Officer, at the time runner as Drafts drawn by the said Accountant General in pursuance of any Order of the said Court are usually entered and signed as aforesaid; and thereupon the same shall be a Warranty to the said Governor and Company, for Payment of the Money specified in such Draft, in the same manner as Drafts of the said Accountant General drawn, entered and signed in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are Warrants to the said Governor and Company for Payment of Money in other cases; and the said Court of Chancery shall from time to time make all and every such Orders and Order as shall be necessary for carrying the Purposes of this Act respecting any Money so to be paid into the Bank as aforesaid into Execution; and such Orders or Order shall and may be made either in any particular Matter or for the general Purposes of this Act, as Occasion shall require, and as to the said Court shall seem fit; and such Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery shall be sufficient Warrants to the said Accountant General, and to the Officers of the said Court, and to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and to all Persons whatsoever, for all Things which shall be done in pursuance of any such Order or Orders, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and so such Money shall be liable to Usher's Prerogative.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in the End of Two Years after the Death of any Person deceased, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties that it will require time to collect the Debts or Effects of such Person then outstanding, or that from Circumstances it will be difficult to ascertain or adjust the Amount of the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of such Person liable to Duty, or the Nature, Amount or Circumstances of any Legacy or Legacies, and the Parties interested therein shall be desirous of compounding for the Duty thereof, it shall be lawful for such Parties respectively, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, to make Application to the Court of Exchequer in Ireland for Leave to compound such Duty, stating upon Oath the Particulars of the Personal Estate for which such Composition shall be proposed to be made by Affidavit to be filed in the said Court, and declaring at the same time upon Oath whether any other Property of the deceased, then outstanding, besides the Property for which such Composition shall be proposed to be made, hath come to the Knowledge of the said Parties, or any of them, and the Nature thereof, and the Circumstances attending the same; and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer to appoint a proper Person to set a Value on the Personal Estate, or such Part thereof for which no Duty shall have been charged, and which shall have been specified in such Affidavit as the Property for which such Composition shall be desired, and to adjust and settle the Duty which justly and equitably under all Circumstances ought to be paid in respect of such Personal Estate so specified; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, if the said Court of Exchequer shall confirm the said Adjustment and Settlement, and order the Duty to be accepted accordingly, and by Authority of such Order, to accept Payment of the Sum so adjusted and settled in full Discharge of the Duty on so much of such Personal Estate as shall be so specified, and according to such Order, and to enter the same in their Books accordingly, and to grant Certificates thereof, expressing the Receipt of such Duty by way of Compromise under such Order; and every such Person to whom such Certificate shall be granted, and every future Representative of the same Estate, and all Persons entitled to the Benefit of the Property for which such Composition shall be so paid, shall be discharged from any further Payment of Duty on the same; and in all future Payments of such Property, it shall be lawful for the Persons having or taking the Burden of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument disposing of such Property, or the Administration thereof, to pay, apply and dispose of the same, and for all Persons entitled to the Benefit thereof, to receive the same, without having the Receipts and Discharges in Writing hereby required to be given and taken for the same, stamped as heretofore directed, provided such Receipts or Discharges shall express the same to be given under the Authority of such Composition as aforesaid, and not liable to such Duty: Provided always nevertheless, that the Duty shall be charged and paid upon all and every Part of the Personal Estate of such Person deceased, other than that which shall be specified in such Affidavit as aforesaid, and included in the Valuation in which such Composition shall have been made as aforesaid, and for which the said Court of Exchequer shall allow and order such Composition to be taken as aforesaid, in the same manner as if no such Composition had been made; and all and every Person and Persons shall be liable to all the like Penalties and Forfeitures for not duly paying the Duty for such Personal Estate not compounded for, and subject to the like Rules, Methods and Directions, for charging such Duty, as such Person and Persons respectively would be liable to if such Composition had not been made.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after Payment of Duty on any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, any Debt shall be incurred against the Estate of such deceased Person, or any Loss shall happen, by reason whereof, or for any other just Cause, any Legatee or other Person, by whom any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate hath been received or retained, shall be obliged to refund the same or any Part thereof, then in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties and they are hereby required, on due Proof made on Oath as aforesaid, to draw Satisfaction of the Amount of such Sum refunded, and that by reason thereof their oath be an Overpayment of Duty, to settle and adjust the Amount of such Overpayment, and to repay the same out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties under their Management, or to alter the same in future Payment, as the case may permit or require.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons having or taking the Burden of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instruments, or the Administration of any Personal Estate as aforesaid, shall be entitled to any Legacy, or the Residue or any Part of the Residue of the Personal Estate of any Testator, Testatrix or Intestate, such Person shall be chargeable with the Duty whenever he, she or they shall be entitled in the due Course of Administration to retain to him, her or their own Use any Part of the said Estate, in Satisfaction of such Legacy or Residue or any Part thereof; and every such Person before any such Residue shall be transferred to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties or their Officers, a Note containing the Particulars of such Legacy, Residue or Part of Residue intended to be retained, and the Amount and Value thereof, and the Duty which such Person or Persons shall owe to pay thereon; and the said Commissioners shall charge and affix the Duty thereon in such manner as the Duty shall be chargeable thereon by virtue of the Provisions in this or any other Act contained, and such Duty shall be paid accordingly; and on Payment of the said Duty the Officer appointed to receive the same shall, at the Foot of a Duplicate of the said Affidavit duly stamped, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct for such Purpose, give a Receipt for such Duty in such Form of Words as the said Commissioners shall direct, which Receipt shall be a Discharge for the Duty expressed therein; and in case any such Person or Persons shall neglect to pay such Duty as aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after the same ought to have been paid as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons shall forfeit and pay Trouble the Value of the Duty which ought to have been paid.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Authority under or by colour of which any Person shall have administered the Estate or Effects of any Person deceased, or any Part thereof, shall be void or be repealed, or declared void, and such Person shall, before the Avoidance, Repeal or Declaration of Avoidance, have paid any Duty by Law imposed which shall not be allowed to such Person out of the Estate or Effects of such deceased Person, by reason that the same Duty was not really due or payable, the Money paid for such Duty shall, on Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, be repaid to the Person or Persons who shall have paid the same, or his, her or their Representatives, by the said Commissioners, out of any Moneys in their Hands arising from Duties under their Management; but in case such Duty ought to have been paid by the rightful Executor, Executrix, Administrator or Administratrix of such deceased Person, then and in such case the Payment of such Duty shall be valid and efficient, notwithstanding such Avoidance, Repeal or Declaration of Avoidance as aforesaid; and so such Person shall, by reason of the Avoidance, Repeal or Declaration of Avoidance of such Authority, be held, justified or troubled for or in respect of such Payment; but all such Payments in respect of the said Duty shall be allowed in Account with such rightful Executor or Executrix, Administrator or Administratrix; and the same shall be decreed Payments in the due Course of Administration, as fully and effectually as if such Payments had been made by rightful Executors or Administrators; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall after any Word, Letter, Figure or Number in any Affidavit or Receipt to be made or given in pursuance of this Act for any of the said Duties, after the same shall have been duly signed, or shall enter or publish as true: such signed Affidavit or Receipt, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons, then and in such case every Person so signing, attesting or publishing as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XL. And Whereas many Persons may through Ignorance or Inadvertence, or from accidental or unavoidable Cause, have neglected to pay the Duties heretofore payable in respect of Legacies, and of Residues of Personal Estate given by Wills or other Testamentary Instruments, or which have devolved to any Person or Persons upon Intestacies, within the time prescribed by Law for that Purpose, and may have incurred heavy Penalties by reason of such Neglect: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall have incurred any Penalty before the Commencement of this Act by reason of the Nonpayment of any such Duty as aforesaid, shall offer to pay the same to the Commissioners of Stamp Duties at their Head Office in Dublin, on or before the Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that such Duty was not paid within the time prescribed by Law, through Ignorance or Inadvertence, or from any accidental or unavoidable Cause, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to remit the Penalty, and to remission the Duty which shall be due and payable by Law, according to the circumstances of the case, and to cause a proper Receipt to be given for such Duty, and also to cause the Receipt or Discharge (if any) which shall have been given for the Legacy or Residue, or Share of Residue, of any Personal Estate in respect of which such Duty shall be paid, to be duly stamped as the Law requires for making the same available, and thereupon such Receipt or Discharge shall be as valid and available as if the same had been stamped and the Duty paid within the time originally prescribed for that Purpose; any thing contained in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, or any One or more of them, to require of every Registrar or other Officer of any Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland having the Custody or Care of any Wills proved in any such Court, or having the Custody of any Entry or Register of any Administrations granted to any such Courts, an Account of all such Wills and Letters of Administrations, together with an Abstract of the Particulars relating therein, and such Extracts from any such Wills as may seem necessary to such Commissioners or Commissioners, on Payment of such Fees as shall be agreed upon for the same; and in case there shall be any Delays as to the Amount of Fees to be paid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Registrar or other Officer duly employed or authorized by them, to require, by a Notice in Writing, the Registrar or other proper Officer of any Ecclesiastical Court, to produce any Will which shall be therein, and all and every Order and Proceeding of or in the said Court, relating to such Will, to any Person who shall be named in such Notice, and who shall have free Liberty to take an Account and Abstract thereof, and to make such Extracts as he shall think proper therefrom; and if any such Registrar or other Officer as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to produce forthwith any such Will, according to such Notice, or to permit such Person to viewed in such Notice, at all reasonable times, to take an Account and Abstract of such Wills, Orders and Proceedings, or any of them, or any Extracts or Abstract therefrom which such Person shall desire to make, or shall knowingly or wilfully decline to furnish any false Will, Account, Abstract, Extract, Order or Proceedings, then and in every such case, every such Registrar or other Officer shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit, by Information in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

Registrar, &c.
refusing.

Penalty.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Account, Abstract or Extract, shall and may be written on Paper without Stamps, and shall be kept for the Use only of the Commissioners of Stamps for the time being and their Officers employed in their Bureaux.

Accounts written on unstamped Paper.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, for the Recovery or Application of which no special Provision is made by this Act, shall be recovered and applied in such manner and under such Rules, Directions, Powers and Provisions, as are contained in the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, with respect to any Penalties or Forfeitures under the said recited Act, and as if such Rules, Directions, Powers and Provisions were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Penalties, &c.
here recovered.
51 G. 3. c. 124.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons belonging to any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or to any Merchant Ship employed in His Majesty's Service, who shall run away, or withdraw himself or themselves from the Ship or Vessel by which any Prize or Prizes shall be taken from any of His Majesty's Enemies, or shall otherwise desert or withdraw himself or themselves from His Majesty's Service, before or after Notification shall be given by the Persons or Agents appointed as hereafter directed, of the Day appointed for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captains of the said Prize or Prizes, or who shall be marked on the Books of any Ship or Vessel in the Service of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as having run therefrom, shall in any, or be entitled to have or claim, any Interest in or Benefit from the said Share or Shares of the said Prize or Prizes, or the Bounty Money hereafter mentioned, or any Part thereof that shall then remain unpaid; but such shares, and also the Shares of all Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others, as well on board have arrived Ships as on board His Majesty's Ships of War, which shall not be legally demanded within Six Years after the same have been paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital by virtue of any Law then in Force, shall be forfeited to and be the Use of the said Royal Hospital, which with respect to such Officers and Seamen so shall be marked "Rex," each Mark shall be taken off by Order of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or by Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy: Provided nevertheless, with respect to the Shares of such Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, herebefore mentioned, which shall not be claimed within the time above limited in that behalf, that if reasonable Cause shall be shown and allowed by the Directors of Greenwich Hospital for the time being, or Five or more of them, or by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, why such last mentioned Shares were not claimed in due time, the said Shares shall not be forfeited.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Agent or Agents for Prizes or Bounty Money shall be liable to be sued, impeached or arrested by any Person or Persons who shall be marked "Rex," from His Majesty's Service in the List to be duly certified of the Names of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers or others who shall be actually on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War at the taking of any Prize or Prizes, or who shall have subsequently deserted from His Majesty's Service, unless the Person or Persons, or who shall have subsequently deserted, shall before any Action brought obtain a Certificate of his R. being taken off, and the Portmaster of his Share of such Prizes and Bounty Money being discharged by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or any other 4 or more of them, and shall produce such Certificate to the said Agent or Agents respectively, and unless the said Agent or Agents, on the production of such Certificate, shall refuse to pay the said Prize or Bounty Money in full the same shall be due and payable according to the Directions in His Majesty's Proclamations, within Three Months after any such Demand made: and such Certificate produced: Provided always, that if the Share of any Prize or Bounty Money of any Person who shall have been marked "Rex," upon the Books of, or shall have deserted from any Ship or Ships in His Majesty's Service, and who shall afterwards obtain a Certificate of the R. being taken off, and the Portmaster of his or their Share or Shares being discharged as aforesaid, shall at the time when such Certificate shall be produced to the Agent or Agents as aforesaid, have been paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, such Payment shall be a good and sufficient Discharge to the Agent giving the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Agent shall be compellable to distribute any Proceeds of any Prize, except in the cases in this Act directed, until after the time of Appeal has elapsed.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or of the Vice Admiralty Court, in which any Prize shall have been condemned, shall certify that the Ship or Vessel so condemned sailed under the Flag and Pals of the Enemy, or under any Commission of War granted by the Enemy, then and in such case, on the Application or by the Direction of the Captain or other Commander of the Ship or Vessel making such Capture, the Proceeds shall be distributed and an Order of the Court may be obtained, at his Request, as the Agent or Agents, to distribute the Proceeds of such Prize before the time of Appeal is elapsed, subject nevertheless to the Liability of the Captor to answer any Appeal that may be instituted thereafter during the time limited by Law for Appeals.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all cases, either in the present War or in any former War, in which the regular time of Appeal has elapsed, or in which the Appeal hath been determined, or for any Judge of any Court of Vice Admiralty abroad, in any such case as aforesaid, to which any Certificate from the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty shall be transmitted at the time of Appeal being elapsed, without further Publication, together with an Order of Distribution thereon, to make an Order for Production and Vindication of Accounts, and for the Distribution of the Proceeds, and to enforce the same by the Process of the said Court, by Motion and Attachment upon the Agent or Agents in whose Hands the Proceeds may be lodged, or any other Person whatsoever to whom such Proceeds may have been committed, and likewise by further Process against the Barriers of the said Agent or Agents; and all Courts of Vice Admiralty are hereby empowered, directed and required, to enforce upon all Persons within their Jurisdiction all such Orders, and all other Orders of the High Court of Admiralty, whether relating to Prizes, or to any Matter or Thing relating thereto, within their respective Jurisdictions.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures and Penalties, respecting the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize in this Act contained, shall be extended to all Seizures under the Revenue Laws, all Goods of His Majesty, all Boatswain granted by Act of Parliament, and all other Moneys whatever, coming to and being in the Hands of the Prize Agents of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, for their Use and Benefit, by reason of any Capture, Recapture or Seizure made by the said Ships.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of Condemnation in the High Court of Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to compel the Agents by Process of Motion and Attachment, to sell the Proceeds of the Property condemned in such Public Securities as the Captors shall elect, there to remain and accumulate, for the Benefit of the Parties entitled, all the time of Appeal shall be legal, subject nevertheless to the further Direction of the Court, upon the Application of the Captors; and in all cases of Condemnation in any Court of Vice Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to direct the Property captured, or the Proceeds thereof to be forthwith transmitted to Great Britain, there to be vested in such Public Securities, after being sold (if not already conveyed by Sale), as the Captors shall elect, and the regular time of Appeal shall said List shall be made out and transmitted, and shall contain the Names, Ages and Descriptions of the Persons entitled to share therein, the Names being arranged in the same Order in which they stand in the Master Books, which said Names and Descriptions shall be taken from the Descriptions Book belonging to the said Ship, and an Alphabetical List or Index of the Names of all such Persons shall be prefixed to each Prize List, and the same shall be examined with and corrected by the Master Books of each ship by which each Captivity shall be made, deposited in the Navy Office, and shall be certified by Two of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; and in case any such Prize List as aforesaid shall be sent to such Agent or Agents, he or they shall apply to the Commissioners of the Navy for a List of the Persons entitled to share in such Capture, and such List mentioned List shall thereupon be made out from the Returns in the Office of the said Commissioners of the Navy, who shall cause the same to be made out, and certify the Truth thereof under their Hands, or under the Hands of any Two or more of them; and any Person or Persons who shall alter the Name, or rating of any Person or Persons in any List which shall have been so certified as aforesaid, or make or take away any Name therefrom, or add any Name thereto, after the same shall have been so certified as aforesaid, with Intent to defraud any Person or Persons, or any Corporation whatsoever, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds: Provided always, that in case it shall appear at or before Distribution, that any Error has been committed in the Prize List, or in the Master Books transmitted to the Navy Office, nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Correction of such Error; nor in case of the Omission of any Name in the Distribution List, such Omission having been made through Error, to charge the Agent further than with the Payment of the Sum due, together with all Expenses of the Party in recovering the same: Provided also, that if any Agreement shall have been made with any Person or Persons not entitled under His Majesty's Proclamation, or the Prize Act, to share in any Capture, the Agent, or Hospital, making Distribution according to such Agreement, admitted and acknowledged by the Persons entitled under the said Proclamation or Act of Parliament, shall not be liable to any Penalty on that account: Provided also, that in all cases wherein any Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines or Marine, or other Person or Persons actually entitled to share in any Capture, Sail, after Distribution has been made, be proved, by a Comparison with the Master Books, or Returns in the Navy Office, or otherwise to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Navy, or any Three of them, to have been actually so entitled, but omitted in the Distribution List, or included in a Class inferior in Rank to that in which he had really served by Accident or Defect, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to certify such Omission or Error to the Board of Directors of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, who shall thereupon cause the Amount of the Share to which such Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines or Marine, or other Person or Persons, if inserted in the Distribution List in his proper Class, would have been entitled, to be paid out of the unclaimed or Run Men's Shares of the same Prize, or out of the general Fund of unclaimed and forfeited Shares of Prize Money in the Hands of the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital; and the said Treasurer or his Deputy, shall thereupon be entitled to maintain and prosecute in the Name of such Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines or Marine, or other Person or Persons, at the Charge and to the Use of the said Hospital, any Action or Suit against the Agent or Agents for the Recovery of the Amount of the Money so paid, that the said Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman, Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines, or Marine or other Person, might himself have maintained if he had not received a Satisfaction for the same from the said Hospital; but if such Agent or Agents shall be made liable to any such Demand in consequence of an Omission or Mistake in any Prize List certified to him or them as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him or them to stop and retain the Amount of the Share for which he shall be liable, out of any Prize or Bounty Money in his or their Hands, payable to the Captain or Commander by whom such Prize List was signed and certified as aforesaid, or his Executors or Administrators, or to have a remedy over by Action against him or them, or any of them, for any Charge or Damage thereby followed.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where such Omissions, Mistakings, improper Descriptions or Errors, shall happen in Lists which shall have been made out or certified in the Navy Office, the Clerk who shall have made out the said Prize Lists, or compared the same with the Master Books of the capturing Ship, shall be liable to make good to the Party injured by such Omission, Mistaking, improper Description or Error, the Loss he shall have sustained thereby, in like manner as the Captain or Commander of any of His Majesty's Ships is liable in cases which may happen when Prize Lists are made out by him, or any Person or Persons under his Authority, unless the Commissioners of the Navy shall be satisfied that the Party is entitled to Relief, and shall certify the same to the Directors of Greenwich Hospital: to which said the Treasurer of the said Hospital shall pay or cause to be paid to the Person or Persons omitted, misrated or improperly described, or to his or their Representatives, the Sum which, after due Investigation, he or they shall appear to be entitled to, which Payment shall be made out of the unclaimed or Run Men's Shares of the same Prize, or out of the general Fund of unclaimed and forfeited Shares of Prize Money in the Hands of the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of Condemnation in any Vice Admiralty Court, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the Judge to compel the Agent, at the Requisition of the Captain, to give Security at the time of Condemnation for the faithful Distribution of the Proceeds, or for the remitting thereof to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or to such Person in England as the Captain shall appoint, under the Direction of the Court, for the Purpose of being distributed in England.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Agent residing in the United Kingdom, within Six Weeks after any Condemnation in the High Court of Admiralty, transmit a Notice of such Condemnation to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, and to the Treasurer or Paymaster of His Majesty's Navy, together with an Account of the State of the Property condensed at the time of each Transmission, according to the Schedule marked (A.) in the Appendix to this Act, as Form of forwarding for every Neglect the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, unless a reasonable Cause be shown to and approved by the Court of Admiralty.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every Price Agent shall, after the Sale of any Prize is completed, and before the time of the said Payment of the Prize Money to be distributed (or at any time thereafter, at the Direction of the Court), exhibit in the respective Court of Vice Admiralty in which the Prize shall have been condemned, or in the High Court of Admiralty; and if such Prize shall have been condemned in any Court of Vice Admiralty abroad, shall, as soon as the time can be done, transmit to the High Court of Admiralty in England an Attested Copy of the detailed Accounts of the Sales of such Prize, duly verified upon Oath, together with Attested Copies of all Vouchers required by the Court, which Copies, so transmitted to the said High Court of Admiralty, shall be deposited in the Public Registry thereof; and all Parties interested therein shall have Liberty to object to the Charges and Articles therein contained, and the said Court shall examine or disallow the Accounts, upon hearing the Objectors, and shall make such further Order touching the said Accounts, and the Distribution of the Proceeds, as the case may require; and any Agent who shall neglect or refuse to bring in a Copy of his Accounts at the time hereby directed, or who shall proceed to distribute without having exhibited and transmitted a Copy of the said Accounts, duly verified on Oath in manner aforesaid, or who shall refuse or neglect to obey any Order of any Court of Admiralty, for the Distribution of the Proceeds of any such Prize or Prizes, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and shall moreover be subject to the Powers of the Court of Admiralty, by Monition and Attachment, and he shall have obeyed the Order of the said Court: and it shall be lawful for the said Court to prosecute the Bond given with the Letter or Letters of Agency to be forfeited, and to levy the Penalties incurred thereby from the Sureties in the said Bond.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Price Agent, at the same time that he shall exhibit or transmit an Attested Copy of the detailed Accounts of the Sale of any Prize or Prizes, together with Attested Copies of all Vouchers, to the Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty respectively, as directed by this Act, shall and he is hereby directed and required to transmit another Attested Copy of the said detailed Accounts and Vouchers to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich: and every such Agent who shall neglect or refuse to transmit such last mentioned Attested Copies of Accounts and Vouchers, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Agent shall, Ten Days before he exhibits his Account of Sales in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, cause Advertisements to be twice inserted in the London Gazette, notifying to all Parties concerned the Day on which the Account of Sales of such Prize or Prizes will be brought into the Registry of the said Court.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Per Centage for Agency, which is now called Five Pounds per Centum, shall be charged upon the Net Proceeds of any Prize or Prizes, Bounty Bids or Salvage; such Net Proceeds to be estimated previous to any Deductions for or in respect of Law Charges.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That after the Sale or Sales of any Prize or Prizes which have been or shall be taken from the Enemy by any of His Majesty's Ships of War or armed vessels, or taken in any former War, or after the Receipt of any Bounty, or other Monies in the Nature thereof, payable to His Majesty's Navy, by the Agent or Persons authorized to receive the same, public Notice, in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be given by the Persons or Agents appointed as aforesaid, for the Payment of the said Prize or Prizes to the Captains; that is to say, if the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned in His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, then the Persons or Persons, Agent or Agents, appointed or to be appointed in pursuance of this Act for the Appointment and Sale of such Prize or Prizes, shall inform and publish, or cause to be inserted and published such Notice, under his or their Hand or Hands respectively, together with a Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share in each Claim in the London Gazette; and if in any Court of Vice Admiralty, then in some Gazette or Newspaper of Public Authority, of the Island or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, and if there shall be no Gazette, or such other Newspaper published there, then in some one of the said Public Newspapers of such Island or Place; and if no Newspapers are there published, then by affixing Notice to the Church, or some other Public Building, directed by the Governor of such Island or Place; and all Persons or Agents publishing, or causing to be published every such Notification respectively, shall deliver to the Collector, Comptroller or Receiver for the time being of His Majesty's Customs, residing at or belonging to the Port or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, or the lawful Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Comptroller or Receiver, Six of these Gazettes or other Newspapers in which such Notification shall be so inserted and published, together with Six Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share in each Claim; and if there should not be any Public Newspaper in any such Island or Place, then such Persons or Persons, Agent or Agents, shall give Six such Notifications in Writing, under his or their respective Hand or Hands, together with Six such Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, to the said Collector, Comptroller or Receiver, or the Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Comptroller or Receiver aforesaid; and every such Collector, Comptroller or Receiver, or such Deputy or Deputies, shall subscribe his or their Name or Names to some conspicuous Part of each of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distribution, and shall forthwith deliver One of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distribution, together with One of the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, to the Deputy to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, at the Place where such Court of Vice Admiralty is or shall be established, or to which its Jurisdiction shall extend, and by the first Ship which shall sail (after six or three Months of such Gazette, Newspaper or written Notification respectively) from its Port or Place to some Port in Great Britain, shall transmit or send to the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or the Deputy of such Treasurer for the time being, One of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications, together with One of the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, with his or their Name or Names in full subscribed to and upon the same respectively, so to them registered, and another to the Treasurer of the Navy, or His Majesty's Paymaster of the Navy in London, and shall, by the second Ship or Vessel which shall sail from the said Port or Place to any Port or Place in Great Britain, transmit in like manner to each of the before mentioned Officers one whereof the said Gazettes, Newspapers or other Notifications, together with one other Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share, marked by him, a Duplicate of the former, and shall faithfully preserve and keep the other of the said six Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications, and the other Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share, with his or their Name or Names thereon subscribed as aforesaid, as his or their Duty; and at all Ports or Places where Vice Admiralty Courts with Jurisdiction in Prize Cases are or shall be constituted, at which there shall be no Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, or other Officer of the Customs, the said Gazettes, Newspapers, or other Notifications of Distribution, together with the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, shall be delivered to and transmitted, and kept respectively in like manner by the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of such Vice Admiralty Court, and at all other Places where Prize or Bounty Money shall be distributed or payable; when then, shall be no Court of Vice Admiralty, the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distribution, together with the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, shall be delivered to the principal Civil Officer of the said Place or his Deputy, for the Purpose of being transmitted and kept as aforesaid, and that in every Case of printed or written Notification as aforesaid, the said Port or Ports, Agent or Agents, shall insert or specify the Name or Names of the Prize or Prizes about to be distributed, and of the Ship or Ships by which it or they shall have been captured, and also the precise Day of the Month and Year on which such Capture or captures shall have been made, and also his or their Place or Places of Abode, Christian and Surname or Christian and Surnames at full Length, and the precise Day of the Month and Year appointed for the Payment of the several and respective Shares of the Prize or Prizes to the Captains; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in Great Britain, or of which being condemned abroad the Distribution shall be made in Great Britain, shall be published in the London Gazette Three Days at least before any Port or Ports, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes shall be paid to any such Port or Ports entitled to the same; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned, or to be condemned, in any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, where the Distribution shall also be made in each other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall be sent to the said Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or principal Civil Officer or Officers as aforesaid respectively, or such respective Deputy or Deputies, One Day at least before any Port or Port, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes shall be paid to any Port or Ports entitled to the same, and which several and respective Notifications, if any Man's Share shall remain in the Hands of the Performer, Agent appointed as aforesaid, either belonging to such Man as shall be run from His Majesty's Service, or which shall not be legally demanded and paid within Three Months next after such Notification, such a Man's Share or Shares so remaining in such Performer's or Agent's Hands, or belonging to such Man as shall run from His Majesty's Service, shall go and be paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Prize Agent shall, for Three Months after the Distribution has commenced of the Proceeds of any Prize condemned in England, or of which he has in a small good Broad, the Distribution shall have commenced in England, or Bounty hereby granted, or allowed in the nature of Bounty, keep an Office open Two Days at least in every Week, during the said Three Months, for the Payment of Shares remaining due, which Days, together with the Place where such Payment is to be made, shall be specified in the Notification of Payments published in the Gazette, on printed form, or every Neglect therein Five hundred Pounds; and at the Conclusion of such Three Months he shall give up all further Payments to the Captains.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Performer or Agent applied or to be applied for a Remission, Grant or Sale of any Prize or Prizes taken or to be taken from the Enemy by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or hired armed Vessels, or for the Distribution of any Bounty Money, shall not or shall refuse to publish, give or deliver any Notifications being directed or required to be published, given, or delivered, or shall not give, publish or deliver, any such Notification before the Payment of any Part of such Prize or Prizes, Bounty Money, or other Money in the nature of Bounty Money, and within the time herein prescribed, or shall not have appointed, or shall not pay or give or let forth in such Notification the Name of the Performer, Agent applied to, or shall not be specified in such Notification, every such Performer or Agent shall for each Offence first committed, or shall owe One hundred Pounds, at the Discretion of the Court to which the Notification is made, and if a Collector, Comptroller or Searcher of His Majesty's Customs, Registrar of any Vice Admiralty Court, or principal Civil Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to receive or attend, or shall not transmit or send any such Gazette, Newspaper or written Notification or Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share as aforesaid, in such manner as he by this Act directed, every such Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Registrar of any Court of Vice Admiralty, principal Civil Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

have been due to them, but also all Prize and Bounty Money to which they might thereafter become entitled, For Remedy thereof, and for preventing a Continuance of such Frauds and Injustice, be it enacted, That all Share of Prize and Bounty Money due, or which shall become due to any Petty Officer, Boatsman, Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines, Marine or Soldier, or any Person rated as a Boy, or borne as a Supernumerary in His Majesty's Naval Service, shall be paid by the Agent or Agents to the Captains (if the Money shall be in his or their Possession), or the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, or his Deputy, and the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, or his Chief Clerk (if the same shall have been paid over to the said Treasurer), or the Person entitled thereto, or to any other Person authorized to receive the same by any Order in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (B.), which Order shall specify the Name of the Prize or Prizes distributed or for Distribution, or give such Description thereof as shall be satisfactory to the Person or Persons in whose Possession the said Prize or Bounty Money may happen to be, and who shall be called upon to pay the same; and if the Captains shall have been upon the Land, the Name of the Place captured, together with the Name of His Majesty's Ship or Vessel of War, on board of which the Person making the Order was serving at the time such Prize or Prizes, or Capture or Captures was or were made; and the Person making such Order shall also procure a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the said Schedule marked (E.), which Certificate shall contain a full Description of the Person making such Order, and shall be signed by the Captain or Commanding Officer on board, and One other signing Officer of the Ship or Vessel in which the Person making such Order shall be then serving, if there shall be more than One such signing Officer on board or belonging to such Ship or Vessel; and if the Person making such Order shall be discharged from the Service, and shall be resident at any Port or Place at which a Deputy to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital shall be appointed, then such Certificate, specifying the Particulars before mentioned, shall be signed by such Deputy; and if the Person making such Order shall reside within Four Miles of the said Royal Hospital, then the said Certificate shall be signed by the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, or his Chief Clerk; and if at any other Place within the Bills of Mortality, then the same shall be signed by the Officers for Prizes in the Navy Pay Office, or his Assistant; and if at any other Place in England, at which no Deputy to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital shall be appointed, and not being within the Bills of Mortality, or within Four Miles of the said Royal Hospital, then such Certificate, specifying the Particulars before mentioned, shall be signed by the Minister and One of the Churchwardens, and if in Scotland, by the Minister and One of the Elders of the Parish or Place in which such Person shall reside at the time of making such Order; and if the Person making such Order shall be a Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines, or a Marine at Head Quarters, then such Certificate specifying the Particulars before mentioned, shall be signed by the Colonel or Commanding Officer for the time being, and the Adjutant of the Detachment of Marines to which such Person is making such Order shall at the time belong; and if the Person making such Order shall be in either of the said Royal Naval Hospitals, then such Certificate, specifying the Particulars before mentioned, shall be signed by the Governor and Agent of the said Royal Naval Hospitals respectively; and if the Person making such Order shall be on Shore at Sick Quarters, then such Certificate, specifying the Particulars before mentioned, shall be signed by the Surgeon at such Sick Quarters, and One of his Assistants, if he shall have an Assistant, which Certificate shall be written or printed on the same Paper on which such Order shall be written or printed, and which Order and Certificate being protested together, and the said Order being paid, such Order and Certificate shall remain with the Agent or Agents to the Captains or the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, paying the same; Provided always, That every such Order as aforesaid defined, shall be receivable at Pleasure by the Person making the same: Provided also, That no such Order shall be valid to authorize the Receipt of any Prize Money or Bounty Money, which shall be in Course of Payment or Distribution, if the Party making such Order shall be then residing or dwelling within the Distance of Five Miles from the Place where such Prize Money or Bounty Money shall be payable; and if any Agent or Agents for Prizes shall pay or cause to be paid any Share of Prize Money or Bounty Money, to any Person or Persons upon any Order made within that Distance of the Place where such Prize Money or Bounty Money shall be payable, such Prize Money or Bounty Money being in Course of Distribution at the time of making such Order, such Payment shall be void to all Intents and Purposes; and the Agent or Agents making the same, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, and applied in such manner respectively, as is hereinafter mentioned.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That upon every Order made under the Authority of this Act, directing the Payment of Prize or Bounty Money, a Stamp Duty of One Shilling, and no more, shall be payable to His Majesty, and that no Order purporting to authorize the Receipt of Stakes due to more than One Person shall be deemed valid, but that the same shall be void and of no Effect.

XLVII. And Whereas Doubts have arisen, whether any Orders or Powers of Attorney heretofore made and executed under the Authority of an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled “An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, for the better and more effectually Manning His Majesty's Navy; and for regulating the Payment of Prize Money, and for making Provisions for the Salaries of the Judges of the Prize Admiralty Courts in the Island of Malta, and in the Bermuda and Bahamas Islands;” which Act was by the said heretofore aforesaid Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, repealed or order the Authority or in pursuance of other Acts of Parliament now repealed or altered, although made and executed while the said Acts respectively remained in Force, are now valid? Be it therefore enacted, That all such Orders or Powers of Attorney, if made and executed prior to the passing of the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty heretofore aforesaid, although made and executed pursuant to the Law in force at the time when the same were made and executed, are and shall be and are hereby declared to be entitled to Prior Money, for Services performed on His Majesty's Navy, in order to receive the same, is Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

And as soon as the said Bills shall be made out and signed, the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, shall cause them to be cut asunder indistinctly, through the Oblique Lines, Flourishes or Devision asforesaid, and shall cause One of the said Bills to be transmitted forthwith to the Person nominated and appointed as the Payee in such Bills, and the other of the said Bills shall be transmitted forthwith to the said Receiver General of the Land Tax, Collector of the Customs or Collector of the Excise, on whom such Bills shall be so drawn as asforesaid; and the said Receiver General of the Land Tax, Collector of the Customs or Collector of Excise, if the said Bills shall be produced and delivered to either of them respectively within Six Months, if in Great Britain, and if in Ireland, three within Nine Months from the Date thereof, are hereby required and enjoined to examine such Duplicates, together with the Certificate to be produced as asforesaid, and to require into the Truth thereof by the Oath of the Person producing the same, or, such Person being a Quaker, by the solemn Affirmation of such Person (which Oath or Affirmation they are hereby respectively authorized and required to administer), and upon being duly satisfied of the Truth of such Certificate, to satisfy the same on the Back of such Bill, and immediately to pay to such Person without Fee or Reward, on any Pretence whatsoever, the Sum directed to be paid by such Bill, taking his Receipt for the same on the Back thereof; but in case the Duplicate of such Bill shall not be produced and delivered, and the Payment thereof be demanded within Six or Nine Calendar Months from the Date, as the case may be as asforesaid, or if a proper Certificate of the Person claiming such Prior or Bounty Money be not likewise produced, then the said Receiver General, Collector of the Customs or Collector of the Excise, shall return such Bill to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, who shall cause such Bill to be cancelled, and from and after the cancelling of the same, such Prior and Bounty Money shall remain payable in like manner as if the said Bill had not been made out; all which said Bills and Receipts to be so made and given as asforesaid, and all the other Receipts for Prior and Bounty Money, which shall be in any way paid and asforesaid by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall be free and exempt from, and not liable to any Duty of Stamps whatsoever; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LII. And be it further enacted, That all such Remittance Bills which shall be drawn upon and paid by the Receiver General of the Land Tax for any County, Riding or City, Collector of the Customs for any Port, or Collector of Excise for any Collection in the United Kingdom, upon being produced and delivered at the Office of the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, shall be immediately repaid by such Treasurer or his Deputy to such Receiver General of the Land Tax, Collector of the Customs or Collector of Excise, or to their respective Officers.

LIII. Provided always, and be it hereby further enacted, That if any such Receiver General, Collector of the Customs or Collector of the Excise, to whom the Duplicate of any of the Bills hereinbefore directed to be made out shall be intended for Payment, shall not then have in his Hands Public Money sufficient to answer the same, and shall therefore refuse or delay the immediate Payment thereof, such Receiver General, Collector of the Customs or Collector of the Excise, shall immediately indorse on the Back of the said Duplicate the Day of his being so required to him, and the Cause of his Refusal or Delay to pay the same; and, in such case the said Receiver General or Collector shall forthwith transmit the said Duplicate, with his Certificate of Non payment thereon, to the Clerk of the Cheque of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, who shall take such Steps as may be necessary for sending the Account of the Duplicate to the Person entitled to receive the same; and if, upon Complaint made to the respective Commissioners appointed by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to manage the said several Duties of the Land Tax, Customs or Excise, it shall appear that such Receiver General, Collector of Customs or Collector of Excise, hath unreasonably and wilfully refused or delayed the Payment of such Bill, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Three or more of the said Com-

Form of Bill made by Greenwich Hospital for Payment of Prior Money.

Commissioners to convict and fine any such Offender, under their respective Directions, in any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, according to the Nature or Degree of the Offence, which Conviction shall be made by the said respective Commissioners; and such Fine shall be levied and recovered in such and the same manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as any Conviction may be made, and any Penalty may be levied or recovered for any Offence against any Law by which any Customs or Excise is imposed or laid; and the said Fine, when levied, shall be paid to the Informer or Informers against such Offender.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That no Person paying any Share or Balance of Prize Money refunded by Government Hospital shall receive any Fee, Gratuity or Reward from or on Account of any Payment thereof, or of any Act, Matter or Thing done, relating to the procuring or paying the same to any Claimant, or any Person on his Behalf, under any Pretence whatever, on Pain of incurring for every such Offence One hundred Pounds.

LV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Claim of Prize or Bounty Money shall be made upon any Prize Agent or Prize Agents, accompanied with a Requisition in Writing from the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, or the Officer for Prizes in the Navy Pay Office, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked [C.], requesting that such Claim may be either satisfied, or a reason assigned for its Disallowance, such Prize Agent or Prize Agents shall either pay the same, or State in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands the reason of his or their refusing to do so, and deliver the same to the Party claiming the same, and presenting such Requisition; and if the reason assigned be, that such Claim has been already satisfied, the said Agent or Agents shall specify the Name and Place of Abode of the Person or Persons by whom the Amount thereof was received, and under what Authority, from the Claimant or Claimants, and at what time or times the same was paid; and if any such Agent or Agents refusing Payment of any such Prize or Bounty Money, shall omit, at the time of such Claim being made, accompanied by such Requisition as aforesaid, or within Two Days afterwards, to give and furnish such Information as to the Cause of our satisfying such Claim, he or they shall forfeit and pay to such Claimant or Claimants double the Amount of the Sum is claimed, to be recovered by him, her or them, with full Costs of Suit in an Action of Debt, wherein it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to declare against the Defendant or Defendants for so much Money had and received by him or them to and for the Use of such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; and that Proof of such Claim, and of the Service of such Requisition as is heretofore mentioned, upon such Agent or Agents, shall be and be deemed sufficient Evidence in Support of any such Action; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

LVI. And Whereas it has frequently happened, that Frauds have been practised upon Petty Officers and Seamen in the Navy, and on Non-Commissioned Officers of Marines, and Marines, by Persons of bad Character, who have been authorized by them to receive Wages, Pay, Prize Money and Bounty Money, or Money in the nature of Bounty Money, to which they were entitled: Be it therefore enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any Person within the United Kingdom, to receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money, or Money in the nature of Bounty Money, due or to become due to any Petty Officer, Seaman, Non-Commissioned Officer of Marines or Marine, or on account of his Services respectively as board any of His Majesty's Ships, or in the Capture of any Fortresses upon the Land, or any Arms, Ammunitions, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandise or Treasure, on any Coastal Expedition of Sea and Land Forces, under any such Orders as heretofore mentioned, other than Persons who shall be duly licensed in the manner hereinafter mentioned for that Purpose: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any such Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Seamen, Soldiers or Marines from giving such Orders to receive their Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money to their Wives, or to the Persons in the several Degrees of Relationship following; that is to say, Parents, Children, Brothers or Sisters of such Petty Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall falsely represent himself or herself to be within any of the Degrees of Relationship in Blood as before described, in order to enable himself or herself to receive any Prize Money or Bounty Money, or Share of Prize Money or Bounty Money due or to grow due for or on account of the Services of any such Petty Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Seaman or Marine, under any such Order as aforesaid, or who, not being within any such Degree of Relationship, and not being licensed as aforesaid, shall receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money for the Use of any such Petty Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Seaman or Marine; or if any Agent or Person whose Licence shall have been revoked as heretofore mentioned, shall offer himself to receive, or shall receive any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowance of Money, not being within any of the Degrees of Relationship aforesaid, and be thereof duly convicted, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanour.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, not being a Prize Agent, and having given Security as such, according to the Provisions of this Act, before he shall act as an Agent for receiving the Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money of any such Petty Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Seaman or Marine, shall take out a Licence for that Purpose from the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, who is hereby authorized and empowered to grant the same, on good and sufficient Security (to be approved of by the said Treasurer) being given by Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Penalty of Three hundred Pounds, that such Person in taking out such Licence shall declare himself properly, and duly answer to all Persons for whom or for whose Use any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money, shall have come to his Hands and for which Licence the Sum of Twenty Shillings and so more over and above any Stamp Duties that may be due and payable thereon, shall be paid by the Person taking out the same, to the Officer of Prizes in the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, who shall pay over the Amount thereof to the Paymaster of Invalids in the said Office, towards the incidental Expenses therein incurred; which Licence shall be in force for the Space of Three Years from the Date thereof.

LIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if after the taking out of any such Licence, it shall appear to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, that any such licensed Agent hath abused the Trust reposed in him by not duly accounting to any Person or Persons by whom he shall have been empowered to receive any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money as aforesaid, for the Sum or Sums of Money by him received in that behalf, or by procuring any Fraud or Impediment on any such Person or Persons, then and in that case it shall and may be lawful for the said Treasurer, by any Writing under his Hand to be delivered to such Licensed Agent, or left at his last or most usual Place of Abode, or Place where his Business of Agency shall be carried on, to revoke the Licence so to be granted or taken out as aforesaid; which Revocation, if such Agent's Place of transacting Agency Business shall be in London, or within the Bills of Mortality, shall be published in the London Gazette, and if in the Country or out of the said Bills of Mortality, also in some Public Newspaper in Circulation at or near to the Place where such Agent shall transact his Business of Agency, for the Information of all Persons interested in Wages or Prize Money; and thereupon the Power and Authority of such Agent to demand and receive Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, and other Allowances of Money due or to grow due on Account of the Services of any such Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Seamen or Marines, shall absolutely cease and determine.

LX. And be it further enacted, That the Names and Places of Abode and of transacting Agency Business of every such licensed Agent, shall be entered in a List and hung up in the Hall of the Navy Pay Office in Swanby Place, and in some conspicuous Place in each of the Navy Pay Offices at the several Out Ports of the United Kingdom, for the Inspection of all Persons who shall resort thither as Business, and which Lists shall be renewed from time to time as Occasion may require.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That as often as any such licensed Agent shall remove or change his Office or Place of transacting his Business of Agency, he shall within Fourteen Days after every such Removal or Change of Place, give Notice thereof in Writing to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, on Pain of forfeiting for every neglect thereof the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That all Letters or Packets addressed to the said Treasurer or Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, upon any Business or Affairs relative to Prize Matters, or upon any other Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, shall, soon after the passing of the Act, be free from the Duty of Postage; and also that all Letters or Packets sent by the said Treasurer, or by the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, upon such Business or Affairs as aforesaid, or by the Officer for Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office, upon any Business relating to such Prize Matters in manner and form hereinafter directed, shall be sent free from the said Duty of Postage; and all Letters and Packets relating to the Matters aforesaid, that shall be forwarded by the said Treasurer or Clerk of the Cheque, or by such Officer for the Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office as aforesaid, shall be under Covers, with the Words "Pursuant to Act of Parliament, Fifty fourth George the Third," printed upon the same; and the said Treasurer or Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, or Officer for Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office, as the case may be, shall write his Name under the same; and they and each of them are and is hereby strictly prohibited from including or sending under such Covers any Writing, Paper or Parcel whatsoever, excepting such as relate to the Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, or to such Prize Matters respectively.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Treasurer or Clerk of the Cheque, or Officer for Prize Matters as aforesaid, shall send or convey under any of the Covers aforesaid, any Writing, Paper or Parcel, other than those relating to the Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, or such Prize Matters as aforesaid, the Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Captains and Commanders of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War, or Armed Ships, shall from time to time, as soon as the same can be done, transmit to the Treasurer of the Navy, and to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, Accounts in Writing of all Prizes taken, with the Name of the Port to which the Capture was sent, with the Name and Place of Abode of the Agent or Agents, stating whether it is a Sole or Joint Capture, and, if joint, the Names of the several Ships alleged to be aiding so such Capture, with the Date of the Capture, and the Place where the same was made.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That the Prize and Bounty Money due to the Representatives of Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines deceased, shall be paid only to their Representatives, or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, upon Production of the Cheque to be granted by the Inspectors of Seamen's Wills.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Expenses incurred in executing this Act, and the same shall be ascertained by the Officers of the Navy Office, Navy Pay Office or of Greenwich Hospital, for their Care, Peace and Trouble in executing the Regulations thereof, shall be subject to the Direction of the Commissioners of the Navy, as far as the same relate to Officers of or Persons employed in the Navy Office, or otherwise under the Orders of such Commissioners, of the Treasurer of the Navy, as far as the same relate to Officers of or Persons employed in the Navy Pay Office, and of the Board of Directors of the said Hospital, as to all Officers and Persons employed or belonging to Greenwich Hospital, and shall be paid by the said Board of Directors out of the Interest of unclaimed Shares, and Shares of Run Men, invested in Government Securities, or if necessary, out of the Principal Sums in the Hands of the Treasurer of the said Hospital, on Account of such Shares of LXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Fees herebefore paid by the said Royal Hospital to the Navy Office, for tracing the Services of Persons claiming Shares of Prize or Bounty Money, shall cease, and be no longer due or payable.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person employed by Greenwich Hospital in executing the Regulations of this Act, shall act as an Agent for Prizes, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the Success thereof, under the Treasury of Five hundred Pounds.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Oath to any of the Matters herebefore required to be verified on Oath, or shew any other Person to do so, such Person or Persons shall suffer the like Penalties and Punishments as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury; and that if any Person or Persons shall counterfeits, make, alter or falsify any Commission for War or Letter of Marque, or any Warrant for making out the same, or any Certificate required or directed by this Act to be given for obtaining the same, or shall publish or make use of any such Commission for War, or Warrant for making out the same, or any Certificate as aforesaid, knowing the same to be counterfeited, made, altered or falsified, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons lawfully directed to transmit or deliver all or any of the Accounts before mentioned, who shall refuse or neglect to transmit or deliver all or any such Account or Accounts to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, or his said Deputy or Agent, within the time before limited and appointed, as Master and Form as herebefore mentioned, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall pay the Expence of any Application to any Court to compel the Production and Delivery of the same.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Fraud, Collusion or Deceit shall be wittingly or willingly made, used, committed, practised or done or suffered so making, fixing or balancing such Accounts, then every Person or Persons who shall be thereof duly convicted, and his and their Aiders and Abettors, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Proceeds of all Captures made prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in this or any former War, which shall not have been already advertised for Distribution, shall be distributed under the Regulations of this Act, and the forfeited and undivided Shares be accounted for and paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital within the same Period, and in like manner as by this Act is directed; and that the Agents for all Captures made previous to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in this or any former War, and which have already been advertised for Distribution, shall under Accounts, and pay the forfeited and undivided Shares to the said Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital within Three Months after the passing of this Act; any Thing in any former Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

LXXIII. And Whereas divers Sums of Money are now remaining in the Hands of the Registrars of the High Court of Appeals, High Court of Admiralty, and of the several Courts of Vice Admiralty respectively, arising from Prizes which have been finally adjudged to the Captains, and which have not been claimed by them, or any Person or Persons on their Behalf; Be it therefore enacted, That the Registrars of the said High Court of Appeals, of the High Court of Admiralty, and of every Court of Vice Admiralty in His Majesty's Dominions, shall, within Three Months, in far as relates to the High Court of Appeals and the High Court of Admiralty, and with respect to Courts of Vice Admiralty in the East Indies, within Two Years, and with respect to such Courts in any other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions, within One Year next after the passing of this Act, render or transmit to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or his Deputy, an Account of all Sums of Money which had been paid into the said Courts as aforesaid respectively, up to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and which at the time of rendering such Account shall remain in their Hands respectively; and at the same time pay over or remit to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital all such last mentioned Sums of Money; and that the Receipt of the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, to the Registrars paying such Money, shall be a good and effectual Discharge to such Registrars, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and with respect to all Monies which have been paid to the said Registrars respectively, since the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, or which shall hereafter be so paid, and which shall have remained in their Hands respectively for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after the Prize or Prizes, from which such Monies shall have proceeded, shall have been finally adjudged to the Captains, enclosed by the said Captains, or by any Person or Persons on their behalf, it shall be lawful for the Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively, upon Application by the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, to order Payment thereof to the said Treasurer or his Deputy; which several Sums, when so paid to the said Treasurer or his Deputy as aforesaid, shall be distributed among the Captains, or their legal Representatives, by the Treasurer and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, in like manner, and subject to the same Regulations, in far as the same can be made applicable, as in cases of Distribution by the Agents of the Captains.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Treasurer and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, from time to time as they shall see Occasion, so issue Precepts under their Hands, directed to such Person or Persons as shall be licensed as herebefore mentioned, and whom they may have reason to balance have received Prize or Bounty Monies upon Orders executed since the passing of this Act, requiring him or them, within Two Calendar Months next after the time at which such Precept shall have been served, to deliver or transfer upon Oath to the said Treasurer and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, according to the Directions contained in the said Precept (which Oath any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, is hereby authorized to administer), an Account of all Monies which may have been received by such Person or Persons upon Orders executed since the passing of this Act; and in case the same, or any Part thereof, shall have been paid over, then to whom the same, or any Part thereof, has been so paid, over as aforesaid, and shall at the same time pay or tender to the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, as may be required by such Precept, such Part of the said Monies as shall remain in his or their Hands unpaid, to the Parties beneficially entitled to it, or to their Use; and in case such Monies shall not be paid over or tendered to the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer within the time limited by this Act, the same shall be recoverable from the Person detaining the same, by Action for Money had and received, or otherwise, in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors of the said Royal Hospital, and the same, when so paid in or recovered, shall be for the Use of the Parties beneficially entitled thereto, and be otherwise applied as aforesaid and unclaimed Shares of Prize and Bounty Monies are by this Act directed to be applied; and in case any such Person or Persons upon whom any such Precept shall be served as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to deliver or tender such Account within the time hereby limited, he or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to the Use of the said Royal Hospital the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, to be brought in the Name of the said Commissioners and Governors of the said Royal Hospital, in either of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, unless sufficient Cause shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors of the said Royal Hospital, why such Precepts have not been complied with.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, upon whom any such Precept or Precepts as aforesaid shall have been served, shall neglect or refuse to pay Obedience thereto, and shall in consequence thereof pay the Penalty incurred by such Disobedience, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Treasurer and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, and they are hereby empowered to repeat such Precept or Precepts until the Accounts thereby required shall have been duly rendered and delivered; and such Person or Persons shall be and are hereby declared to be liable to a separate Penalty of Twenty Pounds, for every Precept to be served upon him or them, in which due Obedience shall not be paid, to be recovered in manner aforesaid.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Registrars of the High Court of Appeals and High Court of Admiralty respectively, shall, on the Twenty sixth Day of March, the Twenty fifth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September and the Twenty sixth Day of December in every Year, transmit to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, and to the Treasurer of the Navy, a List of all the Prizes which shall have been adjudged in their Courts respectively, in the Three Months preceding, together with the Names of the capturing Ships and their Commanders, and of the Agents for the Captains, and the Dates of the Captures and Sales respectively.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Registrars of every Vice Admiralty Court shall, on the Twenty sixth Day of March and the Twenty fifth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September and the Twenty sixth Day of December in every Year, or so soon after each of such Quarter Days respectively as may be, send to the said Treasurer, a List of all the Prizes which have been adjudged in their Courts respectively during the preceding Quarter of a Year, together with the Dates of the several Captures, as far as the same may appear, the Names of the capturing Ships and their Commanders, the Agents of the Captains, a Copy of the several Parts of the Writings upon the same; and at the same time deliver, or cause to be delivered, a Duplicate of the same, to the Deputy of the said Treasurer, residing at the Place where such Courts of Vice Admiralty are or shall be established, or to which their Jurisdiction shall extend; which Lists to be transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, shall be hung up for public Inspection in the Registry at Doctors' Commons, together with similar Lists of the Prizes adjudged in the High Court of Admiralty, and in the Court of Appeal; and in case any such Registrar of any Vice Admiralty Court shall neglect or refuse to transmit such Lists, or to deliver Duplicates thereof, at the times and in the manner aforesaid, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Registrar of any Vice Admiralty Court shall have neglected to make the Returns of Prizes proceeded against in the respective Courts as required by Law, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a like Sum of Fifty Pounds, unless the Returns shall be transmitted in manner above required within Eighteen Months, so far as the same relate to the said Lists, and within Nine Months from every other Vice Admiralty Court in His Majesty's Foreign Dominions.

LXXIX. And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the speedy and effectual Examination of all Accounts relating to Prizes taken by His Majesty's Ships, in order to reduce the full Value of the same being duly ascertained for such Capture; Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer of the Navy to appoint a Person duly qualified to examine all such Accounts, and that every Person Agent or Attorney for any Person who shall be authorized and empowered to receive and distribute any Bounty Monies or other Money for the Use or Benefit of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, by reason of any Capture or Capture made by them, shall, at the Provisions of this Act, shall, before he shall deliver his Account of Sales in the High Court of Admiralty, transmit a Copy thereof thereof to the Treasurer of the Navy, in order to the same being submitted to the immediate Examination of the Officer to be appointed by him.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That when the Person to be appointed shall have carefully examined the Accounts of any Prize Agent or other Person so transmitted to him and shall be satisfied therewith, he shall give to such Agent or other Person Two Certificates signed by himself, setting forth the Names of the Prize and of the capturing Ship or Ships, and the Amount of the Net Proceeds for Distribution, One of which Certificates such Agent or other Person shall transmit to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, together with a Copy of his Accounts and Vouchers exhibited in the High Court of Admiralty.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That when such Agent or other Person shall deliver his Accounts for Examination as aforesaid, he shall at the same time deliver a Scheme for the Distribution of the Net Proceeds to the Captains of the Prize or Prizes, according to the following Form:

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant Annuities to the Judges of the Court of Session, Judiciary and Exchequer, in Scotland, upon the Resignation of their Offices, it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by His Majesty's High Manual, to give and grant unto any Person who shall have accepted the Office of Lord President of the said Court of Session, or of the Lord Justice Clerk, or of the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or of any Judge or Lord of Session, or of any Lord Commissioners of Judiciary, or of a Baron of the said Court of Exchequer, as well before as after the passing of the said recited Act, and who shall have respectively resigned any such Office, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding Three Fourth Parts of the Salary appertaining to each such Office at the Resignation thereof, to commence and be paid in manner therein mentioned: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifthth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for augmenting the Salaries of the Lords of Session, Lords Commissioners of Judiciary and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, and Judges in Ireland, certain Augmentations were made to the Salaries of the said Judges respectively: And We are certain of the Judges of the said Courts who resigned their Offices after the passing of the said first recited Act, and before the passing of the said last recited Act, have received Grants of Annuities of less Amount than those Judges of the same Courts who have resigned or may resign their Offices since the passing of the said last recited Act, and it is reasonable and expedient that the Judges who had resigned their Offices before the passing of the said last recited Act should be entitled to similar Annuities from and after the passing of this Act, as if they had resigned the same after the passing of the said Act of the Fifthth Year of His present Majesty: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to give and grant unto any Person who shall have accepted the Office of Lord President of the said Court of Session, or of Lord Justice Clerk, or of Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or of any Judge or Lord of Session, or of any Lord Commissioners of Judiciary, or of a Baron of the said Court of Exchequer who shall have resigned his said Office after the passing of the said last recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and before the passing of the said last recited Act of the Fifthth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, such Additions to their respective Annuities as will, from and after the passing of this Act, make such Annuities equal to what they would have been entitled respectively to have received if they had resigned such Offices after the passing of the said last recited Act; and such Additions to such respective Annuities to be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall from time to time be payable and be paid Quarterly, commencing the First Payment thereof at the First Quarterly Term that shall occur after the passing of this Act, clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever (except the Duty chargeable by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty during the present War and until the Sixth Day of April after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rates and Duties in Great Britain as the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for repealing certain Parts of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Contribution as the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and to consolidate and render more effectual the Provisions for collecting the said Duties).

Recited Acts inserted in Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said several recited Acts, and all Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Matters and Things therein contained (in far as the same are applicable and are not directly altered), shall be in Force and applied to carry into Effect the Purposes of this Act.

An Act to enable His Majesty to grant additional Annuities to the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Exchequer, in Ireland, on the Resignation of their Offices. [18th July 1814.]

44 G. 3. (1.) c. 69.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Annuities to the Lord High Chancellor, and to the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Masters of the Rolls, Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Exchequer, Judge or Commissioner of the Court of Probation, the Judge of the Court of Admiralty, the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the County of Dublin, and Assistant Barristers of the several other Counties on the Resignation of their respective Offices; and to amend an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for increasing the Salaries of the Chief and other Judges of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and of the Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in this Kingdom: And Whereas it is expedient that further Provisions should be made for such Persons as have held the Offices of Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, of Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and the Justices of the Court of King's Bench and Common*

* First, and Baron of the Exchequer in Ireland respectively, in the Event of their quitting said Offices; We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to give and grant unto any Person who may or shall have executed the Office of Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, and who shall have resigned the same, an Annuity or yearly Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum of Eight hundred Pounds Irish Currency, and to any Person who may or shall have executed the Office of Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, or Chief Baron of the Exchequer in Ireland respectively, and who shall have resigned the same, an Annuity or yearly Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum of Six hundred Pounds Irish Currency, and to any Person who may or shall have executed the Office of Justice of the Court of King's Bench or Common Pleas or of Baron of the Exchequer in Ireland, and who shall have resigned the same, an Annuity or yearly Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum of Six hundred Pounds Irish Currency; which said several and respective Annuities shall be in Addition to and in Augmentation of the respective Annuities or yearly Sums allowed to be given and granted to such Persons respectively, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year aforesaid; and in like manner to commence from and after the Period when the Person to whom any such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be granted as aforesaid shall have resigned his said Office, and to continue from thenceforth for and during the natural Life of the Person to whom the same shall be granted as aforesaid; and every such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be paid and payable out of, and charged and chargeable upon, the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

His Majesty may give Annuities to Persons in his Majesty's Kingdoms.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said several Annuities and yearly Sums of Money shall from time to time, from the granting thereof, be payable and paid Quarterly without any Deductions for Fines or Penalties, or otherwise, by even and equal Portions at the like Periods and together with and in the like manner as the Annuities and yearly Sums which may be given and granted under the said recited Act, and under and subject to the like Rules, Regulations and Restrictions (as far as the same are applicable), as are contained and prescribed in the said recited Act in relation to the Annuities or yearly Sums of Money therein allowed to be given and granted to the Judges.

Annuities paid Quarterly without Deductions.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act, and all Charters, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Matters and Things therein contained (so far as the same are applicable and are not hereby altered), shall be in force and be applied to carry into Effect the Purposes of this Act.

An Act to amend an Act, passed in the Fifth Year of Queen Elizabeth, intitled An Act containing divers Orders for Apprentices, Labourers, Servants of Household and Apprentices. [18th July 1814.]

* WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intitled An Act containing divers Orders for Apprentices, Labourers, Servants of Household and Apprentices, it was enacted, That, from and after the First Day of May then next coming, it should not be lawful to any Person or Persons, other than such as did then lawfully use or exercise any Art, Mystery or Manual Occupation, to set up, occupy, use or exercise any Craft, Mystery or Occupation then used or occupied within the Realm of England or Wales, except he shall have been brought up therein Seven Years at least as an Apprentice; nor to set any Person on Work as such Mystery, Art or Occupation, being not a Workman at that Day, except he shall have been Apprentice as aforesaid, or else having served as an Apprentice as aforesaid, shall become a Journeyman, or hired by the Year, upon Pain that every Person wilfully offending, or doing the contrary, shall forfeit and lose for every Default Forty Shillings for every Month: And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Act should be repealed; Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and declared to be null and void in all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

J 17th C. 4. 221.

* II. And Whereas by the said Statute, divers Rules and Regulations were enacted respecting the Qualifications of Persons entitled to take and become Apprentices, and the Term of Years for which such Apprentices should be bound, and as to the Mode of binding such Apprentices; and it was also enacted by the said Statute, That all Indentures, Contracts, Promises and Bargains, of and for the hiring, taking or keeping of any Apprentice, otherwise than to be made or taken, than as by the said Statute intended, ordained and appointed, should be clearly void in the Law to all Intents and Purposes; and that every Person that should from thenceforth take or send to retain any Apprentice contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of the said Act, should forfeit and lose for every Apprentice so by him taken the Sum of Ten Pounds: And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the said recited Act should be repealed; Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that it shall and may be lawful for any Person to take or retain or become an Apprentice, though not according to the Provision of the said Act; and that Indentures, Deeds and Agreements in Writing entered into for that Purpose, which would be otherwise valid and effectual, shall be valid and effectual in Law, the Repeal of so much of the said Act as is herein last above recited notwithstanding. An Act to continue until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, several Laws relating to the Duties on Glass made in Great Britain; for granting an Excise Duty on Common Glass Bottles imported; and for the further Prevention of Frauds in the Exportation of Glass.

[18th July 1814.]

WHEREAS the Laws hereinafter mentioned are now expiring, and it is expedient that the same should be continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in each of an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Duties on the Materials used in making Spread Window Glass and Crown Glass, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for the better Collection of the said Duties; as was by another Act made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign aforesaid continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twelve; and by another Act made in the Fifty second Year of the Reign aforesaid further continued to the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and by another Act made in the Fifty third Year of the Reign aforesaid further continued to the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; shall be and the same is hereby further continued, and shall remain and continue in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

II. And he it further enacted, That an Act made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Duty on the Materials used in making Flat and Circular Glass, and for granting, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twelve, other Duties in lieu thereof; and for continuing and amending an Act, passed in the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the Duties on the Materials used in making Spread Window Glass and Crown Glass, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for the better Collection of the said Duties; which was by an Act made in the Fifty second Year of the Reign aforesaid continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and by another Act made in the Fifty third year of the Reign aforesaid further continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be and the same is hereby further continued, and shall remain and continue in force until the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

III. And Whereas for the Encouragement of the Manufacture of Common Glass Bottles in that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, it is expedient that the Duties hereinafter mentioned should be granted for and in respect of Common Glass Bottles (not being Plate) imported into Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, an Imposed Duty of Eight Shillings and Two pence for every Hundred Weight of Common Glass Bottles (the same not being Plate), which shall be imported into Great Britain; and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity, to be paid by the Importer thereof before the landing thereof.

IV. And he it further enacted, That such of the Duties by this Act imposed as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being.

V. And he it further enacted, That within Twenty Days next after the Mafter or Purser for that Voyage of the Ship or Vessel, wherein any Common Glass Bottles (not being Plate) shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, shall have or ought to have made a just and true Entry or Report upon Oath of the Burthen, Contents and Lading of such Ship or Vessel in pursuance of the Direction of an Act made in the Thirtieth and Fourteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Aliens in His Majesty's Customs, the Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers, Consignor or Consignees, of any such Common Glass Bottles, shall make due Entry with the Collector of Excise in the Port or Place where such Common Glass Bottles shall be so imported, of all such Common Glass Bottles on board of such Ship or Vessel belonging to such Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers, Consignor or Consignees, and before the landing of any such Common Glass Bottles, firstly and pay the Duty by this Act imposed for and in respect of such Common Glass Bottles, and shall also within such Twenty Days land all such Common Glass Bottles; and if such Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers, Consignor or Consignees, shall neglect or refuse to make due Entry, or to pay such Duty, or to land any such Common Glass Bottles (not being Plate) within such Twenty Days, then and in such and every such case such Common Glass Bottles, whereof as such Entry shall have been made, or for or in respect whereof such Duty shall not be so paid, or which shall not be so landed, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

* VI. And

VI. And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, among other things, for amending an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's said Majesty, among other things, for repealing the Duties on the Materials used in making Spread Window Glaze and Crown Glaze, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, it is enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed far or in respect of any such Glaze as in the said Act is in that behalf mentioned excepted, unless the same shall be shipped and exported in Whole Tuns, Half Tuns or Quarter Tuns, or in regular Pans, or Squares or rectangular Figures, the Four Sides of which together shall measure at least Fourteen Inches, and of which no Side shall measure less than Three Inches, or Lozenge, of which the Four Sides together shall measure at least Fourteen Inches, and no Side of which shall measure less than Three Inches and an Half; And Whereas the said Regulations have been found sufficient to answer the good Purposes thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient to make such further Regulations and Provisions as are hereinafter mentioned, It is therefore enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed far or in respect of any regular Pans, Squares or rectangular Figures of Spread Glaze or other Window Glaze, any Part of which Pans, Squares or rectangular Figures shall consist of or include the Ball or, or thick centre Part of the Table, from or out of which such Pans, Squares or rectangular Figures shall have been cut or taken, or any Part of the said Ball, unless no Side of any such Pan, Square or rectangle, the Figures shall measure less than Eight Inches, nor shall any Drawback be allowed far or in respect of any Lozenge, any Part whereof shall consist of or include the Ball or thick centre Part of the Table, from or out of which such Lozenge shall have been cut or taken, or any Part of the said Ball, and no Side of any such Lozenge shall measure less than Eight Inches; nor unless the Distance between the Two obtuse Angles of each such Lozenge shall measure Eight Inches at the least; nor shall any Drawback be allowed far or in respect of any Lozenge, not containing or including the Ball or thick centre Part of the Table, from or out of which such Lozenge shall have been cut or taken, or any Part of the said Ball, unless the Distance between the Two obtuse Angles of every such Lozenge shall measure Three Inches and an Half at the least; and all Window Glaze, any Part whereof shall consist of or include the Ball or thick centre Part of the Table, from or out of which the same shall have been cut or taken, and which shall be of any other Shape or of less Dimensions than as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Whole Glaze, within the Meaning of an Act made in the Seventeenth Year of His Majesty's said Majesty, intimated in the said Act, made in the Fifty first Year aforesaid; and if any Person or Persons shall knowingly enter or ship, or cause or procure to be entered or shipped for Exportation, in order to obtain any Drawback by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty mentioned in the said Act made in the Fifty first Year aforesaid, or by any other Act granted or allowed, any Pans, Squares or rectangular Figures or Lozenge of Spread or Window Glaze commonly called or known by the Name of Spread Glaze or other Window Glaze, not being Spread Glaze, as aforesaid, containing or including the Ball or thick centre Part of the Table, from or out of which such Pans, Squares, rectangular Figures or Lozenge, shall have been cut or taken, or any Pan, Square, rectangle, Figures or Lozenge of Spread Glaze or other Window Glaze respectively, which shall not be of the Dimensions in that behalf aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall for every Crate, Parcel, Box or Package, containing any such Glaze so entered or shipped contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VII. And Whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's said Majesty, intimated An Act for granting to His Majesty certain additional Duties of Excise on Great Britain, it is declared and enacted, That each and every Person who shall make or manufacture any Sort or Kind of Glaze or Glaze Ware, by melting any Metal, Materials, Clays, or old or broken Glaze, in any Pot, Crucible or other Vessel, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Glaze, and shall be subject to all and every the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Penalties, to which Makers of Glaze were then by Law subject; and shall: And Whereas divers Persons, who are not under the Survey of the Officers of Excise, make or cause to be made Glaze Ware by melting or softening Gl in otherwise than in any Pot, Crucible or other Vessel, to the Detriment of the Revenue and Injury of the entered Manufacturers of Glaze, and Doubts have arisen whether such Persons are liable to the Survey of the Officers of Excise? For Remedy whereof, be it declared and enacted, That each and every Person who shall make or manufacture any Kind or Sort of Glaze Ware by means of the melting or softening of any Glaze, or who shall melt or soften any Glaze, in any manner whatsoever, for the Purpose of making or converting it into any Vessel, Utensil, Ware or Piece of Household Furniture, or Part of any Vessel, Utensil, Ware or Piece of Household Furniture, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Glaze, and shall be subject to all and every the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Penalties, to which Makers of Glaze were then by Law subject and liable; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall offend, offend, oppose, molest, obstruct or hinder a y Officer or Officers on Excise in the due Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given or granted to any such Officer or Officers, or shall by Force or Violence, after any such Officer or Officers shall have seized any Common Glaze Bottles, or other Bottles, or on or for Common Glaze Bottles, force and order or by virtue of this Act, refuse, or refuse to be refracted, or shall break, damage or destroy any such Bottles, or shall attempt or endeavour to do so, and every such Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons impeded by this Act, shall be seduced, persuaded, induced or enticed by such ways, means or methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be paid for, recovered, levied or satisfied by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer

C A P. C.

An Act to repeal the Schedule annexed to an Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, by which the Drawbacks and Bounties on Sugars exported from Ireland are to be ascertained, and to substitute another Schedule in lieu thereof; and to permit the Importation into Ireland of Sugar, Coffee and other Articles, the Produce of Martinique, Marigoulate, Guadaloupe, Saint Eustace, Saint Martin and Saba, under the same Duties and Regulations, as similar Articles of the British Plantations; to continue until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to continue until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and to amend an Act for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland, certain Drawbacks and Bounties were allowed on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland, according to the Provisions of an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide more effectually for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland; and for allowing British Plantations Sugar to be warehoused in Ireland, and the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, as amended by subsequent Acts: And Whereas an Alteration hath been made with respect to the Periods at which the Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar are to be taken and published in the London Gazette, and it is expedient that the Schedule and Table of Drawbacks and Bounties annexed to the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year should be repealed, and that another Schedule and Table should be enacted in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Schedule annexed to the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that in and in lieu thereof the Schedule to this Act annexed shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be continued and taken to be the Schedule according to which the Drawbacks and Bounties on Sugar exported from Ireland shall be paid or allowed, except as hereinafter is provided.

II. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained full extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal the Deduction heretofore made from the Bounty or Drawback to be paid on Sugar when exported from Ireland in any other than a British Vessel, owned, navigated and registered according to Law, as directed by the said recited Act of the Forty seventh (a) Year of His present Majesty's Reign.

(a) [47 G. 3. Stat. l. c. 19. § 4.]

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Drawback or Bounty to be paid or allowed on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland shall be regulated and ascertained in manner following; that is to say, that whenever in the Publication of the London Gazette, containing Notice of the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, intitled in the London Gazette, published on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in May, the First Wednesday in August, the First Wednesday in November One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall appear that the Average Price of such Sugar, ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain, shall be at any of the Average Prices stated in the Schedule to this Act annexed, exclusive of the Duties paid or payable on the Importation thereof; then and in every such case the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to this Act annexed, mentioned as corresponding to or with the Price of which such Notice in the London Gazette shall have been given as aforesaid, shall be paid or allowed as Exportation (except in Great Britain), of the several Sorts of Sugar mentioned in the said Schedule, with Notice of any other Average Price, published in the London Gazette on any of such Saturdays before mentioned shall be intitled in the London Gazette (and shall except the Notice required to be given in the London Gazette on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; which last mentioned Notice shall continue in force, and shall regulate the said Bounties and Drawbacks, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and no longer); and such Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed in like manner in every respect, and subject and under and according to such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Privileges and Forfeitures, as any Drawbacks and Bounties are paid and allowed under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to Drawbacks and Bounties at the time of the passing of this Act, except so far as the same are altered by this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Bounty by this Act granted on Refined Sugar exported from Ireland shall not take effect or be paid or allowed on any such Sugar which shall be shipped for Exportation on or before the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, but that the said Bounty on Refined Sugar exported from Ireland shall be paid or allowed on such Sugar only as shall be shipped for Exportation after the said Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; any thing contained in this Act or in the Schedule heretofore annexed to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal the additional Bounty payable on the Exportation from Ireland of Sugar being Doubled Refined; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And Whereas Doubts may arise in certain cases respecting the Duty that would be chargeable on Raw or Cloyed Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations, or of the Islands of Martinique, Marigoulate, Saint Martin, Saint Eustace and Saba, exported from the Warehouse in which any such Sugar shall have been secured as Importation into Ireland; Be it therefore enacted and declared, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any such Sugar so warehoused, on which the Duties of Customs shall not have been paid, which shall be exported or shipped for Exportation from any such Warehouse, shall be subject and liable only to the Payment of such Portion of the Duties of Customs due and payable on the Importation of such Sugar as is specified and mentioned in the Schedule to this Act amended.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, any Sugar, Coffee or other Articles, being of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any or either of the Islands of Martinique, Marigoulat, Guadeloupe, Saint Eustacia, Saint Martin and Saba, imported into Ireland, shall and may be admitted to Entry in Ireland, on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs, and so other, as are or may be due and payable on the like Articles of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations; and all such Sugar, Coffee and other Articles, shall on Exportation from Ireland be subject to such and the like Duties, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks and Bounties, as the like Articles being of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations are or may be subject or liable or entitled to, and all such Goods shall in every other respect be subject and liable to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, to which any such Articles being of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations are or may be subject or liable to; any thing in an Act passed in the Fifth third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intimated As Act to prevent the Entry into Ireland for Home Consumption of Sugar the Product or Manufacture of Martinique, Marigoulat, Guadeloupe, Saint Eustacia, Saint Martin and Saba, at a lower Rate of Duty than is payable upon Sugar out of the British Plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that any Sugar, Coffee or other Articles, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the said Islands, which have been or may be secured in Warehouses in Ireland, and on which the Home Consumption Duties shall not have been paid, shall and may be delivered from any such Warehouse for Home Consumption on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs, and so other, as at the time any such Goods shall be so taken out of any such Warehouse shall be due and payable on the like Description of Goods of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the British Plantations.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Child Stealing.

[18th July 1814.]

WHEREAS the Practice of carrying away young Children, by forcible or fraudulent means, from their Parents or other Persons having the Care and Charge or Custody of them, commonly called Child Stealing, has of late much increased: And Whereas an adequate Punishment is as yet provided by Law in England or Ireland for so heinous an Offence: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the passing of this Act, shall maliciously, either by Force or Fraud, lead, take or carry away, or decoy or entice away, any Child under the Age of Ten Years, with Intent to deprive its Parent or Parents, or any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of such Child of the Possession of such Child, by concealing and detaining such Child from such Parent or Parents, or other Person or Persons having the lawful Care or Charge of it; or with Intent to find any Article of Apparel or Ornament, or other Thing of Value or Use, upon or about the Person of such Child, to whomsoever such Article may belong; or shall receive and harbour with any such Intent as aforesaid any such Child, knowing the same to have been so by Force or Fraud led, taken or carried, or decoyed or enticed away as aforesaid; every such Person or Persons, and his, her and their Counselors, Procurers, Aiders and Abettors, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall be subject and liable to all such Pains, Penalties, Punishments and Forfeitures, as by the Laws now in force may be inflicted upon, or are incurred by Persons convicted of Grand Larceny.

Persons offending against Act, subject to Penalties usually inflicted on Persons guilty of Grand Larceny.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person who shall have claimed to be the Father of an illegitimate Child, or to have any Right or Title in Law to the Possession of such Child, on account of his getting Possession of such Child, or taking such Child out of the Possession of the Mother thereof, or other Person or Persons having the lawful Charge thereof.

Not to affect Fathers of illegitimate Children.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Not to extend to Scotland.

An Act to grant until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, certain Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: and to establish further Regulations for the better Security of the Revenue on Goods so imported.

[18th July 1814.]

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WHEREAS an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges, for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within or the Limits of the said Company's Charter: And Whereas it is necessary in order to carry the said Act into Effect, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, as far as respects that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, that Provision and Regulations should be established, and that Duties should be imposed on Goods so imported into Ireland, whether by the said United Company, or by other Persons under the Authority of the said Act: We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Goods imported into Great Britain, shall and may be imported directly from those into any other Port in Ireland which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the safe Custody of such Goods; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise so imported into Ireland, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Duties on Importation, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks on Exportation, as the like Articles would be subject and liable to if imported directly into Ireland, from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall in every other respect be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Limitations and Conditions, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandise would be subject and liable or entitled to if the same had been imported into Ireland, directly from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, except so far only as is otherwise directed by this Act.

Duties payable in Great Britain, Consolidated Fund. Do not according to Weight and Quantity, but of Goods.

Goods imported in approved Warehouses may afterwards be exported on Payment of Warehouse Duty.

When Goods are stored in the Warehouse, they are not liable to any Duty.

Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs hereinafter mentioned; and do hereby beforesh Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported or brought into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively advalorem, described and set forth in Figures in the Tables herewith annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), and that there shall be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the said Duties of Customs, as the same are also respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Tables herewith annexed, marked (B.); and that the said Duties and Drawbacks shall be in lieu of all former Duties and Drawbacks upon such Goods, Wares and Merchandise so imported under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, immediately before the passing of this Act, except only such Duties as shall be applicable or appropriated to any local Purposes by any Act or Acts by which the same are imposed respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties of Customs or Excise in Great Britain, granted or made payable by any Act in force in Great Britain, at the time of the passing of this Act, upon any Articles on which any Duty is imposed by this Act, or the Schedule herewith annexed, or any Part of such Duties in Great Britain, shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made that so much of the Duties of Customs granted by this Act, and made payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall be cease or determine, or be repealed as aforesaid, in Great Britain, shall in like manner cease or determine, or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland, at any time after the time when such Duties of Customs or Excise shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, and the Duties of Customs made payable by this Act shall be reduced accordingly: Provided always, that no such Reduction shall take place on any Article mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, which shall not under this Act pay a Duty in Ireland, equal in Amount to the Duty of Customs and Excise payable on the like Article in Great Britain.

III. And Whereas it is expedient that Goods, Wares and Merchandise legally imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, should be allowed to be imported into Ireland directly from Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, so imported as aforesaid into Great Britain, shall and may be imported directly from thence into any of their Ports in Ireland which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the safe Custody of such Goods; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise so imported into Ireland, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Duties on Importation, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks on Exportation, as the like Articles would be subject and liable to if imported directly into Ireland, from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall in every other respect be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Limitations and Conditions, and the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall and may be warehoused under the same Regulations, Securities and Conditions, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandise would be subject and liable or entitled to if the same had been imported into Ireland, directly from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, except so far only as is otherwise directed by this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Customs by this Act imposed, and the Drawbacks and Bounties allowed by this Act, shall be paid and payable, and received and recoverable, and recovered and recoverable, according to the Amount thereof, in Sterling Currency; and that all and every the Duties by this Act imposed shall be carried to and under Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure or Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Number, Quantity or Value thereof, than the Weight, Number, Quantity or Value particularly inserted, described and set forth in the Tables herewith annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), in proportion to the actual Weight, Number, Quantity or Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietors or Proprietors, Purchaser or Purchasers of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which having been imported from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and secured in approved Warehouses, and on which Goods the Duties imposed by this Act, under the Dispensation of Warehousing Duties, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table herewith annexed, marked (A.), shall have been paid or secured, to export the same directly from any such Warehouse without Payment of any further Duty of Customs or Excise whenever, subject nevertheless to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Securities directed and required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the passing of this Act, as far as the same are applicable.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Proprietors or Proprietors, Purchaser or Purchasers of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported as aforesaid (not being prohibited to be sold or consumed in Ireland), on which the Duties imposed by this Act, under the Dispensation of Warehousing Duties, shall have been paid, shall intend to take the same out of the Warehouse wherein the same shall have been lodged as aforesaid, paid, in order to be used or consumed in Ireland, the Person or Persons so intending to take out any such Goods shall, before the same shall be so delivered from any such Warehouse, make a due Entry of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, and pay down in ready Money to the Collector or other proper Officer or Officers of the said Customs, the full Duties due and payable on such Goods, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed, marked (B.), under the Description of House Consumption Duties, together with such Duties of Excise and other Duties as may be due and payable on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, at the time the same shall be taken out of such Warehouse, in order to be used or consumed in Ireland.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, contained and specified in the Table to this Act annexed, and which shall have been imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East India, shall at any time after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, be imported into Ireland from Great Britain, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise to import such Goods, Wares and Merchandise into Ireland, upon Payment of the Duties contained and expressed in the Table (B.) to this Act annexed, without warehouse duty, Goods, Wares or Merchandise, and without the same being subject to the Duties mentioned in Table (A.) to this Act annexed: Provided always, that if any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be imported into Ireland, and shall be secured in Warehouses, then such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be subject and liable to the Duties mentioned, specified and contained in the said Table (A.)

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the several Drawbacks to be paid or allowed on the Exports from Ireland of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed, marked (B.), shall not be paid or allowed, unless such Goods shall be exported or shipped for the Purpose of Exportation within Twelve Calendar Months from the Day on which the House Consumption Duty shall have been paid thereon.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported into Ireland from Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares or Merchandise exported from Ireland to Great Britain (other than and except such Goods, Wares and Merchandise as shall have been imported into Great Britain from any Place within the Limits of the Charter of the said East India Company), are made to remain liable to or be charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether Countervailing or other, or by which any Drawback or Bounties are allowed or given, in respect of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which Duties of Excise are imposed on any Article imported or brought into or sold or consumed in Ireland, or by which any Securities, Rules, Regulations or Restrictions, are made or provided for the securing any of the Duties of Excise; but that the same shall remain in full Force and Effect, as if this Act had not been made.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to permit or allow any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatsoever to be imported into or exported from Ireland, in any way or manner contrary to any Act or Acts of Parliament in force within Ireland, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, except in any case where Provision is expressly made for that Purpose by this Act, or by the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Rules, Regulations, Conditions or Restrictions were made, established or directed, for the granting or allowing of any Deductions of any Duties on account of Damage, or for the better securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Ireland, or the bringing or carrying Coastwise, or from any Port to Port within Ireland, or the carrying, landing or shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever, except where any Allowance is expressly made by this Act; and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things relating thereto shall and are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied to the benefit of this Act, and for carrying the same into Execution, as fully and effectually as if they had been reprinted and re-enacted in this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That whereas in the Publication of the Dublin Gazette, containing Notice of the Average Price of Brown or Malabar Sugar for the Four Months preceding the First Wednesday in January, or preceding the First Wednesday in May, or preceding the First Wednesday in September, in every Year, as aforesaid and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain, and inserted in the Lancaster Gazette, it shall appear that the Average Price of such Sugar has aforesaid and taken for the preceding Four Months in England, shall exceed Sixty Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such case One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty on East India Sugar, imposed by Table (B.) annexed to this Act, shall be suspended until a Notice of a new Average Price shall be published in manner aforesaid; and if such Average Price shall exceed the Sum of Sixty one Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Two Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty, shall be suspended, and in like manner, Home Cons. Duties, being that be made with proper Officer, and Duty paid.

Goods imported into Ireland from Great Britain pay Duties as specified in Table B. if not warehoused, but if warehoused, Goods liable to such Duties mentioned in Table A.

46 G. 3. c. 63.
45.

XV. And be it further enacted, That whenever at any time during the Continuance of the additional Duty of Twenty five Pounds per Cwt. imposed by this Act, the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury in Ireland shall be authorized under and by virtue of an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting to His Majesty said Twenty sixth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Duties in the Importation, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of certain Sorts of Iron, Sugar and Tea, into and from Ireland, to suspend the Payment of One, Two or Three Shillings, Part of the Duty on Brown or Malabar Sugar, in the manner and according to the Provisions in the said Act mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, and they are hereby required to like manner and in like Proportions to suspend the Payment of One Shilling, Two Shillings or Three Shillings on every Hundred Weight of East India Sugar imported into Ireland, Part of the said Duty of Twenty five Pounds per Cwt. additional on such Sugar under this Act.

Bounty allowed on Exports of Refined
Sugar produced from Sugar imported from East Indies.

XVI. And Whereas certain Bounties are allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America: And Whereas it is expedient that the like Bounties should be allowed on the Exportation from Ireland of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by Persons authorized in trade within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Ireland of any Refined Sugar, the Manufacturer of any Part of the United Kingdom, produced from Sugar imported from any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the like Bounty as is now or hereafter may be allowed by Law on the Exportation from Ireland of the like Sort or Description of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar, imported from the British Plantations in America, subject in every respect to the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, now by Law prescribed and applied with respect to the Bounty allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar.

Drawback allowed on Exportation of Sugar
from any Port Duty.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That on the due Exportation from Ireland of any Sugar, on which the Home Consumption Duty imposed by this Act shall have been paid, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be entitled to such and the like Drawbacks, as shall be allowed at the time of such Exportation on Brown or Malabar Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations exported from Ireland: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to impose any Duty on such Sugar, when taken out of the Warehouse for Exportation only.

How Value of

ned, where Duties are charged on Value.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on the Goods, Wares or Merchandise, enumerated and described in the Tables hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) are charged not according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise respectively, which shall be imported into any Part of Ireland, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United East India Company, shall be ascertained according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, as like Manner and Form, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, and such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be subject and liable in such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed and imposed, for shortcoming and collecting Duties to be paid according to the Value by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for regulating the Collection of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported or exported into or from Ireland, and the Payment of Bounties, Allowances and Drawbacks thereon, and by an Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, in so far as the same are applicable thereto; and that the Value of all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into Ireland from Great Britain, and the Price of all Tea so imported, shall be ascertained in like Manner and Form, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, as are contained and contained in an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twenty sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Rates and Duties, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties, so far as relates to the home shortcoming the Price of Tea, and the Value of Goods, Wares and Merchandise so imported into Ireland, from Great Britain, and which had been imported into Great Britain by the said United East India Company.

46 G. 3. c. 57.

47 G. 3. c. 12.

Goods imported from Ireland

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United East India Company, into any of the Ports in

*Ireland, which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the Purpose of such Importation under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, either by the said United Company or by any Person or Persons so trading under the Authority of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament and of this present Act, shall be lodged and secured in Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or any Three or more of them, for the time being, subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Securities and Provisions directed and required by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act for permit certain Goods imported into Ireland to be warehoused or stored without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid, or by any other Act (s) or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act in force as or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

(s) [See G. 3. c. 38.]

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained in the said last recited Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act, shall extend or be construed to extend so exempt any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandise so warehoused as aforesaid, from the Payment of the Duties of Customs imposed by the said Act, or any such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, as the same are respectively defined and set forth in the Table herewith annexed, marked (A.), under the Head of Warehousing Duties: which Duties shall and may be paid at any time previous to the Delivery of any such Goods, Wares and Merchandise from such Warehouse, either for the Purpose of Exportation or Home Consumption.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act or in the heretofore recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to alter, vary or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, for prohibiting the Circumvention or Use of any Foreign Manufacture within Ireland; but that all and singular the said Acts, and the Provisions, Powers and Regulations therein contained respectively, shall remain and continue of the same Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act and the said before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament had not been made; any thing contained in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And Whereas it is necessary for the Security of the Public Revenue, that additional Regulations should be established with respect to Manifests directed to be brought by Masters of Ships or Vessels arriving in Ireland from any Part or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, the Towns and Dependencies thereof, or from the Island of Saint Helena: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel belonging to the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects arriving in Ireland from any of the Places aforesaid mentioned, shall have on board a Manifest or Manifests as described and directed by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the Production of Manifests, and for more effectually preventing fraudulent Practices in obtaining Broussels and Broussins, and in the shipping and Reloading of Goods, and shall produce and deliver such Manifest or Manifests in the manner prescribed by the said recited Act; and that all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Powers and Securities required and directed by the said recited Act shall remain in force, and be applied to the Purposes of this present Act, as far as they relate or may be applicable thereto, except where any of the said Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Powers and Securities are repealed or in any wise altered by this Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, no Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be imported or brought into Ireland from any of the Ports or Places aforesaid mentioned, in any Ship or Vessel whatever belonging to the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, unless the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel respectively, shall have on board a Manifest or Manifests in Writing, signed by such Master, and containing the Particulars described and set forth in the said recited Act passed in Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and which Manifest or Manifests shall also contain the Name or Names (if the same shall be known) of the Person to whom any such Goods shall be consigned, the time when, and the Place where any such Goods shall have been taken on board, and distinguishing in every such Manifest the Goods which are stored in the Hold from those which are stored in other Parts of the Ship.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Alterations which shall, after the completing of any such Manifest, be made in the Stowage of any Ship or Vessel, by the Removal of any Goods from the Hold to any other Part of the Ship, or from any other Part of the Vessel to the Hold, or from any one Deck of the Vessel to any other Deck, shall be registered on the Day of such Removal in the Log Book or Journal kept by the Master of the Vessel, and also in a supplementary Manifest which shall be kept for the Purpose of registering any such Alterations in the Stowage of Goods by any such Removals as aforesaid, and every such supplementary Manifest shall be attached to and kept with the original Manifest to which it refers.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That before any such Ship or Vessel shall clear or depart from the Port or Place wherein the Lading or any Part thereof shall have been taken on board, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel shall prepare and deliver a Manifest in Writing as hereinbefore required, to the Officer who shall or may be appointed by the Governor, or by the Person or Persons exercising the Powers and Authorities of Government, of any such Settlement or Place; and such Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall verify upon Oath of Officers.

XXX. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That in case the Port or Place where any such Ship or Vessel shall clear or take his Departure for Ireland shall not be under the British Government, then and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for the British Consul resident at any such Port or Place to do and perform every Matter, Act or Thing directed by this Act to be done or performed by the Officer so appointed as aforesaid; and such British Consul is hereby authorized and required to receive from the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel so arriving, the Manifest or Manifests required by this Act to be delivered by such Master or other Person; and such Consul is also authorized and required to administer the Oath so directed to be taken, and to authenticate such Manifest or Manifests, to transmit Duplicates thereof, and to perform every Act, Matter or Thing respecting Manifests required by this Act to be done or performed by the Officer to be appointed for that Purpose as aforesaid at any other Port or Place.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty, if any Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall be imported or brought into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from His Majesty's Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope, its Territories or Dependencies, or from the Island of Saint Helena, or from such other Port or Place as aforesaid from whence the Ship or Vessel shall have cleared or departed for Ireland, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, without the Manifest or Manifests lawfully required, or shall not be included or described therein, or shall not agree therewith, all such Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares or Merchandises may have been included in the Report of such Ship or Vessel; and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every Package which shall be so imported or brought into Ireland without the Manifest lawfully required, or which shall not be included or inserted therein, or which shall not agree therewith.

XXXII. And Whereas by this Act certain Penalties are imposed on Masters of Ships or Vessels in which Goods shall be imported or brought into Ireland without the Manifest or Manifests lawfully required: Be it therefore enacted, That the Penalties imposed by the before recited Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, on the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel belonging to the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, in which any Goods shall be imported or brought into Ireland without the Manifest or Manifests required by the last before recited Act, or which shall not be included or described therein, or shall not agree therewith, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty, be repeated so far as the same relate to Goods, Wares and Merchandises imported into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, His Majesty's Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope, its Territories or Dependencies, or the Island of Saint Helena.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Goods, Wares or Merchandises, and all Ships or Vessels which may be forfeited under any of the Provisions of this Act, may and shall be seized by the Commander or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or Commissioners, Warrant or Petty Officers specially appointed by him or them, or by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs; and that every Forfeiture incurred by this Act, and whereto the Recovery is not specially provided for by this Act, may and shall respectively be laid for, prosecuted and recovered in such Courts, and by such and the like ways, means and methods, and the Produce thereof respectively disposed and applied as such and the like manner, and to such and the like Uses and Purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respectively, the Revenue of Customs or Port Duties so Ireland may now be laid for, prosecuted or recovered, disposed of and applied, in any of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe respectively, as the case may happen to be.

XXXIV. And Whereas it is necessary that some further Provision should be made to prevent the illegal Importation of Tea into Ireland: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, if any Ship or Vessel coming from Foreign Parts and belonging wholly or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, or whereto One Half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty, other than and except such Ships or Vessels as shall belong to or be employed by the United Company of Merchants in England trading to the East Indies, shall be found on the High Seas, or shall be discovered to have been within the said Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company, having on board any Tea exceeding Six Pence in the whole, except Tea for the Use of the Persons on board, not exceeding One Pound for each Person, then not only such Tea, together with the Packages containing the same, but also every such Ship or Vessel, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Hatches of all Ships and Vessels arriving from any of the Ports or Places before mentioned, or at any of the Ports of Ireland which shall have been or shall be declared fit and proper for such Importations, shall be secured under the joint Locks of the Master of such Ship or Vessel and of the Officers of His Majesty's Customs and of the Excise, in such place where that Revenue is concerned, and no such Hatch or Hatches shall be opened on any account or Pretence whatever, but in the Presence of such Officers respectively; and if any such Officer shall refuse or neglect to attend at the locking up or opening any such Hatch or Hatches, after due Notice shall have been given him for that Purpose, every such Officer so offending, shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Duties of Customs by this Act imposed, and all Drawbacks and Duties by this Act allowed and made payable, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland for the time being, and that all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act shall be paid and payable according to the Amount thereof in Irish Currency, and that all the said Duties, Drawbacks, Bounties, Penalties and Forfeitures shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, allowed, paid for, recovered and applied in the same manner, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying, paying and managing of the Duties of Customs, in and by an Act made in Ireland, in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for the settling of the Ensign or new Tappet upon His Majesty's Arms; 34 Geo. III.

An Act for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges made in Scotland, for the Purpose of Military Communication; and for making more effectual Provision for maintaining and repairing Roads made, and Bridges built, in Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges.

WHEREAS certain Roads and Bridges for the Purpose of Military Communication have been made, and hitherto maintained in the Highlands of Scotland, at the Public Expence; which Roads and Bridges are no longer necessary for such Military Communication, but for other Purposes some of them ought nevertheless to be maintained in Repair: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be paid and applied towards making Roads and Building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; and for enabling the Proprietors of Land in Scotland to charge their Estates with a Proportion of the Expence of making and keeping in Repair Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland: And Whereas, in Addition to the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, the further Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds has at sundry times been since granted, in further Execution of the said Act, by means of which many useful Roads and Bridges have been made and completed, and others are now in course of being made, under several Contracts and Agreements entered into by the Commissioners and others, according to the Powers and Regulations of the said Act: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for maintaining and keeping in Repair Roads made and Bridges built in Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, whereby the Charge of keeping in Repair such Roads and Bridges was laid upon the ground Owners whereby the said Roads and Bridges are situated; and by the said Act divers Provisions were made for such Repairs, which Provisions have been found to be inadequate to the end proposed: And Whereas it is expedient to make new Regulations for the Maintenance and Repair of the Military Roads and Bridges and also of the Roads and Bridges made and completed, or which shall hereafter be made and completed, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges as aforesaid: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Com-* mess, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said recited Act, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners appointed in and by virtue of the Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, heretofore recited, shall be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the Purpose of this Act, together with the Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland, and the first Commissioner of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue in England, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for carrying this Act, and also the before mentioned Act into Execution; any Three of which Commissioners shall constitute a Quorum, of which One of the Commissioners appointed by virtue of this Office shall always be one; and at all Meetings of the Commissioners, which Meetings shall be held in London or Westminster, the Chairman shall have a casting Vote in case of an Equality of Votes.

III. And Whereas it is expedient that the Maintenance and Repair of the Military Roads and Bridges, and also of the Roads and Bridges made under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, should be placed under the Direction and Management of the Commissioners hereby appointed: Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby empowered to appoint and employ an Inspector of such Roads and Bridges in Scotland as have been made wholly or in part at the Public Expence, and such other Superintendents or Overseers of Roads and other Officers, as they shall see fit; and to pay and allow to each and every of them such Sum or Sums of Money annually or otherwise, as the said Commissioners shall think proper, in Compensation of their Services.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Military Roads and Bridges, and also the Roads and Bridges made and completed pursuant to the said recited Act, passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be during the continuance of this Act maintained and kept in Repair as follows: that is to say, a certain Proportion, being One Fourth Part of the Expence necessary to maintain and keep in Repair such Roads and Bridges (exclusive of the Allowances to the Inspector and other Officers, appointed by the Commissioners, which Allowances shall be wholly defrayed at the Expence of the Public), shall be paid and defrayed out of the Moneys impressed into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, as heretofore directed; and the Remainder of the Expence of maintaining and keeping in Repair such Roads and Bridges, shall be paid and defrayed by the County or Counties in which the same shall be situated, in the manner heretofore directed.

V. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall forthwith, after the passing of this Act, direct Estimates to be prepared of the Expence requisite for the Repair of the Roads and Bridges placed under their Direction and Management by virtue of this Act; and they are hereby authorized to employ proper Persons, or to enter into Contracts for the immediate Repair of the same; the Expence arising in consequence of so doing to be defrayed in the first Instance, and by way of Advance, wholly out of the Moneys to be impressed into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Barons of the Exchequer.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Road or Portion of Road, made for the Purpose of Military Communication in Scotland, shall be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, unless the Barons of the County in which it is situated at some Annual Meeting for the Assessment of the Land Tax, or at some Afternoon Road Court, or at some Special Adjournment of such Meeting or Road Court, shall agree to make Application to that Effect to the Commissioners appointed by this Act; at the same time undertaking to conform to the Provisions of the same during the Continuance thereof; which Undertaking shall be obligatory upon the Barons of such County; whereupon the said Commissioners shall determine whether it is expedient and proper to consent to such Application; and such such Consent (if obtained) together with the previous Application and Undertaking, shall be notified by the Governor of the County, in the Newspapers usually circulated in the Highlands of Scotland, after which the Road or Portion of Road, respecting which such Application shall have been made, shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that if any Person or Persons whatsoever, jointly or severally, shall make Application to the Commissioners, stating that such Person or Persons are willing to give and will find Security to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, to pay Three fourth Parts of the Expence necessary for the Maintenance and Repair of any Road or Portion of Road made for the Purpose of Military Communication, and to conform to the Provisions of this Act, as far as the same shall be applicable to the circumstances of the case, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners thereupon to determine whether it is expedient or proper to consent to such Application; and if the said Commissioners shall consent to such Application, and such Security shall be found to their Satisfaction, the said Road or Portion of Road shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act accordingly.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Bosting Pier forming Part of any Road, or the Terminations of any Road made pursuant to the said recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that no such Bosting Pier and no Bridge erected pursuant to the said recited Act shall be rebuilt by virtue of this Act, unless the same shall have been included in the Contract entered into for making the Road of which such Bosting Pier or Bridge forms a Part: And provided also, that the Sum which may be laid out in the Repair of any Bosting Pier or any Bridge, or Road of Approach thereto, which is not allowed to be rebuilt by virtue of this Act (that is, any Bosting Pier or Bridge, for the Erection of which a separate Contract shall have been made by the said Commissioners appointed by the said Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty), shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds in any One Year, unless the Consent of the Commissioners appointed by this Act shall have been obtained for the Expensiture of a larger Sum in such Year, under the Provisions of this Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Bridge directed to be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act shall be situated partly in one County and partly in another, every such Bridge shall be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, at the joint Expence of such Counties, to the Amount required by the Act; and the Affidavit hereby directed to be made shall be imposed accordingly.

IX. Provided further, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to alter, or make or suffer to be altered, the Lane of any Road which shall be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act, unless such Alteration shall be made according to the Rules and Regulations of the above recited Act of the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for making Roads and banking Bridges in the Highroads of Scotland.

X. And, in order to enable the said Commissioners to defray a Proportion, being One Fourth Part of the Expence of maintaining and keeping in Repair the Roads and Bridges which are directed to be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act, until the same shall cease to be maintained at the Public Expence, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, and they are hereby required, upon the Application of the Commissioners appointed by this Act, from time to time to issue their Warrant or Warrants to the Receiver General and Paymaster of Scotland, for Payment out of any Public Money then in his Hands of any Sum or Sums of Money specified therein not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five thousand Pounds in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in any Proviso duly authorized by the Commissioners to receive the same for the Purposes of this Act; and any Sum not exceeding Two thousand five hundred Pounds in any One Year afterwards to be necessitated for by him in such manner as the said Barons, shall from time to time think fit to order and direct; such Proviso also giving good and sufficient Security to the Satisfaction of the said Barons, for such Monies and for any other Money which may come into his Hands in consequence of this Act.

XI. And, in order to save the other Proportion, being Three Fourths of the Money so expended, be it enacted, That Affidavits shall be made by the Commissioners of Supply in the manner herein directed; that is to say, the Comptroller of every County Meeting at the Annual Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply which shall take place for the Assessment of the Land Tax in the Spring of every Year during the Continuance of this Act, shall lay before the Commissioners of Supply a Copy of this Act, together with an Account of the Expences incurred by reason of this Act, and chargeable to such County for One Year, up to the Full Day of January preceding such Meeting; such Account to be certified upon Oath, and transmitted to the Comptroller by the Inspector of Roads and Bridges in Scotland, or by the Agent of the Commissioners, at least One Month previous to the Twenty sixth Day of April in each Year; and the Commissioners of Supply shall thereupon make an Affidavit upon each and every Proprietor, Life Rentor or proper Wadsetter of Land enjoying the Division unto themselves, according to the Amount of their respective Rents and Profits, as assessed to the Property Tax in the Year ending the Fifth Day of April last, under Schedule (A.), of as Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting in His Majesty during the present War, and until the Sixth Day of April next after the Ratification of a Defensive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rents and Duties in Great Britain, as the Rents and Duties in Proportion arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for repealing certain Parts of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Contribution to the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and to establish and render more effectual the Provision for calculating the said Duties, for such Sum or Sums of Money as shall in the whole equal the Money advanced on behalf of the Honours of such County for the Purposes of this Act; which Sum shall be paid over to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, from time to time as the same may have been collected and levied by the Collector, in Payment of Three Fourths of the Expence of the Repair of the Roads and Bridges of the said County during the preceding Year; And, in order that the Commissioners of Supply may be enabled to make the Affidavit required by this Act, the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes are hereby directed, upon the Application of the Commissioners of Supply, to communicate to them an Account of the Amount to which every such Proprietor, Life Rentor or proper Wadsetter of Land enjoying the Division unto themselves, shall have been so assessed to the Property Tax: Provided always, that no County as such shall be assessed for Payment of the Expences incurred under this Act in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, nor in any subsequent Year, higher than the Rate of Three Halfpennies in the Pound upon the Rents and Profits assessed to the Property Tax as aforesaid; and the Payment of the Money which shall be levied in consequence of such Affidavits, according to the same Rules, and making the same Allowances as were made in the Collection of the Property Tax for the Year ending the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall accordingly be deemed and taken to be a Payment in full to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, towards the Expences incurred in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any subsequent Year, in Execution of this Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of any County, at the Annual Meeting at which they assemble to assess the Land Tax, to appoint a fit Person to be a Surveyor or Surveyors, Clerk or Clerks, and such Officers as they shall think necessary, for the due Execution of this Act, with such Salaries or Allowances as such Commissioners of Supply shall think fit; for which Provision shall be made in the Amount of each Affidavit pursuant to this Act; and from time to time to remove such Officers, or any of them, as they shall see Cause, and appoint others, in case of Removal, Resignation or Death.

XIII. Provided further, and be it enacted, That when, by any Act or Acts of Parliament already made or to be made, any Tolls or Duties shall be applicable, and where any Contribution for Statute Labour shall be allocated or appropriated to the Repair of any Road or Bridge, made or built pursuant to the said recited Act passed passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or to any Road made for the Purpose of Military Communication, all Monies arising from such Tolls and Duties, or such Concessions, shall and may be applied in the manner in which such Monies are directed to be applied by any such Act or Acts respectively; and such Monies shall be expended in Part Payment of the Expense of such Repairs as is not to be borne by the said Commissioners; and in making any Allowance pursuant to this Act, regard shall be had to all such Monies which are or may be applicable to the Maintenance and Repair of any Road or Bridge for which any such Allowance is to be made.

Land Advertisers to indicate Provisional Commissioners of Supply, Military or Civil County.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners of Supply assembled at any Annual Meeting at which they assemble to assess the Land Tax, shall fail or neglect to make an Allowance in the manner directed by this Act; or if no Meeting shall have been held before which the Account of the Expenditure incurred by reason of this Act and chargeable to such County, shall have been laid by the Convenor in the manner directed by this Act, then the Commissioners appointed by this Act shall, and they are hereby authorized to do so: His Majesty's Advocate General for Scotland, to nominate the necessary Persons for compelling the said Commissioners to make and pay over to the Inspector the Monies which shall be or shall become due to him under the Provisions of this Act.

Allowance here levied.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Allowance made pursuant to this Act shall be levied and recovered by the Collector of the Land Tax of the County within which it shall have been made, in the same manner as the Land Tax is or may be levied and recovered, and at such time or times as such Commissioners of Supply shall direct, within Six Months after the Allowance shall have been made; and such and the like Sums, Powers, Privileges and Forfeitures are hereby given, for the Payment and Recovery of every such Allowance, which are given or may be applied and enforced for the Payment and Recovery of the Land Tax: Provided always, that every such Collector shall be and be deemed to be true accounting for and paying all Monies to be received by him pursuant to this Act, in the same manner that such Collector does for his faithful and true accounting and paying all Sums of Money received by him as Collector of the Land Tax.

Collectors to be Secretary.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Collector of the Land Tax shall fail or neglect to levy such Allowance or any Part of such Allowance within Six Months as aforesaid, every such Collector shall be liable to pay a Sum equal to double the Amount thereof, which Sum shall be applicable towards the Expense of repairing Roads and Bridges under the Provisions of this Act, and for that Purpose shall be paid out of the Hands of the Commissioners appointed by this Act; Three Fourths of the same to be placed to the Credit of the Account of the County wherein such Default of the Collector has taken place, One Fourth to be added to the Money inserted into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Barons of the Exchequer.

Collectors to levy Allowances, Penalty.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all Sums of Money received by any such Collector pursuant to this Act, shall be remitted by him to the Agent of the Commissioners: Provided always, that every such Collector may retain for his own Use, out of all Monies to be so received as aforesaid, such Allowance, not exceeding the Rate of Allowance made for keeping the Assessed Taxes; and for which Allowance Provision shall be made in the Amount of each Allowance over and above the Sum due to the Commissioners appointed by this Act.

Allowances when levied, how disposed of, Collector, Allowance to be for Travels.

XVIII. And Whereas it may be expedient in the County of Argyll to make the Allowances directed by this Act upon certain Districts of that County, instead of assessing the County at large for the Expenses to be incurred in the Execution thereof: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Barons of the said County, at the Midwinter Court Court which shall be holden next after the passing of this Act, to determine whether the Allowance directed by this Act shall be made and levied upon particular Districts thereof, for the Maintenance and Repair of the Roads within such several Districts, or upon the County at large, in which case the Allowances directed by this Act shall be made and levied upon such Districts; but if no Determination shall take place at such Court Court, the Allowance shall be made and levied upon the County at large; and in either case the Collector of the Land Tax of the said County shall pay over to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, in the manner and under the Penalty aforesaid, Three Fourth Parts of the Expense of the Repair of such Roads and Bridges in the said County, as shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act.

Allowance to County of Argyll how made.

XIX. And Whereas Roads and Bridges have been made and built in the Island of Arran in the County of Bute, pursuant to the said recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, but no such Roads or Bridges have been made or built in any other Part of the said County: Be it therefore enacted, That no Allowance directed to be made by this Act shall be made or levied in any Part of the County of Bute, excepting in the Island of Arran.

Allowance in Island of Arran.

XX. And be it enacted, That all Monies paid over by such Collector to the Agent of the Commissioners appointed by this Act, by virtue of any Allowance to be made pursuant to this Act, shall be accounted for by such Agent in the manner in which the said Sums of Money directed to be expended by the Warrant of the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, or any other Sums of Money which shall come into his Hands in consequence of this Act, are hereby directed to be accounted for.

Monies received by virtue of Allowance accounted for.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners appointed by this Act, and they are hereby empowered from time to time, to make such Rules and Regulations, and to give such Orders and Directions as they may think proper, for the more effectual Maintenance and Repair of the Roads and Bridges hereby intended to be maintained and repaired; provided that such Rules and Regulations, Orders and Directions, shall not be inconsistent with the Laws of Scotland, or with the Provisions of this Act, and shall be notified to the Police or Persons required to conform to the same.

Commissioners to make Rules and Regulations.

XXII. And be it enacted, That on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March in every Year, a Report shall be made to both Houses of Parliament, by the Commissioners appointed by this Act (or if Parliament shall not then be sitting, within Twenty one Days after Parliament shall next meet), specifying their Proceedings pursuant to this Act, with a general Abstract of the Receipts and Expenditure in carrying this Act into Execution during the preceding Year: And where the Expenditure hereby directed to be defrayed out of the Monies paid into their Hands by Warrant of the Barons of the Exchequer, shall exceed the Sum heretofore limited and appointed for that Purpose, the said Commissioners shall further, at such times as they may find necessary, transmit an Account thereof to the Lords of the Treasury, in order that the same may be laid before Parliament.

Commissioners to report to Parliament.

Expenditure out of Treasury Money exceeding Sum before mentioned, Account transmitted to Treasury.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Inspector of Roads and Bridges in Scotland, to empower such Person or Persons as he in Writing under his Hand shall appoint, to dig, gather, take and carry away any Gravel, Stone, Heath, Stones, Sand or other Materials out of the several Grounds of any Person or Persons, whether the same be inclosed or uninclosed (not being the Ground whereon any House or Buildings stand, or a Garden, Orchard, Yard, planted Walk or Walks, or Arable or any Heals, or any Piece or Parcel of inclosed Ground, planted, set apart and used as Pasture Ground, Plantation or Nursery for Trees), where such Materials are or may be found, and from time to time to carry away the same, or so much thereof as the said Inspector or any Person appointed by him as aforesaid, shall judge necessary for repairing the Roads or Bridges directed to be repaired by this Act, giving at least Eight Days' previous Notice in Writing, and paying such Sum or Sums of Money for the Damage done to the Owners and Occupiers respectively of said Ground, where and from whence the same shall be digged, gathered, carried away or any which the same shall be carried, as the said Inspector or any Person appointed by him as aforesaid, shall think reasonable; and in case of any Difference concerning the same between such Owners or Occupiers, and the said Inspector or any Person appointed by him as aforesaid, touching such Damage, the same shall and may be determined by the Sheriff Depute or Substitue of the County, where such Materials shall be situated, whose Decision shall be final, without being subject to Advocation, Suspension or Reduction; but any such Difference or Dispute shall not in the mean time hinder the carrying off or using the said Materials for repairing the said Roads or Bridges.

Inspector may dig, gather, take and carry away Materials.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Inspector of Roads and Bridges, or any Person appointed by him, shall observe any Nuisances or Encroachments, Obstructions of Ditches, Drains, Gutteres and Watercourses, or any other Annoyances, made, committed or permitted, in or upon or to the Possession of any of the Roads and Bridges to be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act, he shall give or cause to be given, to any Person or Persons doing, committing or permitting the same, personal Notice, or Notice in Writing, to be left at his, her or their usual Place or Places of Abode, specifying the Particulars whereon such Nuisances, Encroachments, Obstructions or Annoyances consist; and if the same shall not be removed, and the Ditches, Drains, Gutteres and Watercourses officially cleaned and opened, within Seven Days after such Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, the said Inspector or the Person appointed by him, if he be duly authorized and empowered forthwith to remove such Nuisances, Obstructions and Annoyances, and to open, cleanse and repair such Ditches, Drains, Gutteres and Watercourses; and the Person neglecting to observe and obey the above mentioned Notice shall repay the Inspector, or the Person appointed by him, such Charges as shall be allowed to be reasonable by the Sheriff Depute or Substitue of the County, and shall also forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; and in Default of Payment thereof, the same shall be levied and recovered with Expenses of Process in a summary way, before the Sheriff Depute or Substitue of the County where the Offence shall have been committed; which Sum shall be paid to the said Inspector, or the Person appointed by him, to be paid over to the Agent of the Commissioners, and to be applied by him in Discharge of the Allowance for repairing Roads and Bridges in such County in the next Year; and in every such case the Order or Sentence of the Sheriff shall be final and conclusive, without being subject to Advocation, Suspension or Reduction.

Inspector or other Person shall.

An Act to render valid certain Indentures for the binding of Parish Apprentices, and Certificates of the Settlement of Poor Persons.

[1816 July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, it was enacted, That it should be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, or the greater Part of them, by the Assent of Two Justices of the Peace, to bind the Children of such Parish as shall not by the said Churchwardens and Overseers, or the greater Part of them, be thought able to maintain their Children, to be Apprentices: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Year of His late Majesty King William the Third, intituled An Act for supplying some Defects in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, it was enacted, That Persons coming to inhabit in any Parish, Township or Place, shall bring with them a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or the major Part of them, of some other Parish, Township or Place, thereby avowing and acknowledging the Person or Persons mentioned in the said Certificate, to be an Inhabitant or Inhabitants legally settled in that Parish, Township or Place: And Whereas divers Parishes contain within themselves several Townships, Hamlets or Chapelrys, each of which separately maintain on their Poor: And Whereas in such Parishes the Churchwardens are for the most Part sworn into their Offices as Churchwardens of the whole Parish, although in Truth and in Fact they act as Churchwardens of the separate Townships, Hamlets or Chapelrys therein contained: And Whereas divers Indentures for the binding of Parish Apprentices, and Certificates of the Settlements of Poor Persons, have heretofore been signed and executed by a Person or Persons styling himself or themselves, and listed in such Indentures and Certificates, to be Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Chapelwarden or Chapelwardens, of the Township, Hamlet or Chapelry, binding such poor Apprentices, or granting such Certificate: And Whereas such Person or Persons have not been sworn into the Office of Churchwarden or Chapelwarden of such Township, Hamlet or Chapelry, but of Churchwarden of the Parish wherein such Township, Hamlet or Chapelry is contained: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Indentures for the binding of Poor Apprentices, and all Certificates of the Settlements of Poor Persons, which have been heretofore signed and executed, or which shall hereafter be signed and executed by a Person or Persons, who at the time of his or their signing and executing such Indenture, or Certificate of Settlement, acted as Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Chapelwarden or Chapelwardens, of the Township, Hamlet or Chapelry, binding such Poor Apprentices, or granting such Certificate of Settlement, shall be deemed and taken to be as good, valid and effectual, as if the same had been signed and executed by a Person or Persons actually sworn into the Office of Churchwarden or Chapelwarden of such Township, Hamlet or Chapelry: Provided always, that such Person or Persons shall have been duly sworn into the Office of Churchwarden of the Parish wherein the Township, Hamlet or Chapelry, binding such poor Apprentices, or granting such Certificate, be contained, or into the Office of Churchwarden or Chapelwarden of such Township, Hamlet or Chapelry.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Indentures for the binding of Poor Apprentices, and all Certificates of the Settlement of Poor Persons, which shall have been heretofore signed and executed, or which may hereafter be signed and executed by the Overseers of the Poor of any Township, Hamlet, Chapelry or Place, and the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Chapelwarden or Chapelwardens, acting for or appointed in respect of such Township, Hamlet, Chapelry or Place, or the major Part of them, shall be deemed and taken to be as good, valid and effectual as if the said Indentures and Certificates had been signed and executed by such Overseers and the Churchwardens of the Parish wherein such Township, Hamlet, Chapelry or Place is situated, or the major Part of them.

An Act to amend an Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty, to explain, amend and reduce into One Act, the Statutes now in force for the Amendment and Preservation of the Public Highways within England; and for other Purposes. [23d July 1814.]

23 E. 3. c. 15.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to explain, amend and reduce into One Act of Parliament, the Statutes now in being for the Amendment and Preservation of the Public Highways, within that Part of Great Britain called England; and for other Purposes, the Justices of the Peace at their General Quarter or Special Sessions for the Highways are empowered to allow certain Assessments to be made and collected for the Maintenance and Repair of the Highways: And Whereas it has been found by Experience, that the Assessments which are authorized by that Act, are not sufficient for the Purposes to which the same are therein directed to be applied: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if upon the Application of the Surveyor of the Highways of any Parish, Township or Place, to the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at a Special Sessions for the Highways, the said Justices shall be fully satisfied that the Common Highways, Bridges, Causeways, Streets or Pavements, belonging to such Parish, Township or Place, are so far out of Order that they cannot be sufficiently amended and repaired by the means in the said heretofore recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign prescribed, and by the Assessments therein authorized to be made, and collected, it shall seem may be lawful for the said Justices to authorize, order and direct, an additional Assessment to be made on such Parish, Township or Place (over and above all the Assessments by the said Act authorized to be made and collected); which said additional Assessment shall be levied and collected by the same means, and in the same manner and form, as is directed for the levying and collecting the Assessments made under the Authority of the said heretofore recited Act, and upon the same Persons as are therein declared to be liable to be rated to the said Assessments.

Upon Application of Surveyor of Highways, Justices may direct additional Assessments.

Modes of application given.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That Notice of such intended Application shall be first proved before the said Justices, upon the Oath of the Surveyor making such Application, to have been given at the Church or Chapel, on Two Sundays preceding such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions for the Highways; or, in Townships or Places where there are no Churches or Chapels, to have been stuck up in Writing in Two or more conspicuous Places within the said Townships or Places, for One Week at least previous to such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions for the Highways; or, in Extraparochial Places, to have been given in Writing to some of the principal Inhabitants residing in such Extraparochial Place, a Week at least before such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions for the Highways; in order that any Person or Persons liable to be rated to the Assessment intended to be applied for, may attend at each General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions, if they shall think fit; there to state to the said Justices any Objections which he, she or they may have to the making and collecting of such a Assessment.

III. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the Assessments hereby authorized shall not exceed the Rate of One Shilling and Nine pence in the Pound on the actual Value at the time of making such additional Assessments.

IV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for varying some of the Provisions of an Act of the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty's Grace, respecting the Public Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England, which relate to Statute Duty, it is enacted, that it shall be at the Option of the Surveyor of the Statute Duty in each County, or a Competition in Money in lieu thereof, at certain Rates which are therein fixed: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to alter and amend so much of an Act passed in the Thirty fourth Year of His present Majesty, as relates to the amount of the Sums to be paid by Persons compensating for the Performance of Statute Duty, the Rates for such Statute Duty have been increased, so far as respects Teams, Dragoons, Ploughs and Carts, with One or Two Horses: And Whereas the actual Wages of Labour, and the actual Rate of hiring Teams, Carts, Horses or Oxen, vary at different times and in different Parts of England: Be it therefore further enacted, That in all cases in which it shall be made to appear to Two or more Justices of the Peace sitting within the District, by the Surveyor of the Highways or of any Turnpike Road, that the Maintenance and Repair thereon be more effectually carried on by a Competition in Money than by a Performance of the Statute Duty in Kind, he or they shall be at Liberty to require such Competition in Money, upon receiving an Authority under the Hands and Seals of the said Justices for that Purpose, in lieu of either the Whole or of any certain Part of the Statute Duty, from the several Persons who are bound by Law to perform such Statute Duty: and the Justices of the District at their Special Sessions for the Highways held in the Week next after Michaelmas, yearly, shall fix such Rates as they shall judge reasonable, as a Competition in lieu of the Teams, Carts, Horses, Oxen or Labour, which such Persons are bound in the Proportions now fixed by Law to provide or perform: which Rates the said Justices are hereby authorized and required annually to make known at such Special Sessions, due regard being had to the actual Wages of Labour, and to the actual Rate of hiring Teams, Dragoons, Ploughs, Carts, Horses or Oxen, in the Parish, Place or District in which such Competition is required: and such Competition shall be paid in the same manner, and within the same Period, and subject to the same Regulations and Provisions, as are now by Law established for enforcing the Payment of Competitions in lieu of Statute Duty: Provided always, that in case where the whole Competition in Money shall not be required in lieu of the Whole of the Duty in Kind, such Competition shall be demanded in fair and equal Proportions from each and every Person liable to pay the same, unless any of the said Persons shall prefer to pay a Competition for the Whole of their Statute Duty, according to the Rates fixed in the manner herein directed.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who are liable, under any of the Provisions of any of the heretofore recited Acts, to contribute to the Repair of the Highways by a Payment of Money in lieu of Statute Duty, shall contribute thereto in lieu of every Day's Statute Duty, for every Twenty Shillings of the actual annual Value at the time of making the said Assessment of the Lands, Tenements, Woods, Tithes and Hereditaments which such Persons shall respectively occupy in the Parish, Township or Place where they reside, or in any other Parish, Township or Place, a Sum equal to One Fifth Part of the Sum fixed by the Justices, at the time and in the manner by this Act directed, as the Competition for One Day's Labour of a Cart, Wain or Carriage, furnished with Three Horses and Two able Men, constituting any fractional Part of the said Sum which does not amount to One Farthing; and all Persons occupying more than Fifty Pounds per Annum in the Parish, Township or Place wherein they reside, or in any other Parish, Township or Place, and less than One hundred Pounds per Annum, shall contribute to the Repair of the Highways in lieu of every Day's Statute Duty, for every Twenty Shillings of the actual annual Value at the time of making the said Assessment of the Lands, Tenements, Woods, Tithes and Hereditaments, which such Person shall respectively occupy once and beyond the said Sum of Fifty Pounds per Annum, and under One hundred Pounds, a Sum equal to One Fifth Part of the Sum fixed by the said Justices, at the time and in the manner by this Act directed, as the Competition for One Day's Labour of a Cart, Wain or Carriage, furnished with Three Horses and Two able Men, constituting any fractional Part of the said Sum which does not amount to One Farthing; and so on progressively for every Twenty Shillings of the actual annual Value of the Lands, Tenements, Woods, Tithes and Hereditaments which they shall respectively occupy over and beyond every additional Fifty Pounds per Annum; and the said Sum or Sums shall be paid in the same manner and within the same Period, and subject to the same Regulations and Provisions, as are now by Law established for enforcing the Payment of Competitions in lieu of Statute Duty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall keep a Coach, Post Chaise, Chair or other Wheeled Carriage, and not keep a Team, Dragoon or Plough, nor occupy Fifty Pounds per Annum in the Parish, Township or Place where he resides, shall pay to the Surveyor or Surveyors, in respect of every Day's Statute Duty, for every Horse which he or she shall use in drawing such Carriage, such a Sum as the Justices shall, at the time and in the manner by this Act directed, fix as the Competition for One Day's Work of a Horse; or shall, at the Option of the Surveyor or Surveyors, pay in lieu of every Day's Statute Duty, for every Twenty Shillings of the actual annual Value of the Lands, Tenements, Woods, Tithes and Hereditaments, which he or she shall respectively occupy, a Sum equal to One Fifth Part of the Sum fixed by the Justices, at the time and in the manner by this Act directed, as the Competition for One Day's Labour of a Cart, Wain or Carriage, furnished with Three Horses and Two able Men, constituting any fractional Part of the said Sum which does not amount to One Farthing: And the said Sum or Sums shall be paid in the same manner, Performance of Statute Duty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall refuse or neglect to perform any Part of their Statute Duty in Kind, on being regularly summoned by the Surveyor for that Purpose, shall forfeit and pay a Sum equal to Twice the Amount of the Composition for such Statute Duty as they shall have so neglected or refused to perform, according to the Rates fixed by the Justices under the Provisions of this Act; and the said Persons shall also be liable to perform the said Statute Duty which they have so neglected or refused to perform, either in the same or in the following Year; the Payment of such Forfeitures, and the Amounts of such Statute Duty, to be collected and applied to the Benefit of the Highway or Turnpike Road, in the same manner as, to which the original neglected Duty was due or owing, by the Surveyor or Surveyors for the time being, and under the same Regulations and in the same manner as other Forfeitures may be levied, and Statute Duty may in other cases be enforced by any of the Provisions of any of the said heretofore enacted Acts.

Justice of Peace, &c. in Districts.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace and Magistrates of all Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, Precincts, Liberties and other separate Jurisdictions, are hereby authorized and required to put in Execution every Part of this Act within their respective Jurisdictions, so far as the Provisions thereof are applicable, in as full and ample a manner as the Justices of any County or of any Division thereof.

Not to alter former Acts but where expressly amended.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall alter the several heretofore enacted Acts, nor any Act or Acts passed subsequently to the said heretofore enacted Acts, regarding the Highways or Turnpike Roads in England and Wales; but that the same, where not expressly amended or altered by this Act, shall remain in as full force as at the time of passing this Act; and that all their Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Regulations and Forms, shall be applicable, not only to the carrying those Acts respectively into Execution, but also this Act, so far as the same are adapted thereto, and are not expressly varied or altered by this Act, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been re-enacted in this Act.

An Act to prevent the Embezzlement of certain Property belonging to the Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, and to amend so much of an Act of the Parliament of Ireland of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty as relates to Payments to Out Pensioners of the said Hospital residing in Ireland. [23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS several of the Pensioners and Nurses in the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, have of late passed or otherwise disposed of the Clothes, Laces, Shoes and other Goods delivered to them to wear or use, and it is expedient to prevent such Practices in future: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners and Governors of the said Royal Hospital, their Successors and Assigns, shall or may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cause the Clothes, Laces, Shoes and other Articles capable of being marked, from time to time, belonging to the said Hospital, to be marked, stamped or branded with an Anchor surmounted with a Naval Crown, with Two Pins over the Crown, and the Letter G. on the one Side of such Device, and the Letter H. on the other Side thereof; and that if any Pensioner or Nurse or Person shall take in pawn, buy, exchange or receive any Clothes, Laces or other Goods marked, stamped or branded as aforesaid, from any Person or Persons upon any Account or Pretence whatever (such Mark, Stamp or Brand thereon to be considered and taken to be sufficient Evidence without further Proof of the Right of Property in the said Commissioners and Governors), or shall cause such Mark or Stamp, Marks or Stamps to be taken out, obliterated or defaced, the Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, upon Conviction thereof, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County wherein the said Offence or Offences shall be committed, which Penalty shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chances of the said Offender or Offenders, one Money of which said Penalty or Penalties shall be paid to the Informer or Informers, and the other Money shall go and be paid to the Use of the said Hospital; and in case any such Offender or Offenders, who shall be convicted as aforesaid of having bought, exchanged, received or taken in pawn any such Clothes, Laces or other Goods as aforesaid, or of having caused such Mark or Stamp, Marks or Stamps as aforesaid, to be taken out or defaced, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chances wherein Distress may be made to the Value of the said Penalty recovered against him, her or them for such Offence or Offences, or shall not pay such Penalty or Penalties within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, either to commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Goal of the County where such Offence or Offences shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Three Calendar Months; and that if any Pensioner or Nurse of the said Hospital shall desert or run away from the same, and carry away with him any Clothes, Laces or other Goods belonging to the said Hospital, such Person or Persons being lawfully convicted thereof, by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, shall be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction of the Town, City or County where he, she or they shall be apprehended, for the Space of Six Calendar Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

* H. And

* II. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen and Marines employed in the Royal Navy, by 33 G. 3. (1) enabling it more fully to Pay Officers and Seamen, Non Commissioned Officers of Marines and Marines, to remit their Wages in this Kingdom, and by providing for the Payment in this Kingdom of the Wages due to § 3. deserted Officers, Seamen and Marines as aforesaid, Provision was made for enabling Seamen resident in § 3. this Kingdom to receive Out Pensions granted to them by the said Commissioners or Governors of the said § 3. Hospital, and for preventing Friends and Abolish attending the same, which has not been found effectual for § 3. the Attainment of the good Purposes intended thereby; Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the § 3. said intitled Act as relates to any Provision or Provisions for enabling Seamen resident in that Part of the § 3. United Kingdom called Ireland, to receive Out Pensions granted to them by the said Commissioners and § 3. Governors of the said Hospital, and for preventing Friends and Abolish attending the same, shall be extended, mutatis,

III. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the said Hospital for the time being, or his Deputy, legally authorized, full, whole and as often as Occasion shall require, make out or cause to be made out, Two Certificates for any Out Pensions granted by the said Commissioners and Government to Bonaes residing in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, which Certificates shall be Duplicates and joined together with Allegiance Lines, Flourishes or Devices, and numbered, dated and signed by the said Treasurer or his Deputy, or his First Clerk, and attested by the Steward of the said Hospital, or his First Clerk, or the Clerk of the Chancery of the said Hospital, or his First Clerk, and addressed to the Collector of the District in Ireland in which the Person named in the Certificate as Out Pensioner shall reside, and shall be written or printed in the Form or in the Effect (set forth in the Schedule to this A.9. marked (A-), one of which Certificates shall be transmitted to the Person named therein as an Out Pensioner of the said Hospital, and the other shall be transmitted to the Collector to whom the same shall be addressed, and upon the Duplicate of such Certificate being produced and delivered to such Collector by the Person entitled, or claiming to be entitled to receive the Money therein mentioned, such Collector shall examine the said Duplicate and enquire into the Truth thereof, by the Oath of the Person producing the same (which Oath such Collector is hereby empowered and directed to administer), and being duly satisfied of the Truth thereof, he shall immediately, without Fee or Reward on any Proviso whatever, pay to the Person specified in such Certificate, the Sum mentioned therein, taking his Receipt as the Bank thereof for the same: Provided always, that the Claim upon or on account of such Duplicate shall be made to the Collector within Nine Calendar Months from the Date thereof, and in case the Duplicate of such Certificate shall not be produced and delivered, and the Payment of the Money therein mentioned be so demanded within Nine Calendar Months from the Date thereof, then the Collector shall transmit the Certificate to the Treasurer of the said Hospital at Greenwich.

IV. Provided always, and he it enacted, That if any Collector to whom the Duplicate of any such Certificate shall be tendered as heretofore mentioned, in order to receive Payment of the Money therein mentioned, shall not have in his Hands Public Money sufficient to make the same, or shall refuse or delay immediate Payment thereof, such Collector shall endorse on the Back of the Duplicate of such Certificate, the Day of its being tendered to him, and the Cause of his Refusal or Delay to pay the same; and shall appear thereon for Payment of such Certificate four future Days, within the Space of One Month at furthest. If on the Day of its being presented to him; such Duplicate, with the Endorsement thereon, shall immediately be delivered back to the Person presenting the same; and if on Complaint made to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, who, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized to hear and determine the same, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, that any such Collector hath unconsciously or wilfully refused or delayed Payment of such Certificate as aforesaid, the same having been presented to him, or that such Collector, or any Person employed by or under him, hath directly or indirectly received or taken any Fee, Gratuity, Discount, or Deduction whatever, on account of Payment of such Money, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to fine such Collector in a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds; which Fine shall be recovered and held as such and the same manner as any Penalty for any Offence against any Law by which any Duties of Customs or Excise is imposed or levied in Ireland; and the said Fine, when recovered, shall be paid to the Informer or Informers against such Offender or Offenders.

W. And be it enacted, That every Collector who shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Person entitled to receive the same in pursuance of this Act, shall return the Duplicate on which the Acknowledgment of the Receipt of such Money shall be indorsed, to the nearest Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue, who shall once in every Quarter of a Year cause a Certificate to be given to each Collector, specifying the Amount of the Money appearing by such Receipts to have been in pursuance of this Act, by each Collector paid within each Quarter; and every such Collector shall be entitled by the said Commissioners for the Payment of such Money, in like manner as if the same had been advanced and paid, in pursuance of the Orders of the said Commissioners, for any other Purposes for which they are entitled to issue Orders for Collectors for the Payment of Money.

VI. And he further covenants, That whenever he shall, or knowingly shall profess or falsely affirm the Name or Character of, or procure any other to profess or falsely to affirm the Name or Character of any Person to whom any such Certificate as aforesaid shall have been granted, in order to receive the Money mentioned in it, he, the Certificatee, or shall wilfully and knowingly ascertain or falsely affirm the Name or Character of, or procure any other to profess or falsely to affirm the Name or Character of any Person, in order to receive any Money due or supposed to be due from, or on account of any One Person created by the said Statute; or shall force, or cause, or procure to be forced or counterfeited, any Bell, Certificate, Letter of Attorney, Ticket, Certificate, Assignment, Ind Will or any other Power or Authority, or other

An Act to amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland.

[23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for every Person who shall be a Prisoner in any Prison in Ireland, upon any Process whatsoever, arising from any Court whatsoever, for, or by reason of any Debt, Discharge, Cedit, Sum or Sum of Money, or Costs for Nonpayment of Money, and who shall have been in Custody upon some Process for some or one of the said Debts or Demands, during the Space of Three Calendar Months or more, to apply by Petition to a Judge in a summary way to the Court from whence such Process issued, for his or her Discharge from such Confession, according to the Provisions of the said recited Act: And it is also by the said recited Act enacted, that if any Person shall be confined under the Process of Two or more Courts, then if any one of the said Courts shall be one of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Ireland, such Petition shall be preferred to such Court; and if all such Courts, or any Two or more of them, shall be such Superior Courts, then and in such case such Petition shall be preferred to such of the said Superior Courts under which Process such Person shall have been first detained in Custody; and if all the said Courts shall be inferior Courts, then if such Petitioner shall be detained in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, such Petition shall be preferred to the Court of Common Pleas; and if to any other Part of Ireland, then such Petition shall also be addressed to the said Court of Common Pleas: That, with Power to the said Court either to proceed on such Petition or to give Authority to the Judge or Judge of Assize for the County, County of a City or County of a Town in which any such Prisoner shall be detained, to proceed as in the said Act is mentioned: And it is further enacted, that in case the Court to whom any Prisoner shall apply to be discharged, according to the Direction of the said recited Act, shall be of Opinion that such Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of the said Act, then and in such case the said Court shall so order and adjudge: And Whereas in the said recited Act divers Clauses and Provisions are contained, for empowering the said Courts respectively to whom any such Prisoners shall apply to be discharged, to give Judgment, and to make divers Orders, and to do divers Matters and Things with respect to the Discharge of all Prisoners so applying, and with respect to the Assignment and Application of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoners, as in the said recited Act is fully and at large mentioned and set forth: And Whereas it is expedient, that any one Judge of any Court in Ireland, to whom any Prisoner shall apply to be discharged under the Provisions of the said recited Act, should have Power to receive the Petition, and to direct the Discharge of such Prisoners, and to do all such other Matters and Things respecting the discharging or remanding of any such Prisoner, as by the said recited Act the Court to which such Prisoner shall apply is empowered to do, provided such Prisoner shall not have had an Opportunity of applying to such Court: Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for every Person who shall be a Prisoner in any Prison in Ireland, upon any Process whatsoever, issuing from any Court whatsoever, for or by virtue of any Debt, Damage, Costs, Sum or Sum of Money, or Contempt for Nonpayment of Money, and who shall have been in Custody upon some Process for some or one of the said Debts or Damages, during the Space of Three Calendar Months or more, and who shall not have been so in Custody as aforesaid to enable him or her to apply by Petition to the Court, in Term Time, to apply in Vacation to any Judge of such Court by Petition; and it shall be lawful for such Judge in Vacation Time to receive such Petition, and any Schedule annexed thereto, and to proceed in hearing the Matter of such Petition, and to pronounce any such Judgment, and to make all such Orders, and to give all such Directions, and to do all such other Matters and Things requisite for the discharging or remanding of such Prisoner, and for the Assignment and Application of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner; and such Judge shall have such Power to discharge or to remand such Prisoner, and in all other respects to act and do, with respect to such Prisoner, and with respect to the Petition of such Prisoner, and the Matter of the same, and with respect to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, and with respect to the Creditors of such Prisoner, as such Court could or might do under or by virtue of the said recited Act, if such Prisoner had been presented to such Court in open Court, during the Sitting of the said Court; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Judgments, Orders, Directions, Assignments, Acts, Matters and Things, for or relating to the discharging or remanding of any such Prisoner, to make, give, take or do by such Judge, shall be as good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Judgments, Orders, Directions, Proceedings, Acts, Matters and Things had been done by the said Court, in open Court, during the Sitting of the said Court, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

II. And Whereas Persons claiming the Benefit of the said Act or this Act, may be liable to be deprived of such Benefit on account of some Matters of Fact or Errors or Omissions in their Petition, Schedules or other Proceedings directed by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court or Judge to whom any Prisoner shall apply under the said recited Act or this Act, to be discharged under the Provisions of the said Act or this Act, to amend all Matters of Fact, and to supply any Omissions, and to correct any Errors in the Petition, Schedules or other Proceedings directed by the said recited Act or this Act, in case the same shall appear in the said Court or Judge to have arisen from Ignorance, Mistake or Inadvertency, and not to have been wilful or fraudulent; any thing in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Prisoner who shall have been discharged or remanded under or by virtue of an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for the Relief and Maintenance of Insolvent Debtors detained in Prison, or of an Act made in the Fifth [c] Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to amend and amend the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, shall present a Petition to any Court or Judge, for the Purpose of taking the Benefit of the said recited Act of last Session of Parliament, or this Act; it shall and may be lawful for such Court or Judge to remove such Petition and any Schedule annexed thereto, and to discharge such Prisoner, in case such Court or Judge shall think fit so to do, upon his conforming to the Directions of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or this Act; although such Prisoner may have been discharged or remanded under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Thirty seventh and Thirtieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, at any time within the Period of Five Years previous to the presenting such Petition by such Prisoner, under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or this Act; any thing in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. II. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and all the Matters and Provisions hereinafter contained, shall commence and take Effect from and immediately after the said time of the Repeal of the said former Acts and not sooner.

III. And be it enacted, That, for the more easy Recovery of Wages which shall or may remain due, after the Commencement of this Act, or which shall become due to any Labourer, Artificer or Servant in Ireland, whose Demand shall not exceed the Sum of Six Pounds, he shall and may be lawful for any one Justice of the Peace of the County in Ireland, where the Person or Persons, or any of the Persons alleged to owe the same, shall reside, and for every Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate in Ireland, within his Jurisdiction, and they are hereby empowered and required, upon the Complaint of any such Labourer, Artificer or Servant, that he or she have been refused Payment of, or cannot receive his or her Wages due to him or her, to issue his Summons in Writing to such Person or Persons so alleged to owe such Wages, or to any of them (not being a Peer or Peers), to appear before him; in which Summons the Sum demanded, and also the Place and Time for such Person's Appearance, shall be expressed; and upon such Person or Persons so summoned appearing accordingly, or in case the said Person or Persons so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear, according to such Summons, that then upon Proof on Oath, that the said Summons was delivered to the said Person or Persons, or to any of them, or to his, her or their Son, Daughters or Moral Servant of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards at such Person's usual Place of Abode, such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate is hereby authorized and empowered to proceed to the hearing and determining of the said Demand, as well by the examining such Witnesses or Witnesses as shall appear before him, upon Oath, as by all other legal ways; and if necessary, by Examination of the Party or Parties complaining or complained against, or their respective Oaths, and to determine, order and adjudge whether any thing and how much shall be paid by the said Person or Persons to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer; and if such Person or Persons shall not pay the Sum which such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate shall so adjudge to be due to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, either immediately or within such time as the said Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate shall direct, not exceeding Ten Days, then the said Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate is hereby required and empowered, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, at the Instance of such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, directed to any Constable or Constables of such County, City or Town, to levy so much as shall be so ordered and adjudged due to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons so refusing or omitting to pay the same, according to the Determination of the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, rendering the Overplus (if any there be) to such Person or Persons: Provided always, that if reasonable Excuse on Oath, for the Non attendance of any Person so summoned, shall be made to the Satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, then and in any such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Magistrate to postpone the Hearing of such Complaint to such farther time, and to such Place as he shall think proper, and to take a new Summons for such time and Place accordingly.

IV. And it is hereby declared, That all Persons not being Artificers or Servants, who shall be employed to do any Species of Work or Labour whatsoever for Hire, shall be deemed and taken to be Labourers within the true Inten and Meaning of this Act, and shall be entitled to recover Wages, as such, under and according to the Regulations aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, that such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, has been, or is likely to be deprived from his or her Home or usual Place of Residence, by reason of the Nonpayment of any Wages which such Justice or Magistrate shall so adjudge to be due, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, to order and adjudge that there be paid to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, not only the Sum so due for Wages as aforesaid, but also such further Sum, for the time passing which such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, shall have been there so deprived from his usual Place of Residence, as such Justice or Magistrate shall think and adjudge to be reasonable, having regard to the Length of such Detention, the Diligence or Remissness of either Party, the usual Wages of such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, and the Wages which, within the time of such Detention, such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, did earn, or under all the circumstances of the case might have earned; and also a reasonable Sum by the Day, to be estimated in like manner, until such Wages so adjudged to be due shall be recovered as aforesaid, or otherwise paid; so as such additional Sum or Sum so ordered and adjudged do not exceed the Sum of Two Pounds.

VI. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for either Party to appeal to the next Quarter Sessions for the County, City or Place where such Order shall be made; which Quarter Sessions shall readily determine the same, and shall have Power thence to give and award such Costs, and also such Compensation for such Detention as aforesaid, as may have taken place subsequent to the Order so appealed from, in such Court or Quarter Sessions shall adjudge reasonable, not exceeding Ten Pounds, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale as aforesaid.

Stamp shall be estimated in Irish Currency, and the Stamp Duty on such Bank Note, Bank Post Bill, Foreign or Inland Bill of Exchange, or Promissory or other Note, Draft or Order, shall be ascertained and imposed accordingly.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where by the said recited Act (a) or the Schedule thereto annexed, any Stamp Duty under the Sum of Six pence, or between the Sum of Six pence and One Shilling, is directed to be ascertained by the Amount of any Sum as aforesaid wherof, or with relation whereto any such Stamp Duty is imposed, such Sum shall be estimated in Irish Currency, and such Stamp Duty under the Sum of Six pence, or between the Sum of Six pence and One Shilling, shall be ascertained and imposed accordingly.

(a) [52 G. 3. c. 37. § 1.]

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Bank Notes, Bank Post Bills, and Foreign or Inland Bills of Exchange, and Promissory or other Notes, Drafts or Orders, drawn on or made payable by any Banker or Bankers in Ireland, being written or printed on any Paper stamped with a Stamp of like Amount (that the same ought to be according to this Act, which shall bear Date or which shall be issued in Ireland, at any time after the passing of this Act, or which shall bear Date at any time before the passing of this Act, but shall not have been actually issued before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be absolutely null and void, and shall not be issued or aliable, or negotiable, or transmissible to any Person or Persons whatsoever; and that no such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, which shall bear Date at any time before the passing of this Act, and which shall have been actually issued before the passing of this Act, shall at any time after the passing of this Act be re-issued or re-aliable, nor shall be negotiated or transferred, or negotiable or transmissible, by or on behalf of the Banker or Bankers who originally issued the same, or by or on behalf of any other Person or Persons whatsoever, at any time after such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, shall come or shall have come into the Hands, Custody or Possession of such Banker or Bankers, after the passing of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Banker or Bankers, or Person or Persons, who shall issue or receive, or cause to be issued or received, any Bank Note or Bank Post Bill, or any Foreign or Inland Bill of Exchange, or Promissory or other Note, Draft or Order, contrary to the Direction of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds Irish Currency, for every such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, so issued or received contrary to this Act; and that any Person or Persons who shall give or take in Payment, any Note, Bill, Draft or Order, which shall be or shall have been issued or received contrary to the Direction of this Act, shall forfeit double the Amount of the Sum expressed in any such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, respectively, to any Person who shall sue for the same; and that the several Penalties and Forfeitures aforesaid shall be recovered before any one Justice of the Peace in Ireland, upon the Oath of One credible Witness, or on the Certificate of such Offender; and in case the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall not be paid and satisfied upon such Certificate being made, it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Certificate and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner; and if such Offender shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels to satisfy such Penalties, every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction, by Warrant of such Justice, for any time not less than One Calendar Month nor more than Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be sooner paid or satisfied.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Stamps by this Act granted and made payable, shall and may be collected, raised, levied, recovered and applied under and by virtue of all the Powers and Privileges, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the Collection and Management of the Stamp Duties in Ireland; and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties (b), in full and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers and Privileges, Penalties and Forfeitures, had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act, so far as relates to the Duties granted and made payable by this Act, except only in so far as the said Act is altered or amended by this Act. (b) [See c. 52 § 1. ante.]

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty of One Penny imposed by the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year (c) of His present Majesty's Reign upon any daily Account or daily Bill of Goods imported into or exported from Ireland, or Abstract thereof included in or with any other Publication, or upon any Account or Bill of Goods imported into or exported from Ireland, printed or published daily, weekly, monthly or at any other time or times, as Accounts or Abstracts of Accounts of such Goods, for each Day's Account contained therein, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be paid and payable upon each and every Account or Bill of Goods imported into or exported from Ireland, and upon each and every Abstract, whether the same be printed or published separately or included in or with any other Publication, and in Proportion to the Number of Days' Accounts or Abstracts of Days' Accounts contained in such Publications, for each and every of such Publications, except the same be published by the Person or Persons authorized thereto by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

C A P. CXX.

An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland.

[23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend several Acts relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from the Commencement of this Act, all and every the Clauses, Provisions and Regulations contained in Two several Acts, one made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for making perpetual several Acts for the better Collection and Security of the Revenue of Customs and Excise in Ireland, and for preserving Friends thereof; and to make further Provision for the Security of the said Revenue, and for the Execution of the several Acts relating thereto; and the other made in the Forty ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to make further Provision for the Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, which in any manner relate to or concern the Proceedings to or in the Trial of any Complaint or Information before the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, or the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, and their Sub Commissioners respectively, for any Offence against any Act or Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners respectively, or to the Adjournment of the Trial of any such Complaint or Information, or to the bringing, filing or exhibiting of any such Complaint or Information, or to the discharge of the same, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that every such Complaint or Information, and all Matters relating thereto, shall and may be exhibited, proceeded upon, heard, tried and determined under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the passing of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, and as if the said recited Acts of the Forty eighth and Forty ninth Years aforesaid, or either of them, had not been made.

Provisions of 43 G. 3. c. 18. and 49 G. 3. c. 18. relating to the Commission before Commissioners of Customs, &amp;c. for Offences against the Revenue Laws repealed.

Complaints, &amp;c. now exhibited, &amp;c.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to alter or repeal so much of the said recited Act of the Forty ninth Year (a) aforesaid, as relates to or concerns any Officer sitting or acting as a Sub Commissioner in any Cause wherein he is interested, or as provides that whenever by any Act or Acts it or shall be required that any Claim, Entry or other Proceeding shall be made, filed or entered, or had in or at the Excise Office of the District relative to any Matter or Thing whatsoever, every such Claim, Entry or other Proceeding which shall relate to Shipping or Navigation, or to any Matters or Things under the Management and Jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, shall be made, filed, entered or had in the Office of the Collector of the Customs of the Port or District instead of the Excise Office of such District. (a) [49 G. 3. c. 116. § 3. 6.]

Officers may act as Sub Commissioners, and in Proceedings relating to Shipping, Entry made in Customs in Bond of Excise.

III. And Whereas under and by virtue of certain Provisions contained in certain Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, relating to the Revenue of Excise, various Documents, Matters and Things are directed and required to be signed, done, executed or performed by Four or more of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and certain of the said Documents, Acts, Matters or Things to be witnessed by the Secretary to the Commissioners of Excise, and which Provisions have produced Inconvenience, and it is expedient to remedy the same; Be it therefore enacted, That all and every Document, Act, Matter or Documents &amp;c. by Three Commissioners instead of Four being legal, and need not be witnessed by Secretary.

Thing relating to the Revenue of Excise or Taxes which shall be signed, done, executed or performed respectively by any Three of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes for the time being, shall be held and considered as legal, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and without the same being witnessed by the Secretary to the Commissioners of Excise; any thing contained in any Act or Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, a Bill not be lawful for any Officer of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise to ask, demand or receive any Fee or Reward for granting or issuing of any Permit for the Conveyance and Protection of any Excisable Goods in Ireland, nor shall any Fee or Reward be payable for the same; any thing in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for better regulating the giving and granting of Permits and Certificates for the Conveyance and Protection of certain Excisable Goods therein mentioned, and to prevent Frauds by Dealers in or Retailers of such Goods, or in and by any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Certificate of any Importing Merchant for any Goods whatever which such Importing Merchant shall fill to any Person or Persons residing within the same Port or Place, where such Merchant may have imported such Goods, shall not have any Effect to prevent any Goods within such Port or Place, or to prevent the Necessity of a Permit or Permits for the Removal of such Goods within such Port or Place, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that a proper Permit or Permits shall be taken out for the Removal of such Goods; any thing in this Act or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall effect or take away the Right of prosecuting, suing for, recovering and keeping any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, which shall or may have been incurred under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year aforesaid, or in respect of any such Certificate which shall have been given on or before the Commencement of this Act.

VI. And Whereas by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for the better Collection of the Duties on Hides and Skins tanned or dressed in Oil, and on Fellen and Parchment made in Ireland, and for preventing Frauds on His Majesty's Revenue therein, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no Licence shall be granted to keep a Tan Yard or Tan Pit, or to use Leather with Bark, unless the Person requiring the same shall with Two sufficient Sureties have executed a Bond to His Majesty in a penal Sum above the Rate of Fifty Pounds for every One hundred Cubic Feet of the Pitt or Vats in the Tan Yard of such Person chargeable under the said Act, conditioned to pay all such Sums of Money as by virtue of the said Act or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, such Taxator should be charged with, and also to pay and satisfy all Penalties to which such Taxator should be liable under the said Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland: And Whereas it is not expedient to require Taxators to give Security to the Amount as directed by the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, instead of the Security by the said Act is required, every Taxator shall be bound to execute a Bond to His Majesty in the Penal Sum of Fifty Pounds for every One thousand Cubic Feet of the Pitt or Vats in the Tan Yard of such Person, and so in Proportion for any Quantity or less Number of Cubic Feet of the Pitt or Vats in such Tan Yard, conditioned to pay all Sums and Sums of Money as by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force in Ireland, such Taxator shall be charged or chargeable with, and also to pay and satisfy all Penalties which such Taxator shall be liable to, under any Act or Acts in force, or which shall hereafter be in force in Ireland; and no Licence shall be granted to keep a Tan Yard or Tan Pit, or to use Leather with Bark unless the Person requiring the same shall with Two sufficient Sureties have executed such Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

VII. And Whereas by the said last recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, it is, amongst other things, directed, that the Drawback of any of the Duties chargeable on Hides and Skins and Fellers of Hides and Skins tanned in Ireland, or any Manufacture of such tanned Hides or Skins, or any Hides or Skins dressed in Oil in Ireland, or any Manufacture thereof, or on any Vellum or Parchment made in Ireland, which shall be exported when allowed, shall be paid by the Collector of the Port from which such Goods shall be exported: And Whereas it is expedient that such Drawback should be paid by the Collector of Excise, and not by the Collector of the Port: Be it therefore enacted, that all such Drawbacks when allowed shall be paid by the Collector of Inland Excise and Taxes of the District from which such Goods shall have been or shall be exported under such Rules and Regulations as are by Law required in case of Drawbacks on the Exportation of Goods in respect of any internal Duty of Excise paid thereon.

VIII. And for the better preventing the Use of raw or unseasoned Corn by Brewers in Ireland, be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Brewer to have in his or her Brewery, or in any Part of the Premises connected with his or her Brewery, any raw or unseasoned kiln-dried Barley or Brew mased or unseasoned with any other Corn or Grain malted or unseasoned; and that all raw or unseasoned kiln-dried Barley or Brew mased or unseasoned with any other Corn or Grain malted or unseasoned, which shall be found in such Brewery or Premises, together with all Stocks, Vessels or Packages, in which such raw or unseasoned kiln-dried Barley or Brew mased or unseasoned with any other Corn or Grain malted or unseasoned shall be contained, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise or Customs.

IX. And for the further preventing the Use of raw or unseasoned Corn, and of any deleterious or unwholesome Ingredients by Brewers in Ireland, be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Licence shall be granted to any Person in Ireland to brew Strong Beer, Porter or Ale, or Small Beer, for Sale, unless in the Bond required to be entered into by such Brewer under and by virtue of an Act made in the First seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to secure the Payment of the Duty on Licences granted to Persons in Ireland dealing in Excisable Commodities, there be inserted a Condition that such Brewer shall not use any raw or unseasoned Corn (s) nor any Vitriol, Quassia, Cocculus Indicus, Genoa of Paradise, Guinea Pepper, Opium or any other Ingredient whatsoever, which shall possess any deleterious or unwholesome Quality, in brewing any Strong Beer, Porter, Ale or Small Beer; and that no such Licence shall be granted to any Person in Ireland, unless and until the Person or Persons to whom or on whose behalf such Licence shall be granted, or some one of them, being the said Person or Persons concerned in the Brewery for which such Licence shall be granted, shall make and sign an Affidavit, or being a Quaker or Quakers, shall solemnly affirm in the Presence of the Collector of Excise of the District, who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Affidavit or Affirmation in the Form or to the Effect following; that is to say,

I A. B., on whose behalf and for whose Use, [together with C. D. at others, if there are two or more Partners] a Licence is required to brew Strong Beer, Porter or Ale, [or Small Beer, as the case may be] for Sale at _____ in the County [or City] of _____ do hereby solemnly swear, [or affirm,] That I will not directly or indirectly make or permit or suffer, or be Party or party to the making, or permitting or suffering any raw Corn, or Corn not washed, and not having been charged with the Duty on Malt made in Ireland, nor any Vitriol, Quassia, Cocculus Indicus, Genoa of Paradise, Guinea Pepper, Opium, or any other Ingredient whatsoever, which shall possess any deleterious or unwholesome Quality, to be used in the brewing or making of any Beer, Ale or Porter, or Small Beer, or in the making or preparing of any Liquor to mix with or to be mixed with, or to be used, sold or disposed of, or delivered as or for Beer, Ale, Porter or Small Beer; and that I will not sell, dispose of, send or deliver, or cause to be sold, disposed of, sent or delivered to any Person or Persons whatsoever, as or for Beer, Porter, Ale or Small Beer any Liquor made or prepared from raw Corn, or Corn not washed, and not having been charged with the Duty on Malt made in Ireland, or in the making whereof any such raw Corn, or Corn not washed, or any such Vitriol, Quassia, Cocculus Indicus, Genoa of Paradise, Guinea Pepper, Opium, or any other Ingredient whatsoever shall possess any deleterious or unwholesome Quality, shall have been any way used; and that I will not cause or permit or suffer, or be Party or party to the making, permitting or suffering any raw or unseasoned Corn, ground or crushed, or any Vitriol, Quassia, Cocculus Indicus, Genoa of Paradise, Guinea Pepper, Opium, or other deleterious or unwholesome Ingredient to be brought into or kept in the Brewery or Premises at the said Place; and I do hereby also solemnly swear, [or affirm,] That no other Person or Persons be or are concerned or engaged in the said Brewery as Partners with, [except the said C. D. at others, as the case may be.]

Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to refer to the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland for the time being, the case of any Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, who shall have held or shall hold any Office, whether by Patent or otherwise, any way relating to His Majesty's Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or who shall have been or shall be employed in the Service of the said Customs at any Port in Ireland, who may have falsified or may falsify any List by the withholding of Fees under or in consequence of the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and who shall claim, or in the Judgment of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, or of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, shall be entitled to claim or recover any Compensation for such List under or by virtue of the said last recited Act; and upon such Reference it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties for the time being to proceed, and such Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties are hereby authorized, empowered and required to proceed, as soon as may be after such Reference, to enquire into and investigate the Amount of Fees received by or on behalf of any such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, or his Predecessor, during each Period of years as shall be described in such Reference, and to examine on Oath such Patentee, or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and his or their Deputy or Deputies, if any, and also any other Person or Persons whatever, respecting the Amount of such Fees, and respecting the Duty required to be performed by such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and respecting any other Matter and Things whatever, which shall be referred to such Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties by such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors relating to or concerning such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and the Office held by him, and the Compensation which he shall claim; and the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties shall, from time to time without Delay, report to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, the Particulars of such Investigation, and the Opinion of the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties on every such case so referred to them in respect to the Matters and Things referred to be required into and investigated, together with such Observations as shall occur to them the said Commissioners, with respect to the Claims of such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person respectively, or to the Office held by such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person respectively; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to make any Order respecting such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and respecting the Office or Employment held by him, and the Compensation to be paid to him as upon the Report of the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties shall, by such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, be thought requisite and necessary; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, to pay or cause to be paid to every such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, by way of Compensation for his Loss of Fees, Perquisites and Gratuities under the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, any such Sum of Money, and to any such Amount annually, not exceeding the Amount which shall be reported by the said Commissioners, as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being shall direct, under his or their Sign Manual, countersigned by Three or more of the Commissioners for returning the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland; and every such annual Payment by way of Compensation shall commence from the Day whereon the Person for whom the same shall be directed shall have ceased to take any Fee, Perquisite, Gratuity or Reward, and shall continue during the Continuance of the Patent of any Patentee Officer, and during the time which any Officer or Person, not being a Patentee, shall continue to hold the Office or Employment, in respect of which such Payment by way of Compensation shall be directed as aforesaid: Provided always, that the Compensation to be made or allowed to any such Officer shall be made and allowed in respect of the Amount of any Fees received by such Officer in any such Period before the passing the said Act of the Forty eighth Year as shall be specified in such Reference of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and not under any Petition in respect of the Amount of Fees received by such Officer in any Year subsequent to the passing of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year; and provided also, that no Compensation shall be made or allowed to any such Officer in respect of any Sum or Sums of Money paid or allowed by any such Officer to any Deputy or Deputies, but only in respect of the clear Emoluments of such Office received by such Officer after the Payment of any such Deputy or Deputies.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Distiller in Ireland, within any Period of Four Weeks during which such Distiller shall work or shall be chargeable as working any Still or Stills, to charge any such Still or Stills with any greater Quantity of Low Wines or Baglages than such Distiller is or may be required to do within any such Period, by any Law in force at the time when such Distiller shall be so working or chargeable as working any such Still or Stills, or to make or distil in any such Still or Stills any greater Quantity of Spirits than such Distiller is or may be by Law chargeable with in respect of the Number of Gallons Content of such Still or Stills, and in respect of the Number of Charys of Baglages or Low Wines in such Still or Stills within each Period of Four Weeks; any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and that if any such Distiller shall within any such Period of Four Weeks charge any Still or Stills with any Quantity of Baglages or Low Wines than as aforesaid, or shall make or distil any greater Quantity of Spirits than as aforesaid, or if upon the Account taken by the Officer in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller of any Wels, Pot Ale or Baglages brewed or made, or found in such Distillery within such Period of Four Weeks, such Distiller shall be chargeable by Law with a greater Quantity of Spirits than as aforesaid, the Officer in Charge of such Distillery shall charge such Distiller with double Duty for every Gallon

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Distiller in Ireland to have or keep in his Distillery any Spirits of a Strength exceeding Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof, and that if any Spirits of a greater Strength than Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller, all such Spirits shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and that, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Strength of such Spirits, the Distiller shall, before he shall pump up or remove any Spirits from the Receiver or Kewmaw, or other Vessel or Vessels in which such Spirits are deposited, from the Still in the Distillery of such Distiller, give Notice so Writing Six Hours at the least to the Gauger or Officer in Charge of such Distillery of the time when such Spirits are to be pumped up or removed from such Receiver or other Vessel, which time shall be at some Hour between Seven in the Morning and Nine in the Evening, and such Officer shall attend accordingly at the time specified in such Notice, or within One Hour after, to gauge and ascertain the Strength of such Spirits, and shall take a true Gauge and try the Strength thereof, and shall call out and compare the same at the Strength of Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof, and shall keep an exact Account thereof by making Entries in the Stock Books and Minute Books of each Distiller of the Quantity and Strength of such Spirits, and of the time when the same were so gauged as aforesaid; and if any Spirits in the Distillery of any Distiller shall be pumped up or removed from any such Receiver or Receivers, or other Vessel, without such Notice having been first given as aforesaid, or before such Spirits shall have been so gauged by such Officer, the Distiller is whose Distillery such Offences shall be committed shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Spirits so pumped up or removed contrary to this Act shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise: Provided always, that in case such Spirits shall exceed such Strength of Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof by less than Three Degrees, such Spirits shall not be forfeited on account of such Excess of Strength; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and for recovered and applied to such manner and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such ways and methods, and according to such Rules and Directions as are appointed, directed and expressed for the recovery of any Penalties or Forfeitures to and by an Act made in Ireland, in the Tenthenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for settling the Excise or new Dues upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted; or in and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Kings, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Island Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were herein repeated and inserted, with the like remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved as in and by the said recited Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect from and after the Expiration of Our Calendar Month next after the passing thereof.

C A P. CXXI.

An Act to repeal the additional Duties of Excise on French Wine imported and on Spirits exported from the Warehouses; and authorizing the Repayment of the additional Duty in respect of French Wine found in Dealers' Stocks; and authorizing the Commissioners of Excise Duties to repay or remit Duties paid on Liqueurs lost by accidental Spilling before Landing.

‘WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the additional Duties and Drawback hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the additional Duty of Excise imposed and Drawback of the said additional Duty granted on French Wine, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled *An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain on Tobacco and Sugar, and on French Wines, and, from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, also the additional Duties of Excise imposed by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Kings, intituled *An Act for granting to His Majesty, until Twelfth Month after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, various additional Duties of Excise on Brandy in Great Britain, on Brandy, Rum, Spirits, Aqua Vite or Strong Waters duty wared for Exportation to any Port or Place, not being in Europe, from any Warehouse, Stockhouse, Vault, Cellar or other Place under the Locks of the Officers of Customs or Excise, or either of them, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; save and except as to all cases relating to the recovering or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may at any time remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which may have been incurred at any time before or on the said Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or before or on the said Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, as the case may require.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid to all Dealers in and Sellers of Foreign Wine in Great Britain, for every Gallon of such French Wine (reckoning Five repeated Quart Bottles to the Gallon for such French Wine as shall be in Bottles) for which the Duty hereby repealed shall have been paid, and which French Wine shall between the Fourth and the Twentieth Days of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be in the Stock, Custody or Possession of such Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine, an Allowance of Five Shillings: Provided always, nevertheless, that no Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine, shall be entitled to any Allowance for or in respect of any such French Wine, over and above the said additional Duty actually paid for or in respect of such French Wine, after the Deduction of any Allowance made or received by any Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine, for or by reason of any Payment of Duty in Advance under or by virtue of the said Act made in the last Session of Parliament: Provided also, that no Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine, shall here or be entitled to any such Allowance, unless he, she or they, shall within Three Weeks after the passing of this Act, give or leave a Notice and Declaration in Writing at the Chief Office of Excise in London,

An Act to alter the Mode of declaring the Value of Goods imported into or exported from Great Britain.

[23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the force of Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting relief to the Trade in and for the better regulation of the same, it was amongst other things, enacted, that where by the Schedule and Table diversities assessed the Duties of Customs by that Act imposed upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into and exported from Great Britain, are charged not according to the Weight, Value, Measure or Number, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be ascertained (except in such cases therein mentioned) by the Declaration of the Importer or Exporter, as the case may be, or his Agent or Factor, in the Manner and Form, and under all the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, to which the said Goods, Wares and Merchandise are or shall be subject, as are prescribed, directed and imposed, for the collecting the Duties to be paid according to the Value of Goods, Wares and Merchandise, by an Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the force of the Acts of Customs and Excise, and for granting relief to the Trade in and for the better regulation of the same, together with the other Duties compung the Public Revenue for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise, the Produce and Manufactures of the European Dominions of the French Republic in this Kingdom, and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer to the Payment of Arrears on Loans, in the Reduction of the National Debt, by which last recited Act it was enacted, that the Importer or Exporter, as the case may be, or his known Agent or Factor, shall make a Declaration of the Value of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise on the Warrant of the Entry thereof, to be subscribed with the Hand of the Importer, Exporter or Proprietor, as the case may be, or his Agent or Factor, in the Presence of Two of the principal Officers of the Customs of which the Case in question is to be tried, who are to certify the same under their Hands; and by several subsequent Acts of Parliament the Value of Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Great Britain is also directed to be ascertained in the manner provided by the said Act of the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: And Whereas great Inconvenience and Delay have been experienced by requiring the Declaration to be made in the Presence of and to be attested by the principal Officers of the Customs: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of any Act or Acts of Parliament as requires the Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, to declare the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, imported into or exported from Great Britain in the Presence of the principal Officers of the Customs, and so directs such Officers to certify the same under their Hands, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and, from and after the passing of this Act, where the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, subject to the Payment of any Duty of Customs on the Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain is required to be ascertained by the Declaration of the Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, the same shall be specified and expressed in Words at Length upon the Warrant or Bill of Entry, and be attested by the Signature of the Importer or Exporter of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, or by his known Agent or Factor, as the case may be, and the Value so specified and expressed in the Warrant or Bill of Entry shall to all Intents and Purposes whatever be of the same Force and Effect; and such Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, shall be in every respect bound thereby, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been as aforesaid ascertained by the Declaration of such Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, before the principal Officer of the Customs in the manner required by the Laws in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act; and in case the Value of the Goods, Wares or Merchandise so attested or declared on any such Entry shall be less than the true and real Value thereof at the Port of Importation or Exportation, as the case may be, the Goods, Wares or Merchandise may be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every respect in the manner preferred in such cases by the said recited Acts of the Twenty seventh and Forty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty;

 Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal or in any way alter the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign regarding Goods, Wares and Merchandise subject to Duty on Exportation, of which the real Value cannot be ascertained at the time of Entry, but the same, as well in regard to the Declaration before the principal Officers as in all other respects, shall remain in full Force and Effect.

II. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more correct Ascertainment of the Value of Duty-free Goods exported; it is, amongst other things, enacted, that on or before the Shipment of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the United Kingdom, not liable to Duty on Exportation from Great Britain, the Exporter or Proprietor shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Customs, a separate Bill, containing the true and accurate Specification of the Quantity, Quality and Value of all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, ascertained by the Declaration of such Exporter or Proprietor, or his known Agent or Factor, before the proper Officers of the Customs, in the same manner and form, and under the like Rules and Regulations as are preferred and directed by the said recited Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, with respect to Goods, Wares and Merchandise subject to the Payment of Duty upon being exported: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as requires the Exporter or Proprietor, or his known Agent or Factor, to subscribe the Declaration of the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise in the Presence of the principal Officers of the Customs, and so requires the said Officers to certify the same under their Hands, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and in lieu and instead of the Declaration required by the said recited Act, the Exporter or Proprietor of all Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the United Kingdom, not subject to Duty on Exportation, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Searcher or other proper Officer of the Customs a separate Shipping Bill, the Indorsement on which shall contain a true and accurate Specification of the Quantity, Quality and Value of all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, such Value being in Words at Length, attested by the Signature of the Exporter or Proprietor, or his known Agent or Factor, and such separate Shipping Bill is intended, assented and delivered shall have the same Force and Effect as the separate Bill and Declaration of the Value before the principal Officers required by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and shall be subject and liable to the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions in the said Act contained; and if the Exporter or Proprietor of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or his known Agent or Factor, shall not deliver the separate Shipping Bill so intended as aforesaid, or shall not produce the Invoice of  $\frac{1}{2}$  Bills of Lading, or shall knowingly make any false Specification or Abatement of the Value or Contents of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, either at the time of the said Entry, or after the same have been allowed to be Shipped for Exportation, every such Exporter, Agent or Factor, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be found for, recovered and applied in the same manner as any Forfeiture inflicted by the said recited Act may be found for, recovered and applied.

Manifests of Cargoes delivered to the Consols within a limited time.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Bills of Lading of such Ships and Vessels shall specify to pay the said Monies accordingly, under the Denomination of "Contribution as per Act of Parliament," or to that Effect; and the Persons paying the same shall be reimbursed by the Persons to whom the said Cargoes and Merchandises shall be consigned or who shall receive the same, or by their respective Freighters; and in case the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall neglect to specify the Payment of the said Monies in the Bill or Bills of Lading as aforesaid, he shall be answerable for the same.

Bills of Lading to specify Contribution, as per Act of Parliament. Master, &c. answerable.

V. And be it further enacted, for the better securing and collecting the Payment of the said Monies hereby directed to be levied for the Purposes aforesaid, That the Consol General or Consols for the time being within the Portuguese Dominions in South America and their Dependencies aforesaid, or the Person or Persons authorized by him or them respectively, shall, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required to detain the Clearances Outward, and all other Papers of all such British Ships and Vessels as aforesaid, and not to give or deliver any Dispatch or Passport for any such Ship or Vessel until Payment be made as required; and in case any Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel, in order to avoid the Payment of the said Monies, shall at any time think proper to depart without his said Clearances Outwards, in such case the said Consol General or Consols shall, upon the Return of the said Master or Commander to any Port of His Majesty's Dominions, have a just Action at Law against him or them for all the Money which by virtue of this Act ought to have been paid.

Consols may stop Clearances until Duty paid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Persons in the Portuguese Dominions in South America and their Dependencies liable to pay the Duties on Freight and Tonnage in pursuance of the Act before mentioned, commonly called The Portugal Contribution Act, for the Purposes aforesaid, shall, after Payment made of the Sums required by this Act, from time to time to be paid as aforesaid, be exempted and discharged from Payment of the said Duties for the future.

Former Duty is only on Payment of freight now required.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies to be raised or received by Authority of this Act, applicable to the Purposes of the said Contribution Fund, shall be applied in the several Ports and Places within the said Portuguese Dominions and their Dependencies in South America to all or any of the following Purposes; that is to say, to the Support and Subsistence of a Minister of the Established Church of England to preach, preach and exercise his Ministerial Functions there; to the Salary of a Judge Causa remota and of such Officers of his Court as may be deemed necessary by the Majority of the British resident Merchants as aforesaid as the Place, covered, assembled and provided as herein directed; to the Expenses of as Hospital and Medical Assistants; to the Relief of Supposedly Mariners and distressed Persons, His Majesty's Subjects, and to such other pious, charitable and public Uses as shall be ordered and directed by the Majority of resident British Merchants established on the Place, duly convened, assembled and provided, by the Consol General or Consols for the time being within the said Portuguese Dominions in South America and their Dependencies, or by the Person or Persons authorized by him or them respectively for that Purpose.

Application of Money raised.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Consol General or Consols for the time being in the said Portuguese Dominions in South America and their Dependencies, or the Person or Persons authorized by him or them respectively, shall, and be and they are hereby required and directed to pay over at least once in every Three Months Money collected and over to Governor every Three Months.

These Monies to the Treasurer of the said Contribution Fund, clothed and appointed in the manner herein directed, all such Sum or Sums of Money as he or they respectively may receive under this Act, applicable to the Purposes of the said Fund, and for which Payment or Payment from time to time made by the said Council General or Councils for the time being, or Persons or Persons authorized by him or them respectively, the Receipts or Receipts of the said Treasurer shall be a good and sufficient Discharge or Discharges.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Council General and Councils for the time being within the said Paragragh Division in Swiss Alliance and their Dependence, or the Persons or Persons authorized by him or them respectively, shall call and summon in each respective Part or Place within the said Division and their Dependence, some time in the Month of January of each Year, a General Meeting or Assembly of the Swiss Merchants residing and established in each Part or Place, at which Meetings or Assemblies the said Council General or Councils for the time being, or the Persons or Persons authorized by him or them respectively, shall preside, the Majority of which Meeting shall have Power to revise such Bye-Laws and Regulations for the good Management and Distribution of the said Contribution Fund, and for its due Application to the Purposes herein mentioned as may be deemed necessary, shall elect a Treasurer for the said Fund during the ensuing Year, and generally order and determine all Matters and Things relating to the Purposes.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be observed and taken in all Courts of Justice and otherwise to be a Public Act, and shall be taken Notice of as such without special pleading of the time; and if any Action shall be brought or Suit commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act or in relation to the Purposes, the Defendants or Defendants in such Action may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of the said Act; and if the same shall appear to have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become satisfied, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her or their Action or Actions, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have full Costs, and shall have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs in other cases by Law.

An Act to permit the Exportation to Foreign Parts from Scotland and Ireland of Linen Cloth, without Stamps. [23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, entitled An Act for better Regulation of the Linen and Hemp Manufactures in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, certain Rules and Regulations were established for encouraging and improving the said Manufactures, and in particular, Directions were thereby given for the marking and lapping any Manufacture made of Linen Yarn previous to the Sale of Exportation thereof; and certain Penalties were imposed upon the Sale, packing up for Sale, or Exportation of any such Goods not lapped and marked according to such Directions; and Penalties were also imposed on respect of any Officer against the said Act by the Lapper or Stamp Master not observing the Directions thereof: And Whereas by another Act made in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for explaining, amending and enforcing an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for better Regulation of the Linen and Hemp Manufactures in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for further regulating and encouraging the said Manufactures; it was enacted, that all Linen Cloth of the Manufacture of Ireland exported into or exposed to Sale in Scotland, which shall not have the Seals or Stamps of some Stamp Master appointed by the Trustees for the Linen Manufacture of Ireland affixed thereon, shall be forfeited, and shall be seized and sold in the same manner as is directed by the said Act with regard to such Linen of the Manufacture of Scotland as is exposed to Sale without being stamped; And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Acts should be repealed as to render legal the Exportation to Foreign Parts from Scotland and Ireland respectively of any Linen Cloth deprived of the Markings and Stamps directed by the before recited Acts to be affixed or put upon the Goods, and intended to be so exported: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons (any thing to the contrary in the said recited Acts notwithstanding) to export to Foreign Parts from any of the Parts of Scotland or Ireland, any Linen Cloth from which the Stamp may have been cut or taken, and to cut or take the Stamp therefrom for the Purpose of so exporting such Cloth to Foreign Parts, giving and referring always the Rights and Claims of all Persons concerned to any legal Business payable on or in respect of such Linen Cloth.

An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating the Foundling Hospital in Dublin. [23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, for better regulating the Foundling Hospital and Workhouse in the City of Dublin, and increasing the Fund for the Support thereof; it is, among other things, enacted, that all and every Poor Child and Children under the Age of Six Years, who shall be found or taken up within the said City and Liberties thereto adjoining, or sent to the Foundling Hospital, shall be received and kept therein

* or sent to reside therefrom : And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the said recited Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, it is, among other things, enacted, that, from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and Seventy-six, there shall not be received into the said Hospital or sent to reside therefrom any Child who shall appear to be above the Age of One Year old, upon any account whatsoever ; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding : And Whereas Diseases have arisen here for all Infants (not being of the Age of more than Twelve Months) presented at the said Hospital at all times of the Day and Night, and on all Days in the Year, are entitled to be received into the said Hospital : And Whereas the Number of Infants presented for Admission at the Hospital has of late Years considerably increased, and there is reason to believe that several of them are the Children of Parents in circumstances sufficient to enable them to maintain them, and it has been found that great Mortality has taken place among the Infants sent to the said Hospital, particularly during the Winter and Spring Months : For Remedy whereof, he it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governors of the said Hospital, or any Three or more of them, from time to time to make Orders for suspending and to suspend the Admission of Infants into the said Hospital for any Space or Period of time not exceeding Six Months in the whole in any one Year, and also to make Orders for refusing and to refuse admitting any Infant into the said Hospital at any time when the Person by whom such Infant is brought for Admission shall produce to some Officer of the said Hospital, to be nominated or appointed for that Purpose, a Certificate signed by the Minister and Churchwardens of the Parish from which such Infant is sent, setting forth that the said Minister and Churchwardens have made diligent Inquiry respecting the Birth and Parentage of such Child, and that they have not been able to discover the Parents of such Child, or either of them, or that the Parents or Parent of such Child is not in circumstances sufficient to maintain such Child, as the said may be ; any thing in the said recited Acts, or in any other Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

11. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Governors of the said Hospital shall, previous to the Periods of suspending the Admission of Children as aforesaid, cause public Notice of the Order for such Suspension, and of the Commencement and Continuance of the Duration of such Suspension to be given by printed Advertisements or Hand-bills for the Space of Three Months previous to the Commencement of such Suspension, and shall cause such printed Hand-bills to be posted on the Gates and in other conspicuous Places in and about the said Hospital, and shall also cause such Advertisements or Hand-bills to be distributed among the Clergy and Churchwardens of the several Parishes, and among the Magistrates of the several Counties in Ireland.

12. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall forge or counterfeits any Certificate of any Minister or Churchwardens required by this Act, or any Paper purporting to be such Certificate, or shall forge or counterfeits the Name or Hand Writing of any Person or Persons required to subscribe any such Certificate, the Offender, being thereof convicted according to Law, either at any Assizes or at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, City, Town or Place where such Offence shall be committed, shall be imprisoned for any Term not less than Two Years, as the Court before whom such Person was convicted shall order and direct.

An Act to grant to His Majesty Rates and Duties, and to allow Drawbacks and Bounties on certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties. [25th July 1814.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies granted to Your Majesty, and for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid into and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in ready Money (except as hereinafter is provided), without any Discount whatever, upon the Importation and Exportation of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandise, not being the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, and not having been imported into Great Britain or Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, mentioned and set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked (A.) and (B.), imported into or exported from Ireland, the several Duties of Customs therein inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Schedule ; and that there shall also be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks in respect of the said Duties of Importation, as the same are also respectively inserted, specified and set forth in the said Schedule marked (A.) in like and full Satisfaction of all Duties and Drawbacks payable in Ireland upon the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the like Sorts, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act ; except such Duties as have been or shall or may be granted or imposed for certain Local Purposes in Ireland by any Act or Acts of Parliament, and which Duties are or may be appointed printed to such Local Purposes by the Acts by which the said Duties are or shall be granted and imposed, or by any other Act or Acts.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or any other Act or Acts in force on and immediately before the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, imported from Great Britain into Ireland, or any Goods, Wares or Merchandise the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, exported from Ireland to Great Britain, are respectively made to remain liable to or are charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs or Excise, whether Countervailing or others, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise law and except as to the Countervailing or other Duties and Drawbacks granted by the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and which are or may be altered by this Act, or law then or may be altered by any other Act or Acts made or to be made in pursuance of the Provisions in the said Acts of Union for that Purpose.

III. And Whereas it is expedient, pursuant to the Provisions of the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that in respect of the increased Duties imposed by this Act, and the Schedule marked (A.) thereto annexed, on Organized and Raw Silks imported into Ireland, increased Countervailing Duties should be charged on all Silks Manufactured of Great Britain imported from thence into Ireland, sufficient to counterbalance the said increased Duties in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be charged on the said Manufactures of Great Britain imported directly from thence into Ireland, mentioned, set forth and described in the Schedule marked (C.) to this Act annexed, the several Countervailing Duties therein in Figures respectively inserted, imposed and set forth, in full Satisfaction of all Countervailing Duties whatsoever, payable on such Silks Manufactures, under or by virtue of any Act (a) or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act; and that upon the Exportation of any Article of like Denomination, being of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, to Great Britain or elsewhere, there shall be allowed and given a Drawback equal in Amount to the Countervailing Duty on the like Article in the said Schedule, in law and full Satisfaction of all Drawbacks now allowed by Law on the same. (a) See 55 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 6. Sec. 8.]

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Drawbacks in this Act, and in the respective Schedules hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained (except the Duty and Drawback on Silks imported into or exported from Ireland), shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable in British Currency; and that such Duty and Drawback on Silk shall be paid and payable in Irish Currency; and that all the said Duties shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; and that all the said Duties, and all Drawbacks in the said Schedules specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and received upon the several Articles and Things in this Act, and the respective Schedules hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, according to the Tare, Weight, Gauge, Measure or Value of the said Articles respectively specified; and also in Proportion upon any greater or less Number, Weight, Quantity, Measure or Value of such Articles, Matters and Things respectively.

V. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Duties by this Act granted on the Importation into Ireland of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned and set forth in this Act, and the Schedule marked (A.) thereto annexed (except the Duties on the several Sorts of Deers and Deer Ends, and Mahogany, in the said Schedule specified) shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise as shall not have been entered on or before the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or on which the Duties due and payable on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid before the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares and Merchandise may have been imported into Ireland before the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; and that the said Duties on Deers and Deer Ends and Mahogany, shall be charged and payable on all such Deers and Deer Ends and Mahogany, as shall be entered at any time after the Expiration of five Days next after the passing of this Act.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Duties granted, mentioned and set forth in this Act, and the said Schedule marked (A.) thereto annexed, shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise therein mentioned as having been imported into Ireland, shall have been or shall be warehoused, or shall have been secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof having been first paid, and shall remain or shall have remained to be warehoused or secured, on or after the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in pursuance or by Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force for that Purpose, although such Goods, Wares or Merchandise may have been imported before the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: Provided always, that such Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, until the time when the Duties which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall have been subject to before the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, would have been payable by Law.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all cases where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on the Importation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise into Ireland are permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, at the time of such Importation, the Duties by this Act and the Schedule thereto annexed marked (A.) granted or imposed any, in like manner, and and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, be permitted to be found by Bond or otherwise.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Duties of Customs on the Importation into Ireland, of all Goods, Wares and Merchandise, not being the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, and all Drawbacks in respect of such Duties as granted or unpaid and made payable or allowed in and by all or any and every of the Acts hereinafter mentioned, or any Schedule or Schedules to the said Acts amended, or in or by any Act for amending or amending the said Acts, or any of them, shall, from and after the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, cease and determine, and shall be no longer paid or payable; that is to say, in and by an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Rates and Duties, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties, and the Schedules marked (A.) and (B.) to the said Act amended; and in and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Duties on the Importation, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of certain Sorts of Iron, Sugar and Tea, into and from Ireland, and the Schedules marked (A.) to the said Act amended; and in and by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to grant to His Majesty until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eight, certain Duties on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise, into and from Ireland, and the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to the said Act amended; and in and by an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, and to amend several Acts for granting certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into and exported from Ireland, and to grant new Duties on the Importation of East India Sugar and Foreign Spirits; and to reduce the Duty on British Plantation Coffee imported; and in and by an Act made in the Fiftieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and to amend several Acts for granting certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into and exported from Ireland, and to grant to His Majesty, until the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, certain new and additional Duties on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise into and from Ireland, and the Schedules (A.) and (B.) thereto amended; and in and by an Act made in the Fifty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to allow the free Importation between Great Britain and Ireland of Home-made Glassware; to prohibit the Importation of Foreign Glassware into Ireland, so long as the same shall be prohibited in Great Britain; and to grant certain Duties on Certain Nuts imported into Ireland; and in and by another Act of the Fifty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and to amend several Acts for granting certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland; and in and by an Act made in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, certain new and additional Duties on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise into and from Ireland, and the Schedules to the said Act amended; and in and by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and to amend several Acts for granting certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland; and to grant, until the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, certain new and additional Duties on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise into and from Ireland, and the Schedules to the said Act amended; and in and by an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and to amend several Acts for granting certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland; and to grant additional Duties on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise into and from Ireland, until the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and to make further Regulations for securing the Collection of the said Duties, and the Schedules thereto amended; and that, from and after the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act and the Schedules marked (A.) thereto amended, granted on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, not being the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, and the Drawbacks in respect thereof mentioned, specified and set forth in this Act, and the said Schedules, shall be paid and payable, and allowed and allowable, on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, in lieu of the Duties and Drawbacks thereto under the said heretofore recited Acts, or any of them; save and except only as relates to any Arrears of the said Duties under the said recited Acts due and payable on the said Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and save only as is hereinafter provided in and by this present Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign for granting Duties on Goods imported into Ireland, or any Schedules thereto amended, any Duties were unpaid or made payable on any Articles, Matters or Things, which are not specified or enumerated in the Schedules marked (A.) to this Act amended, all such Articles, Matters and Things not so specified or enumerated in the said Schedules to this Act amended, shall pay the Duty and that all such Conserving Duties and Equivalent Drawbacks shall be paid and payable under such Rules and Regulations respecting the same as are contained in the said recited Acts or any of them, or of the said Conserving Duties and Equivalent Drawbacks were specifically mentioned and set forth in this Act, and as if the said Rules and Regulations were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Duties granted and made payable on the Importation into Ireland, of Salt, Hops and Coals, of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, under the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty and the Treasury which Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, certain Rates and Duties; and and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, in &c. of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties; and also the Duties payable upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland mentioned and specified in the Schedule marked (C.), annexed to the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and also the Duties of Tonnage upon Ships and Vessels trading to Ireland, and the Duties on Entries, Imports and Exports in the Port of Dublin mentioned and specified in the Schedule marked (D.), now read to the said last recited Act; and also the Bounties and Allowances on the Exportation of Linens, Cottons and Cottons, and on Books specified in the Schedule marked (E.), annexed to the said last recited Act; shall be and continue in force, from and after the passing of this Act, until the said Duties and Bounties shall be altered or repealed respectively by any Act or Acts; and the said Duties and Bounties shall be paid and payable as if the same had been specified, repeated and re-enacted in the present Act, and shall be levied, collected and paid in such manner as is directed by the said recited Act, or by any Act or Acts for that purpose. The same, in force at the time of the passing of this Act.

XII. And he is further enacted, That the Duties made payable by this Act, or the Schedule (A.) thereto annexed, on any Articles which might heretofore have been imported into Ireland without Payment of Duty, shall be paid according to this Act, and the Schedule (A.), thereto annexed; and that no Duty shall be paid, made, levied or payable on any of the Articles in this Act, or the said Schedule thereto annexed, specified and mentioned to be Duty-free on Importation into Ireland; provided that due Entry of all such Goods be made in the Custom House of the Port in Ireland where such Goods shall be imported, exhibiting and letting forth in every such Entry, the particular Marks and Numbers of the Packages in which any such Goods shall be imported, with the Quantities and Qualities and Particulars thereof, and in the same Manner and Form as Entries are legally to be made in Ireland, in cases of Importation of Goods subject to Duty; and that such Goods shall be landed at the Places and Times required by Law, and in the Presence of the proper Officer, and by him received and discharged, otherwise such Goods shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs.

XIII. And he is further enacted, That the several Drawbacks upon the Exportation of any Carriage, manufactured in Ireland, allowed and made payable by the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and to amend several Acts for granting certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into and exported from Ireland; and to grant, until the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, certain new and additional Duties, on the Importation, and to allow Drawbacks on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise into and from Ireland; shall continue to be paid and allowed, and shall be paid and allowed in respect of any Carriage manufactured in Ireland, from hence, which shall have paid the Duties by this Act imposed, and which shall be exported to Great Britain, or elsewhere; and that upon all Tobacco manufactured in Ireland, which shall be exported to any other Place than Great Britain, the Drawback or Compensation mentioned and specified in the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to grant in His Majesty's certain Duties of Excise in Ireland on Tobacco, shall continue to be paid and allowed in respect of Tobacco manufactured from any Leaf of Tobacco which shall have paid the Duties imposed by this Act, and the Schedule (A.) thereto annexed, and the Excise Duty payable thereon according to Law, until the said several Drawbacks shall be repealed or altered by any Act or Acts, and as if the said several Drawbacks had been expressly repealed and set forth in this Act.

XIV. And he is further enacted, That the Drawbacks granted, allowed and made payable under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting Rates and Duties and allowing Drawbacks and Bounties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, by any Act or Acts heretofore recited, and in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall remain and continue payable with respect to such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which shall have paid the Duties imposed on the Importation thereof, by the said recited Acts, or any of them, and which shall be re the Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen be exported from Ireland; and that the several and respective Drawbacks referred, specified and set forth in this Act, and the Schedule thereto annexed, marked (A.), shall be paid and allowed only on the Exportation of such Articles as shall have paid the Duties imposed thereon, by this Act and the said Schedule thereto annexed.

XV. And he is further enacted, That all Drawbacks of Customs allowed or made payable by this Act upon the Exportation from Ireland of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Articles, Matters or Things whatsoever which shall have been or shall be imported into Ireland, and all Bounties and Allowances of Customs whatsoever, shall without any Fee, Reward or Deduction, be paid by the several Collectors at the respective Ports of Exportation within One Calendar Month after the same shall be lawfully demanded, out of any Money arising out of any Duties by them collected: Provided always, that no such Drawback, Bounty or Allowance whatsoever, shall be paid or allowed, unless the Goods, Wares or Merchandise on which the same shall be claimed, be exported within Three Years from the Importation thereof, the said Three Years to be reckoned from the Day on which Entry shall have been made of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise; nor unless due Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, and Port Duties of the Entry of such Goods, and of the Payment of the Duties, in respect whereof such Drawbacks shall be respectively claimed; and that no Drawback, Bounty or Allowance whatsoever shall be paid on any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Articles, Matters or Things exported from Ireland, unless all Requisites shall have been performed which by any Law now in force, or at any time

XVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever in any Publication of the Dublin Gazette, containing Notice of the Average Price of Brown or Malaga Sugar, delivered in the London Gazette, it shall appear that the Average Price of Brown or Malaga Sugar (ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain for any Period required by Law for ascertaining the Rates of Drawbacks and Bounties on such Sugar, and on Refined Sugar) shall be below Forty nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office, or any Three of them, for the time being, to suspend for any such Period as aforesaid, the Payment of One Shilling, Two Shillings or Three Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty on such Sugar by this Act granted, as the case may require, and to take off and to remove such Suspension as is directed by an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twenty sixth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Duties on the Importation, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of certain Sorts of Iron, Sugar and Tea, into and from Ireland, in like manner as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury are authorized to do for the Periods in the said Act mentioned; and that whenever the Payment of any Part of the said Duty shall be so suspended as aforesaid, the several Drawbacks and Bounties payable on the Exportation of such Sugar, or of refined Sugar manufactured therefrom, shall from time to time be decreased in such Proportions, and for such times and in such manner as is directed and provided in and by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act to provide more effectually for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland; and for allowing British Plantation Sugar to be manufactured in Ireland, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight; and that in like manner the Countervailing Duties on Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, imported into Ireland, and the Equivalent Drawbacks on Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Ireland, exported from thence to Great Britain, shall from time to time be decreased, and the Payment thereof shall be suspended in such Proportions, and for such time, and in such manner as is directed and provided by another Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide for the Drawback and Refundation in certain Cases of Part of the Countervailing Duties on British Refined Sugar imported into Ireland.*

XVII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or the Schedule thereto annexed contained, shall in any manner extend to charge with Duty any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, imported directly into Ireland or through Great Britain into Ireland, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter, granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; but that the Duties and Drawbacks on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be paid under and by virtue of any Act made or to be made in this present Session of Parliament, for granting Duties on such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and for establishing Regulations for the Security of the Duties on Goods so imported.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Duties by this Act imposed on Refined Oil and Cocoa Nuts imported, as shall remain, after deducting the Hereditary Duties thereon, shall be paid and issued by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Ireland for the time being to the Traders for encouraging the Linen and Hemp Manufactures of Ireland, to be by them applied towards encouraging the raising of Flax Seed in Ireland; and that all Duties paid to, and all Bounties granted to the Traders of the Linen and Hemp Manufactures, shall be exempted from the Payment of all Fees.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Bounties payable upon Bark or Hemlock imported into Ireland shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid and payable, any thing in the heretofore recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, at the time of the passing of this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Shipping of any Wares in any Port in Ireland, in Ships belonging to His Majesty's Navy, for the Use of Admirals, Captains or other Commanded Officers employed in His Majesty's Service, for their actual Consumption on board vessels of His Majesty's Ships as they shall serve in and for no other Purpose, a Drawback of the whole Amount of the Duties paid on the Importation of such Wares into Ireland shall be allowed and paid under this Act; provided that no such Wares shall be shipped on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War for the Purpose aforesaid, other than in the Presence and under the Care and Inspection of an Officer of the Customs to be appointed for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland: Provided also, that such Wares shall be so shipped within Three Years from the Importation thereof, and under such other Regulations and Restrictions as may be from time to time made and required by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and His Majesty's Privy Council of Ireland for the time being.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That in each of the said recited Acts of the Forty fifth Year aforesaid, as much, that order and subject to the Provisions therein contained, the Articles therein mentioned and specified shall

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That whether the Amount of the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise be entered, together with the Addition of Six Pence per Centum or Ten Pence per Centum (as the case may be) and the Comms paid on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall or shall not be demanded by or on behalf of the Proprietor or Importer thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties to order the said Goods, Wares or Merchandise respectively to be fully and publicly sold to the best Advantage, at any time not sooner than Ten Days after such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be so taken and detained; and the Produce of such Sale shall be paid to the Collector of the Port within which such Sale shall be held, to be by him applied in manner following; that is to say, First in Payment of the Duties on such Goods, Wares and Merchandise according to the true and real Value thereof, as ascertained by the Produce of such Sale, and in the next place in Payment of all Charges of Removal, Storing and Sale of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which Charges shall in no case exceed in the whole the Amount of Two Pence per Centum on such Value; and in the next place in paying to the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise the Value specified in the original Entry thereof, with the Addition of the Sum of Six Pence or Ten Pence per Centum thereon, as the case may be, or if the Amount of such Value, with such Addition as aforesaid, shall have been previously paid to such Importer or Proprietor, then the same shall be retained by such Collector for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and shall be applicable as other Money in his Hands; and if any Overplus of the Amount of such Sale shall remain in the Hands of the said Collector, after such Application as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and they are hereby required to order and may be paid to the Officer or Officers who shall have detained and opened and examined such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, as an Encouragement for the faithful Discharge of his or their Duty.

Overplus of Sale to Collector.

Amount of Sale to be paid to the Importer or Proprietor.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Amount of the Produce of any such Sale of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise be detained shall be less than the Amount of the Value specified in the Entry of the same, by the Importer or Proprietor thereof, the Officer or Officers who shall have detained the same same shall pay to the Collector of the Port a Sum of Money equal to the Difference between the Sum which shall have been paid by such Collector to such Importer or Proprietor, and the Amount of the Produce of such Sale, and also a Sum of Money equal to the Difference between the Amount of the Duty on such Goods according to the Value thereof as ascertained by such Sale, and the Value thereof as specified in such Entry, together with all Charges and Expenses of such Sale, not exceeding Ten Pounds per Centum on the Amount thereof as aforesaid; and all such Sums of Money shall and may be deducted and retained out of the Salary of any such Officer or Officers, at such Periods and in such Proportions as the said Commissioners of Customs or Port Duties shall direct, or shall be recoverable against such Officer or Officers as a Debt due to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

XXVIII. Provided also, that in case any Officer, by detaining any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, shall at any time within Seven Days, after detaining the same, pay to the Collector of the Port the Amount of the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, as specified in the Entry thereof by the Importer or Proprietor thereof, together with Ten Pounds per Centum in all cases on the Amount of such Value; and also the Duty paid on such Goods, Wares and Merchandise on the Entry thereof, a full and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in direct and order that such Officer may retain such Goods, Wares and Merchandise to his own Use, and may dispose of the same in such manner, and at such time as he shall in his Discretion think fit; and in such case the whole of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and the Produce thereof, if the same shall at any time afterwards be sold and disposed of, shall be the Property of such Officer or Officers for his or their own Use and Benefit; and all Moneys paid by such Officer to such Collector, shall be, by such Collector applied as other Public Money in his Majesty by Law applicable.

XXIX. And Whereas in many cases the Cases or Packages which contain Goods, Wares or Merchandise, are subject to Duty as wharves, or also of a certain Value; Be it enacted, That in all cases where such Cases or Packages are of real Value, more than the usual or ordinary Cases or Packages for such Goods or Merchandise are or ought to be, they shall be retained, and the Value thereof, if entered as wharves, shall in every Valuation be added to the Value of the Goods, and pay Duty accordingly.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where by this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to the Revenue and the Management of the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, or of the Commissioners of Island Excise and Taxes, any Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall and may be seized or detained, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer seizing and detaining the same, also to seize and detain the Cases and Packages in which such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be respectively contained, and such Cases and Packages shall be dealt with in all respects in the same manner as the Goods, Wares and Merchandise so seized and detained. [Ireland 29, 30. of this Act is the same words as Act. 105, 111. of 45 G. 3. c. 67.]

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to import into Great Britain from Ireland any French Wines in Packages, each of which shall contain at the least Six Dozens regulated Quart Bottles or Flasks, as well for Sale as for Private Use, on Payment of the several and respective Duties, as well Customs as Excise, due and payable on the Importation of such Wines; provided that such Wines shall be imported in British or Irish-built Ships or Vessels, owned, navigated and registered according to Law; and in such manner, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, and shall be subject and liable to the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are provided and in force in relation to the Importation of French Wines in Bottles or Flasks imported into Great Britain.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties of Customs or Excise in Great Britain, granted or made payable by any Act in force in Great Britain, at the time of the passing of this Act, upon any Articles on which any Duty is imposed by this Act, or the Schedule hereto annexed, or any Part of such Duties in Great Britain shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made that so much of the Duties of Customs granted by this Act and made payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall be cease or determine or be repealed as aforesaid in Great Britain shall in like manner cease or determine, or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland at any time after the time when such Duties of Customs or Excise shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain; and the Duties of Customs made payable by this Act shall be reduced accordingly: Provided always, that no such Reduction shall take place on any Article mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed which shall not under this Act pay a Duty in Ireland equal in amount to the Duty of Customs and Excise payable on the like Article in Great Britain.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's King, entitled An Act for granting unto His Majesty and the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, certain Rates and Duties, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties, or any other of the Acts heretofore recited and referred to, which are not expressly altered or repealed, or otherwise provided for by this present Act, and which relate to the Importation or Exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or to the prohibiting the Importation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or which relate to the Payment or Application of any Duty or of any Allowance of Drawback or Bounty on, or in respect of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise mentioned and specified in the said recited Acts or any of them, shall be and continue in force until the same shall be altered or repealed, and the same shall be applied and put in Execution with respect to the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act granted and allowed in fully and effectually, to all Imports and Exports whatsoever, as if all such Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, Penalties and Forfeitures were fully repeated and re-enacted in this Act, except only so far

An Act to continue, until Three Months after the ceasing of any Restriction imposed on the Bank of England from issuing Cash in Payment, the several Acts for confirming and continuing the Restrictions on Payments in Cash by the Bank of Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for confirming and continuing for a limited time the Restrictions contained in the Minutes of Council of the Second Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, on Payments in Cash by the Bank, it is amongst other things enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland to issue any Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, except according to the Provisions therein contained; and that the said Act shall be in force and have Continuance until Three Months after the Restriction imposed by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from issuing Cash in Payment shall cease, unless the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland should by an Order of Council direct that the said Restriction on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland should sooner cease: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, the said recited Act of the Parliament of Ireland was amended and further continued; and by an Act made in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, both the said recited Acts were further continued: And Whereas it is expedient to continue for a further time the said recited Acts of the Thirty-fourth and Forty-third Years aforesaid: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and it is enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Acts of the Thirty-fourth and Forty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign shall have Continuance until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after any Restriction imposed or to be imposed by any Act (a) made or to be made in the present Session of Parliament on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from issuing Cash in Payments shall cease, unless the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and the Privy Council of Ireland shall, by an Order of Council, direct that the said Restriction on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall sooner cease.

An Act to provide for the better Execution of the Laws in Ireland, by appointing Superintending Magistrates and additional Constables in Counties, in certain cases.

WHEREAS Disturbances have from time to time existed in different Parts of Ireland, for the Suppression whereof the ordinary Police hath been found inefficient, and it is expedient that Provision should be made for such cases: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, to declare by Proclamation, that any County, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, or any Barony or Baronies, Half Barony or Half Baronies in any County at large, or be therein specified, or are in a State of Disturbance, and requires or require an extraordinary Establishment of Police; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, to appoint One Chief Magistrate of Police for such County, or for any Barony or Baronies, Half Barony or Half Baronies, as shall seem best; and the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall have full Power from time to time to remove any such Chief Magistrate, and upon such or any Vacancy or Vacancies to appoint One or more Chief Magistrate or Magistrates, either according to the said Arrangement, or to any other which the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall think proper to make as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That every such Chief Magistrate shall forthwith take the Oaths which shall be then required by Law to be taken by Magistrates in Ireland; and thereupon such Chief Magistrate, as long as he shall continue to hold the said Office, shall, without further Appointment or Commission, have all the Powers of a Justice of the Peace, and be to all Intents and Purposes a Justice of the Peace, in, of and for the County for which or for any Part of which he shall be so appointed Chief Magistrate, and of and for each and every County adjoining thereto, in such Parts of every such adjoining County as shall be within Seven Miles of such designated District.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Chief Magistrate shall forthwith repair to the County, District, Barony or Half Barony, for which he shall be so appointed Chief Magistrate, and shall be resident therein, and shall not depart therefrom, without the previous Permission of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, signified to him in Writing by the Chief Secretary.

tary, or in his Absence, by the Under Secretary for the Civil Department, unless in and for the immediate and urgent Execution of the Duty of the said Office of Chief Magistrate.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every such Chief Magistrate, while he shall hold the said Office, shall have and receive a Salary of Seven hundred Pounds Sterling by the Year, and namely for any lesser Period in manner hereinafter mentioned; and shall have a suitable House, Furniture and Out-houses, within the County or Place for which he shall be so appointed Chief Magistrate, and in or adjoining to such House a suitable and proper Office for the Discharge of his Business, the same respectively to be paid and provided in manner hereinafter mentioned; and such House, Out Office and Office of Business, to be such as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall direct and approve.

V. And be it further enacted, That each and every Justice of the Peace residing in the County or District for which such Chief Magistrate shall be so appointed, shall be aiding and assisting in such their Capacity of Justice of the Peace to such Chief Magistrate; and every Justice of the Peace for such County in which such Chief Magistrate shall reside, shall, during such Residence, deliver or cause to be delivered to such Chief Magistrate, as frequently as the nature of each case shall admit of, all and every Examination, Information or Intelligence, which he shall take or receive, concerning any Offence committed or intended to be committed within the County or District for which such Chief Magistrate shall be so appointed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to appoint, for the Aid and Support of any such Chief Magistrate, and to remove at his or their Pleasure, a Clerk, and also a Chief Constable, and any Number of Sub Constables, not exceeding Fifty in the whole, or any such lesser Number, as to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors for the time being, may seem necessary and proper from time to time, and to order such Arms and Accoutrements to be delivered to such Chief and Sub Constables, and also to order such Horses, and Saddles and Bridles for the same, to be purchased and provided for such Chief and Sub Constables, or any of them, as occasion may require, and such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall think proper; and such Chief Constable and Sub Constables of and for the same County or Counties for which such Chief Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall attend such Chief Magistrate, and obey and execute his lawful Warrants, Orders and Commands, and shall not attend any other Magistrate or Magistrates of any such County, unless by the express Orders of such Chief Magistrate.

VII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid to every such Clerk a Salary not exceeding One hundred and Fifty Pounds by the Year, and to every such Chief Constable a Salary not exceeding one hundred and fifty Pounds by the Year, and to every such Petty Constable a Salary not exceeding Fifty Pounds by the Year, and namely to each and every of the said Persons for any lesser Period, in manner hereinafter mentioned; and shall have suitable Lodgings provided for them, in case the same shall be thought necessary, and shall be directed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Chief Magistrate shall once in every Week, and oftener if necessary, make a Return in Writing, signed by himself, to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, wherein shall be set forth a true and accurate Account of the State of the County or Place for which he shall be so appointed, and of the several Measures taken by him, or with his Knowledge or Privity, for or towards the Prevention or Reformation of Peace and good Order therein, and of the Conduct of the Chief and Sub Constables under his Command, and of all other Persons, so far as the same may contribute or tend to the Reformation or Prevention of Peace and good Order as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, to declare by Proclamation that such County, City or County of a Town, or any Barony or Half Barony, be proclaimed as aforesaid, is referred to Peace and good Order; and if such Declaration of Peace and good Order shall extend to the whole County, or to all such Part and Parts thereof as have been proclaimed, then and from thenceforth the Office of all and every such Chief Magistrate, Clerk and Chief Constable and Sub Constable therein shall cease and determine; but if any Part shall still remain in a State of Disturbance, then and from thenceforth every such Chief Magistrate who has within his District any disturbed Barony or Half Barony, Barony or Half Barony, and each and every Clerk, and Chief Constable and Sub Constable under his Authority, shall continue to act for such Barony or Barony, Half Barony or Half Barony, which it shall be otherwise ordered by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being; and every such Chief Magistrate who shall not have any disturbed Barony or Half Barony within his District, and every Clerk, and Chief and Sub Constable under him, shall forthwith cease to hold such Office respectively: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to reduce the Number of Constables in any such disturbed District from time to time, as to him or them shall seem fitting or expedient, at any time before such District shall be fully returned to Peace and good Order.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any County, or any Barony or Half Barony, which shall at any time under this Act be proclaimed or declared to be in a State of Disturbance, shall be referred to Peace and good Order, within any time less than Twelve Calendar Months from the time when the same was so proclaimed or declared in a State of Disturbance, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to direct, that for any time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, within which such County, Barony or Half Barony, shall be declared to be referred to Peace and good Order, there shall be allowed and paid to any Chief Magistrate who shall have been appointed in such County, Barony or Half Barony, under this Act, any Sum not exceeding Two hundred and fifty Pounds, as and for a Proportion of his yearly Salary on each Occasion; and to any Clerk or Chief Constable so appointed, any Sum not exceeding Sixty Pounds; and to any other Constable so appointed, any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and that for any time exceeding Three Calendar Months, and not exceeding Six Calendar Months, within which such County, Barony or Half Barony, shall be declared to be referred to Peace and good Order, there shall be allowed and paid to such Chief Magistrate any Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds, and to such Clerk or Chief Constable any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, and to every such other Constable a Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds, as to such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, shall seem fitting and expedient; and all and every such Sum or Sums shall be raised and paid in manner hereinafter mentioned and provided; and in case such County, Barony or Half Barony, shall be referred to Peace and good Order at any time after Six Calendar Months from the time when the same were so proclaimed or declared in a State of Disturbance, then there shall be obtained and paid to such Chief Magistrate, Clerk, Chief Constable and Constables respectively, a proportionate Part of their Salaries, calculated after the whole annual Rate of such Salaries respectively.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the several Salaries and the Proportions thereof, or Allowances hereinbefore directed to be paid and given to such Chief Magistrate, Clerk, Chief Constable and Constables, and all Rents and Taxes, and all other Costs and Charges of the House and Appurtenances to be provided for any such Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, and of purchasing and providing any Horses with their Saddles and Bridles, which Occasion may require, or may be found necessary for the said Chief Constable or Constables, and all other reasonable and necessary Costs, Charges and Expenses of the said Establishment, shall be borne and defrayed by Parliament in manner following; that is to say, the Grand Jury of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, which or any Part of which shall be so proclaimed, shall, at each Assize or Prefecture Term, present all such of the Salaries, Payments, Rents, Taxes, Costs, Charges and Expenses aforesaid, as have not been theretofore presented, the same being duly vouched by Affidavit, and it being duly certified by such Chief Magistrate of such proclaimed County, Barony or Half Barony, that such Constables respectively have faithfully and actively discharged the Duties of their said Office, the said Sums to be raised of such County, if the whole thereof shall be then so proclaimed, and if not, then of the Barony or Banness, or Half Barony or Bannesses, for which such Chief Magistrate shall have been so appointed.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to order and direct the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for executing the said Office, to issue out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland all such Sum and Sums of Money as he or they shall from time to time think necessary, as amount of all such Salaries, Costs, Charges and Expenses respectively, at such times and in such manner as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall order and direct, and all Sums which shall be levied under any such Provisions as aforesaid, shall by the Treasurer of the County be paid to the Collector of Excise of the District, to be by him applied in like manner as any other Public Money in his Hands.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Judge or Judges at such Assizes, or the Court at such Prefecture Term, shall not sit any other Prefecture, until the said several Prefectments shall have been fully granted by the Grand Jury.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if on any Occasion, or in any Court of Law or Equity, Civil or Criminal, any Question shall arise concerning any such Proclamation, or the Appointment or Qualification of any of the said Officers, common Reputation shall be deemed, taken and received as sufficient Evidence of such and every such Matter, unless by contrary Evidence a reasonable Doubt shall be raised as to the Truth of such Reputation.

XV. And be it further enacted, that when and as often as such County, County of a City, County of a Town, Barony, Half Barony or District shall be declared to be referred to Peace and good Order as aforesaid, all and every the Armes and Accoutrements which shall have been delivered to such Chief Constable or Sub Constables, and as shall be then remaining, shall be forthwith delivered to such Person, and at such Time and Place, and to be kept and disposed of in such manner as the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for the time being shall direct or appoint; and that all Horses, with their Saddles and Bridles, which may have been issued necessary to be provided for the Chief Constable or Sub Constables, shall be sold at such Time and Place as the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for the time being shall direct, and the Produce thereof shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County to be applied to the County Charge.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person so appointed a Constable as aforesaid, shall not, within One Week after he shall come to hold such Office, deliver over any Armes and Accoutrements to his Successor in the said Office, if such there shall be, and if not, then to such Person, and at such Time and Place, as shall be directed by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, every such Person in offending shall, for each Offence, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds Irish Currency, to be recovered by Civil Bill in the Court of proper Jurisdiction, by any Person who shall sue for the same.

XVII. And Whereas an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty-seventh Year of His Majesty's Royal Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Execution of the Laws and Provisions of the Peace within Counties at large, which has been since continued (a) and is now in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and divers Counties in Ireland have been divided into Districts, pursuant to the Provisions of said Act: And Whereas by an Act passed in the said Parliament of Ireland, in the 'Thirty second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the Office of Constables, and for better enforcing the Peace of the Criminal Law in certain Parts of this Kingdom, Grand Jurors in Ireland are empowered to appoint Constables for the several Baronies or Counties in manner therein mentioned, but are not empowered to make such Appointment in any County divided into Districts as afore- said, under the Powers of the said recited Act of the Twenty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, such Counties being in that respect excepted in the said Act of the said Thirty second Year, by reason whereof there may happen to be a Failure of Constables in such Counties.' Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for each and every Grand Jury in Ireland, whole County is or shall be so divided into Districts as aforesaid, to appoint Constables for the several Baronies therein, notwithstanding such Division into Districts, in the same manner in all respects as such Grand Jury could do under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the said Thirty second Year, if such Division into Districts did not exist, and not otherwise.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That such Constables so to be appointed, shall continue to be Constables when and as soon as such County shall cease to be so divided into Districts, for the Purpose in the said recited Act of the said Twenty fourth Year mentioned, whether the same shall happen by the Repeal or Expiration of the said Act or otherwise, and not sooner; and that from and after the time such Constable so appointed, shall have all the Powers and Advantages, and be subject to all the Regulations and Restrictions, in the said Act of the Thirty second Year of His Majesty's Reign contained and expressed, and shall to all Intents and Purposes, be deemed and taken as and for Constables appointed under and pursuant to the said Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Five Justices of the Peace for any County, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, at any General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace regularly and duly assembled, to nominate and appoint any Number of fit and proper Persons to act as Constables in and for such County, or County of a City or Town, in addition to any other Constables appointed by Law; and such Persons so to be appointed Constables in such Quarter Sessions or General Sessions shall then, and there take such Oath as is required from Constables in other cases, and shall have all such Powers and Authorities as Constables in other cases have by Law, but shall not receive or be allowed any Salary whatever; and the Power of such Persons as Constables shall continue only for Twelve Calendar Months, unless they shall be re-appointed or continued at some ensuing General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions, in which case the Power of such Constables shall continue for a further Term of Twelve Calendar Months: Provided always, that in case of such Re-appointment it shall not be necessary for any such Constable to be sworn, unless the Magistrates then present, shall so order and direct: Provided also, that any such Constable or Constables may at any time be removed at any General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions after such Appointment or Re-appointment as aforesaid.

XX. And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the recovering of Small Debts in a summary Way at the Sessions of the Peace of the several Counties at large within this Kingdom, except the County of Dublin; and for continuing and amending an Act, intitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Prosecution of the Peace within Counties at large; the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, is authorized to divide the several Counties in Ireland (except the County of Dublin) into Two Divisions, for the Purpose of hearing and determining of Civil Bills only, without regard to, or affecting such Districts, as the said Counties, or any of them, may be divided into, for the Purpose of the said heretofore recited Act of the Twenty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and also to nominate and appoint One or more Towns or Towns in each of the said Divisions respectively, in one of which Towns a Civil Bill Court should be held four Times in every Year, at some General Sessions or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or some Adjournment thereof; and also to appoint proper and convenient Towns in every such County, at which such Sessions and Adjournments as aforesaid should be respectively holden; and Doubts have been entertained whether, after any County shall have been so divided, or any Town or Towns so appointed for the several Purposes last aforesaid respectively, such Division or Appointment can or may be changed or altered: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, from time to time, whenever he or they shall think proper so to do, to change, alter or annul any such Division, heretofore made or hereafter to be made, of any County in Ireland, under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and to substitute and appoint any one or other Division thereof into Two Parts, for the Purpose in the said recited Act in that respect mentioned; and also to change or amend the Appointment of any Town or Towns in any County or Division, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, and to appoint such other Town or Towns in lieu thereof, as to him or them shall seem proper; and that any such Change or Alteration which may have taken place at any time before the passing of this Act shall be deemed and taken to be, and to have been good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes.

An Act for better enabling the Commissioners of Stamps to make Allowances for spoiled Stamps on Policies of Insurance in Great Britain, and for preventing Frauds relating thereto.

[15th July 1814.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the existing Provisions and make others for the Allowance of spoiled Stamps on Policies of Insurance in Great Britain, and for preventing Frauds relating thereto: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all the Provisions contained in an Act of the Thirtieth fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Stamp Duties on Sea Insurances, and in any subsequent Act or Acts for the Allowance and Exchange of Stamps on Policies of Insurance in Great Britain, as being spoiled or misfolded, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to allow as spoiled or misfolded and to cancel Stamps on Policies of Insurance in Great Britain in the following cases, and upon the following Terms and Conditions only; that is to say:

1. 20 G. 3. c. 43.
184.
28 & 29 H. 3.
c. 75 & 16.
repealed.
Allowance made on following cases:

First, Where a Policy shall be inadvertently filed up in an incorrect or improper manner, or be obliterated or otherwise spoiled and rendered unfit for Use, or shall be filed up for some Insurance which shall not be proceeded in, and the same shall not be signed by any Underwriter, provided Application shall be made for the Allowance within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or after such Policy shall be spoiled or become useless:

2. Where
Policy is spoiled, without being underwritten.

Secondly, Where a Policy shall be underwritten, but not to the full Amount of the Sum which the Stamp Duty thereon will cover, and another Policy shall be produced underwritten in lieu thereof, by the same Person, to the same Amount, on the same Property or Interest, and for the same Risk in all respects, provided Application shall be made for the Allowance within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Date of the last Subscription on the First Policy:

3. Where
Policy is underwritten, but not to full amount of Stamp Duty.

Thirdly, Where a Policy shall be underwritten, and there shall afterwards be found any Error or Mistake therein, so that the Insurance intended shall not be thereby effected, and another Policy shall be produced underwritten in lieu thereof by the same Person, in which the Error or Mistake shall be rectified, provided the Underwriters shall sign a Declaration that the Insurance made by the first Policy is cancelled, and the Premium returned on that Ground only, and provided satisfactory Proof shall be given of the Error or Mistake, and that the new Policy shall be underwritten before Notice of the Termination of the Risk first insured, and provided Application shall be made for the Allowance within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Date of the last Subscription on the First Policy:

4. Where Error or Mistake in Policy.

Fourthly, Where a Policy shall be underwritten, and the Terms and Conditions of the Insurance shall afterwards be agreed to be altered and another Policy shall be produced underwritten in lieu thereof, by the same Person, to the same Amount, on the same Property or Interest, and with such Alteration in the Terms and Conditions of the Insurance as may have been agreed upon; provided the Underwriters shall sign a Declaration that the Insurance made by the First Policy is cancelled, and the Premium returned on that Ground only, and provided the new Policy shall be underwritten before Notice of the Termination of the Risk originally insured, and the thing insured shall remain the Property of the same Person or Persons, and provided Application shall be made for the Allowance within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Date of the last Subscription on the First Policy:

5. Where
Terms and Conditions of Policy agreed to be altered.

Fifthly,

2. Where Policy is underwritten subject to Approval.

Fifthly, Where a Policy shall be underwritten, and the Insurances shall be made subject to the Approbation of the Insured, and such Condition shall be expressed in the Policy, and the Insured shall signify his or their Disapprobation thereof within the time to be prescribed for that Purpose in and by the Policy, provided all the Underwriters on such Policy (except such as may be deceased, or have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed out of the Realm) shall sign a Declaration that the Insurance is cancelled, and the Premium returned on that Ground only, and provided Application shall be made for the Allowance within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the time is prescribed for Disapprobation:

6. Where after Insurance made, there comes out to be his Risk or No Interest.

Sixthly, Where Insurance shall be made upon any Ship or Ships, or upon any Goods or other Property on board any Ship or Ships, or upon the Freight of any Ship or Ships, or upon any other Interest in or relating to any Ship or Ships, for a particular Voyage, and the Ship or Ships shall not proceed at all upon the Voyage specified, or shall not proceed thereat at or within the time specified, if any, and also where Insurance shall be made upon Goods or other Property on board any Ship or Ships, or upon any Interest in or relating to any Ship or Ships, for or upon a particular Voyage, and the Goods or Property intended to be insured shall not be shipped at all, or not within the time specified, or not on board the Ship or Ships named or described, or it shall turn out that the Insured had not the Interest intended to be insured; provided in all these cases, that all the Underwriters (except such as may be deceased, or have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed out of the Realm) shall sign a Declaration that the Insurance is cancelled, and the Premium returned for loss or one of the Reasons here specified, and provided Application shall be made for the Allowance within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Insured, if in Great Britain, or his or their Broker or Agent, if the Insured be out of Great Britain, shall know the Facts upon which the Allowance is hereby authorized to be made; but no Allowance of the Duty shall be made in any of these cases, if the Underwriters shall have run any Risk whatever under the Policy brought for Allowance, unless another Policy shall be produced, whereby the same Property or Interest shall be insured to the same Amount for or upon some other Voyage, or for or upon the same Voyage to be performed at some other time:

Allowance when applied for.

And upon the Allowance of any Stamp or Policies of Insurance as spoiled or misused in the several cases aforesaid, the Commissioners of Stamps shall give the Party delivering up such Policies to be cancelled, other Policy Stamps of the same Amount or Value in lieu thereof.

10. In keeping entry when Stamp given to be of value allowed.

11. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if in the Second, Third or Fourth case, heretofore provided for, some any of the Underwriters on the Policy brought for Allowance, shall have underwritten another Policy in lieu thereof, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Commissioners to refuse such Allowance as aforesaid, for the Amount of the Stamp Duty on the First Policy, except so much thereof as shall be due for or in respect of the Sum or Sums not transferred to the Second Policy; and if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that any legal Proceedings are intended to be instituted by or on behalf of the Insured, in respect of any Sum or Sums underwritten on the First Policy, and not transferred to the Second, which may require the Production of the First Policy, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cancel and expunge the Stamp thereon, and to substitute another Stamp for denoting only the Duty payable in respect of the Sum or Sums not transferred as aforesaid, and thereupon to redeliver the same to the Insured or his or their Broker or Agent.

12. And, and 13. as also provided for.

12. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if in the case of a Policy being underwritten, but not in the full Amount of the Sum, which the Stamp Duty thereon will cover, it shall be found inconsistent to get another Policy underwritten in lieu thereof, and the same shall be brought to the said Commissioners within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Date of the last Reinscription thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cancel and expunge the Stamp on such Policy, and to substitute another Stamp for denoting only the Duty, payable in respect of the Sum or Sums underwritten thereon, and to give another Policy Stamp or Stamps of an Amount or Value equal to the Difference between the Stamp cancelled and the Stamp substituted for the same.

14. Of a Policy underwritten, but not in full amount of Stamp Duty provided for.

14. And be it further enacted, That where Insurance shall be made on any Ship or Ships, or on Goods or other Property on board any Ship or Ships, or on the Freight of or other Interest in or relating to any Ship or Ships, and the Sum insured on the Account of any One Person, or on the joint Account of Two or more Persons, shall be found to exceed the Value of his, her or their Property or Interest, by the Sum of One thousand Pounds, where the Duty shall be at the Rate of One Shilling and Three pence per Centum, or by the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, where the Duty shall be at the Rate of Two Shillings and Six pence per Centum, or above, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to make an Allowance for so much of the Stamp Duty on the Policy whereby such Insurance shall be made, as shall exceed the Duty payable in respect of the Value of the Property or Interest on which the Risk shall have attached on the Policy, being delivered up to be cancelled, and Proof being made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, of the Value of such Property or Interest, and provided all the Underwriters (except such as may be deceased, or have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed out of the Realm) shall sign a Declaration that the Premium is returned on account of short Interest, in respect of their several Proportions of the Excess of the Sum insured by and the Value of such Property or Interest, and provided Application shall be made for the Allowance, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Value of such Interest or Property shall be known to the Insured, if in Great Britain, or to his or their Broker or Agent, if out of Great Britain, and the said Commissioners shall deliver other Policy Stamps for the Amount of the Duty to be allowed as last mentioned; but no such Allowance shall be made on account of short Interest in any case where the Property or Interest insured shall be expressly valued at the Sum insured thereon, in and by the Policy whereby the Insurance shall be made.

15. Allowance made of Proportion of Stamp Duty, in case of short Interest.

15. And be it further enacted, That where Insurance shall be made on any Ship or Ships, or on Goods or other Property on board any Ship or Ships, or on the Freight of or other Interest in or relating to any Ship or Ships, and the Sum insured on the Account of any One Person, or on the joint Account of Two or more Persons, shall be found to exceed the Value of his, her or their Property or Interest, by the Sum of One thousand Pounds, where the Duty shall be at the Rate of One Shilling and Three pence per Centum, or by the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, where the Duty shall be at the Rate of Two Shillings and Six pence per Centum, or above, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to make an Allowance for so much of the Stamp Duty on the Policy whereby such Insurance shall be made, as shall exceed the Duty payable in respect of the Value of the Property or Interest on which the Risk shall have attached on the Policy, being delivered up to be cancelled, and Proof being made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, of the Value of such Property or Interest, and provided all the Underwriters (except such as may be deceased, or have become bankrupt or insane, or have departed out of the Realm) shall sign a Declaration that the Premium is returned on account of short Interest, in respect of their several Proportions of the Excess of the Sum insured by and the Value of such Property or Interest, and provided Application shall be made for the Allowance, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or Three Calendar Months after the Value of such Interest or Property shall be known to the Insured, if in Great Britain, or to his or their Broker or Agent, if out of Great Britain, and the said Commissioners shall deliver other Policy Stamps for the Amount of the Duty to be allowed as last mentioned; but no such Allowance shall be made on account of short Interest in any case where the Property or Interest insured shall be expressly valued at the Sum insured thereon, in and by the Policy whereby the Insurance shall be made.

V. Pro-

AN ACT to further explain and amend an Act of the Fifthieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for repealing certain Parts of several Acts, relating to the limiting the Number of Persons to be carried by Stage Coaches in Ireland.

[15th July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to explain and amend an Act of the Fifthieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for repealing certain Parts of several Acts relating to the Number of Persons to be carried by Stage Coaches in Ireland, it was, amongst other things, enacted, That any Clause or Provision contained in the said Act of the Fifthieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign (whereby the Limitation of Passengers to be conveyed by Stage Coaches, or the additional Tolls or Penalties relating to Carriages conveying Passengers for Hire, were regulated) should not extend or be construed to extend to the Turnpike Roads leading from the City of Dublin to Kilkenny, and from Naas to Limerick, or either of them; nor to repeal or alter any of the Provisions, Clauses or Regulations, contained in several Acts of the Parliament of Ireland, of the Thirtieth, Thirty seventh and Thirty eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, recited in the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year, or either of them, with regard to Stage Coaches or other Carriages carrying Passengers for Hire on the said Roads or either of them: And Whereas additional Tolls relating to Carriages conveying Passengers for Hire upon the Road leading from Kilkenny Mountain to the City of Cork, having been granted, levied and secured in and by the said Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and further secured by an Act made in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, it is just and reasonable that Provision should be made respecting such additional Tolls upon Carriages conveying Passengers for Hire on the said last mentioned Road: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons, in whom the Tolls are vested under the said recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, their executors and every of their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, to have, demand, receive and take upon the said Road leading from Kilkenny Mountain to the City of Cork, within the Limits for that Purpose specified by the said Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and during the Continuance of the said Act, by such Person or Persons as they shall authorize thereto, such Tolls and in such cases respectively, as by the said last recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, they are authorized and empowered to have, demand, receive and take; except only the additional Toll or Penalty in the said Act mentioned, of Five Shillings and Five Pence for every Horse or other Beast drawing any Stage Coach or other Carriage plying for Hire, or conveying Passengers for Hire, which shall convey at any one time upon any Part of the said Road more than Six Persons withinside, or more than Four Persons behind the Driver upon the Outside of any such Coach or other Carriage; any thing in the said Act of the Fifthieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, such and the like Tolls as, under the said last recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, could or might be demanded, raised, levied and taken, before the passing of the said recited Act of the Fifthieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, upon the Road leading from Kilkenny Mountain to the City of Cork, except only the said additional Toll or Penalty of Five Shillings and Five Pence, shall and may be hereafter from time to time demanded, raised, levied and taken, in such manner, and under such Rules and Regulations in all respects, as by the said recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign are specially enacted and provided; any thing in the said recited Act of the Fifthieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for enabling the Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses to purchase the Island and Light of May, at the Entrance of the Firth of Forth; for enabling the Commissioners of the Treasury to advance a certain Sum of Money towards that Purpose; and for extending several Acts in regard to the Northern Lighthouses. [25th July 1814.]

26 G. 3. c. 106. WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for enabling certain Lighthouses in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, Commissioners were enabled for putting the said Act into Execution, and for enabling Four Lighthouses in the Northern Parts of Great Britain; and certain Duties were thereby granted, for answering the Expenses of making and maintaining the Works by the said Act authorized to be made; and the Commissioners were empowered to borrow Money on the Credit of the Duties; and if any Surplus should remain after the necessary Expensures to be incurred in carrying the said Act into Execution, the same was directed, once in every Year, to be settled in some one or other of the Public Funds, until the yearly Interest of the same should amount to a Sum equal to the whole Expensure attending the said Lighthouses: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to render more effectual an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for enabling certain Lighthouses in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, the said Commissioners were authorized to levy certain additional Duties, to borrow a further Sum of Money, and to levy the Duties as soon as Two of the said Lighthouses should be lighted: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Twenty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to give further Powers to the Commissioners for enabling certain Lighthouses in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, the said Commissioners were authorized to erect Two (a) additional Lighthouses; and were likewise empowered to cause such other Lighthouses to be erected on other Parts of the Coast of Great Britain as they should deem necessary, whenever the Produce of the Duties should enable them so to do: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for incorporating the Commissioners appointed for enabling certain Lighthouses in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, the said Commissioners were incorporated, for the better carrying the several Acts into Execution, and made One Body Politic and Corporate by the Name of "The Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses:" And Whereas by another Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for enabling a Lighthouse on the Bell or Cape Rock in the Firth of Forth, and for enabling the Commissioners of the Treasury to advance a certain Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain towards that Purpose, Authority was given to the said Commissioners to erect the said Lighthouse, and to levy certain additional Rates and Duties for the Support of the same: And Whereas in virtue of the Powers given by the said several before recited Acts, the said Commissioners have erected the following Lighthouses, namely, One on Kassard's Head in Aberdeen-shire; a Second on North Ronaldsay, in Orkney, now converted into a Beacon; a Third on the Point of Scalpsie; One of the Harvie Shoals; a Fourth on the Maid of Galloway; a Fifth on the Island of Fladda, near Aberdeen; a Sixth and Seventh on the Pointed Skerries in Orkney; an Eighth on the Island of Jackie's, in the Firth of Forth; a Ninth on the Short Point of Sandy, in Orkney; and a Tenth on the Cape or Bell Rock: And Whereas the said Commissioners have entered into an Agreement for the Purchase, upon certain Terms and Conditions, from their Graces William Henry Cavendish Bentinck Earl of Portland, and Herbert Viscountess of Portland, of the Island of May, situated in the Firth of Forth, with the Lights and Lighthouses and other Houses built upon the same, with the Privilege of levying certain Duties upon all Vessels entering or sailing from any Port or Place between the Cables of Deasidair, and the Promontory called Saio Alba's Head, on the Eastern Coast of Scotland; and other Privileges and Perquisites to the said Island belonging or appertaining: And Whereas, although the Shipping and Commercial Interest of the United Kingdom have derived great Benefits from the Ten before recited Lighthouses, erected and maintained by the said Commissioners in virtue of the Powers of the several before recited Acts, yet several additional Lighthouses are much wanted for the Protection of the Coast of that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, particularly One upon the Shores of Galloway, at the Entrance of the Firth of Clyde and Firth of Glasgow; a Second upon the dangerous rocks of Skirrow, near the Islands of Tiree and Mull, in Argyleshire, on the direct Track of Vessels coasting along the Western Coast of Scotland, and also dangerous to Ships making the Western Shores of Scotland and Ireland, from the Atlantic Ocean; a Third upon Cape Wrath, in Sutherlandshire; a Fourth and Fifth in the Islands of Shetland, for the Protection of the Fisheries, and of Ships bound for the higher Latitudes; and a Sixth upon Tarlingie, in Cromartyshire, to open the Morrey Firth and Cromarty Bay, as a Rendezvous for Shipping in Storms from the Eastward: And Whereas it would be of great Benefit to the Public if Powers were given to the said Commissioners to complete the said Purchase of the said Island and Light of May, and in lieu of a Coal Light, to perfect maintained on the said Island, to exhibit and maintain an Oil Light, or such other improved Light as they shall find expedient; and likewise to erect and maintain additional Lighthouses; and also, if further Powers were given to the said Commissioners, and further Regulations were made, for the Collection and Application of the whole Duties payable in respect of the Northern Lighthouses: But as these Purposes cannot be accomplished without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the*

(a) [The Words of 29 G. 3. c. 58. are "a Lighthouse in a convenient Situation upon the South End of the Island of Aberdeen, or upon the Island of Fladda near the same."] ]

Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to treat, contract and agree with their Generals William Henry Cavendish Bentinck Earl of Portland, and Horatio Spens Cruchell of Portland, and their Heirs and Successors, for the absolute Purchase of the Island of May, situated in the Firth of Forth, with the Lights and Lighthouse and other Houses built upon the same, and the Privilege of levying Lighthouse Duties upon all Vessels entering or sailing from any Port or Place on the East Coast of Scotland, between the Cattle of Dumfries on the North, and the Presbytery called Saint Abb's Head on the South, together with all and every the other Privileges and Perquisites to the said Island belonging and appertaining; and to pay to the said Duke and Dukes of Portland, or their Heirs and Successors, the Price that may be agreed upon for the same, or to grant Security for the Whole or any Part of such Price, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall think fit; and such Light on the Island of May shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be held and taken to be one of the Northern Lighthouses.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the said Commissioners, instead of the Coal Light, to exhibit and maintain on the said Island an Oil Light, or such other improved Light as they shall find expedient; and also to erect and maintain such additional Lighthouses upon such other Parts of the Coast and Islands of Scotland as they shall deem necessary.

III. And be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Duties heretofore levied in respect of the Light on the Island of May shall cease and determine; and in lieu thereof, and to enable the said Commissioners to pay the Price of the said Light and Island of May, and to maintain a proper Light there, and also to erect and maintain additional Lighthouses as before mentioned, and otherwise to provide for the keeping in Repair and maintaining the whole Lighthouses under their Charge, it shall and may be lawful to the said Commissioners, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, from and after the passing of this Act, to demand, collect, receive and take, from all and every the Masters and Owners of every Ship or decked Vessel of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, navigating according to Law, which shall sail to or from any Port or Place on the East Coast of Scotland, between the Cattle of Dumfries on the North, and Saint Abb's Head on the South, both inclusive, whether the said Ship or Vessel shall be loaded or in ballast, or outward or homeward bound, or on a Foreign Voyage or sailing Coastwise; and also for every such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, which shall sail within a Lane drawn from the Cattle of Dumfries on the North, to Saint Abb's Head on the South, both inclusive, a Sum not exceeding One Penny for every Ton of such Ship or Vessel.

And for every Foreign Ship and decked Vessel sailing as aforesaid, a Sum not exceeding Two pence for every Ton thereof.

And for every Ship or decked Vessel of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, navigating according to Law, liable to Payment of Duties to the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, not sailing within the aforesaid Limits, a Sum not exceeding One Halfpenny for every Ton of such Ship or Vessel.

And for every Foreign Ship or decked Vessel, liable to Payment of Duties as aforesaid, not sailing within the aforesaid Limits, a Sum not exceeding One Penny for every Ton thereof.

All such Duties to be in Addition to, and over and above the other Duties granted and payable to the said Commissioners under the said recited Acts, or any of them.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the Duties hereby granted, any Ship or Vessel belonging to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or employed in the Service of His Majesty's Revenue; or any Ship or Vessel by the said recited Act of the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty exempted from the Payment of the Duties thereby granted; or any Ship or Vessel sailing from one Port to another Wellhead of Queensferry in the Firth of Forth, or from one Port to another in the Firth of Tay.

V. And, for the better enabling the said Commissioners to levy the Duties by the said recited Acts and by this Act granted, be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have Power to collect, in all the Ports of Great Britain and Ireland, the Duties by the before recited Acts and by this Act granted; and to appoint Collectors in such Ports for that Purpose accordingly, and in their Pleasure to remove such Collectors, and appoint others in their Places.

VI. And be it enacted, That all and every the Collectors or Collector of the aforesaid Duties already appointed by the said Commissioners, shall, within Six Months after the passing of this Act, and all and every the Collectors or Collector of the aforesaid Duties to be hereafter appointed, shall enter into Bonds to His Majesty, with such good and sufficient Surety or Sureties as the said Commissioners shall require, binding them and their Executors, jointly and severally, for their due and faithful Performance, in every respect, of all the Duties of Collectors of the aforesaid Duties, and for duly paying to the said Commissioners, or to their Clerk for the time being, at such times after the Receipt thereof as the said Commissioners shall direct to be taken in the said Bonds, all such Sums of Money as shall from time to time be collected by or paid to them for or on account of the said Duties, under a Penalty not exceeding Five hundred Pounds; before Performance in which Bonds it shall be a Condition, that the Collectors thereof named shall once in every Year, or oftener if required by the said Commissioners, deliver or cause to be delivered to them a true and exact Statement, certified upon Oath, if required (which Oath any Justice of the Peace sitting for the County or Place within which such Collector shall reside, or hereby empowered and required to administer), of the Sums arising from the said Duties received by them here these last Statement of Accounts, or from their Appointment, and the precise Sums on account of the said Duties remaining in the Hands of the said Collectors.

XIII. And be it enacted, That, for the further Security of the aforesaid Agreement, and for the more speedy and ready Redemption of the said Loan, as well as of the Loan of Twenty five thousand Pounds, authorized to be granted by the said recited Act of the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Surplus or Residue of the Duties by that and the former Acts empowered to be levied, which shall remain after completing the Purchase heretofore mentioned, and after meeting a proper Light on the Island of May, and after paying the Interest of the Sums of Twenty five thousand Pounds, and Thirty thousand Pounds, in the said recited Act and in this Act mentioned, with the Expense attending the Lighthouses erected or to be erected by the Commissioners, shall be once in every Year vested in the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuity, or in some one or other of the Public Funds, and shall be allowed to accumulate until the same shall amount to a Sum equal to the Repayment of the aforesaid Sums of Twenty five thousand Pounds, and Thirty thousand Pounds, and afterwards, until the before mentioned Interest for the said Six Years, immediately following the Advance of the said Thirty thousand Pounds shall be paid; and thereafter such Annual Investment of the Surplus Duties shall continue as directed by the said recited Act of the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, until the Yearly Interest of the same shall amount to a Sum equal to the whole Expense attending the said Lighthouses, when the Duties by that and the former Acts empowered to be levied are to be diminished, and in all other parts to erect and determine in manner mentioned in the said before recited Acts.

26 G. 3 c. 136.
§ 15.

Powers of former Acts

XIV. And be it enacted, That all and every the Powers and Authorities granted to the said Commissioners by the said recited Acts, or any of them, in regard to the Collection of Duties for erecting and maintaining of Lights and Lighthouses, and other Matters and Things in the said recited Acts and this Act or in any of them contained, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be in full Force and Effect, in so far as the same are not altered by this Act.

C A P. CXXXVII.

An Act for rendering the Payment of Creditors more equal and expeditious in Scotland.

[15th July 1814.]

WHEREAS the Regulations introduced by the Acts made in the Twenty third, Thirtieth and Thirty third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for rendering the Payment of Creditors more equal and expeditious in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, which were contained by certain Acts passed in the Thirty sixth, Forty fourth, Forty sixth, Forty eighth, Forty ninth, Fifty first and Fifty third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, having in general been found useful and beneficial to the Public, it is proper that they should, with such Variations and Amendments as Experience hath suggested, be continued, and that other and further Regulations should be made for attaining the same salutary Ends: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Actions and Proceedings arising upon the Constitution and Effect of an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety six, intitled An Act for declaring Notour Bankrupts, if any Person, subject to the Laws of Scotland, shall happen to be forth of that Part of the Territory of the United Kingdom, or not liable to be imprisoned by being in the Gaolhouse, or by reason of Privilege or personal Protection, a Charge of Harassment executed against him, together with either an Execution of Arrestment of any of his Effects not looked or discharged within Fifteen Days after the Date thereof, or an Execution of Pounding of any of his Moveables, or a Decree of Adjudication of any Part of his Movable Estate, for Payment or Security of Debt, shall, when joined with Infamy, be held a sufficient Proof of legal Bankruptcy, and equivalent to the Description of Notour Bankruptcy, given in the Act of the Parliament of Scotland before mentioned, made in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety six; and it is hereby declared, that such insolvent Debtor shall, from and after the Period when both the Charge of Harassment against the Person, and one or other of the said Descriptions of Arrestment (not looked or discharged as aforesaid) or Pounding have been executed, or Decree of Adjudication obtained, be held and deemed a legal or Notour Bankrupt, and subject to the Regulations of the said Act in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety six, as hereby extended and explained; and every Person, whether he be out of Scotland or not, whose Estate has been or shall be sequestrated under the Authority of any of the Acts before recited, or of the present Act, shall in like manner be held and deemed a Notour Bankrupt in all Questions upon the Act of One thousand six hundred and ninety six, from and after the Date of the first Deliverance on the Petition to the Court of Session for awarding the Sequestration.

II. And be it enacted, That when a Debtor is made legally Bankrupt in Terms of the said Act, made in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety six, or of this Act, all Arrestments which shall have been used for attaching any Effects of such Bankrupt within Sixty Days prior to the Bankruptcy, or within Four Calendar Months thereafter, shall be revoked per se in the same manner as if such Arrestments had been of the same Date; and that, in time coming, Letters or Precepts of Arrestment upon any depending Action may be granted summarily, upon Production of the libelled Summons; and it shall be no Objection to the per se Preference hereby established, that the Summons upon which any Arrestment proceeds was not executed, or that the Debt upon which it is founded was not liquidated at the Date of the Arrestment: Providing always, that there and all other necessary Steps are afterwards taken without any undue Delay; and in case the first or any subsequent Arrestment shall in the mean time have obtained a Decree of forthcoming of Preference, and thereupon shall have recovered Payment, he shall nevertheless be accountable for the Sum recovered to those who by virtue of this Act may be eventually found to have a per se Preference thereon, and shall be liable to an Action at their Instance, for Payment to them proportionally, after allowing out of the Fund the Expence of making it effectual; and further providing, that if there be any Arrestments used for attaching the first Effects after the Period of Four Months subsequent to the Bankruptcy, such an Arrestment shall not compete with those used prior to or within the Period aforesaid, but may rank with one another on any Reversio of the Fund attached, according to the former Law and Practice.

III. And be it enacted, That an Arrestment executed at the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and Pier and Shore of Leith, to attach the Effects of the Debtor, as in the Heads of a Petition out of Scotland, shall not be held to have intercepted such Person from paying to the Original Creditor, unless Proof be made that he, or those having Authority to act for him, were previously in the Knowledge of such Arrestment having been so used.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Messenger or other Person employed in executing a Pounding for Debt, shall leave the pounded Goods in the Hands of the Debtor, with a Schedule of the pounded Goods, and Note of the appraised Values (one Appraisal being in every case sufficient), and shall forthwith report his Execution of Pounding to the Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, who shall give Directions for keeping the Goods pounded in safe Custody, and selling them by Public Kiosk, after such Publication, not sooner than Eight free Days, nor longer than Twenty, from and after the Day when the Order was given, and at such Time and Place as circumstances may require, and who shall give all necessary Orders for intermediate Security, any Person who intromits with, or converts off the Goods in the mean time in order to disappoint the Pounding, being liable to double the appraised Value thereof; and a Note or Minute of the Sale, and of the Sum arising from it, shall be within Eight Days of the Sale lodged with the Clerk to the said Sheriff or Judge Ordinary, and forthwith marked by him as is lodged, within Eight Days after such Sale, to be made patent to all concerned for a Fee of One Shilling, and the Net Sum arising from such Sale, after Deduction

Declarations of all Charges, or the Goods to sale so Officers appear, shall be delivered over to the Pointing Creditor.

V. And be it enacted, That when a Person has been rendered legally Bankrupt as aforesaid, no Pointing of the Movable Goods belonging to such Bankrupt shall within Sixty Days before the Bankruptcy, or within Four Calendar Months thereafter, shall give a Preference to such Creditor, but that every other Creditor of the Bankrupt, having liquidated Goods of Debt, or Decree for Payment, and demanding such Provider, or justly producing the same, in any Process or Compulsion relative to the Goods or Price thereof, before the said Four Months are elapsed, shall be entitled to a proportional Share of the Price of the Goods so pointed offering to his Debt, deducting always the Expense of such Pointing, which the Provider shall retain in Preference to the other Creditors: And pointing also, that all Pointing, after the Four Months shall have such Preference as they were entitled to by former Law and Practice; having always the Landlord's Right of Hypothec for Rent, or any other Hypothec known in Law, which shall be an idle hurt or imposed by any thing contained in this Act; and provided also, that in the case of a Sequestration under this Act, the pari passu Preference of Arrivins in Pointing shall be regulated as hereinafter directed.

VI. And Whereas an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in the Year One thousand five hundred and eighty one, Chapter Seventeen, intitled An Act concerning the Sale of Bankrupts' Lands, required certain Forms of Publication and Citation, which as Practice have been found to be expensive and inconvenient; and another Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety five, Chapter Six, intitled An Act regulating the Sale and Payment of No longer Efforts, made it lawful for Purchasers of such Estates to assign the Price, after a certain time, to the Hands of the Magistrates and Town Council of Edinburgh, which Method has been found convenient, and has seldom been questioned; and by an Article in the Regulations of the Session established in the same Year One thousand six hundred and ninety five, Section Twenty six, it was provided, that the Ranking of the Creditors should proceed and be concluded by Decree before the Sale of the Lands, which Regulation has generally been prejudicial to the Creditors: Be it enacted, That the said in Part recited Acts shall be and the same are hereby so far repealed, and the Court of Session shall have full Power to make Acts of Solatium for assigning the Forms of Publication and Citation, and regulating the Proceedings in Process of Sale, Ranking and Division, whether at the Instance of Creditors or of approved Heirs; and in every sale of a Sale under the Authority of the Court of Session, it shall be lawful to the Purchaser, at any Time of Whitings or Martins subsequent to the Term of Payment of the Price, to lodge the Price, with the Interest due upon it, in the Royal Bank, or Bank of Scotland, or the Bank of the British Linen Company, at such Interest as can be procured for it, by doing which, and by giving Notice thereof to the Agent who carried on the Sale, he shall be discharged of the said Price; and further, the Court of Session, upon the Application of any of the Creditors, shall be empowered to make an Order to the Purchaser to lodge the Price and Interest, at any of the said Terms, subsequent to the Term of Payment, in one or other of the said Banks, sufficient Intimation being always previously given both to the Purchaser and to the Common Agent for the Creditors, that such Application is made, in order that all Parties may have an Opportunity to object; and in all cases of Judicial Sales, the Lands or other heritable Subjects may be brought to actual Sale in case as the necessary previous Steps are taken, whether the Ranking be concluded or not, unless the Court, upon Application of any Party concerned, shall find sufficient Cause to delay the Sale.

VII. And Whereas Doubts have arisen upon the Construction of an Act, made in the Year One thousand five hundred and ninety, Chapter Twenty, intitled An Act about the Sale of Bankrupts' Lands, in so far as it requires that the Common Debtor be found Bankrupt and utterly Insolvent; Be it enacted, That a Judicial Sale, at the Instance of Creditors, may in all cases proceed where the Interest of the Debtor and the other annual Burdens exceed the yearly Income of the Subjects under Sale, or where a Sequestration shall have taken place under this or any former Statute, without other Proof of Bankruptcy or Insolvency.

VIII. And Whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in the Year One thousand five hundred and forty, Chapter One hundred and six, concerning Charges to enter Heirs, and another Act in the Year One thousand six hundred and twenty one, Chapter Twenty seven, concerning Appraisings against Heirs, it was ordained, that Charges against Heirs unentered, which were to be the Foundation of appraisings against their Predecessors Lands, might proceed at the Instance of Creditors, commanding them to enter within Forty Days after the Charge; but it has been doubted whether the same or a longer Term is required when the Person charged is out of Scotland, and it is expedient that such Judicial should be of long Duration: Be it enacted, That the Advocate of a Charge to enter Heirs shall in no case exceed Forty Days, whether the Person charged be within the Kingdom or out of it; and that after one such Charge, whether general or special, has been given at the Instance of any Creditor, every subsequent Charge, at the Instance of the same or of any other Creditor, may be upon the Judicial of Twenty Days only; any Law or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And, in order to lessen the Number of Adjudications for Debt, and consequently the Expense to all Parties, and to facilitate the pari passu Preference of Creditors in similar circumstances, be it enacted, That the Lord Ordinary officiating at the Court of Session, before whom the first Process of Adjudication against any Estate for Payment or Security of Debt is called, shall order Intimation thereof to be made in the Minute Book, and on the Wall, in order that any other Creditors of the Common Debtor, who at the next Calling of the Court are present, although they have not executed their Summons of Adjudication, they are in other respects, by the nature of the Commands of Debt, and Steps taken by them, in Condition to proceed in assigning their Debtor's Estate, may produce the Instructions of their Debtors, with Summons of Adjudication, filled and signed, for the Purpose of their being registered in the Decree of Adjudication.

Twenty

Twenty Sedentes Days being allowed for such Intimation before the Cause can be called a Second Time; and if any of these Terms shall happen to be omitted, the said Adjunction shall be null and void, without Prejudice to us being brought forward again in more due Form, or till conjoined with any after Adjunction; and, without Prejudice to the Validity and Order of ransacking of posterior Adjunctions according to the Rules of Law, when any after Process or Process of Adjunction are brought into Court, the same shall be regulated, as to the Time and Manner of Proceeding in them, by an Act or Acts of Sedentes of the Court of Session, so as to provide, as far as circumstances will admit, for the pari passu Preference of such posterior Adjunctions with one another, and to shew the Number and Extent of such Proceedings; and in all cases where Process for Nonpayment over and above Performance are contained in Bonds, or other Obligations for Sums of Money, and are made the Subject of Adjunction, or of Demand in any other Shape, it shall be in the Power of the Court to modify and order such Process, so as not to exceed the real and necessary Expenses incurred in making the Debt official.

X. And be it enacted, That when a Klatch of a Debtor is brought into the Court of Session by Process of judicial Sale and Ranking, the Decree of Sale to be pronounced by the Court shall be held as a general Decree of Adjunction in favour of every Creditor who shall afterwards be included in the Decree of Division; and the Effect of such general Decree shall be the same in all Conceptions, or Questions of Ranking and Preference, as if it had been pronounced and extracted of the Date of the first calling of the Process of Sale before the Lord Ordinary in the Outer House, and no separate Adjunctions shall be allowed to proceed during the Dependence of a judicial Sale, it being hereby declared to be competent to the Court of Session to settle, by an Act or Acts of Sedentes, in what manner, and at what Period or Periods the Principal Sums and bygone Intervals of the Debts shall be accommodated, so as to do equal Justice to all concerned, but declaring that it shall be competent to any Creditor who is in a Situation to adjudge to carry on the Affairs of Sale to its Conclusion, although deferred or shrouded by the original Pursuit.

XI. And, in order to be more celerity in time coming what Discharge is necessary to make an Adjunction official, be it enacted, That the producing a Signature in Exchequer, when the holding is of The Crown, or the executing a general Charge of Hauling against Superiors in the Market Cries of Edinburgh, and Port and Share of Loch, when the holding is of a Subject, and recording as Adjudice of the said Signature, or the said Charge is the Register of Adjudications of Adjunctions, shall be held in all time coming as the proper Discharge for the Purpose aforesaid.

* XII. And Whereas, by the Act before mentioned, in the Year One thousand six hundred and sixty six, entitled Act for declaring Newar Bankrupts, it is, inter alia, declared, "That all Dispositions, Heritable Bonds, or other Heritable Rights, whereupon Infirmitment may follow, granted by the foresaid Bankrupts, shall only be reckoned, as to the title of Bankrupts, to be of the Date of the Seisin lawfully taken thereon;" but it would be more expedient, that instead of the Date of the Seisin, the Date of recording the Seisin in the Register of Seisins and Rerewrits, should be taken as the Rule." Be it hereby enacted, That in all Questions upon the said Act, in the Year One thousand six hundred and sixty six, or this present Act, the Dispositions, Heritable Bonds or other Heritable Rights, whereupon Infirmitment may follow, shall in time coming be reckoned to be of the Date of the Registration of the Seisin lawfully taken thereon, without Prejudice to the Validity or Inevitability of the said Heritable Rights, in all other respects as formerly.

XIII. And be it enacted, That in all Questions upon the said Statutes, all Dispositions, Assignations and Venditions, which do not require Seisin, but to which Intimation or Delivery are requisite in order to render them complete as Transfers or as Securities, shall be reckoned to be of the Date of the Intimation, Delivery or other Act requisite for completing the same, without Prejudice to their Validity in other respects.

* XIV. And Whereas, by another Clause in the said Act One thousand six hundred and sixty six, it is declared, "That any Disposition, or other Rights that shall be granted hereafter, for Relief or Security of Debts to be contracted for the future, shall be of no force, as to any such Debts as shall be found to be contracted, after the Seisin or Infirmitment following on the said Disposition or Rights;" but it would tend not only to the Benefit of Commerce, but also of Agriculture and Manufacture, if Securities by Infirmitment for the Payment or Relief of future Balances arising upon Cash Accounts or Credits, or of Sums paid on such Cash Accounts or Credits, were made an Exception from the Rule laid down in the said second Clause." Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, possessor of Lands or other Heritable Subjects, and desiring to pledge the same in Security of any Sums paid or Balances arising or which may arise upon Cash Accounts or Credits, or by way of Relief to any Person or Persons who may become bound with him or them for the Payment of such Sums or Balances, although posterior to the Date of the Infirmitment, to grant Heritable Securities accordingly upon their said Lands or other Heritable Estates, containing Procuratory of Redemption and Precept of Seisin for inflicting any Bank or Bankers, or other Persons who shall agree to give them such Cash Accounts or Credits, or for inflicting such Persons as shall become Cautioners for them, or jointly bound with them in such Cash Accounts or Credits. Provided always, that the Principal and Interest which may become due upon the said Cash Accounts or Credits, shall be limited to a certain definite Sum, to be specified in the Security, the said definite Sum not exceeding the Amount of the Principal Sums and Three Years' Interest thereon, at the Rate of Five per Centum; and it is hereby declared, that it shall and may be lawful to the Person to whom any such Cash Account or Credit is granted, to operate upon the same, by drawing out and paying in such Sums from time to time as the Parties shall settle between themselves, and that the Seisins or Infirmitments taken upon the said Heritable Securities shall be equally valid and effectual, as if the whole Sums advanced upon the said Cash Account or Credit had been paid prior to the Date of the Seisin or Infirmitment taken thereon, and that any such Heritable Security shall remain and subsist to the Extent of the Sum limited, or any lesser Sum, until the Cash Account or Credit is finally closed, and the Balance

XV. And Whereas it is for the Interest of Commerce, that the Estates of those concerned in Trade and Manufactures, when they become unable to answer the Demands upon them, should be disposed of and distributed among their Creditors in the most expeditious manner, without abiding the ordinary Forms of Law;

Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person being a Merchant or Trader in Scotland, in Gross or by Retail, or a Banker, Broker or Underwriter, or a Manufacturer or Artificer, and in general any Person who, either for himself, or as Agent or Factor for others, seeks his Living by buying and selling, or by the Workmanship of Goods or Commodities, or by any of the foregoing Occupations, or holds a Share in any such Undertaking, shall be under legal Diligence by Horning and Capion against him for Debt, and shall either, in virtue thereof, be imprisoned, or retire to a Sanctuary, or fly or abscond for his personal Safety from such Diligence, or defend his Person by force, or being out of Scotland at the time, or not liable to be imprisoned by reason of Privilege or Personal Protection, shall be under Diligence by Charge of Horning attended with Arrestment executed of any Part of his Movable Estate or Effects, and not looked or discharged by the Debtor within Fifteen Days thereafter, or with Poindeing executed of any Part of his Movable, or Decree of Adjudication of any Part of his Heritable Estate for Payment or Security of Debt, in the Instance of any of his Creditors, it shall be lawful for any Creditor of the said Person, whose Debt shall amount to the Sum of One hundred Pounds Sterling, or any Two Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or any Three or more Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling or upwards, whether such Debts are liquidated by formal Vouchers, or filed upon open Account, at any time within Four Calendar Months of the last Stop of the said Diligence, to apply, by summary Petition to the Court of Session, for Sequestration of the said Debtor's Estate, Heritable and Movable, Real and Personal; and upon Production of the Grounds of Debt, or a Copy of the Account, signed by the Party to whom it is due, and a Deposition by the Creditor or Creditors at whose Instance the Application is made, taken before any Judge Ordinary, or Justice of the Peace, swearing to the Verity of the Debt or Debts, and also that they believe the Party against whom the Application is made to be a Merchant, or otherwise wish in one or other of the Descriptions aforesaid, and always identifying which Descriptions, the Court shall grant Warrant for citing the said Debtor, by delivering to him personally, or by leaving at his Dwelling House, a Copy of the said Petition; or if the said Debtor be forth of Scotland, by affixing Copies upon the Market Cross at Edinburgh, Perth and Stirling, and also leaving a Copy at the Dwelling House or House of Business in Scotland, last occupied by such Debtor, to appear in Court within the time specified in the Warrant of Citation, not being less than Six nor more than Forty Days from the Date of the Citation, to show cause why Sequestration should not be awarded; and at the time of granting such Warrant of Citation, the Court shall likewise, if desired, grant the usual Authority, at the Instance of the Petitioners, for receiving written Evidence of the said Steps of Diligence, and upon Production of such Evidence at the Day of Appearance, if the Debtor shall not appear either in Person, or by his Counsel or Agent, or, in appearing, shall not instantly pay or produce written Evidence of the Debt or Debts being insisted upon which the Diligence proceeded, and also pay or satisfy the Debt or Debts due to the Petitioners or Petitioners, or to any other Creditor or Creditors who may have appeared and concurred in the Application, or show other reasonable Cause why the Sequestration should not proceed further, the Court shall immediately award Sequestration of the said Debtor's whole Estate and Effects, Heritable and Movable, Real and Personal, for the Benefit of his whole just and lawful Creditors: declaring always that it shall not be a sufficient Ground for awarding Sequestration under this Act that the Debtor is a Holder of Stock in any of the Public or National Funds, or of India Stock, or of Stock in any of the Banks established by Public Authority, or in any Insurance Company against Fire, or in the Perth and Clyde Navigation Company, or other inland Navigation Company, or the Scotch Fisheries, or that he is a Common Labourer or Workman for Hire, unless such Person shall be otherwise ipse facto under one or other of the foregoing Descriptions; and that no Landholder or Tenant of Land shall as such be liable to have his Estate sequestrated, even although he deal in Cattle or Grain, unless he shall have ipse facto the Description of a Trader in these Articles, gaining or seeking to gain his Livelihood, or a material Part thereof, by dealing in Cattle not the Produce of, nor grazed upon, or made use of in the Labour of his Farm, or in Grain not produced thereon.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Court shall, by the same Decree which awards the Sequestration, make an Order upon the Creditors to meet upon a certain Day and Hour, being not more than Three Weeks from that Date, and in such manner as circumstances may permit, in order to examine Interim Factors, if they think fit to appoint any, on failing where doing so, to decide the Interim Care and Custody of the Effects upon the Sheriff Clerk of the County where the Bankrupt carried on his Business; and the Court shall, by the same Decree, make so other Order upon the Creditors to meet upon a certain Day and Hour, to be named by the Court in the said Decree, being not more than Four Weeks, and less than Two Weeks from the Day of such First Meeting, for the Purpose of naming a Trustee, in whose Favour the said Estate shall be sold as hereinafter mentioned; the said Meetings to be at a convenient Place, either where the Bankrupt resides, or where his Business is or was last carried on, or as near it as possible, the Place being also specified; which Decree the Petitioning Creditor or Creditors shall forthwith cause to be advertised in the Paper called The Edinburgh Gazette, and also in The London Gazette, elsewhere the whole Proceedings at these Meetings to be null and void; and the Court shall at the same time grant Commission to any resident Magistrate of the Burgh, onto the Sheriff Depute or Subordinate of the County where the Meeting is to be held, or failing them any Justice of the Peace of the County, to attend the said First Meeting of Creditors, and to receive their Grounds of Debt, with the Oaths of Verity thereon after matured, and to sign the Minutes of the Creditors ditions along with the Prefix chosen by them; and all Questions at this Meeting shall be determined by a Majority of the Creditors in Value or Extent of Debt (subject however to the Explanation after mentioned), appearing at the said Meeting by themselves, or others authorized by them, and whose Grounds of Debt and Claims thereon are produced; and it shall be in the Power of the Sheriff Depoite or Solicitor, upon Cause shown by any of the Creditors, at any time after the Sequelence, and before the Meeting for the Choice of the Factor, to seal up, and cause to be put under safe Custody, the Books and Papers of the Bankrupt, and to lock up his or her Shop, Warehouse or other Repositories, and to keep the Keys thereof till a Factor is named, or the Custody and Care devolved upon the Sheriff Clerk, subject in the mean time to such Orders and Directions as either the Court of Session or the Sheriff may think proper to give, or the Application of any Party concerned, for the Performance of the Effects.

XVII. And be it enacted, that the said Factor or Sheriff Clerk, chosen as Interim Manager, shall be entitled to take Possession of the Bankrupt's whole Estate and Effects, and of the Bills, Notes and whole other Vouchers, Title Deeds and Instructions of his Estate, and also of his Books and Papers; and the Bankrupt shall, if required by him, or by the Creditors, grant Powers of Attorney, or other Deeds, which may be deemed necessary or proper for the Recovery of the Estate and Effects situate in Foreign Parts, under the Pain of fraudulent Bankruptcy, and of being deprived of all Benefit from this Statute; and the Factor shall lodge all Moneys received by him in such Bank, or with such Banking Company, as the Creditors present at the Meeting at which he shall have been chosen shall appoint, and failing such Appointment, in the Royal Bank or Bank of Scotland, or the Bank of the British Linen Company, at such Interest as can be procured for the same, upon an Account to be opened in the Name of the Sequestrated Estate, and the said Factor, if required, shall find Security for his Intromissions to such Extent as the said Majority shall think reasonable, he, or failing him the Sheriff Clerk, being always entitled to a Notification for Twelve, to be fixed by a Majority of the Creditors in Value, assembled at any General Meeting, subject to the Modification of the Court of Session; and the said Factor or Sheriff Clerk shall nominate the Minutes of the Meeting at which he is appointed in a Book of Statutes properly authenticated, which shall be kept by him as his Warrant for acting; and the Principal Minutes of the said Meeting, being signed by the Magistrate and by the Prefix of the Meeting, and by the said Factor or Sheriff Clerk, shall be transmitted by them to the Clerk of the Sequestration, to be kept among the Records of the Court of Session.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Merchant or other Person indebted as above, and not within the Exceptions, whether Diligence has been executed against him or not, shall make a joint Application to the Court of Session along with any Creditor whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of One hundred Pounds Sterling, or any Two Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or any Three or more Creditors whose Debts shall amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling or upwards, whether such Debts be liquidated, or stand upon open Account, and Oath being made as above to the Verity of their Debts, and the Parties or their Agent also making Oath to their Knowledge or Belief, of the Debtor's being within one or other of the Descriptions, and specifying which Description, and not within the Exceptions aforesaid, the Court is hereby authorized and required to award Sequestration of the Debtor's Estate, Heritable and Moveable, Real and Personal, and the Procedure shall go on as before directed.

XIX. And be it enacted, That on Sequestration shall be awarded against any Person having an Estate or Effects in Scotland, who at the time of the Application does not either reside, or has a Dwelling House or House of Business there, or at least had such Residence or Dwelling House or House of Business within a Year previous to the Application, unless the Debtor himself or those legally authorized to act for him, appear to the Application.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Estates of all Copartnerships carrying on Business under any of the Descriptions or Descriptions above set forth, and not within the Exceptions, may be sequestrated upon the Application either of those entitled to act for them, with Consent of any Creditor of such Partnership whose Debt amounts to the Sum of One hundred Pounds Sterling, or any Two Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, or any Three or more Creditors whose Debts amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling or upwards, or at the Application of such Creditor or Creditors themselves, whose Debts are to the Account already mentioned; in which last case it must appear that Diligence has been done against one or more of the Partners for Payment of a Partnership Debt, in the same way and manner as is before required to found an Application against Individuals; and in either case the Procedure hereby directed with regard to individual Debtors shall be followed set, and it shall be sufficient to cite the Partnerships, by leaving a Copy at the House or Shop where their Business is or was carried on, or where any of their acting Partners reside; and if the said House and Shop be shut up or deserted by them, a Copy shall also be affixed at the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and Perth and Shore of Leith.

XXI. And Whereas it is often attended with great Inconvenience that latent Partners of a Company do not come forward, but remain unknown when the Sequestration of a Company's Estate is awarded; it is hereby enacted, That any Partner of a Company whose Name does not appear as such in the Books of the Company, or who shall not come forward and acknowledge himself as a Partner, on or before the Day appointed for the Full Examination of the Bankrupt Partners, or any of them, such Person shall not be entitled to any of the Benefits or Privileges of this Act, in case it shall afterwards be discovered that he was truly a Partner in that Concern, unless he can make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Court, that this Omission proceeded entirely from innocent Mistake or Ignorance of the Proceedings, or from a reasonable Misconception of his Liability as a Partner, and shall then follow out all necessary Steps under the Direction of the Court for remedying as far as possible the Loss and Inconvenience thence arising.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the Party applying for the Sequestration, whether the Creditor or Creditors alone, or the Bankrupt with Concurrence of a Creditor or Creditors, shall cause the Petition of Sequestration, and the First Deliverance thereon, to be recorded in the general Register of Judicature, within Fifteen Days after the said Deliverance is pronounced, and the same shall, from the Date of the Deliverance, be held equivalent to an Inhibition, and to a Citation in an Adjudication against the Debtor and his Property for Sequestration of the whole Creditors, in case the Sequestration is finally awarded; but the Proceedings shall be of no Effect as an Inhibition, or as a Citation or as an Adjudication, if such Registrations be omitted; and it shall not be in the Power of the Bankrupt, after Sequestration is awarded, to stop Proceedings by paying off the Debt on which the Diligence and Petition did proceed; and in case of any undue Conduct or Neglect in these Particulars, or with regard to publishing the Advertisements before directed, whereby other Creditors may sustain a Loss, the Petitioning Creditor or Creditors, and those suing for them, shall be liable in all Damages arising from such undue Conduct or Omission: Providing always, that if the Debtor against whom Sequestration has been awarded without his own Concurrence, or if any Creditor, who has not concurred in or consented to the Application, shall apprehend that the Party against whom it is awarded does not come within the Description before given, or falls under any of the Exceptions thereto, or that there is any other good Ground for recalling the Sequestration, and annulling the whole Proceedings, such Debtor or Creditor shall be at Liberty, at any time within Sixty Days after Sequestration is awarded, to apply to the Court of Session, setting forth the Grounds upon which the Sequestration ought to be recalled; and this Petition being intimated to the Party or Parties at whose Instance the Sequestration was obtained, or their known Agent, and a reasonable time given to make Answer thereon, and to adduce the necessary Proofs on either Side, the Court shall determine upon the same, and either recall or confirm the Sequestration, as the Justice of the case may require; but in the mean time, until this Matter is finally determined, the Proceedings under the Sequestration shall go on as if no such Application had been made.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That at the General Meeting for choosing a Trustee, the Interim Factor or Sheriff Clerk shall exhibit the Book of Sequestration containing the Minute of his Appointment, together with a State of his Interventions, and the Books and Papers in his Possession, which State shall be engrossed in the said Book of Sequestration, and the Majority of Creditors in Value or Extent of Debt present at this Meeting shall determine who is to be Trustee; but no Creditor shall be entitled to a Vote at this or any future Meeting, who has not, either then or formerly, exhibited not only an Oath of Verity as to his Debt, but also the Goods or Vouchers thereof; and at the said or any other Meeting it shall be lawful for Agents or Attorneys having Commission, either general or special, from any of the Creditors, to appear and vote in all Matters wherein their Constituents themselves, if present, might have voted; and the Creditors may choose Two or more Trustees to act in Sequestration, one failing another by Death, Refrigration or Removal, but only one Trustee shall act at a time; and in no case shall it be competent to the Creditors to appoint as Trustee, either the Bankrupt himself, or any Person who, with respect to him, is by the Law of Scotland held to be incompetent or confused; neither shall it be competent to the Creditors to appoint as a Trustee any Person whose Place of Residence shall be without the Jurisdiction of the Court of Session; and if any Person who has been elected a Trustee shall remain at any time for Three Calendar Months forth of Scotland, it shall be competent to the Creditors, at any General Meeting called for that Purpose by any of the Commissioners hereinafter mentioned, by Advertisement inserted in the Edinburgh Gazette, Fourteen Days before the said Meeting, to apply to the Court of Session for the Purpose of the Creditors being authorized to declare the Appointment of the said Trustee either superseded or at an End, and to appoint the Trustee next in Succession, or if there be no Trustee chosen to act in Succession, to choose a Trustee for the Purpose of managing the Affairs of the Bankrupt; and the Court shall thereupon, upon Cause shown, authorize the Creditors to make either an interim Appointment or such an Appointment of a Trustee as shall appear to be proper.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That no Person whose Claim upon the Bankrupt Estate is merely contingent, or depending upon an uncertain Condition, shall be entitled either to join in the Petition above mentioned for Sequestration, or to vote in the Choice of Factor or Trustee, or in the other Steps of Proceeding herein specified; and that any Creditor who holds a preferable Security or Lien upon the Debtor's Property, or has other Obligations bound with him, except where the Common Debtors in the last case is the principal or primary Obligatee, and liable to relieve the others, shall be obliged upon Oath to put a Value upon such Security or collateral Obligation, in as far as he may thereby be covered, and to deduct such Value from his Claim, and to give his Vote in all Matters respecting the Bankruptcy as Creditor only for the Balance, which Balance shall be specified in his Affidavit, without Prejudice to his asserting his Validation afterwards, and without Prejudice to the Amount of his Debt in other respects.

XXV. And be it enacted, That at the said Meeting for choosing a Trustee, the Bankrupt shall exhibit, or cause to be exhibited, a State of his Affairs, specifying the whole Estate and Effects Movable and Immovable, Real and Personal, wherever situated, belonging to him, and Debts due to him, including any Estate in Expectancy, which he may have as eventual Right to by Contract of Marriage, Estate or otherwise, and specifying also the Debts due by him, or Demands upon him, in as far as they are known to him, and also a Rental of his Lands, and an Inventory or List of his Books, Papers, Accounts, Bills, Notes and Tolls Deeds, or other Documents of his Estate, which State, Rental and Inventory shall be engrossed in the Sequestration Book, the same being duly authenticated by the Pricks of the Meeting, who shall deliver the said Book of Sequestration, and the Title Deeds of the Movable Estate, to the Trustee to be named, and shall deliver the other Papers to the Interim Factor or Sheriff Clerk, to be kept by him until the same are duly taken off his Hands by the Trustee, upon being discharged of his Interventions, and satisfied of all Demands which he has against the Estate for Advances of Money, Commission or Trouble.

XXVI. And

XXVI. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said Trustee shall have declared his Acceptance, and sworn Sincerely for his Intermittence and faithful Management, to the Extent required by the Majority of the Creditors in Value at the aforesaid Meeting, the Minutes of the said Meeting shall be reported to the Court of Session by the Trustee, a Copy of them being previously entered in the Indorsal Book; and if on good Objections made to the Trustee, his Nominations shall be confirmed, and he shall then have a Right to call for, and take into his Custody, all Books, Accounts, Vouchers of Debt, Securities and other Papers and Documents relative to the Estate or to the Affairs of the Bankrupt, and to account with and discharge the Interest Manager, and likewise to take such legal Steps as may be effectual for recovering the Possession of the Estate and Effects, wherever situated, he being always entitled to a reasonable Allowance or Commission for his Trouble, and be it enacted, That the Commissioners hereinafter mentioned, previous to such Division.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in case any Question shall arise as to the Election, either of the Interest Factor or of the Trustee, the same shall be reported to the Court of Session, and it shall be competent either to the Court at time of Session, or to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in time of Vacation, to decide in the most summary manner on the Merits of such Election.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in such case the unsuccessful Party claiming to have been elected Interest Factor or Trustee, shall pay the Expenses of the Proceeding; and no Part of the Expenses of either Party shall be paid out of the Bankrupt Estate; save and except in the case of the Sheriff Clerk, with Reference to whose Expenses the Court shall and may give such Directions, and make such Order as to those shall seem fit.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the Nominations of the Trustee being thus reported and approved of, the Court shall at the same time ordain the Bankrupt to execute and deliver, within a certain reasonable time to be specified in the Intercourse, a Disposition or other proper Deed or Deeds of Conveyance or Assignment, making over to the said Trustee or Trustees, in their Order, his whole Estate and Effects, Moveable and Immoveable, Real and Personal, wherever situated, and which shall specially describe and convey the Premises, in so far as they are known, or in so far as the Trustee or Trustees think it necessary, and be in such Form and Style as may effectually vest the Right in him, with full Powers of Recovery and Sale, for behoof of the Creditors; and if the Bankrupt shall, without reasonable Cause, neglect or refuse to obey such Order, the Court may punish him by Imprisonment; and in all Events, whether such Deed or Deeds be executed or not, it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said whole Estate and Effects, of whatever Kind, and wherever situated (in so far as may be consistent with the Laws of other Countries, where the Effects are out of Scotland), shall be deemed and held to be vested in the said Trustee or Trustees in Succession, for behoof of the Creditors; and the Court shall, in the Act or Order above mentioned, declare every Right, Title and Interest, which was formerly in the Bankrupt, to be now in the Trustee for the Purposes aforesaid, and particularly shall adjudge, declare and declare the whole Lands, and other Moveable Estate belonging to the Bankrupt, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and which, as far as known, shall be especially enumerated and described, to pertain and belong to the Trustee or Trustees in Succession, absolutely and irrevocably, to the end that the same may be held, loved and recovered, and converted into Money for Payment of the Creditors, which Adjudication, being in the Nature of an Adjudication in Implement, as well as for Payment or Security of Debt, shall be subject to no legal Reversion: Declaring always, that if any Part of the Bankrupt's Property happens to be entailed, or otherwise of a limited nature, the Conveyance to be executed by him, or the Decree of Adjudication to be obtained by the Trustee, shall only be understood to carry that Right and Interest in the Estate which the Bankrupt himself has, and can safely convey, and which his Creditors can validly attach.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the Trustee shall cause the Act or Order aforesaid, adjudging the Estate of the Bankrupt, to be recorded within Fifteen Days of the Date thereof in the Register of Abstractions of Adjudications, in the same manner and to the same effect that Abstractions of Adjudications must be recorded; and this being done, the Trustee shall be entitled, for behoof of the whole Creditors, to make in the same manner upon the Moveable Estate, as if it had been a Common Decree of Adjudication obtained, and rendered effectual at the Date of the first Deliverance on the Petition for Sequestration, concerning the whole Debts of the Bankrupt, Principal and Interest, as at that Period, and adjoining for Security or Payment thereof so as to make good with any prior effectual Adjudications within Year and Day of the same; and in that further capacity as a complete Attachment and Transfer of the Moveable or Personal Estate for behoof of all the Creditors, at the Date of the first Deliverance aforesaid, without the necessity of Intimation; and the said Disposition, Adjudication or Transfer, shall not be reducible upon any Ground of Law, nor struck at by any prior Inhibition; Saving always the Effect which such Inhibition may be entitled to in the ranking against Customhouse of Debt by the Bankrupt possessor to the Inhibition: And provided always, that the said Disposition or Adjudication of the Moveable Estate by the Act or Order of the Court, or any Adjudication in Name of the Factor or Interest Manager during the Dependence of a Judicial Sale, shall have no Effect upon any Question of Succession between the Heir and Executor of the Creditor.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That upon the said Disposition or Decree of Adjudication the Feudal Taxes requisite by the Law of Scotland to vest Moveable Property shall and may be made up, either in the Period of the Trustee, or in the Period of the Pardoner from him, in virtue of such Trustee's Conveyance, agreeably to the Forms of the Law of Scotland; and such Trustee succeeding a prior Trustee through Death, Resignation or Removal (unless inhibited at the first Nominations, in which case no other Form is necessary), shall be vested in the Right, either by Disposition from the former Trustee, or by Adjudication obtained by the new Trustee, on a summary Application to the Court of Session as before mentioned; and the Superior shall, if required, be obliged to enter the Trustee or Trustees, or Pardoner, in the same manner as he is directed by an Act made in the Twentieth Year [of His late Majesty's] Reign, for abolishing Ward Holdings; and

Bankrupt's

and if the Trustee shall afterwards discover any other Heritable Estate belonging to the Bankrupt, and which belonged to him at the Date of the first Deliverance aforesaid, the same shall, on an Application to the Court of Session by the Trustee, be added in manner before directed, and to the same Effect; and in case the Bankrupt's own Titles to any Part of the Estate Heritable or Moveable, Real or Personal, which belonged to him at that Period, or to which he had then succeeded as apparent Heir, were in his or otherwise, to any Predecessor, have not been so completed as to vest the Right properly in him, the Trustee shall take the most safe and eligible Method of completing the Bankrupt's Title in such way and manner as the Law requires, which Title shall accure to that already acquired by the Trustee, in the same way as if it had been completed prior to the Dispositions by the Bankrupt, or Adjudication against him; declaring that the Rules of Preference or Ranking between the Creditors of the Ancestor and those of the Heir by the Law of Scotland, are not meant to be altered by any thing contained in this Act.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That within Eight Days after the Appointment of the Trustee is confirmed by the Court of Session, he shall apply to the Sheriff of the County where the Debtor resides, or where his Bankrupt was carried on, who is hereby authorized and required to cause one Day, not being less than Fourteen Days, nor more than Three Weeks from the Date of the Application, and another Day, being not less than Fourteen Days, nor more than Three Weeks, after the First Day is named, for the Public Examination of the Bankrupt upon the State of his Affairs, and all circumstances relative thereto, in the Sheriff Court House of the District, or such other Place as the Sheriff shall think proper to appoint, a Fee of one Guinea each Sitting being allowed to the Sheriff Deputy or Substitutes who officiate; and the Trustee may also, if he finds it necessary for the Purpose of obtaining a full Discovery of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, wish for an Examination of his Wife, and others of his Family, or connected with his Bankrupt, upon all proper Interrogatories, which Examinations are to be taken upon Oath (if required) before the Sheriff, at one or other of the said Days, or upon any intermediate Day; and after the said Days are fixed, the Trustee shall immediately publish an Advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette, and in the London Gazette, intimating to the Creditors his Appointment as Trustee on the Bankrupt Estate, the Two Days fixed for the Examinations of the Bankrupt, and that on the Tenth lawful Day immediately succeeding the last of these Examinations, a Meeting of the Creditors is to be held at the same Place, and requiring the Creditors to produce, in the Trustee's Hands, their Claims and Vouchers or Grounds of Debt, with their Oaths as the Verry thereof, at or previous to the said Meeting, if not already produced, and further intimating, that unless the said Productions are made between and a certain Day specified in the Advertisement, being Ten Months after the Date of the first Deliverance on the Petition for Sequestration, the Party neglecting shall have no Share in the said Distribution of the Debtor's Estate under the Exceptions afterwards provided for; and the Sheriff Deputy or Substitutes shall, if necessary, issue his Warrant for apprehending the Bankrupt, or any of his Family, or others connected with his Bankrupt, who are to be examined within his Jurisdiction, in order to force their Appearance at the Days of Examination, or if they be without his Jurisdiction, the Court of Session shall, on the Application of the Trustee, grant such Warrant for apprehending and bringing them before the Judge who is to take the Examinations as aforesaid; and if any of these Persons shall happen to be imprisoned or otherwise unable to attend at that time in the Place appointed for Examination, the Court of Session, or the Sheriff, may give the necessary Directions for examining them elsewhere, and it shall be competent for the Trustee to apply at any time for re-examining them, or for examining such Persons of the above Descriptions as have not already been examined, upon the Advertisement given in manner aforesaid; and the Court of Session shall likewise, in case it be necessary, grant a Prohibitory Decree to the Bankrupt on the Application of the Trustee, for such time as may be requisite for enabling him to attend the Days of Examination, or may grant Warrant to Messengers at Arms, or other Officers of the Law, to bring his Person out of Prison, or the Banquary, in order to attend such Meetings, and thereunto to carry him back.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That at the said Examinations the Bankrupt shall be allowed to make such Additions to or Alterations upon the State of his Affairs exhibited at the Meeting where the Trustee was chosen, as may have occurred to him since the said Meeting, and are necessary to be set forth to give a perfect View of his Affairs; and the said Additions and Alterations shall also be entered in the Book of Sequestration, with the whole Examinations of the Bankrupt, and subscribed by the Judge Examinator and by the Bankrupt, and likewise by the Trustee; and at the end of the Two Days appointed for his Examination, the Bankrupt shall take and subscribe the following Oath:

"I DO, in the Presence of Almighty God, and as I shall answer to God at the great Day of Judgment, solemnly swear, That the State of my Affairs, entered in this Book, contains a full and true Account of all the Debts of whatever Nature due to me, and of all my Estate and Effects, Heritable and Moveable, Real or Personal (the necessary Wearing Apparel of myself, my Wife, and Family excepted) as well as of all Claims which I am entitled to make against any Person or Persons whatsoever, and of all Estate in Experience, or Means of whatever kind, which I have so eventual Right to by Contract of Marriage, Deed of Bond, or otherwise, to the best of my Knowledge; and that the said State likewise contains a full and true Account of all Debts due by me, or Demands upon me, so far as I know or can remember; and that I have delivered up the whole Books, Documents, Accounts and Papers of every kind belonging to me, which in any way relate to my Affairs; and which were in my Possession or under my Power, and have made a full Declaration of every Particular relating to my Affairs; and further I swear, that I shall forthwith reveal all and every other Circumstance or Particular relative to my Affairs, or which may tend to increase or diminish my Estate, or in which any Creditors may be interested directly or indirectly, which may at any time hereafter come to my Knowledge.

So help me GOD."

And

And if the Person then called upon is a Copartner with others, and examined respecting the Partnership Affairs, the Words of the said Oath shall only be varied by the Judge as to make it applicable to the case; which Oath being assented to the Proceedings in the Book of Indorsement, shall also be subscribed by the Sheriff Deputy or Substitutes; and if the Bankrupt be one of the People called Quakers, it shall be sufficient to take his solemn Affirmation upon the Matres contained in the said Oath, and likewise in all other cases where an Oath is required by this Statute; and all Persons convicted of taking the above Oath or Affirmation falsely, shall be held as guilty of Perjury, and of fraudulent Bankruptcy, and punished accordingly, and for ever rendered incapable of holding any Office of Public Trust or Emolument; declaring also, that if the Bankrupt shall wilfully fail to exhibit a true State of his Affairs, or to make Oath in the Terms above specified, or to make a complete Surrender, he shall be considered as a fraudulent Bankrupt, and punished accordingly, and rendered ever after incapable of holding any Office of Public Trust or Emolument; and in either case shall forfeit every Benefit or Privilege arising from this present Act, and be accounted infamous, and incapable of giving Evidence in any Court of Justice, or of sitting or acting on any Assize or Jury.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Creditors assembled at a Meeting to be held Fourteen Days after the last Examination of the Bankrupt, or on the first lawful Day after Expiration of the said Fourteen Days, shall come into the State of the Bankrupt's Affairs, and into the Proceedings which till then have been held, and shall give Directions to the Trustee for the Recovery and Disposal of the Bankrupt's Estate, and the Trustee shall be obliged to follow the Directions and Rules prescribed by a Majority in Value of the Creditors assembled at this Meeting, or at any After Meeting, called for the Purpose, as after directed; and at the said Meeting, after the last Examination, the Majority in Value of Creditors present shall also name any Three of the Creditors as Commissioners for the Purpose of auditing the Trustee's Accounts, sending his Commission, concerning with him in Submissions and Compromises, and giving their Advice and Assistance to him in any other Matters relative to the Management of the Bankrupt or Trust Estate, subject always to the Control of General Meetings; and in case of any Dispute about the Election of these Commissioners, the same shall be reported to and lastly decided by the Court of Session or Lord Ordinary on the Bills, in the manner before directed as to the Election of Intervenor Factor and Trustee.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners to meet at any time they may think fit, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Situation of the Bankrupt Estate, and of examining the Acts and Transactions of the Trustee, and to make such Reports as they or any One of them may think proper to make from time to time, to a General Meeting of the Creditors which they or any One of them may call by Advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette, upon Fourteen Days previous Notice.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That at such General Meetings held after the last Examination of the Bankrupt, there shall be exhibited a State of the Bankrupt's Estate made up by the Trustee, with an Estimate or Valuation of what he expects at the time it will produce, according to the bill of his Judgments, upon the Informations procured from the Bankrupt or otherwise, which State shall be entered in the Indorsement Book, and signed by the Prefex of the Meeting.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That a similar State and Estimate, or Valuation, shall be made out by the Trustee and exhibited to the Commissioners once in every Three Months thereafter, showing the Debts and Effects recovered, and their remaining outstanding at the time when each such State shall be made up; and every such State shall be entered in the Indorsement Book, and signed by the Commissioners, and when Notice of a Dividend is given, it shall also be notified in the Advertisement or Notice, that such State or States, as well as the State of the Ranking of the Creditors, are lying in the Hands of the Trustee for the Inspection of the Creditors.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the whole Estate and Effects of whatever Kind, belonging to the Bankrupt at the Period of the Sequestration, or the Production thereof, after paying all Charges, shall be a Fund of Debts among those who were his Creditors prior to the Date of the First Divulgence aforesaid, and those also, regard being had to Preferences claimed by Secrecitors, or by Diligence, before the said Divulgence, and not expressly set aside by this Act, but to no other Classes of Preferors; and all Payments made by the Debtor to any of his Creditors after the Date aforesaid, shall be void and null and of no effect to the Receiver in the Event of a Sequestration taking place, and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover the Money so paid as Part of the Bankrupt's Estate; and all Transactions of the Bankrupt subsequent to the said Date, from which any Prejudice may arise to the Creditors, shall be null and void; declaring always, that nothing herein contained shall oblige a bona fide Purchaser of any Part of the Movable Effects from the Bankrupt, while in actual Possession, and for a Price truly paid, to restore the Effects so purchased, nor the Debtor of a Bankrupt who has paid his Debt to him, bona fide, before he knew of the Bankruptcy, to pay it a second time to the Trustee.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That if posterior to the Sequestration, any Estate or Effects shall devolve upon the Bankrupt, either in the way of Succession, or otherwise, he shall be obliged, immediately when such Event happens, to make a full Discovery thereof to the Trustee, and shall at all times, when required by the Trustee, declare upon Oath before the Judge Ordinary, or any Magistrate or Justice of Peace, whether any such Estate or Effects have come to or devolved upon him, in order that the Trustee may have an Opportunity of taking such Steps as are necessary or proper for the Interest of his Creditors, and the Trustee shall likewise give Notice thereof to the Creditors, either at the next General Meeting, or by advertising a Meeting for the Purpose.

XL. And be it enacted, That no Arrestment of the Bankrupt's Effects made at any time within Sixty Days before the Date of the first Divulgence or the Period for Sequestration, shall give a Preference to the arresting Creditor in the Event of Sequestration taking place, but that in every such case the Effects arrested shall be made forthcoming to the Trustee; and in case they have been actually recovered by the arresting Creditor, the Trustee

Herritable Property of Estates to be disposed of

XLI. And be it enacted, That if any Part of the sequestrated Estate consists of Land or other Heritable Subjects, it shall be optional to a Majority of Creditors in Value to determine, at the Meeting aforesaid, held after the first Execution of the Bankrupt, or any other Meeting advertised for the Purpose whether the Trustee is to bring the said Heritable Estate to judicial Sale before the Court of Session, or to dispose thereof by voluntary Public Sale; and if the latter Mode is adopted, the Sale made after such Advertisement, and at such upset Price, and upon such Articles and Conditions as shall be fixed by a Majority of the said Commissioners, shall be valid and effectual, with and under the Burden of all Real Securities or other Liens upon the Estate, in so far as the same are preferable to the Disposition or Decree vesting the said Estate in the Trustee, but which Burden shall go no further than to the Extent of the Price; and the Purchaser shall have no Concern with the Application of the Price after Satisfaction of the preferable Securities aforesaid; and if a Majority of Creditors in Value determine, for a judicial Sale, the Trustee shall be obliged forthwith to proceed in the same, and shall be entitled to carry it out as to a Part of the Estate, without including the Whole, and without any other Proof of Bankruptcy than the Act of Sequestration; and it shall be enough to call the Bankrupt himself, and his Real Creditors in Possession, upon a Citation of Fifteen Days, whether they are within the Kingdom or not, and the said Creditors shall be defended with: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall bar the Right which any Real Creditor may have by the Law, as to a Fund at present, to bring his Debtor's Estate to a judicial Sale at his own Instance, unless such Sale has been previously brought at the Instance of the Trustee, or unless a Majority of the Creditors in Value shall have previously determined upon a voluntary Sale; and in the Event of the Estate being sold by judicial Sale, the Balance of the Price, if there be any, after satisfying the preferable Securities aforesaid, shall be paid into the Hands of the Trustee, as a Part of the Fund of Dividends to be made by him among the Creditors in general, the Purchaser being always entitled, upon making full Payment of the Price, whether the Lands have been sold in the one way or in the other, to a Discharge from the Trustee, which shall have the Effect completely to discharge the Subject, acquired; and further, the Creditors shall be entitled to draw their Shares of the Price in virtue of the Disposition and Adjudication before mentioned, without the Necessity of any other Adjudication; and no other Adjudication led or made effectual after the Date of the first Discharge aforesaid, shall have any Effect in Competition with the Right of the Creditors under the Sequestration: Provided always, that where Heritable Property belonging to the Bankrupt, after having been duly advertised for Sale, shall have been Three Times exposed to judicial or public Sale without Effect, it shall be competent to the Trustee, with Consent of a Majority of the Commissioners, and with the Approbation of a General Meeting of the Creditors called for the Purpose, to sell the said Heritable Property by private Sale, provided the Price at which it shall be sold shall not be less than the last upset Price at which it had been exposed to public Sale without Effect.

Proviso.

No Adjudication competent after Sequestration.

Money to be received by Trustee & go into Bank.

XLI. And be it enacted, That the Trustee shall be obliged to lodge all Money he receives in such Bank, or with such Banking Company, as Four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value at any General Meeting shall appoint, and taking such Appointment, in the Royal Bank or Bank of Scotland, or in the Bank of the British Linen Company, upon an Account to be opened in the Name of the sequestrated Estate, at such Interest as can be procured for the same, and never to retain in his own Hands above the Sum of Fifty Pounds Sterling for the Space of Ten Days, otherwise to be liable to the Creditors for Twenty per Centum per Annum on whatever exceeds the Sum of Fifty Pounds Sterling, in the Name of Interest and Damages; and it shall be competent to the said Commissioners, or to any One of them, at any time when they shall think proper, to compare the Sums so lodged from time to time by the Trustee, with the Sums received by him, and to examine the Sums drawn by him from such Bank, and disbursed by him in Payment for or on Account of the Bankrupt Estate; and the said Commissioners are hereby required, at the time when they audit the Accounts of the Trustee in every such audit, to cause an Entry to be made in the Bankers Books, certifying that they have made such Comparison and Examination, and whether they have found the Money received by the Trustee regularly and duly lodged by him in the manner herein directed, and whether the same has been duly drawn out and disbursed on Account of the Bankrupt Estate; and in every case where it shall appear that the Money received by the Trustee shall not have been regularly and duly lodged by him in the manner herein directed, the Com-

creditors are hereby required to make a summary Application to the Court to compel the Trustee to pay at the Rate of Twenty Pounds per Centum per Annum upon every Sum above Fifty Pounds Sterling, at any time returned by him in his Hands, beyond the Space of Ten Days, which Money so recovered shall be lodged in the Bank or Banking Company, with whom an Account shall have been opened as aforesaid for the aforesaid Estate.

XIIIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Bank or Banking Company, with whom Money belonging to a Sequestrated Estate shall be lodged, either by the Interim Factor or Trustee, shall not be one in which such Interim Factor or Trustee shall be an acting Partner, Manager or Cashier.

XLV. And be it enacted, That the Trustee shall make the Productions made to him of the Claims of the several Creditors, and their Vouchers, or Grounds of Debt, and certified Accounts, with the Oaths of Verity upon the said Claims, and make a Minute or Entry thereof, and of the Date of Production, in the Book of Solvent, but he shall return the Vouchers or Grounds of Debt, if referred, to the Claimant or his Agent, and he shall be obliged to keep a regular Book of Accounts with the Bankrupt's Estate, and to make the same patent at all times to any of the Creditors, or their Agents, or to any of the said Commissioners who desire to see the same, and within Ten Days after the Expiration of Ten Calendar Months from the Date of the First Divulgence on the Petition for Sequestration, the Commissioners, or a Majority of them, shall send the Trustee's Accounts, and, by a Minute under their Hands, to the Book of Solvent, shall ascertain the Sum to be allowed the Trustee in Name of Commission, and likewise the said Proceeds of the Estate recovered, at the Expiration of the said Ten Months, which, after making a reasonable Deduction for contingent Expenses, shall be considered as belonging to the Creditors who have produced their Claims and Grounds of Debt, and Oaths of Verity, prior to the Date of the said Minute; and the Trustee shall be obliged, within the Space of One Calendar Month after the Expiration of the said Ten Months, to make up a State of the Debts entered as before to a Share of the said First Dividend, calculating Interest on each up to the Date of the First Divulgence on the Petition for Sequestration, with a Scheme or List apportioning the Fund of Division among them, with the Deduction already mentioned, according to their due Order of Ranking; and the Trustee shall also, at the same time, make up a State of the Funds belonging to the Bankrupt's Estate, and of the Money remaining in Bank, after Deduction of the Sum to be divided, which Scheme and State shall be open for the Inspection of the Creditors, or their Agents, in the Trustee's Hands, for the Space of One Month longer, at the usual Place where the Trustee's Business is carried on; and on the first lawful Day after the Expiration of One complete Year from the Date of the First Divulgence on the Petition for Sequestration, the Dividend shall be paid, and the Trustee shall give One Month's previous Notice thereof, by Advertisement in the Newspaper aforesaid; and by putting into the Post Office of the Place where he resides, printed Notices addressed to each Creditor claiming on the Estate, which Advertisement and printed Notice shall also bear, that the State and Scheme be in his Hands for the Inspection of the Creditors; and in case any of the Debts claimed upon shall be objected to as Whole or in Part, or their Place in the Ranking disputed, or any other Objection shall be made to the Scheme, as drawn out by the Trustee, a Share of the Fund, corresponding to the stated Amount of the Sum or Dividends to which the objected Articles may be entitled, and to any contingent Expenses which the Trustee, with Consent of a Majority of the Commissioners named by the Creditors as aforesaid, may think reasonable, shall be left in the Bank or Banking House where the Monies were deposited as aforesaid, till all such Questions are determined, either by Arbitration or Compromise, or by the Court of Session; and the said Court is hereby authorized and required to determine the same summarily, upon the Application of the Trustee, or of any other Party interested; and when any such Application is made, it shall be competent for any Creditor to produce his Book, and to have his Debt proved and confirmed, if necessary, without raising a separate Action for the Purpose; and if, in the Event of such Question, the full Sum, or any Part of it, shall remain unapplied to the Debt or Debts for which it was claimed, the same shall go into the Fund for subsequent Distribution; and the Shares of Creditors not called for at the time of Divulgence shall again be forthwith deposited as before, on their Rate, at such Interest as can be got for the same.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That within Ten Days after the Expiration of Sixteen Calendar Months from the Date of the First Divulgence on the Petition for Sequestration, the Commissioners, or the Majority of them, shall in like manner make the Trustee's Accounts with the Bankrupt's Estate, and by a Minute under their Hands in the Book of Solvent shall ascertain the Trustee's Commission; and the Trustee shall, within One Calendar Month after the said Sixteen Months, make up another Scheme of Division of the Sum recovered among the Creditors who shall then have produced their Interests and Oaths of Verity as before, with any Sums of the Bankrupt's Outstanding Funds, and of the Sum remaining in the Bank, if any be, which shall in like manner remain open for Inspection during One Month longer, at the Expiration whereof, or on the first lawful Day thereafter, the Dividend shall be paid, after the like previous Advertisement and printed Notice, being exactly at the Distance of Eighteen Calendar Months from the Date of the First Divulgence aforesaid; and if any of the Debts are objected to, the Procedure above mentioned shall be followed out, and the like Proceedings shall be followed out at similar Intervals of time thereafter, in the Effect that a Dividend may be made at the End of every Six Months, until the whole Funds of the Bankrupt are collected and distributed among his Creditors: Provided always, that after the Second Dividend is made, a Majority of the Creditors in Value, at any General Meeting called for the Purpose in manner before specified, may determine that future Dividends shall be made after a shorter Interval, and the Affairs of the Trust brought to a more speedy Close; and even before the Period assigned for the First Dividend as aforesaid, it shall be competent to Two Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value present at the Meeting after the last Diet of the Bankrupt's Examination, or at any After Meeting called for the Purpose, to direct the Trustee to apply for the Oath of Verity.

Authority of the Court of Session to make the First Dividend at an earlier Period than the End of the First Year, but not earlier than Six Months from the Date of the First Deliverance aforesaid, if upon Cause shown it shall be found expedient so to do, and also to accelerate the time for making the Second and other Dividends; and in case there be any Failure to make such Dividends in the manner hereby directed, it shall be competent for any One Creditor either to apply by Petition to the Court of Session to have the Trustee removed, or to require him to call a General Meeting of the Creditors to deliberate what Course shall be taken; and no Creditor shall draw any Share of the different Distributions, until his Grounds of Debt, and Oath as the Verity thereof, shall have been lodged with the Trustee previous to the respective times before mentioned when the Dividends are aforesaid by the Commissioners, but he shall be entitled in the next Distribution which happens after the Grounds of Debt are so produced and proved, to draw out of the first of the remaining Fund of the Bankrupt Estate, a Sum equal to the former Dividend or Dividends on his Debt, with Deduction of the Interest obtained on the said Dividends, which is to be retained by the Trustee for the common behoof, on account of the Creditors Delay, until there shall be sufficient Funds for the Payment of all the Creditors, in which Event the said Creditor shall also ultimately receive full Payment of his Debt; and in making up the said Schemes of Division, all Debts claimed on, which are entitled to a Preference by the Law of Scotland, set forth by this Act, shall be preferred accordingly.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That in all Questions upon this Act, Preference to whom the Debtor is under Obligation to pay Money at a certain future time, shall be accounted Creditors de jure for the Amount of the Money, discounting the Interest to the Term of Payment specified in the Obligation, and may prove their Debts in the same way as other Creditors, and shall be entitled to their respective Dividends accordingly.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That where a Claim is entered by a Creditor upon any Obligation, the Existence or Amount of which depends upon a Contingency which is still undetermined at the Period of lodging the Claim, the Trustee shall rank the Claimant as if the Condition were fulfilled; but the Dividend or Sum which the Claimant would be entitled to that case to draw, shall again be deposited in the Bank or Banking House appointed by the Creditors as before, or lost out as Heritable Security by the Trustee at the Sight of the Claimant, at such Rate of Interest as can be got for the same, and the Interest thereupon saving shall belong to the Creditors and be included in the Fund for their Dividends, until the Contingency upon which the Obligation depends shall be declared, when the Dividend to be paid shall belong to the Claimant, or the other Creditors, according to the Terms of the Obligation.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the Mode of settling Interest upon Claims shall be as follows; namely, the Principal Sum of each Debt on which Interest is chargeable, together with the bygone Interest due upon it, if there be any, shall be accumulated as at the Date of the said First Deliverance, for the Purpose of the Claimant being ranked and receiving his Share of the First Dividend corresponding to such accumulated Sum, along with the Principal Sums of such Debts as do not bear Interest, or from which there may be a Discount of Interest, as not being exigible till an after Period; and the Second and other Dividends shall in like manner be applied in Extension pro rata of the Sums then ranked, without counting Interest upon them, from the Date of the said First Deliverance; but if there be any Residue left of the aforesaid Funds, after discharging the whole of such Claims, the Creditors shall also be entitled to share out of such Residue any Arrear of Interest which may still be due to them, as well as the Date of the said First Deliverance, upon the respective Sums ranked and fixed as before mentioned.

L. And be it enacted, That so soon as any of the Creditors shall hold any preferable Security or Lien for Payment of his Debt, obtained prior to the Date of the First Deliverance on the Petition for Sequestration, and not set aside by this Act, upon any Part of the Bankrupt's Estate or Effects, the Amount or Value of such Security or Lien shall be deducted from his Debt, and he shall be only ranked and draw a Dividend for the Balance after such Deduction; and if any Dispute shall arise about the Value of such Security, the Creditor or Claimant shall upon Oath put a Value upon it, and the Trustee with Concurrence of a Majority of the Commissioners shall then have an Option either of taking an Affidavit to the Security for the Benefit of the Creditors at large, on Payment of the Value so estimated, out of the first of the Common Fund, or of referring the full Effect of it to the Creditor or Claimant himself; and in either case the Creditor or Claimant shall be ranked on the divisible Fund for the Balance of his Debt to be allowed along with the other Creditors, such Creditor or Claimant being in as Event entitled to draw more than his full Payment.

LI. And be it enacted, That in case any Creditor shall, after the First Deliverance on the Petition for Sequestration, obtain any legal or voluntary Preference or Payment on or out of any Estate or Subject belonging to the Bankrupt, directly or indirectly situated without the Jurisdiction of the Court, he shall be obliged to communicate and assign the same to the Trustee for behoof of the Creditors, before he can draw any Dividend out of the Fund in the Hands of the Trustee; and he shall in all Events be liable to an Action before the Court of Session, or the Justices of the Peace, to communicate the said Security or Payment in so far as the Jurisdiction of the Court can reach him; he being always entitled to Indemnification of his necessary Expenses, and to an Allowance of Five per Centum on the Sum recovered to the aforesaid Estate.

LII. And be it enacted, That the making Production of the Grounds of Debt or certified Account, with the Oath of Verity aforesaid, in the Hands of the Justice of the Peace, Sheriff Clerk or Trustee, or in the Court of Session, shall have the same Effect as to interrupting Prescription of every Kind, from the Period of such Production, as if a proper Action had been raised on the said Grounds of Debt against the Bankrupt, and against the Trustee.

LIII. And be it enacted, That in every such Oath the Creditor deposing shall specify every Security he holds for his Debt, whether on the Estate of the Debtor or other Obligants, and shall swear that he holds no other Security than is mentioned in his Oath, otherwise his Oath shall not be received by the Trustee as fullproof, nor his Claim be satisfied; and the Oaths of Verity upon Debts required by this Act may be taken before any Judge Ordinary or Justice of the Peace; and where any Creditor is out of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or is unable Age, or incapable to give an Oath, in all such cases an Oath of Creditorship by the Agent, Father, Guardian or other Manager, taken in the same manner, shall be sufficient; but where Oaths, either by the Party himself, or any other Person sitting for him, shall not supersede the Necessity of bringing legal Evidence of the Debt, if the same is objected to as unauthenticated, or where Evidence appears to be necessary to the circumstances of the case; and further declaring, that no Fee shall be paid by any Creditor to the Clerk of Court, or any Person whatsoever, for an Oath of Verity or Creditorship as to the Debt claimed being due, or for Production of the Receipt or Ground of Debt of any Creditor, unless the Debt claimed exceeds the Sum of Ten Pounds lawful Money of Great Britain.

LIV. And be it enacted, That in case any Creditor shall be guilty of false Swearing in any Oath to be admitted in pursuance of this Act, he shall be liable to a Prosecution at the Instance of a Trustee, or any of the Creditors, and of His Majesty's Advocates, for Perjury, and shall also forfeit to the Trustee, for Benefit of the Creditors, the whole Dividend on his Debt.

LV. And be it enacted, That the Trustee may, on Behalf of the Creditors at large, with Consent of a Majority of the Commissioners named as aforesaid, compound and transact, either by Submission or by private Compromise, all doubtful Claims which the Bankrupt may have against others, or all Debts due to the Estate out of other Bankrupt Subjects, and Release all doubtful Claims or Demands made against the Estate or Quotations of Ranking and Preference, and all contingent Debts and Annuities due to or by the Estate, the Value of which it may be expedient to settle in that manner, in order that a final Distribution may sooner take place.

LVI. And be it enacted, That if, at the Expiration of One Year and as Half from the Date of the Sequestration, any of the personal Effects of the Bankrupt, or any Debts, whether demandable or non-demandable, due to him, remain still unsatisfied, it shall be in the Power of Four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, convened at any General Meeting called for that Purpose, after One Advertisement Two Weeks previous to the Meeting, in the Edinburgh and London Gazette, to direct that such remaining Debts and Effects, and also any contingent or future Effects which the Creditors at large may have in Dividends deposited in Bank, or lent out as aforesaid, be sold off by Public Auction upon Two Months' previous Notice published in the Edinburgh and London Gazette, the Sale either to be in Whole or in Lots, as a Majority in Value of the Creditors shall direct.

LVII. And be it enacted, That the Surplus of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects that may remain after Payment of his Debts, comprising interest thereon as aforesaid, and the Charges of recovering the Estate, and distributing the same, shall be paid or made over to him, or to his Assignees or Successors.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That at or after the First General Meeting of the Creditors, and at any time before the Period assigned for the Second Dividend, it shall be competent for the Bankrupt, with Concurrence of the Interim Manager or Trustee, and of Four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, who have produced their Grounds of Debts, or certified Copies of those Accounts and Oaths of Verity as before mentioned, to apply to the Court of Session for perfect Protection from Diligence for such time as the Court shall think reasonable; and the same being once obtained may be renewed within the same Period, if applied for in Name of the Bankrupt, with Consent of the Trustee alone, unless any of the Creditors oppose it, in which case the Consent of Four Fifths in Number and Value shall be required as before. Providing always, that, from and after the Period assigned for the Second Dividend, the Power of granting Perfect Protection under this Statute shall cease, unless in a Case shewn to the Court, and Oath made, both by the Bankrupt and by the Trustee, that the Delays which have happened in making a final Distribution were unavoidable, and that every proper Step has been taken, and will continue on their Part to be taken, for winding up the Affairs of the Bankrupt, and bringing the Trust to a final Close; and also providing, that after the Period of the Third Dividend, or Two Years shall pass to the Full Dividend aforesaid, the Power of granting Perfect Protection under this Act shall entirely cease, without Prejudice to a final Discharge, either upon full Payment, or as hereafter directed.

LIX. And be it enacted, That in case at the Meeting held immediately after the Second Examination of the Bankrupt, or at any subsequent Meeting called by the Trustee with Consent of a Majority of the Commissioners, the Bankrupt or his Friends shall make a Proposal of Composition to the Creditors, and shall offer Satisfactions to the Satisfaction of Nine Tenths of them, both in Number and Value, assembled at the said Meeting, for such Composition specifies whole Debts, as the said Nine Tenths in Number and Value be assembled shall think just and reasonable, the Trustee shall appoint another Meeting for the Purpose of deciding upon such Offer or Proposal with or without Amendment, at the Distance of not less than Three Weeks thence, and of which Meeting he shall give Notice by advertising the same Twice in the said Newspaper, and by posting to the Post Office of the Place where he resides, printed Notices addressed to each of the Creditors dwelling on the frequented Highway a Force he at least before the proposed Meeting, specifying the Time and Place, and Purpose of the Meeting, but in the mean time he shall proceed in executing his Duty as Trustee, in the same way as if no such Proposal had been made; and if at the Meeting so appointed it shall be the Opinion of Nine Tenths of the Creditors therein ranked both in Number and Value, that the Offer should be accepted, or a Report on the Proceedings relative thereto shall be forthwith made up by the Trustee, and transmitted to the Clerk of the Supplication to the Court of Session, for the Approbation of the Court; and if the Court, upon considering said Report, and hearing any Objections that may be stated by opposing Creditors, shall find the Proposal not satisfactory, and that the same has been affected to, not only by Nine Tenths in Number and Value of the Creditors who attended by themselves, or others authorized by them, at the Meeting last mentioned, but by Nine Tenths of all the Creditors who have produced Credits of Debt or Interest, and Oaths of Verity, an Act or Order shall be pronounced to that Effect, and the Bond of Caution, which must be previously lodged in the Clerk's Hands, shall then be given up to the Trustee for Belief of the Creditors, the whole Expense attending the Sequestration being at the first time paid or provided for, to the Satisfaction of the Court, by the Bankrupt or his Friends: after which all Proceedings in the Sequestration shall cease, and the said Act or Order shall declare the Trustee exonerated, and the Bankrupt discharged, except as to the Payment of the Composition.

LX. And Whereas it has too frequently happened that Sequestrations have been obtained, and much Expense, Litigation and Delay, have been occasioned by collusive and inefficient Plans of Composition concerted between the Bankrupts and particular Creditors: Be it enacted, That every Proposal or Agreement for a Composition with individual Creditors, or to stop the Proceedings in the Sequestration, other than as hereby expressly authorized and allowed, shall be deemed illegal and void, and all Persons concerned in them shall be liable to be complained of to the Court of Session, at the Instance of any Party having Interest, and made answerable for all Consequences; and if it shall be proved that any Creditor has privately accepted of a Gratuity, or higher Composition, for giving his Concurrence to the Measures proposed on Behalf of the Bankrupt or his Friends, he shall forfeit his Debt, and be liable in Restitution of what he has so received, which shall go into the general Fund of Division; and the Bankrupt himself shall, if required, make Oath, that there has been no such Private Transaction or Compromise between him and any of the Creditors, and that he has used no undue Influence with any of them to obtain their Concurrence.

LXI. And be it enacted, That in case no Proposal of Composition is made in the manner before specified, or in case the same, when made, shall become inefficient, so other Proposal of a similar Nature shall be attended to by the Trustee, or be of any Effect, unless Proof is made that the same has been attended to by every Creditor without Exception; but after the Period assigned for the Second Dividend, it shall be lawful for the Bankrupt, with Concurrence of the Trustee and Four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, to apply to the Court of Session by Petition, praying that he may be held as fully discharged of all his Debts contracted before the Application for Sequestration; and this Petition being intimated upon the Wall, and in the Edinburgh Gazette and London Gazette, the Court shall, at the Distance of not less than Three Calendar Months thereafter, refuse the Confirmation thereof, and if no Objection is made, the Court may then pronounce an Act or Order in Terms of the Prayer of the Petition; but if Appearance is made by any of the Creditors, alleging that the Discharge ought not to be granted, on Account of the Bankrupt's not having made a fair Discovery and Surrender of his Estate, or that he has refused to grant a Disposition to the Trustee, as ordered by the Court, or has wilfully been absent from the Day of Examination, or has been guilty of any Collusion, or that his Bankruptcy did not arise from innocent Misfortune, or Losses in Business, but from culpable or undue Conduct, the Court shall judge of such Objections, and allow a Proof of them, if thought necessary, and shall either grant or refuse the Discharge, or assess such Conditions thereon as the Nature and Justice of the case may require, the Bankrupt always taking an Oath before the Court, or upon Commission before the Sheriff, before the Act can be extracted, that he has faithfully complied with all the Requisitions of the Statute, and has used no undue Influence, nor had Recourse to any Secret Compromise with his Creditors, or any of them, to obtain their Concurrence; and if it shall appear that there has been any such private Transaction between the Bankrupt and any of his Creditors, the same is hereby declared to be unlawful, and no Action shall be upon any Bill or other Discovery granted in consequence thereof, the Person taking such Oath being also liable in the Pains of Perjury, if convicted of having sworn falsely.

LXII. And be it enacted, That all Discharges granted to any Bankrupt under any preceding Act of Parliament, shall not be affected by any thing contained in this present Act.

LXIII. And Whereas it may be reasonable that the Bankrupt should have some Allowance out of the Estate for supporting himself and his Family while the Trustee may have Occasion for his Assistance: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Four Fifths of the Creditors in Number and Value, present at the Meeting after the last Diet of the Bankrupt's Examination, or at any other Meeting called for the Purpose, may authorize the Trustee, with Consent of the Commissioners, or any Two of them, to allow and pay to such Bankrupt, conforming to the Terms of this Act, from time to time as they shall think fit, such Sum or Sums or Money, out of the Proceeds of his Estate, as they shall think proper, towards the Subsistence and Support of himself and Family till the Period assigned for the Second Dividend, not exceeding Three Guineas per Week from the Date of the Sequestration to the Period aforesaid, and so as not to amount upon the Whole to more than Five Pounds per Creditor of the net Produce of the Estate: Provided always, that no such Allowance shall be given, if the Bankrupt has not kept, or shall not produce, such Book or Books as will enable the Creditors and Trustee to acquire a distinct Knowledge of his Affairs.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That in all cases under this Act, where the Creditors are required to be convened in Number, any Creditor whose Debt is below Twenty Pounds Sterling shall not be reckoned in Number, but the Debt due to each Creditor shall be computed in Value; and in the cases before mentioned of compensating with or discharging the Bankrupt, any Debt due to a Creditor who has a preferable Security or Lien upon the Bankrupt's Estate or Effects shall not be counted in the Value, but shall be held aside to the Extent of what may be ascertained as the Value of such Security or Lien, in the manner before directed, without Prejudice to his being counted as Number, if his whole Debt be not extinguished by such preferable Security or Lien, or to his being counted also in Value to the Extent of the Balance; and the same Rule shall be followed in the case of Partnership Debts claiming upon the Estates of Interested Partners.

LXV. And

LXV. And be it enacted, That the Solvent Book before mentioned shall contain a full Record of all Minutes of Meetings (which shall be subscribed by the Preses of such Meetings in the Solvent Book), Statutes of Associates, and Schemes of Division, and another Duplicate of these Minutes, Statutes and Schemes, shall be subscribed by the Trustee, and within Fourteen Days after the Lapse of One Year from the Date of the First Deliverance on the Petition for Sequestration, shall be transmitted to the Clerk to the Sequestration in the Court of Session, to be among the Records of the Court; and within Fourteen Days after the End of every succeeding Half Year till the Estate is finally divided, a similar Duplicate of the Proceedings in the said Book for the Half Year preceding shall be signed by the Trustee, and transmitted to the Clerk in the Sequestration, to be among the Records of the Court; and Extracts of these Writings, signed by One of the Principal Clerks of Session, shall bear Evidence in all Courts of Justice; and the said Book of Solvents, and the Bankrupt's Books and Papers, and the whole other Papers in the Trustee's Hands, shall at all times be made patent to any Creditor who desires to see the same.

Book of Solvents, &c., and Copy kept in Court of Session.

Book of Solvents, &c., patent to Creditors.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That all Applications under this Act, which are directed to be made to the Court of Session, shall be made to either Division thereof when the Court is sitting, or to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills at time of Vacation, or during any Recess of the Court, or when the Court is not sitting; and the Lord Ordinary on the Bills shall have the full Powers of the Court in ordering and following out the different Steps of Proceeding required by the Act while the Court is not sitting, excepting only that no Discharge shall be granted by the Lord Ordinary without the Authority of the Division of the Court to which he belongs.

App. within to Court when it is made.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Appeal shall be taken against any Order or Interlocutor of the Court of Session, or against any Order of the Lord Ordinary upon the Bills, in the Execution of this Act, it shall be lawful and competent to the said Court in time of Session, and the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in time of Vacation, or during any Recess, notwithstanding such Appeal, to make such Orders, and direct such Proceedings, as shall appear to be necessary for preventing the Estate of the Debtor from being embroiled, secreted, damaged or dissipated, while the Appeal is pending; and every Step may in the mean time be taken in the Recovery of the Bankrupt's Estate, and the Distribution thereof, that is not inconsistent or injurious to the interests which the Party appealing by the Appeal insists upon.

Court, &c., to make Interloc. on Bills in case of Appeals.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That when any Petition for Sequestration under the Authority of this Act is presented, it shall be competent for any other Creditor to concur therein, and to follow forth the same, even without the Consent, or after the Death of the Creditor or Creditors originally petitioning, and the Expenses delivered thereon shall be repaid by the Trustee out of the first Money that comes into his Hands; and if the Bankrupt shall happen to die after the Petition for Sequestration shall be presented, the Proceedings under this Act shall, notwithstanding, be carried on and followed out to their Conclusion, as if he were in life.

Other Creditors may concur Expenses paid out of Fund. Bankrupt dying before Sequestration presented.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Session to establish such Regulations respecting the Forms of Proceeding as shall appear to be most proper for carrying this Act into effectual Execution, according to the true Intent thereof, and to publish the same in any Act or Acts of Solvents, which shall be binding in so far as is consistent with this Act.

Court may make further Regulations.

LXX. And be it enacted, That in all cases under this Act, where any thing is directed to be done by the Sheriff Deputy or Substitute, or where any Motion is made of the Sheriff Clerk, or the Ward Clerk is used, it is hereby meant and intended that these Terms shall equally apply to the Stewart Deputy, or Substitute, or Stewart Clerk of any Sheriffdom in Scotland.

Sheriff and Stewart Clerk equally.
